Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-23213 Gail Ross: Dr Keith Nicholson from Mey, Security Specialist of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates Dr Keith Nicholson, who is from Mey, on being named Security Specialist of the Year at the 2020 UK Computing Digital Leaders Awards ceremony; understands that Keith is the founder of Cyber Security Scotland, and notes that the award was in recognition of his work in developing a new security standard framework that has now been adopted by the Scottish Government as a standard in cyber security, which all public bodies are being encouraged to follow.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*

S5M-23212 Dean Lockhart: Fife Art Exhibition 2020—That the Parliament commends all the artists who took part in the 2020 Fife Art Exhibition; notes that the theme for 2020 was coast and waters; understands that the artwork will be displayed in Rothes Halls Glenrothes from 3 October until 21 November 2020; notes that entries can only be viewed online, and hopes that everyone enjoys the artwork.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Murdo Fraser*

S5M-23211 Dean Lockhart: Lottery Funding for Castle Furniture Project—That the Parliament congratulates the Glenrothes-based Castle Furniture Project on being awarded a £10,000 grant from the National Lottery Community Fund to help people and families in crisis as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that the funding will be used to provide domestic appliances and household essentials to families, individuals and key workers, and congratulates staff on the award.

campaign featured the farmer and TV comedian, Jim Smith, and encouraged farmers, crofters and others involved in agriculture to make time on a regular basis to stay connected and look out for each other; acknowledges that the judges commended the campaign's "clear strategic thinking" and clever engagement of relatable industry figures with the aims of the campaign; believes that the #KeepTalking message remains vitally important for those in the agricultural sector and beyond in the months ahead, and hopes that the campaign's success will continue to help people to recognise the importance of looking after their mental health and ask for support if needed, and congratulates all of the staff at RSABI who have worked tirelessly on promoting and developing the #KeepTalking campaign to make sure that it reaches as wide an audience as possible, and makes a real difference in rural communities across the country.

S5M-23209 Angela Constance: West Lothian College Students Graduate at Home—That the Parliament congratulates all graduates of West Lothian College who achieved their qualification in 2020; commends the college for staging its first graduation ceremony to recognise and celebrate their achievements; congratulates Costica Darie (HNC Childhood Practice) who won the SQA Student of the Year award and the winners of faculty Student of the Year awards, Mark Taylor (HND Fitness, Health and Exercise), Michael Allan (HNC Events), Thomas Lawson (HNC Applied Sciences), Sarah Smillie (HNC Art) and Scott Smith (HNC Cyber Security), and wishes them every success for their future careers.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Miles Briggs*

S5M-23208 Alexander Stewart: Befriending Week 2020—That the Parliament welcomes Befriending Week 2020, which is celebrated annually from 1 to 7 November and is organised by Befriending Networks; notes that, as lockdown measures came into effect in March 2020, many people experienced loneliness and social isolation in ways they never had before; acknowledges that befriending organisations and volunteers rapidly responded to this growing need for connection; further acknowledges that these continuing measures have highlighted the detrimental effects of loneliness on health and wellbeing, as well as the importance of connection, community and kindness, making Befriending Week even more significant; considers that Befriending Week 2020 is an opportunity to raise awareness about the positive impact that befriending makes in communities and in people's lives; encourages befriendees, befrienders, staff members, organisations and communities to celebrate befriending; believes that this is also a time to share with the wider public what befriending is, who it is for, how to get involved and the ways in which organisations are tackling loneliness and social isolation through befriending, and commends everyone involved with befriending on their sterling work for the benefit and wellbeing of others.

S5M-23207 Patrick Harvie: Congratulations to the Children's Wood—That the Parliament welcomes the decision of Glasgow City Council to grant a community asset transfer of land in North Kelvin to the Children's Wood community organisation; understands that the Children's Wood will take a 25-year lease of the site, which it will maintain as a garden and open space for the benefit of the local community; congratulates all of those who campaigned over many years to bring the former playing grounds back into valued local amenity use under threat of inappropriate development for housing; believes this is a victory for community self-empowerment and is especially timely to support people's wellbeing through the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond, and wishes the Children's Wood every success in its future work with the local community.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-23206 Neil Findlay: Paul Lynas Memorial Group Wins BHF Heart Hero Award —That the Parliament congratulates the Paul Lynas Memorial Group on being honoured with a prestigious national charity award, the Fundraising in the Community accolade, at the British Heart Foundation (BHF) Heart Hero Awards in recognition of its efforts that have raised £43,000 in two-and-a-half years; acknowledges that it was set up as a tribute to Paul Lynas from Livingston, who passed away aged 37 following a sudden cardiac arrest, and believes that this is an excellent achievement by the Memorial Group for an excellent cause.

S5M-23205 Neil Findlay: Laurence Broadie Raises Money for Age Scotland—That the Parliament commends the fundraising efforts of Laurence Broadie who took part in Age Scotland's The Big Wheesht in September 2020; understands that Laurence had to stay silent until he raised £1,000 and only then was he allowed to speak again; notes that he said that anyone who knows him well knows that this was the ultimate challenge for him as he likes to talk, and believes that this was an excellent light-hearted initiative by Laurence to raise money for charity.

S5M-23204 Neil Findlay: Sharon Hales Helps the Community—That the Parliament commends Sharon Hales from East Calder on her efforts to help people in need in the community; understands that Sharon has set up and managed a temporary foodbank from her workplace and has distributed an average of 6,000 meals per week and has taken in huge donations, including 220,000 items of clothing; notes that she has been awarded the British Empire Medal in recognition of her excellent work, and believes that this is an excellent initiative by Sharon to help people in need in the community during this time.

S5M-23203 George Adam: Glasgow Airport, Airport of the Year for the Second Consecutive Year—That the Parliament congratulates Glasgow Airport on being named Airport of the Year at the Scottish Transport Awards for the second year in a row, after being shortlisted alongside Aberdeen International, which is also part of AGS Airports Ltd group, and Inverness; acknowledges the challenges 2020 has brought for the transport sector and recognises the incredible efforts and achievements of everyone working at the airport, despite the current climate; understands that, in addition to being Scotland's largest charter hub, Glasgow serves more Scottish destinations than any other airport and is a key component of Scotland's transport infrastructure, supporting over 30,000 jobs across the country and generating £1.44 billion (GVA) annually, and praises everyone involved in achieving this win and continuing to deliver high levels of customer service during what has been an incredibly challenging year.

S5M-23202 Jackie Baillie: Jagtar Singh Johal, Detained for Three Years—That the Parliament understands that Jagtar Singh Johal will have been detained for three years on 4 November 2020 by Indian authorities for a crime that he denies committing; notes that Mr Johal, who is a resident of Dumbarton, has been held in a prison in the New Delhi Punjab region without charge and trial; understands with concern reports that there are reasonable grounds to believe that Jagtar has been subjected to repeated outbreaks of police torture, including electric shocks, body separation techniques, death and immolation threats during his imprisonment; condemns reports that he was not given access to consulate support or a lawyer in the immediate days of his detention, or given an independent medical and psychological examination following the claims of torture; believes that no evidence has been presented against him in court and that little progress has been made with his trial since Jagtar was arrested in 2017; commends the peaceful protests held by Sikh people across Scotland that have been calling on the UK Government to take immediate action to support Jagtar and his family, and calls on the Scottish Government to raise his case with the Foreign Office, the Foreign Secretary and the Indian High Commissioner to urge them to do everything in their power to protect Jagtar and ensure that he receives a fair trial and is given the same treatment and support as any other detained British citizen.

S5M-23201 Mark McDonald: New Zealand's End of Life Choice Referendum—That the Parliament recognises the decision by the people of New Zealand to endorse the End of Life Choice Act 2019 in a binding referendum; notes that the law had support of both the Prime Minister, Jacinda Ardern, and leader of the opposition, Judith Collins; understands that the law is expected to come into effect in November 2021 and will afford people with a terminal illness that is likely to end their life within six months, and who are assessed as being able to make an informed decision, to be able to ask for assisted dying; believes that safeguards built into the legislation protect against people being considered eligible on the basis of age, disability or mental illness alone; understands that people who have a recognised terminal illness, and are able to make an informed decision, should have the right to request assisted dying as a means to enable dignity at the end of their life; welcomes New Zealand's decision to join what it sees as the growing number of nations that support dignity in dying for those who wish agency at the end of their life; understands that a recent BMA poll suggested that a majority of its members are now in favour of assisted dying, and hopes that legislation might be brought forward in the next session of the Parliament to enable Scotland to provide choice at the end of life.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Liam McArthur*, Richard Lyle*, John Finnie*

S5M-23200 Mark Ruskell: Welcoming Scottish Renewable Energy Festival 2020—That the Parliament welcomes the Scottish Renewable Energy Festival 2020 organised by Scottish Renewables, which celebrates the projects, people and places that are leading the shift to a clean energy future; appreciates that Scotland's renewable energy industry is generating the equivalent of 90% of the country's electricity demand from renewable sources; welcomes the role that renewable energy can play in supporting a green recovery, and values the contribution of the renewable energy community of businesses, government agencies, local authorities, community groups and charities that it considers have made Scotland a world leader in renewables.

S5M-23197 Jackie Baillie: Dumbarton Volunteer, Michael Quigley, Gets National Award from Cancer Research UK—That the Parliament recognises the outstanding performance and remarkable achievements of Michael Quigley, a volunteer at the Cancer Research UK shop in Dumbarton, who fundraises and volunteers for the charity; celebrates that his commitment and contributions at the Cancer Research UK shop have been rewarded by the annual award of The Flame of Hope; congratulates him on being named a Cancer Research UK Honorary Fellow after reaching 21 years' service for the charity; acknowledges that Michael Quigley is a key part of the team at the shop on Dumbarton's high street, which has contributed to raising a total of £3.8 million since it first opened in June 1992; praises Cancer Research UK for officially recognising Michael Quigley's performance and devotion to volunteering, and thanks Michael for everything that he does.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.
