followed by Ministerial Statement: COVID Vaccine

followed by Public Petitions Committee Debate: Improving Youth Football in Scotland

S5M-23361 Johann Lamont on behalf of the Public Petitions Committee: Improving Youth Football in Scotland—That the Parliament notes the conclusions and recommendations contained in the Public Petitions Committee's 2nd Report 2020 (Session 5), PE1319: Improving youth football in Scotland (SP Paper 763).

followed by Scottish Government Debate: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach

S5M-23416 John Swinney: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—That the Parliament agrees the measures set out by the Scottish Government on 17 November 2020 under its Coronavirus (COVID-19): Scotland's Strategic Framework, and notes that the regulations implementing these measures will be laid in Parliament.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S5M-23416.2 Donald Cameron: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—As an amendment to motion S5M-23416 in the name of John Swinney (Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach), insert at end “; urges the Scottish Government to publish its scientific evidence that justifies keeping local authority areas in Level 4 for a three-week period; further urges it to provide immediate clarification with respect to new travel restrictions and to detail what powers the police will have to enforce these restrictions, noting the potential for a disproportionate impact on rural communities; acknowledges the severe impact of new restrictions on retail and hospitality businesses, particularly in the weeks preceding the festive period; calls for appropriate business support to protect jobs through the winter period, especially for those businesses going into Level 4 restrictions; further calls on the Scottish Government to establish a Coronavirus Business Advisory Council, and calls on it to allow for a one-week adaptation period from the announcement and introduction of new restrictions.”

S5M-23416.3 Richard Leonard: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—As an amendment to motion S5M-23416 in the name of John Swinney (Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach), leave out from "and notes" to end and insert "on condition that the Scottish Government introduces a programme of mass testing and improves the operation of Test and Protect to contain the virus and prevent the need for further tighter restrictions, withdraws the regulation imposing a statutory travel ban and consults the Parliament on any future regulations."

S5M-23416.1 Patrick Harvie: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—As an amendment to motion S5M-23416 in the name of John Swinney (Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach), insert at end “; believes that these measures can only be fully effective if the test, trace, isolate, support system continues to improve; recognises that self-isolation poses significant challenges for many people, which the existing conditional self-isolation grant cannot fully meet, and calls on the Scottish Government to develop a comprehensive package of support for self-isolation to ensure that everyone who needs to is able to take this step to protect their community.”

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-23416 John Swinney: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—That the Parliament agrees the measures set out by the Scottish Government on 17 November 2020 under its Coronavirus (COVID-19): Scotland's Strategic Framework, and notes that the regulations implementing these measures will be laid in Parliament.

Supported by: Humza Yousaf*, Michael Matheson*, Aileen Campbell*

S5M-23416.3 Richard Leonard: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—As an amendment to motion S5M-23416 in the name of John Swinney (Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach), leave out from "and notes" to end and insert "on condition that the Scottish Government introduces a programme of mass testing and improves the operation of Test and Protect to contain the virus and prevent the need for further tighter restrictions, withdraws the regulation imposing a statutory travel ban and consults the Parliament on any future regulations."

Supported by: Colin Smyth*

S5M-23416.2 Donald Cameron: Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach—As an amendment to motion S5M-23416 in the name of John Swinney (Coronavirus: Scotland's Strategic Approach), insert at end " ; urges the Scottish Government to publish its scientific evidence that justifies keeping local authority areas in Level 4 for a three-week period; further urges it to provide immediate clarification with respect to new travel restrictions and to detail what powers the police will have to enforce these restrictions, noting the potential for a disproportionate impact on rural communities; acknowledges the severe impact of new restrictions on retail and hospitality businesses, particularly in the weeks preceding the festive period; calls for appropriate business support to protect jobs through the winter period, especially for those businesses going into Level 4 restrictions; further calls on the Scottish Government to establish a Coronavirus Business Advisory Council, and calls on it to allow for a one-week adaptation period from the announcement and introduction of new restrictions."

trace, isolate, support system continues to improve; recognises that self-isolation poses significant challenges for many people, which the existing conditional self-isolation grant cannot fully meet, and calls on the Scottish Government to develop a comprehensive package of support for self-isolation to ensure that everyone who needs to is able to take this step to protect their community."

S5M-23408 Ruth Maguire: Valuing the Third Sector—That the Parliament notes the findings set out in the Equalities and Human Rights Committee's 4th Report, 2019 (Session 5), Looking ahead to the Scottish Government's Draft Budget 2020-21: Valuing the Third Sector (SP Paper 614), which was published on 7 November 2019, and its letter to the Scottish Government published on 29 October 2020, which includes an update on its views on the impact of the pandemic on the third sector.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-23406 Mary Fee: International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women—That the Parliament recognises that 25 November 2020 is the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, with events continuing until 10 December; understands that, according to the UN, one in three women and girls experience physical or sexual violence in their lifetime, over 70% of human trafficking victims are women and girls, and that violence against women is as serious a cause of death and incapacity among women of reproductive age as cancer; further understands that young girls and older women, disabled women and girls, women who identify as lesbian, bisexual, transgender or intersex, migrants and refugees, indigenous women and ethnic minorities are particularly vulnerable; notes that this year's global theme is "Orange the World: Fund, Respond, Prevent, Collect!"; understands that, as a result of the global pandemic, the UN is hosting an online broadcast with guest speakers to commemorate the day, and notes the view that there should be a commitment to supporting the reduction of violence against all women in West Scotland and the rest of Scotland.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-23421 James Kelly: Glasgow Caledonian University Foundation's Common Good Campaign—That the Parliament recognises the profound and rapid impact that the pandemic has had on the lives of young people, especially those leaving education and about to enter the world of work; welcomes the work of the Glasgow Caledonian University Foundation in launching its Common Good Campaign; understands that the campaign, backed by Sir Alex Ferguson CBE, seeks to reach out to alumni and friends of the university to ask them to consider giving back financially or in-kind to support students in the three main areas in which they are being most affected, student hardship, mental health and wellbeing, and employability; commends this effort from the university foundation, and sees it as an exemplary response to the challenges arising from the pandemic.

S5M-23420 Joe FitzPatrick: Feed (Transfer of Functions) (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2020 [draft]—That the Health and Sport Committee recommends that the Feed (Transfer of Functions) (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2020 [draft] be approved.

S5M-23419 Fergus Ewing: Common Agricultural Policy (Less Favoured Area Support) (EU Exit) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2020 [draft]—That the Rural Economy and Connectivity Committee recommends that the Common Agricultural Policy (Less Favoured Area Support) (EU Exit) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2020 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Mairi Gougeon*

S5M-23418 Angela Constance: John and Maureen Imrie's 30 Years' Service as Foster Carers—That the Parliament congratulates Livingston couple John and Maureen Imrie on dedicating over 30 years of their lives to looking after young people in West Lothian; acknowledges their commitment in focusing on fostering sibling groups, ensuring that families are placed together where possible, and in choosing to care for teenagers and children with additional support needs; commends their actions in helping to change the lives of many young people for the better into adulthood, and sends John and Maureen its best wishes for the future.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Bob Doris*, Miles Briggs*, Stewart Stevenson*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*, Neil Findlay*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-23417 Angela Constance: Sandra Milburn from Livingston Dedicates 30 Years to Fostering—That the Parliament congratulates Sandra Milburn from Livingston on dedicating over 30 years to fostering children in West Lothian; acknowledges Sandra's commitment and dedication to what can be challenging as well as rewarding role; commends her for helping to change the lives of many young people through her support, care and compassion, and sends Sandra its best wishes for the future.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, David Torrance*, Miles Briggs*, Rona Mackay*, Richard Lyle*, Neil Findlay*

S5M-23415 Alexander Stewart: Resonate Together and Alloa Community Council—That the Parliament commends the Alloa-based group, Resonate Together, and Alloa Community Council on their sterling work for Remembrance; notes that the group provided poppy-making kits free of charge to the Community Council at the town's Friday market in November 2020; understands that these proved extremely useful to people looking to mark Remembrance Sunday by decorating their home; acknowledges that, in addition to distributing the poppy packs, the Community Council developed an online resource in the form of a directory of the names and addresses of the fallen from Alloa; acknowledges that it published the names on a spreadsheet that was shared with schools and other groups with the aim of preserving the memory of those who died for their country, and sends its thanks to Angela Watt of Resonate Together and the group's volunteers for making and distributing the poppy kits during this unusual year and to the Community Council chair, Reverend Jason Lingiah, for his and his colleagues' highly proactive work to preserve the memory of the service personnel from Clackmannanshire who paid the ultimate price in theatres of conflict across the world.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Brian Whittle*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liam Kerr*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Peter Chapman*, Richard Lyle*, Murdo Fraser*, Stuart McMillan*, Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-23414 Bob Doris: Deacon Jim Hamilton's 20 Years of Service to the Maryhill Community—That the Parliament congratulates Jim Hamilton, who is the Deacon at Maryhill Parish Church of Scotland, on his 20 years of service to the community; notes that Jim took up his post on 20 November 2000, having previously served as a Deacon at Garthamlock & Craigend Parish Church; thanks Jim for his incredible contribution, not just to the parish, but to the wider community of Maryhill, including his organisation of many events, fêtes and galas in the area; notes in particular his coordination of the Maryhill Activity Directory since 2001, which has now reached its eighth edition, of which 32,000 copies have been published and distributed, providing a comprehensive guide to the many activities and services, often volunteer-led, in and around Maryhill; acknowledges the role played by Jim in developing the People Make Maryhill awards evening, at which members of the community are recognised for the contribution they make to the area; notes that a virtual celebration to mark Jim's anniversary will be held on 19 November; looks forward to a suitable opportunity when circumstances allow for friends, family and the wider community to gather in person to thank Jim for all his service, and wishes him all the best for the future.

Supported by: Fulton MacGregor*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Bruce Crawford*, Ruth Maguire*

S5M-23413 John Mason: International Toilet Day 2020—That the Parliament acknowledges that 19 November 2020 is World Toilet Day; recognises that the day emphasises the importance of toilets and seeks to raise awareness that 4.2 billion people worldwide are living without access to safely managed sanitation; supports the day's goal of promoting the tackling of the global sanitation situation in order to achieve Sustainable Development Goal 6, water and sanitation for all by 2030; understands that climate change further inhibits access to sanitation systems; views clean water and sanitation as essential for the prevention and spread of deadly diseases, such as cholera and typhoid, and condemns reports that the UK's foreign aid budget may be significantly cut, which, it believes, would diminish the UK's standing globally and reduce both the help available to millions of the most vulnerable people and the world's ability to meet the UN's Sustainable Development Goals.

Supported by: Mark McDonald*

S5M-23412 Ruth Maguire: Kilwinning Academy Purple Day —That the Parliament congratulate the pupils and staff at Kilwinning Academy on raising funds for charity; understands that the school held a dress-down day for Go Purple Day, which raised £907.50 for Ayrshire Hospice, and a Halloween fancy dress day, which raised £1,190.78 to help the annual poppy appeal; notes that the fundraisers were arranged by Mrs Stuart, who is the Charity Co-ordinator at the school; acknowledges that a cheque has been presented to the Hospice, which is committed to reaching and improving the lives of those affected by life-limiting illness in Ayrshire by delivering exceptional care; thanks all the staff and pupils for their kindness during the ongoing global pandemic, and offers them its best wishes.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Stewart Stevenson*, Sandra White*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-23410 Neil Findlay: CalMac Staff Pay Negotiations—That the Parliament notes with concern reports that CalMac has offered its staff a pay rise of only 0.5% this year, which it considers is significantly below the RPI rate of inflation for 2020 and means a pay cut in real terms despite CalMac staff accepting changes to their shift patterns and working hours in order to keep the ferries running throughout the pandemic; understands that the Scottish Government wholly owns CalMac and has set out a guaranteed basic pay increase of 3% for public sector workers who earn less than £80,000 in its Public Sector Pay Policy, and believes that the Scottish Government must intervene to deliver a meaningful pay rise for CalMac workers.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
