Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-23029 Neil Findlay: Amnesty International Report, As If Expendable—That the Parliament notes with concern the Amnesty International report, As If Expendable, which explores what it sees as the care home crisis throughout the continuing COVID-19 pandemic; understands that the report, which focuses on care homes in England, makes a series of damning conclusions about deliberate policy decisions by the UK Government, and other bodies, that consequently threatened the human rights of older people, most specifically the right to life, the right to health and the right to non-discrimination; further understands that the report states that the policy failures by the UK Government, and other bodies, were the failure to provide adequate and good quality PPE at the beginning of the crisis, the imposition of blanket DNR orders on care home residents and older people outwith care homes, mass discharges of older people to care homes at the beginning of the crisis, many of whom were either untested or had a positive COVID-19 test result at the time of their transfer, a failure to ensure regular testing for both staff and residents, a lack of transparency around statistics pertaining to care home deaths and a failure to enable care home residents to access NHS services; believes that the policy decisions outlined in the report have caused a significant amount of unnecessary deaths among residents in care homes; considers that the pandemic, and what it sees as the deprivation of visitation, have also detrimentally impacted care home residents who have survived with, it believes, many having lost some cognitive functions and their ability to move, in addition to the impact on their mental health; further believes that, despite Amnesty International's report focusing on the UK Government's approach to care homes, most of the policy failures identified also occurred in Scotland, including in the Lothian region, and notes the calls on the Scottish Government to implement the recommendations set out in the report, in particular the need for an urgent public inquiry into the what it considers the crisis in care homes, at the earliest opportunity.

its launch in November 2017, it has been sending a letter to every newly-diagnosed cancer patient, offering them a meeting to discuss any practical, emotional or financial needs that they might have with a dedicated one-to-one support worker; notes that, since the COVID-19 pandemic began, the service has adapted one-to-one discussions with patients to now take place over the phone or via a video consulting service that enables people to have health and social care appointments from home or wherever is convenient; welcomes the news that the ICJ has provided over £500,000 in support and benefits for over 300 people since January 2019; understands that a recent study by Macmillan found that one in three people with cancer in Scotland are severely financially impacted by their diagnosis; notes that having cancer can bring all sorts of financial pressures, such as loss of income due to being off work, increased household bills and travel to and from hospital appointments; encourages people to get in touch with the team if they require any support, and congratulates Macmillan and the Dundee Health and Social Care Partnership for rolling out a service that places people at the centre of their care and support.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Miles Briggs*, Brian Whittle*, Alexander Stewart*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Alison Harris*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Stuart McMillan*, Margaret Mitchell*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-23045 Miles Briggs: Charity Funding of Medical Research—That the Parliament recognises the vital role that charities play in funding medical research in Scotland; notes the impact that the COVID-19 pandemic has had on charity fundraising; understands that Association of Medical Research Charities (AMRC) invested over £146 million in medical research in Scotland in 2019 and that these charities are planning for an average 41% decrease in their research spend next year, which is a shortfall of up to £368 million UK-wide; further understands that it has been estimated that it will take four and a half years before charity spend on research in universities recovers; believes that it is crucial for all medical research in Scotland that the vital role of charity research funding is protected until that time; supports the call from the AMRC and its 151 member medical research charities, including the British Heart Foundation and Cancer Research UK, for the UK Government to invest in a life sciences charity partnership fund to protect medical research and development capability, and calls on the Scottish Government to urgently support the Scottish medical and life sciences research sector, which it considers contributes to major advances in scientific discovery and patient care, as well as the wealth of the nation.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Alexander Stewart*, Brian Whittle*, Donald Cameron*, Edward Mountain*, Alison Harris*, Colin Smyth*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Margaret Mitchell*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Bowman*

S5M-23044 Rachael Hamilton: Peter Stevenson OBE—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Borders resident, Peter Stevenson, on being appointed an OBE in The Queen's Birthday honours list for his work as Chief Policy Adviser to Compassion in World Farming and his services to farm animal welfare; commends Peter's leading role in achieving the EU bans on veal crates, battery cages and sow stalls as well as a new status for animals in EU law as sentient beings, and recognises his ongoing commitment to the economics of livestock production and the safeguarding of the resources on which the country's future ability to feed itself depends.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Miles Briggs*, Brian Whittle*, Edward Mountain*, Alexander Stewart*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Margaret Mitchell*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Bowman*

S5M-23043 Rachael Hamilton: Graham Wilson BEM—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Borders' resident Special Constable Graham Wilson on being awarded a BEM in The Queen's birthday honours list in recognition of his services to law and order, and commends Graham on his dedication and commitment to aiding his fellow citizens.

S5M-23042 Rachael Hamilton: Reece Wilson Wins World Mountain Bike Downhill

Event—That the Parliament congratulates mountain biker Reece Wilson, who is from the Scottish Borders, on winning gold in the men's downhill at the UCI Mountain Bike World Championships in Leogang, Austria; recognises Reece's commitment to the sport and his promotion of cycling, sport and wellbeing; acknowledges the scale of his achievement at only 24 years old, and wishes Reece all the best in his future competitions.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, Brian Whittle*, Alexander Stewart*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Bowman*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-23041 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Growing Support for Assisted Dying—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the Dying with Dignity Bill 2020 has moved to its committee stage in the Irish Parliament; encourages more people to engage with the issues related to the reasons for calls for a change in the law regarding assisted dying, and understands that a recent survey by the British Medical Association (BMA) has found that half of doctors want a change in the law and that more than half support a positive or neutral stance for the BMA.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Mark McDonald*, Rachael Hamilton*, Jackson Carlaw*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-23040 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Show Racism the Red Card, Wear Red Day—That the Parliament acknowledges that 16 October 2020 is Wear Red Day; welcomes that this day aims to raise awareness of racism by encouraging as many people as possible to wear red; acknowledges that Wear Red Day has been organised by the charity, Show Racism the Red Card; applauds the work that this charity does in the delivery of anti-racism educational workshops to young people and adults in schools, workplaces and at other events; thanks the charity for delivering these educational sessions to over 50,000 individuals per year, and recognises that there is still a long way to go in tackling racism in Scotland.

S5M-23039 Annabelle Ewing: Congratulations to Lorraine Mullen and Lo'gelly

Lunches—That the Parliament notes the award of a British Empire Medal to Lorraine Mullen in the Queen's birthday honours; understands that this is for her contribution to setting up the Lo'gelly Lunches project; notes that, in partnership with local supermarkets, the projects has been feeding around 200 people per week, with 4,500 helped so far; understands that Lo'gelly Lunches was initially aimed at tackling social exclusion and isolation but had to adapt due to the COVID-19 pandemic; praises the work of Lorraine and all the volunteers who have worked so hard, and wishes them continued success in the future.

Supported by: Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Maureen Watt*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-23038 Liam Kerr: Aberdeen Art Gallery Wins 2020 Art Fund Museum of the Year

Award —That the Parliament congratulates Aberdeen Art Gallery on being announced as a winner of the Art Fund Museum of the Year 2020, which it considers to be the most prestigious museum prize in the world; understands that, in recognition of the challenges that all museums face this year, five winning museums were named and will share the £200,000 award; recognises that, following ambitious redevelopment works that were completed in November 2019, the gallery welcomed over 100,000 visitors in under 100 days prior to the COVID-19 outbreak; notes that it has now reopened and will continue to serve as a hub for the community and attract visitors to Aberdeen as the country recovers; thanks all the team at the gallery for their hard work and resilience, and wishes them continued success.

S5M-23037 Gordon MacDonald: AMIS Shortlisted for the 2020 National Diversity

Awards—That the Parliament congratulates AMIS (Abused Men In Scotland) on being shortlisted for the 2020 National Diversity Awards; understands that the awards ceremony will be held in February 2021 and will honour positive role models, entrepreneurs and community organisations within the equality and diversity sector; understands that AMIS is Scotland's leading charity for men who experience domestic abuse and was founded in 2010 by Alison Waugh, who previously provided evidence on the issue to the Scottish Government; notes that AMIS, originally based in Dunfermline and now based in Edinburgh, operates a national helpline, website, training services and supported 450 individual clients in 2019; recognises the contribution made by the staff and management of AMIS, and wishes them every success at the upcoming National Diversity Awards.

Supported by: John Mason*, Christine Grahame*, Sandra White*, Alex Neil*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-23036 Lewis Macdonald: Aberdeen Art Gallery Wins Art Fund Museum of the Year

Award—That the Parliament congratulates Aberdeen Art Gallery on it being named one of the five joint winners of the Art Fund Museum of the Year Award, alongside the Gairloch Museum in Wester Ross, the Towner Eastbourne, the South London Gallery and the London Science Museum; understands that the judges were impressed with the scale of the redevelopment of the Aberdeen Art Gallery, which has increased the number of works on show from 370 to 1,080; applauds the initiative of Aberdeen City Council, the support of other funders, led by the Heritage Lottery Fund, and the response of the public to the fund-raising campaign mounted by the Aberdeen Art Gallery and Museums Development Trust, in delivering the £34.6 million revamp that led to the gallery reopening in November 2019; notes that this year, in response to the challenges facing museums as a result of the COVID-19 crisis, the Art Fund increased the prize money to £200,000 to be shared among the five winners, and commends the hard work of the all the staff and volunteers at the Aberdeen Art Gallery and their continuing commitment to make art accessible to all.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Mark McDonald*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Emma Harper*, Maureen Watt*, Colin Smyth*

S5M-23035 Gordon MacDonald: TES Schools Awards

—That the Parliament congratulates Edinburgh College, Balerno High School, Tynecastle High School and Drummond Community High School on being shortlisted for the TES Schools Awards; recognises that the TES Schools Awards celebrate the extraordinary commitment, quality and innovation shown by teachers and school staff across the UK in making a positive impact on the personal and academic success of students and the wider community; understands that the high schools and college have been shortlisted in the Community and Collaboration Award category for their Daydream Believers programme; recognises that, during their studies, Daydream Believers students are given live briefs that involve pitching to clients and tackling a broad range of commercial projects, and features a ground-breaking and sector-leading mentoring programme where the students get to work closely with a select group of industry professionals; appreciates that, in 2013, the design team picked up a Highly Commended Award at the SQA Star Awards in the Innovation category for their employer engagement strategy, and that the programme has been cited as an example of best practice; praises the staff and students for making the programme a success, and wishes them well for the awards in November 2020.

S5M-23034 Lewis Macdonald: Allied Health Professionals Day 2020—That the Parliament acknowledges Allied Health Professional Day 2020, which takes place on 14 October; recognises the contribution of allied health professionals (AHP) across health and social care services, including occupational therapists, physiotherapists, speech and language therapists, podiatrists, dietitians, paramedics, radiographers, prosthetists and orthotists, orthoptists, art, music and drama therapists; notes the benefits of a multidisciplinary team to patient care and outcomes through applying a holistic approach to care, including improving hospital discharge and services within acute care, social care, housing, education, and mental health settings; believes that the AHP workforce is a valuable resource, which should be used to shift the balance of care from acute to community services, helping people to live longer, healthier lives at home or in a homely setting; commends the publication of the AHP Compendium 2020, which shares best-practice examples of Scotland's AHP services, and welcomes the support of the professions to provide practical support to people of all ages with physical and mental health problems, long term conditions, and those experiencing the effects of aging and for the support provided by the AHP workforce in tackling the COVID-19 pandemic.

Supported by: Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sarah Boyack*, Liam McArthur*, John Mason*, Stuart McMillan*, Emma Harper*, David Torrance*, Mark McDonald*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Maureen Watt*, Colin Smyth*, Monica Lennon*

S5M-23033 Margaret Mitchell: Dr Sarah Nelson OBE —That the Parliament congratulates Dr Sarah Nelson on being appointed an OBE in The Queen's birthday honours for her longstanding work on behalf of survivors of childhood sexual abuse; acknowledges that Sarah has been a longstanding member of the Cross Party Group on Adult Survivors Of Childhood Sexual Abuse and was an adviser both to the Public Petitions Committee's Inquiry into tackling child sexual exploitation and the Scottish Government's SurvivorScotland strategy; acknowledges that she is a Research Associate at the Centre for Research on Families and Relationships at the University of Edinburgh, specialising in research on childhood sexual abuse and its effects across the life course; recognises the contribution that Sarah has made through her academic research and direct work with survivors, in particular by reflecting their voices in numerous publications for policy makers and practitioners; commends Sarah for her excellent and dedicated work, and wishes her all the best for the future.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Brian Whittle*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Maurice Corry*, Donald Cameron*, Alison Harris*, Maureen Watt*, Rachael Hamilton*

S5M-23032 John Mason: The Rich Get Richer—That the Parliament notes a recent report produced by PWC and UBS regarding the reported increasing wealth of billionaires throughout the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that, since its outbreak, their wealth has increased by 25%, reaching £10.2 trillion, which is higher than any other point in history, the previous high of £8.9 trillion being reached in 2017; welcomes details that billionaires are donating more than ever, with 209 having publicly committing £7.2 billion during the course of the pandemic; however, considers that, as much of the rise in this wealth has been because of the pandemic, with billionaires involved in healthcare seeing their wealth increase by an estimated 50.3%, more of this wealth should be redistributed by tax or other means; agrees that the inequalities that have been

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
