S5M-24037 Miles Briggs: Projected Palliative Care Need by 2040—That the Parliament welcomes the new research by Marie Curie, the University of Edinburgh, King's College London and Public Health Scotland, How many people will need palliative care in Scotland by 2040? A mixed-method study of projected palliative need and recommendations for service delivery; commends this as the first study to project future palliative care needs in Scotland; notes its key findings that by 2040 palliative care need in Scotland is projected to increase by up to 20%, with up to 95% of all people who die potentially requiring palliative care, meaning an additional 10,609 people will be dying with palliative care needs every year; further notes that the greatest increase in palliative care needs by 2040 will be in people aged over 85 and that the number of people dying from dementia is expected to rise by 185% by 2040; acknowledges the study’s conclusions that more sustained funding for community palliative care services is required to meet this increased need; further acknowledges the study’s recommendations and Marie Curie’s calls for the roll-out of the National Digital Platform to better facilitate co-ordination of care between palliative care providers, and the introduction of a new palliative care strategy implemented by a new National Clinical Lead for Scotland to make care of terminally ill people and those at the end of life a much higher priority; notes the study's recommendation for a review of palliative care models to reflect increasing rates of multimorbidities, a substantial increase in over 85s in need of palliative care and in the need for specific-care for dementia; further notes calls for investment in community based palliative care, including support for care homes, and investment in, and upskilling of, health and social care teams through training in palliative and end-of-life care and support with anticipatory care planning; urges the Scottish Government to consider these recommendations, and commends Marie Curie, the University of Edinburgh, King's College London and Public Health Scotland for their ongoing commitment to palliative care research to ensure terminally ill people get the palliative care support they need.

addition to airlifting patients to hospital, SCAA's paramedics were on scene to treat and assist in cases ranging from major multiple-casualty incidents to single-person illnesses in remote and rural locations; notes that, as well as its airborne service being operational for more than 461 hours, the service was active on land as well, with paramedics attending 65 emergencies in its rapid response vehicle; urges people who have had experience of the SCAA to share their stories and to help raise awareness of the charity's work, and commends its paramedics, aircrew and other staff for their tireless, selfless and dedicated hard work year-on-year.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
