Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-02478 Natalie Don: Renfrew High School Teacher Highly Commended at Education Scotland's Learning for Sustainability Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Seonaid Forrester, a biology and science teacher at Renfrew High School, on being highly commended in the practitioner category at Education Scotland's Learning for Sustainability awards; understands that the awards celebrate the determined efforts by education professionals throughout the year to ensure that every child learns about sustainability, in order to help build a socially-just, sustainable and equitable world; believes that Seonaid's commendation was in recognition of her work to embed sustainability into the school's curriculum; appreciates that Seonaid leads a wide variety of learning activities and programmes that are starting to embed a deeper understanding by pupils of the 17 global development goals; notes that there is now a commitment for every lesson in the school to focus on a global development goal, and wishes Renfrew High School learners well in making positive differences towards tackling climate change, poverty, hunger and improving equality within the community.

S6M-02477 Foysoil Choudhury: Director of Edinburgh International Festival Fergus Linehan Receives Edinburgh Award 2021—That the Parliament congratulates Fergus Linehan, Director of Edinburgh International Festival (EIF) (2014-22), on receiving the 2021 Edinburgh Award; notes the presentation of this award at Edinburgh City Chambers on 8 December 2021; recognises that the Edinburgh Award, first introduced in 2007, is a way for Edinburgh residents to pay a lasting tribute to individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to the capital through their achievements; notes that the awarding decision is taken by a judging panel chaired by the Lord Provost, with representatives from all political groups on the City of Edinburgh Council, Edinburgh Voluntary Organisations Council and Edinburgh Chamber of Commerce; commends Fergus for the commitment shown alongside the whole EIF team in staging festival events across Edinburgh and engaging with the local community and the festival's international partners; credits the leadership of the Edinburgh International Festival for maintaining performances, including online, during the COVID-19 pandemic, and wishes Fergus and the EIF well for the future, including for the 75th anniversary programme for 2022.

S6M-02475 Sandesh Gulhane: Cedeco Contractors Limited—That the Parliament congratulates Cedeco Contractors Limited, a Glasgow company, on being awarded £88,637 from the UK Government under its Energy Entrepreneurs Fund, which is supporting nine energy-efficient projects in Scotland; recognises that Cedeco Contractors will use the funds for technology that will help to improve the efficiency of installing offshore wind turbines, and applauds that this innovative project seeks to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and support the tidal and wind energy sectors.

S6M-02474 Sandesh Gulhane: Renewable Dynamics Limited—That the Parliament congratulates Renewable Dynamics Limited, a Glasgow-based company that provides control engineering solutions for wind and tidal turbines and farms, and wave energy devices, on being awarded £207,919 by the UK Government to fund technology development that seeks to optimise the amount of energy produced by wind farms; applauds that the technology aims to reduce carbon emissions and remove greenhouse gases from the atmosphere, and recognises that the award is part of a package of funding by the UK Government to support Britain's green industrial revolution, to help businesses to turn their green ideas into reality and to reach the country's net zero targets, while also bringing jobs and investment to Scotland.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Douglas Lumsden*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Stewart*, Tess White*, Pam Gosal*, Brian Whittle*, Craig Hoy*, Douglas Ross*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-02473 Alexander Stewart: Alloa's Murdoch McGregor Named Sailor of the Year and Raises More Than £10,000 for Mental Health UK—That the Parliament congratulates an Alloa man who has beaten many top names in the sailing world to win a prestigious award and to raise a significant sum of money for a mental health charity; understands that the town's inspiring adventurer, Murdoch McGregor, was named Sailor of the Year 2021 at the British Yachting Awards on 30 November 2021 at the Royal Thames Yacht Club; acknowledges that the 82-year-old gentleman took the accolade in a public vote, having been nominated along with the entire British Sailing Team and Vendée Globe round the world racers, Pip Hare and skipper Tom Kneen; considers that Murdoch, who only started sailing 10 years ago and has been achieving ever since, was nominated following his solo sailing trip, which saw him circumnavigate the UK in the summer of 2021; notes that, in addition to all of this, Murdoch also raised more than £10,000 for the charity, Mental Health UK, and was welcomed back to Alloa by a sizeable crowd of family, friends and supporters, and commends Murdoch, who usually anchors at the Forth Cruising Club at Limekilns where he was made an honorary member for life the week before the awards ceremony, on his magnanimous fundraising and on this fantastic achievement.

Supported by: Tess White*, James Dornan*, Murdo Fraser*, Brian Whittle*, Jamie Greene*, Miles Briggs*, Monica Lennon*, Jeremy Balfour*, David Torrance*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Natalie Don*, Douglas Ross*, Marie McNair*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Finlay Carson*, Pam Gosal*

S6M-02472 Foysoil Choudhury: City Status for Livingston—That the Parliament welcomes the bid by West Lothian Council, working in partnership with local companies, councillors and community planning partners, for Livingston, West Lothian’s largest town, to be given city status, by entering the Platinum Jubilee Civic Honours competition; recognises this opportunity to highlight what it sees as the growth and strengths of Livingston, since its formation in 1962 as a new town, envisioned then as a garden city; believes that city status will bring further economic, leisure, retail, community and social benefits to Livingston, and to West Lothian more generally; commends the partnership approach taken by West Lothian Council and the commitment to full community engagement throughout the process, and wishes all of those involved success in their endeavours.

S6M-02470 Natalie Don: National Lottery Awards for All Scotland Funding for Erskine Community Garden—That the Parliament congratulates Erskine Community Garden on being awarded £2,084 from the National Lottery Awards for All Scotland; understands that the funding will be used to purchase gardening tools for the project; believes that since its launch in 2018 the garden has flourished into a beautiful area with something for everyone, including an eight-seater picnic benches for teenagers, a stick store for dogs, a vegetable patch, a labyrinth and a sensory area that is being created for children’s play; appreciates that the bunting decorating trees and benches alongside the garden’s path were donated by members of the local community; notes that the garden hosts a range of organised activities, including meditation sessions, as part of mental health support and that local groups, such as a children’s garden club, use the space to entertain and to educate young people about the outdoors and nature, and wishes volunteers Heather Clissett, Chrissie Johnson and Sylvia Sneider well with their ongoing inspirational efforts to develop Erskine Community Garden as a safe, inclusive, welcoming and peaceful environment for all.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Annabelle Ewing*, Bill Kidd*, Marie McNair*, Stephanie Callaghan*

S6M-02469 Karen Adam: Fraserburgh Foodbank Centre—That the Parliament commends the vital work done by the Fraserburgh Foodbank Centre, providing help and support to people in crisis in the local community; notes with concern that the number of people needing food banks has increased in recent years and that this trend is expected to continue; understands that the Fraserburgh Foodbank Centre is looking for volunteers to join its team; considers the support provided by the organisation to be invaluable to many who live in Banffshire and Buchan Coast and across the North East, and hopes others take inspiration from its efforts.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*, Ross Greer*, Evelyn Tweed*, Siobhian Brown*, Christine Grahame*, Maggie Chapman*, Bill Kidd*, Marie McNair*, Stephanie Callaghan*

S6M-02468 Foysoil Choudhury: Edinburgh Diwali—That the Parliament acknowledges the work done by Edinburgh Diwali; notes that Edinburgh Diwali is a registered charity that has been organising the first public Diwali in Edinburgh since 2015; further notes that the Edinburgh Diwali Committee has representations from different faiths from across different regions of India who are settled in Edinburgh and has been headed by Rajnish Singh, one of the founder members of the organisation, since 2020; considers that Diwali is the most popular Indian festival that celebrates victory of good over evil and light over darkness; further acknowledges that Edinburgh Diwali has become one of the key community led festivals in the city over the years, with cross community support, and understands that the event has historically been free and open to all, which enables all who are interested to enjoy the parade, music, dance and fireworks in the city centre.

S6M-02463 Pauline McNeill: Urging Defra to Protect Bees and Other Pollinators —That the Parliament notes reports that Defra is considering approving the use of the Cruiser SB pesticide in late December 2021; understands that this pesticide is considered to be harmful to bees and other pollinators and has been banned by the EU due to the severity of the harm it causes; further understands that the pesticide is also considered especially dangerous to wildlife as it leaches into the soil, where it stays for long periods of time and can be absorbed by other plants, some of which are important to pollinators, and that these plants can then kill the insects that feed on them; believes that approval of this dangerous pesticide contradicts the UK Government's stated aim of arresting species decline in Britain, and calls on Defra to prioritise the health of plants and pollinating insects and uphold the ban on Cruiser SB.

Supported by: Brian Whittle*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Elena Whitham*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Evelyn Tweed*, Carol Mochan*

S6M-02462 Sharon Dowey: Ayrshire's Leading Family-run Construction Company Raises £30k for Charity —That the Parliament congratulates Stairhill Architecture Ltd in Mauchline, as the company has raised a total of £32,557 for charity; notes that the company recently celebrated 30 years of being in business by donating this incredible amount to Ayrshire Hospice, Cancer Research UK and MS Society; further notes that Stairhill is a traditional, family-run company, based in East Ayrshire, and is leading the way in the region; understands that representatives from each charity celebrated the company's milestone at Ayr's Enterkine House Hotel in November 2021, and wishes Stairhill Architecture well as it continues to grow across Ayrshire and beyond.

Supported by: Douglas Lumsden*, Jeremy Balfour*, Tess White*, Douglas Ross*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Brian Whittle*, Jamie Greene*, Pam Gosal*, Donald Cameron*, Colin Beattie*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stuart McMillan*, Natalie Don*, Sue Webber*, Finlay Carson*, Annie Wells*, Bill Kidd*

S6M-02461 Sharon Dowey: EPIC East Ayrshire Pipe Band Academy Sit First Ever SCQF Exam—That the Parliament recognises the work of EPIC East Ayrshire Pipe Band Academy as its students sit their first ever Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF) exams; notes that the National Piping Centre in Glasgow visited Lugar Parish Church Hall in Logan to visit the students; further notes that the exams will be added to the students' education record, meaning the exams can help towards gaining a place in further education; understands that the examiners were very impressed with the level shown by all students, with the students being extremely prepared for the exam, and wishes the students at the Pipe Band Academy well as they develop their musical talents.

Supported by: Douglas Lumsden*, Alexander Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*, Tess White*, David Torrance*, Douglas Ross*, Elena Whitham*, Annie Wells*, Jeremy Balfour*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Miles Briggs*, Jamie Greene*, Brian Whittle*, Pam Gosal*, Donald Cameron*, Sue Webber*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-02460 Gillian Martin: Mintlaw and Central Buchan Initiative Receives Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates the Mintlaw and Central Buchan Initiative (Macbi) on receiving £9,880 from the National Lottery Awards for All Scotland; understands that Macbi will use the funds to help employ a sessional youth worker to encourage young people to use a new S6M-02451 Rona Mackay: Scottish Youth Parliament Success for Anna Hendry and Felix Schofield—That the Parliament congratulates Anna Hendry and Felix Schofield on being elected to represent the Strathkelvin and Bearsden constituency at the Scottish Youth Parliament; extends its thanks and encouragement to all seven candidates who stood in the recent election for their enthusiasm and commitment; pays tribute to their willingness to offer their skills and experience to advocate on behalf of others in these significant roles; understands that Anna Hendry is a pupil of Turnbull High School in Bishopbriggs who is passionate about ensuring that people of all ages should be heard by decision-makers, and her special interest is in finding solutions to reverse climate change; further understands that Felix Schofield, a pupil of Lenzie Academy, aims to become the voice of the voiceless, firmly believing that the meaningful input of young people can change policies, as proven through the recent lowering of the electoral voting age to 16; delights at the enthusiasm with which Anna and Felix are embracing these roles, following the declaration of results on 22 November 2021, and sends every best wish to Anna and Felix as they embark on their duties as members of the Scottish Youth Parliament.

S6M-02450 Rona Mackay: Hand-crafted Santa Sleigh Brings Festive Joy —That the Parliament wishes to thank the Chenery family of Bishopbriggs for the design, crafting and installation of a Santa sleigh in their garden; delights that members of the public can visit and take a photo of themselves, family members or friends in the beautifully-made wooden sleigh; pays tribute to Nathan Chenery, who designed, made and decorated this colourful Christmas seating; wishes to acknowledge the time, energy and care taken by Nathan and his parents, Leanne and Neil, while working on this creative project with impact; further delights that visitors have the opportunity to drop off donations for East Dunbartonshire Foodbank in the special bins in the family's garden; welcomes the interest by the STV news team that highlighted this outstanding achievement on 6 November 2021, and sends every best wish to Nathan, Leanne and Neil for the continued success of this wonderful concept.

S6M-02449 Liam Kerr: National Tree Week —That the Parliament recognises that the week beginning 27 November 2021 was National Tree Week; notes that this takes place annually and began in 1973 with the campaign entitled Plant a Tree in 73; further notes the huge ecological benefit that trees bring to the environment; commends the work of Future Woodlands Scotland for a recent collaborative project with Aberdeen City Council to grow over 4,000 trees in Riverview Park, and commends The Tree Council for the work it does every year to ensure that National Tree Week is marked with tree planting across the UK.

S6M-02448 Liam Kerr: I.J McIntosh Butchers Working Towards Net Zero—That the Parliament congratulates I.J McIntosh Butcher for moving to its new custom built and eco-friendly premises, starting its plans to become Scotland's greenest butcher; applauds what it sees as the fantastic initiatives being undertaken by I.J McIntosh to be more carbon neutral, investing in equipment, lights, and fans that are low wattage and refrigeration insulation and wall cladding that has a low environmental impact; notes that, in addition, it makes sure all of its produce is sourced locally and uses recycled packaging; further notes that it also has plans to put in solar panels and purchase an electric vehicle to make deliveries; understands the important part that businesses like I.J McIntosh play in Scotland reaching Net Zero, and hopes that this great work can continue in the future.

S6M-02447 Natalie Don: Bargarran Primary School Achieves Digital Schools Award—That the Parliament congratulates Bargarran Primary School in Erskine on achieving a Digital Schools Award, in recognition of the school's efforts to promote the use of digital technology; understands that the award is presented by Education Scotland to schools showing dedication

S6M-02446 Stuart McMillan: Curry Lounge Named New Takeaway of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates the Curry Lounge in Port Glasgow on being named New Takeaway of the Year at the 13th Scottish Curry Awards; notes that the restaurant, owned by Sal Mohammed, was also nominated for the New Restaurant of the Year award, but narrowly lost out; understands that this achievement is the second award that the Curry Lounge has picked up since opening in 2019, having recently received a Good Food award; acknowledges that the Curry Awards, held at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Glasgow, recognised the Port Glasgow restaurant for its "hard work, determination, impeccable service and efforts", and wishes Sal and his staff all the best for the future.

S6M-02445 Stuart McMillan: Greenock Reporter Named Young Journalist of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates 23-year-old Amy Shearer on being named Young Journalist of the Year at the recent PPA Scotland Awards in Glasgow; notes that Amy is a reporter for the Greenock Telegraph and was chosen ahead of four other leading young writers; understands that the awards recognise, celebrate and elevate the achievements and progress made by teams and individuals across the publishing and media industry, incorporating magazines and newspapers; further understands that an awards spokesperson said that Amy showed clear promise and her willingness to push herself made her a standout winner, going beyond the publication and making full use of social media to promote her stories' messages; applauds Amy for her commitment to representing Inverclyde and to telling stories from across the community, particularly during the COVID-19 pandemic, and wishes her all the best for the future.

S6M-02444 Sandesh Gulhane: MSYP Glasgow Region—That the Parliament congratulates Zaynah Sattar and Zainab Adeleye (Glasgow Southside), Fatemah Ghanem and Daniella Faakor Damptey (Glasgow Kelvin), Holly Gallagher and Abid Zaman (Glasgow Anniesland), Daniel Molloy and Esperanza Giesen (Glasgow Provan), Urooj Chaudhary and Zaid Sheikh (Glasgow Pollok), Hayden Atkin and Isla Douglas (Glasgow Maryhill and Springburn) and Ellie Craig and Daisy Stewart Henderson (Glasgow Cathcart), on being elected to the Scottish Youth Parliament (SYP); notes that the members will be engaging in SYP campaigns and participating in SYP sittings, which happen three times per year, and believes that the activities are important for youth groups in the Glasgow area, ensuring that young people's views are voiced and represented at a national level.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

Final Proposal for a Member's Bill

Mark Griffin: Proposed Scottish Employment Injuries Advisory Council Bill—Proposal for a Bill to establish a statutory Scottish Employment Injuries Advisory Council to research, shape and scrutinise the social security available to people injured in the course of their employment and to define the membership requirements of the Council. (lodged 18 November 2021)

The proposal was accompanied by a statement of reasons, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above, or in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Budget (Scotland) Bill (G)
