Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-00364 Paul O'Kane: Thomas Donohoe Statue, Busby—That the Parliament notes East Renfrewshire Council's plans for a statue of Thomas Donohoe in Busby, which is to be unveiled in August 2021; commends the Council Environment Department and Busby Community Council for their support of the project to erect this statue; understands that Donohoe was from Busby and emigrated to Brazil where he organised the first football match in the country, and that this contribution to Brazilian society made by Donohoe led to him being called the "father of Brazilian football", and believes that the statue, which has been created by the accomplished Scottish sculptor, Kate Robinson, will help to highlight this hugely interesting man's legacy and links between Busby and Brazil. R

Supported by: Neil Bibby*, Martin Whitfield*, Colin Beattie*, Donald Cameron*

S6M-00362 Neil Gray: Post Offices and CJ Lang—That the Parliament recognises the value and importance of local Post Offices to the communities that they serve; supports the need to retain the variety of services for people across society; notes with disappointment the reported decision by CJ Lang to propose the closure of 31 branches in its Spar stores across Scotland, including Allanton in the Airdrie and Shotts constituency, and calls on the Post Office and CJ Lang to engage in talks to guarantee a future for Post Office services in the communities affected.

S6M-00361 Douglas Lumsden: Aberdeenshire Council Achieves Silver LGBT Charter—That the Parliament congratulates Aberdeenshire Council's Housing Options and Homelessness Team on receiving the Silver LGBT Charter; notes that the award received from LGBT Youth Scotland is in recognition of a thorough review and update of policies and practice, as well as undergoing training on LGBT inclusion; understands that, in particular, the organisation showed great examples of equality impact assessments and action planning, and is pleased that staff and service users will benefit from this approach to inclusion in the years to come.

S6M-00360 Jackie Baillie: West Dunbartonshire Council Wins Food for Life Served Here Award—That the Parliament congratulates West Dunbartonshire Council on being awarded the Soil Association Scotland Food for Life Served Here award; understands that the council won a Bronze award for its school meals; notes that the award scheme covers 32 primary and ASN and 29 early years settings; further notes that West Dunbartonshire Council was the 16th local authority in Scotland to achieve a Food for Life Served Here award; celebrates the fact that the award recognises local authorities that serve freshly prepared, healthy meals, made using locally produced and sustainable ingredients; understands that the Food for Life Scotland programme is run by Soil Association Scotland and supports local authorities to put more Scottish food on school dinner plates; celebrates the fact that West Dunbartonshire Council was able to achieve this award during a pandemic, and sees this as testament to the hard work and dedication of the council's catering team.

S6M-00358 Liam Kerr: Royal Mail Announces Tenfold Increase in Electric Vehicles—That the Parliament welcomes Royal Mail's recent announcement of a tenfold increase in the number of electric vehicles it runs across its UK fleet, with plans to introduce around 3,000 additional, low-emission vans throughout the country; understands that the new vehicles will help postmen and women deliver letters and parcels in a secure and environmentally-friendly way; commends the company's work to date to reduce emissions, and wishes it continued success.

Supported by: Donald Cameron*, Kenneth Gibson*, Pam Gosal*, Monica Lennon*, Alexander Stewart*, Colin Beattie*

S6M-00357 Monica Lennon: Recognising the Contribution of Neena Mahal as Chair of NHS Lanarkshire—That the Parliament acknowledges the contribution that Neena Mahal has made since 2013 in her role as Chair of NHS Lanarkshire, which provides health services to a population of over 650,000 people; commends Neena for leading the board through a significant programme of transitional change, for contributing to national areas of work, including the Leadership, Talent Management and Succession Planning Group, the National Performance Management Group, the NHS Chairs Quality Portfolio Group and the Quality Improvement Development Programme for Executive and Non-Executive Board Members, and for her commitment to the people of Lanarkshire and the NHS Lanarkshire workforce during the COVID-19 pandemic; recognises that Neena has led on work to improve diversity on NHS boards, has brought a wealth of experience in corporate governance and strategic management to her NHS Lanarkshire role, and has served on the boards of various public bodies, charitable and voluntary sector organisations over the last 25 years, and, as her term as Chair of NHS Lanarkshire ends, sends its best wishes to Neena for the future.

S6M-00356 Monica Lennon: Tribute to Period Dignity Campaigners, Lady Business—That the Parliament congratulates Larbert High School pupils Tilly O'Donnell, Meredith Rae, Abby Reid and Elle-Rose Fotheringham who, with the support of their teacher Mrs Howie, formed the period dignity activist group, Lady Business; notes that the group is committed to ending period poverty and championing period dignity for their peers and school community; commends the group's leadership in securing access to period products in the school toilets, and holding assemblies to educate younger pupils about menstruation and help to reduce stigma; believes that the success of the Period Products (Free Provision) (Scotland) Act 2021 was aided by grassroots activists and campaigners, including the founding members of Lady Business, who attended the rally at the Scottish Parliament to coincide with stage 1 of the Bill to campaign for everyone in Scotland who needs period products to be able to access them in a free and dignified manner, and, on completion of their education at Larbert High School, sends its best wishes to Tilly, Meredith, Abby and Elle-Rose for their future and hopes their campaigning and commitment to equality will continue to inspire other young people to be active citizens.

S6M-00355 Edward Mountain: HRH The Princess Royal Officially Opens Alness Academy—That the Parliament welcomes the official opening of Alness Academy by Her Royal Highness, The Princess Royal on 8 June 2021; acknowledges that the new school will provide a modern learning environment for pupils and teaching staff; notes that the new school building has been operational since October 2020, and wishes the Alness Academy school community all the best for the future.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Pam Gosal*, Alexander Stewart*, Donald Cameron*, Meghan Gallacher*

S6M-00353 Christine Grahame: The Herbert Protocol—That the Parliament welcomes the introduction of the Herbert Protocol to the Lothians and Scottish Borders; notes that it is named after George Herbert, a Normandy landings' veteran, who lived with dementia and died in 2011 after going missing whilst looking for his childhood home; understands that this well-established protocol is now available to everyone registered with adult care services in the Lothian and Borders; notes that it involves the completion of a form with key information, such as a recent photograph, contact details, habits and significant locations, which can then be provided to police officers and used to save vital time in a missing person inquiry, and believes this to be a positive step and one that will provide reassurance to families of people living with dementia.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, Kenneth Gibson*, Audrey Nicoll*, Annabelle Ewing*, Bill Kidd*, Siobhian Brown*, Elena Whitham*

S6M-00352 Beatrice Wishart: Prioritising Dedicated Care for Perinatal loss —That the Parliament recognises the need for dedicated facilities for perinatal loss, with a standard of care equivalent to that provided to patients undergoing labour and delivery; acknowledges that, while it is estimated that one in four pregnancies end in miscarriage, the true scale is not known; notes that in 2018-19, 4,635 women in Scotland required inpatient treatment for a miscarriage; understands that guidance from the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists recommends that dedicated facilities are made available to address the specific emotional and practical challenges of people in these circumstances; understands that, while there are examples of good quality care, separate facilities and follow up support are not yet always available, and believes that this, alongside greater support for perinatal mental health, should be prioritised in the current parliamentary session.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Kenneth Gibson*, Fulton MacGregor*, Elena Whitham*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-00351 Miles Briggs: Heart of Midlothian Partnership with MND Scotland —That the Parliament congratulates Heart of Midlothian and MND Scotland on their new partnership, which has been made possible thanks to what it sees as generous funding from Dell Technologies; understands the MND Scotland logo will appear on the season 2021-22 Hearts' shirt; notes that the partnership will aim to help raise awareness of the work carried out by MND charities throughout the UK and support people in Scotland who are living with the condition; understands that funds raised will help enable pioneering work, such as the projects taking place at the Euan McDonald Centre for MND Research at the University of Edinburgh, and considers this partnership to be a fitting tribute to former Hearts' captain, Marius Žaliukas, who died from the condition in 2020.

Supported by: Douglas Lumsden*, Monica Lennon*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Liam Kerr*, Edward Mountain*, Colin Beattie*, Jackie Baillie*, Alexander Stewart*, Donald Cameron*, Fulton MacGregor*

S6M-00349 Colin Beattie: Whitehill Welfare Football Club Provides 250 Free Season Tickets to Local Children—That the Parliament praises Whitehill Welfare FC for providing 250 free season tickets to local school children in Rosewell; understands that this offers the children from the local schools their very own under-16s season ticket to Ferguson Park; appreciates that this has been a tough time for children during the COVID-19 pandemic; welcomes the opportunity for children to get back into outdoor activities and sports; thanks Whitehill Welfare FC for giving back to the community, and wishes the club all the best for the next season.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Annabelle Ewing*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Siobhian Brown*, Fulton MacGregor*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-00348 Meghan Gallacher: John Lewis Partnership Introduces Equal Parenthood

—That the Parliament welcomes the recent announcement from the John Lewis Partnership that it has become the first UK retailer to introduce six months equal parenthood paid leave, covering both maternity and paternity, and two weeks' paid leave for any of its Partners who experiences the loss of a pregnancy, and congratulates, and praises, the business, for what it sees as it taking the lead as a responsible retailer by addressing issues raised by its Partners on issues that matter to them. S6M-00346 Pam Duncan-Glancy: Royal Conservatoire of Scotland Ranked First in UK by Complete University Guide

—That the Parliament congratulates the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland on being ranked the number one institution for studying Arts, Drama and Music in the UK by Complete University Guide; understands that this follows the Conservatoire being recognised as the number three institution in the world for performing arts education in the 2020 QS World University Rankings; recognises the challenges faced by the cultural sector throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as the precarity facing many artists; believes, therefore, that more should be done to protect the creative industries, and considers this achievement by the Conservatoire to be a testament to its wonderful community of students and staff and their continued energy and passion for the arts throughout the most trying of times.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, Collette Stevenson*, Russell Findlay*, Finlay Carson*, Rona Mackay*, Sarah Boyack*, Liz Smith*, Bill Kidd*, Edward Mountain*, Elena Whitham*, Evelyn Tweed*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-00345 Beatrice Wishart: Loganair GreenSkies

—That the Parliament congratulates Loganair's launch of its GreenSkies environmental programme, which commits Loganair to becoming fully carbon neutral by 2040; understands that Loganair is the UK's first regional airline to make this commitment; commends the project, which will introduce carbon offsets to remove the same amount of carbon from the environment as that generated by every Loganair flight; further understands that a £1 Carbon Offset charge will be included in the ticket price for every customer's flight, directly acknowledging the cost of flying and its environmental impact; applauds the project's plan to fund initiatives such as reforestation projects and sustainable technologies, helping to achieve carbon neutral flying, and looks forward to live trials taking place in the Orkney Islands this summer on developmental aircraft powered by hydrogen and renewable electricity.

S6W-00603 Alexander Burnett: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of claims that such a move could help the tourism sectors and might help prevent the spread of COVID-19, whether it plans to develop compatibility between the Check in Scotland app and the equivalent apps in the rest of the UK and, if so, what discussions it has had with the other UK administrations regarding this.

S6W-00604 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answers to questions S4W-18890 and S4W-20593 by Alex Neil on 8 January and 4 April 2014 and S4W-27915 by Shona Robison 29 October 2015, the 2011 report, A Study of Medical Negligence Claiming in Scotland, which was published by the No-fault Compensation Review Group that was chaired by Professor Sheila McLean of the University of Glasgow and its consultation on the matter in 2012, whether it will bring forward legislation to introduce a no-fault compensation for patients who have been harmed as a result of clinical treatment.

S6W-00615 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had with relevant public bodies about placing a legal duty on them to prevent homelessness. R

S6W-00616 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government what additional measures to end rough sleeping were brought in as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, and which will be continued following the lifting of restrictions across Scotland. R

S6W-00617 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government whether it plans to reintroduce the pre-emption requirements that private landlords must undertake before evicting a tenant with rent arrears in place, before they are made permanent in 2022, as it has committed to in Housing to 2040. R

S6W-00618 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government what audit it has conducted to determine the costs and benefits of the duty on public bodies to maximise the receipts from land sales.

S6W-00619 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government what plans it has to introduce legislation to place a duty on public bodies to prevent homelessness in its proposed Housing Bill, and whether that bill will be Introduced in 2021-22. R

S6W-00620 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to each of the recommendations made by the Scotland Prevention Review Group. R

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

European Charter of Local Self-Government (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (M)

Passed, 23 March 2021

The Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland.

UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Legal Continuity) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 21 March 2018

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
