Election of the Deputy Presiding Officers

Members will be able to submit nominations for Deputy Presiding Officer electronically to the Parliamentary Business Team between 9.00 am and 10.00 am. Nominations may only be submitted during the nomination period.

The nominating Member should email the Parliamentary Business Team (business.team@parliament.scot) from their parliamentary email address confirming the name of the nominee and the name of the Member who is seconding the nomination. The Parliamentary Business Team will email the nominee and the seconder in order to confirm that the information provided is correct.

Shortly after the end of the nomination period, the names of all nominees will be announced by the Presiding Officer over the public address system. The names of nominees will also be sent to all Members by email.

The division bell will sound at 10.15 am and members should make their way to their designated voting locations (Chamber floor, Chamber Gallery, and Main Hall). Voting will commence at 10.30 am.

Members should note that the election of the Deputy Presiding Officers is held by secret ballot.

Today's Business

Meeting of the Parliament

10:30 am Election of the Deputy Presiding Officers followed by Urgent Questions: The Presiding Officer has selected the following urgent questions -

Douglas Ross - To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide an update on the COVID-19 situation in Moray and what additional support will be made available to residents and businesses.

Patrick Harvie - To ask the Scottish Government what engagement it has had with the UK Government, and with Police Scotland, regarding the community response to attempted immigration enforcement action in Kenmure Street in Glasgow on 13 May.

Jamie Greene - To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the reported growing and widespread concern over the 2021 SQA examination, assessment and awards process, which has been described as an “unfolding debacle” by the author of the review into the 2020 SQA examination.
