Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-00100 Colin Beattie: MYPAS Awarded £150,000 in Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates MYPAS on being awarded £150,000 in Lottery funding; understands that this will be used to support and further develop its work with LGBT+ young people in East Lothian and Midlothian for a three-year period; believes that this will provide stability for a much-needed service in the Midlothian North and Musselburgh constituency; understands that it is the only service of its kind in the area it serves; supports the continued provision of valuable LGBT+ services, such as those provided by MYPAS, which has provided support to young people for 21 years, and wishes everyone involved with it well going forward with this funding.

S6M-00099 Patrick Harvie: Anniversaries of Section 28 and the Founding of Stonewall—That the Parliament recognises 24 May as the anniversary of the legislation known as Section 28, or Section 2A, coming into force; notes that Section 28 was intended to prohibit the promotion of "the acceptability of homosexuality as a pretended family relationship"; considers this one of the most overtly homophobic pieces of legislation in Scottish or UK history, and that its repeal in Scotland in 2000, and in England and Wales, in 2003 marked an important step toward equality and human rights for LGBT+ people; recognises 24 May as the anniversary one year later of the founding of Stonewall, which is now the largest LGBT+ human rights organisation in Europe; congratulates Stonewall and all who have contributed to its work over its 22 years; believes that anti-LGBT+ prejudice and hostility continues in Scottish and UK society, including in politics and in the media, and that it has been growing in recent years; condemns attacks against Stonewall, and commits to support its Diversity Champions' programme to promote workplace equality and its proudly trans-inclusive approach to its work.

S6M-00097 Finlay Carson: The Five Kingdoms Brewery—That the Parliament offers its congratulations to the Five Kingdoms Brewery, which is based at Isle of Whithorn, on winning two awards at the Scottish Retail Food & Drink competition for its Dark Storm stout and Captain Morrison's IPA, acknowledges the commitment by owners Alastair Scouler and Brendon Dennett to producing real ales, which, it believes, are putting Galloway on the map, resulting in increased demand as the micro-brewery expands into new markets, and wishes Alastair and Brendon well as they introduce another special-edition brew, Heart of Darkness.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stuart McMillan*, Sue Webber*, Bill Kidd*, Jamie Greene*, Pam Gosal*, Douglas Ross*, Colin Beattie*, Paul Sweeney*, Fulton MacGregor*, Paul McLennan*

S6M-00096 Stuart McMillan: Gourock Trio Establish Titan Spirits—That the Parliament commends Neill Forrest, Stuart Drake and Gordon McInnes on launching their new Inverclyde-inspired brand, Titan Spirits; notes that the COVID-19 lockdown provided Stuart and Gordon with the time and energy to focus on their drinks industry dream to create their own brand of rum, turning their kitchens into rum workshops as they tested different flavours and ingredients; appreciates that Neill became involved at a later date to help to market and sell the product, but is now an equal part of the venture; acknowledges that the trio have long-term plans to open a blending house and a distillery, with hopes to collaborate with other spirit manufacturers; recognises that the brand's identity pays homage to Inverclyde's industrial heritage, with one of the key ingredients being golden syrup, which harks back to the area's connections to the sugar industry; congratulates Titan Spirits on selling half of their batch in pre-orders on the first day of its launch, and wishes the businessmen well for the future as they seek to expand their operations.

S6M-00095 Finlay Carson: Blood Bike Charity Owners Top Nurse—That the Parliament congratulates Dumfries and Galloway's Blood Bikes after naming one of its new motorcycles in honour of Jenny Manson, a community children's nurse from Kirkcudbright, who was awarded Scottish Nurse of the Year in December for her dedication to caring for children in poor health; recognises the sterling work carried out by the blood bike charitable organisation, set up by local volunteers to deliver essential blood and urgent medical supplies, in and out of hours, between hospitals and healthcare sites in South West Scotland and beyond; recognises the charity's constant need for new volunteers, and wishes them all well and safe riding in the future.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
