- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-02267 Shona Robison: International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women —That the Parliament marks the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women and the beginning of the 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence, which this year reaches its 30th anniversary; notes that the 2021 campaign focuses on the dual themes of Femicide and Ending Domestic Abuse in the World of Work; reaffirms its commitment to continue to work collaboratively from constituency, to committee, to chamber, to eradicate gender-based violence; agrees that only by prioritising prevention, can there be an end to violence against women and girls; gives thanks to the organisations and individuals that support women and children affected by gender-based violence, including the Women's Aid and Rape Crisis networks; notes that gender-based violence, which includes, but is not limited to, domestic abuse, rape and sexual violence, is a function of gender inequality and an abuse of male power and privilege; recognises that there is an increasing level of online abuse and the disproportionate impact this has on women and girls; agrees that in order to effectively tackle gender-based violence, society must challenge the outdated gender stereotypes and attitudes towards women and girls that enable it to continue; further agrees that it is clear that women and girls should no longer have to modify their everyday behaviour in order to stay safe; unites in its condemnation of violence against women and girls in all of its forms, in Scotland and around the world, on which it speaks with one voice; mourns all the women around the world who have been killed by men this year, including Sabina Nessa, Bibaa Hendry, Nicole Smallman, and Sarah Everard, whose murders showed how fragile the veneer of safety for women can be, and notes, as a mark of respect, the one-minute silence held in their honour.

S6M-02238 Alexander Stewart: Purple Crocus Planting in Alloa for Rotary Club's Purple for Polio Campaign—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Clackmannanshire schools and community groups have teamed up with the Rotary Club of Alloa to plant 4,000 croci in Alloa’s Wimpy Park for the Rotary’s Purple for Polio campaign to end polio around the world; understands that the purple crocus was chosen because, in developing countries, medical teams have painted the little finger nail of a child purple to identify that they have been vaccinated; believes that this planting of 4,000 croci in just one day would not have been possible without the help of Park Primary School, St Mungo’s Primary School, Lochies School, Alloa Academy and many others, and commends everyone involved for their fantastic collective work. R

S6M-02199 Pauline McNeill: Concerns Over the Running of the Dungavel Detention Centre—That the Parliament notes with concern some of the findings of a recent HMIP report on conditions at the Dungavel Immigration Removal Centre; understands that, according to the report, some women held at the centre, which is understood to predominantly house men, have expressed feeling unsafe at the Centre and that men with a history of sexual violence were no longer being held in a separate unit; further understands that many detainees have been held at the Centre for up to a year with no indication of when they will be removed and that some detainees, who had been granted bail, reportedly remained in the Centre due to a lack of available bail accommodation; considers that other areas of concern include reports of detainees arriving at the Centre at night, sometimes after lengthy journeys, of people who have remained in detention despite it being believed to be the case that they were the victims of torture in their country of origin, of some security arrangements being disproportionate and of unnecessary room searches being carried out; believes that conditions at the Centre should represent how Scotland as a country wishes to conduct itself when processing asylum seekers; further believes that MSPs should have the right to make welfare visits to the Centre, and calls on the UK Government to address the concerns raised in this report to improve the conditions at the Dungavel Immigration Removal Centre.

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
