Meeting of the Parliament

2:00 pm Time for Reflection: Sally Fraser, Edinburgh City Centre Chaplain, Workplace Chaplaincy Scotland

followed by Parliamentary Bureau Motions

followed by Topical Questions

1. Pauline McNeill: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to reports that people are shutting down their electric and rationing their energy use in the face of rising charges. (S6T-00329)

2. Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the reported number of deaths of homeless people in 2020. (S6T-00328)

followed by First Minister's Statement: COVID-19 Update

followed by Ministerial Statement: Pathways to Recovery - Update on progress and milestones for expanding access to Residential Rehabilitation in Scotland followed by Scottish Government Debate: Justice and the 16 Days of Action

S6M-02306 Keith Brown: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—That the Parliament welcomes the opportunity to highlight the 16 Days of Activism to End Gender-Based Violence and to reaffirm a strong commitment and programme of action to prevent and eradicate all forms of violence against women and girls; recognises the opportunity as Scotland emerges from the COVID-19 pandemic to transform its justice services, ensuring effective, efficient and resilient services that meet the needs of people and reflect the role for justice in a modern society; welcomes the Scottish Government's commitment to setting in place the right legislative environment to support, enable and protect women and girls, including the introduction of world-leading human rights legislation furthering Scotland's international obligations; welcomes the planned establishment of a Governance Group comprising key stakeholders to progress the detailed consideration of the recommendations in the Lord Justice Clerk's Review Group report, Improving the management of sexual offence cases, including the potential introduction of specialist courts, and to identify and prioritise recommendations that can be taken forward without legislative change; recognises and reflects on the advancements made and key achievements to date, including the delivery of a pilot to pre-record rape complainers' statements; notes the progress of the Misogyny and Criminal Justice in Scotland Working Group, chaired by Baroness Helena Kennedy; acknowledges a new work stream to take a strategic approach to women in justice in the system to address the unique needs of women not currently being met, either as offenders or victims; commends the work of frontline criminal justice advocacy support services, which have worked tirelessly to redesign services and ensure that women and children can still access support throughout the pandemic, and encourages continued collaboration to ensure that the interests of victims of gender-based violence and those who rely on the justice system remain at the heart of necessary reforms, and to deliver a modern justice system fit for the future.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S6M-02306.3 Jamie Greene: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—As an amendment to motion S6M-02306 in the name of Keith Brown (Justice and the 16 Days of Action), insert at end “; recognises that women are overwhelmingly the victims of the most horrific crimes committed in Scotland, and believes that more victims of crimes such as sexual assault and domestic abuse should receive notification about the release date of the criminal in their case should they wish.”

S6M-02306.2 Pauline McNeill: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—As an amendment to motion S6M-02306 in the name of Keith Brown (Justice and the 16 Days of Action), insert at end “; considers that the exclusion of hate against women from existing hate crime legislation is an unacceptable gap in the law, and that misogynistic behaviour should be treated as a hate crime; believes that access to legal representation must be made easier for victims of domestic abuse and that the Scottish Government should evaluate specialist domestic abuse courts, particularly their impact on sentencing outcomes, the speed at which cases are dealt with and the experiences of victims, with a view to rolling out domestic abuse courts across Scotland.

followed by Committee Announcements

followed by Business Motions

followed by Parliamentary Bureau Motions

5:00 pm Decision Time

followed by Members' Business — S6M-01737 Jim Fairlie: Lamb for St Andrew's Day Campaign

S6M-01737 Jim Fairlie: Lamb for St Andrew's Day Campaign—That the Parliament congratulates all those who have been involved in the continuing #LambforStAndrewsDay campaign, including those in the Perthshire South and Kinross-shire constituency; notes the particular involvement of George Purves in establishing the programme in 2009; welcomes the participation of 180 schools from throughout Scotland, where, it understands, 30,000 portions of Scotch lamb will be cooked and served; considers that the campaign, which seeks to make Scotch lamb synonymous with celebrating St Andrew's Day, perfectly showcases some of the best of Scottish produce; welcomes all positive endeavours to build on the fantastic progress that has already been made, and notes calls encouraging everyone to make St Andrew's Day special by cooking top quality Scotch lamb in celebration.

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

*S6M-02327 Anas Sarwar: Protecting Patient Safety at the Queen Elizabeth University Hospital—That the Parliament has no confidence in the leadership of NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde, and believes that the Scottish Government must escalate the NHS board to Stage 5 of the performance escalation framework without delay.

Supported by: Jackie Baillie*, Paul O'Kane*, Carol Mochan*

*S6M-02326 Michael Marra: Action on Active Ventilation in Schools—That the Parliament notes with concern that case rates for COVID-19 continue to be highest among under-15s with seven-day case rates over 400 per 100,000; considers that reducing transmission of COVID-19 in schools will be crucial for reducing levels of the virus across the country and that the lack of proper ventilation is a worry for young people, teachers and parents; recognises that Scottish Government ministers have repeatedly failed to publish information on the rate of failure and criteria for their ventilation inspection scheme, which inspected 40,100 of 52,000 learning spaces between August and October 2021; agrees that, especially during the winter months, there is a need for more active ventilation in schools, and calls on the Scottish Government to ensure that local authorities have funding available to install at least two HEPA filters in each classroom in Scotland.

Supported by: Martin Whitfield*

*S6M-02306 Keith Brown: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—That the Parliament welcomes the opportunity to highlight the 16 Days of Activism to End Gender-Based Violence and to reaffirm a strong commitment and programme of action to prevent and eradicate all forms of violence against women and girls; recognises the opportunity as Scotland emerges from the COVID-19 pandemic to transform its justice services, ensuring effective, efficient and resilient services that meet the needs of people and reflect the role for justice in a modern society; welcomes the Scottish Government's commitment to setting in place the right legislative environment to support, enable and protect women and girls, including the introduction of world-leading human rights legislation furthering Scotland's international obligations; welcomes the planned establishment of a Governance Group comprising key stakeholders to progress the detailed consideration of the recommendations in the Lord Justice Clerk's Review Group report, Improving the management of sexual offence cases, including the potential introduction of specialist courts, and to identify and prioritise recommendations that can be taken forward without legislative change; recognises and reflects on the advancements made and key achievements to date, including the delivery of a pilot to pre-record rape complainers' statements; notes the progress of the Misogyny and Criminal Justice in Scotland Working Group, chaired by Baroness Helena Kennedy; acknowledges a new work stream to take a strategic approach to women in justice in the system to address the unique needs of women not currently being met, either as offenders or victims; commends the work of frontline criminal justice advocacy support services, which have worked tirelessly to redesign services and ensure that women and children can still access support throughout the pandemic, and encourages continued collaboration to ensure that the interests of victims of gender-based violence and those who rely on the justice system remain at the heart of necessary reforms, and to deliver a modern justice system fit for the future.

Supported by: Ash Regan*

*S6M-02306.3 Jamie Greene: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—As an amendment to motion S6M-02306 in the name of Keith Brown (Justice and the 16 Days of Action), insert at end “; recognises that women are overwhelmingly the victims of the most horrific crimes committed in Scotland, and believes that more victims of crimes such as sexual assault and domestic abuse should receive notification about the release date of the criminal in their case should they wish.”

*S6M-02306.2 Pauline McNeill: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—As an amendment to motion S6M-02306 in the name of Keith Brown (Justice and the 16 Days of Action), insert at end “; considers that the exclusion of hate against women from existing hate crime legislation is an unacceptable gap in the law, and that misogynistic behaviour should be treated as a hate crime; believes that access to legal representation must be made easier for victims of domestic abuse and that the Scottish Government should evaluate specialist domestic abuse courts, particularly their impact on sentencing outcomes, the speed at which cases are dealt with and the experiences of victims, with a view to rolling out domestic abuse courts across Scotland.

Supported by: Rhoda Grant*, Katy Clark*

*S6M-02306.1 Maggie Chapman: Justice and the 16 Days of Action—As an amendment to motion S6M-02306 in the name of Keith Brown (Justice and the 16 Days of Action), leave out from “; welcomes the Scottish Government's” to end and insert “, including the important work of tackling the backlog of court cases; welcomes the Scottish Government's commitment to setting in place the right legislative environment to support, enable and protect women and girls, including the introduction of world-leading human rights legislation furthering Scotland's international obligations; welcomes the planned establishment of a Governance Group comprising key stakeholders to progress the detailed consideration of the recommendations in the Lord Justice Clerk's Review Group report, Improving the management of sexual offence cases, including the potential introduction of specialist courts, and to identify and prioritise recommendations that can be taken forward without legislative change; recognises and reflects on the advancements made and key achievements to date, including the delivery of a pilot to pre-record rape complainers' statements; notes the progress of the Misogyny and Criminal Justice in Scotland Working Group, chaired by Baroness Helena Kennedy; acknowledges a new work stream to take a strategic approach to women in justice in the system to address the unique needs of women not currently being met, either as offenders or victims/survivors; commends the work of frontline criminal justice advocacy support services, which have worked tirelessly to redesign services and ensure that women and children can still access support throughout the pandemic, and encourages continued collaboration to ensure that the interests of victims/survivors of gender-based violence and those who rely on the justice system remain at the heart of necessary reforms, and to deliver a modern justice system fit for the future.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

*S6M-02301 Fulton MacGregor: Human Rights Day 2021—That the Parliament acknowledges that 10 December 2021 marks Human Rights Day; notes that the theme this year relates to Equality and Article 1 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which states that “all human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights”; understands that the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child is the most widely ratified human rights treaty in the world, and recognises that it sets out the specific rights that all children have to help fulfil their potential; welcomes what it sees as the Scottish Government’s commitment to the incorporation into law of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child to the maximum extent possible as soon as practicable; believes that a rights-based approach to key social policies is crucial to a future that is based on tolerance, equality, shared values, and respect for the worth and human dignity of all people in Coatbridge and Chryston, Scotland and beyond; notes the work of the First Minister’s Advisory Group on Human Rights Leadership and the recommendations of the National Taskforce for Human Rights Leadership, and welcomes the Scottish Government’s commitment to introduce a new Human Rights Bill in this parliamentary session.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-02300 Pauline McNeill: Crohn’s and Colitis Awareness Week—That the Parliament welcomes Crohn’s and Colitis Awareness Week, which runs from 1 to 7 December 2021; notes the importance of raising awareness of these incurable conditions for the reported one in 125 children and adults in Scotland living with them; notes the importance of early diagnosis and the need for high-quality specialist care and psychological support; understands that reduced access to essential healthcare services has impacted people with Crohn’s and colitis significantly during the COVID-19 pandemic; further understands that this has affected timely diagnoses and delayed investigations and surgery, leading one in five people to have flares of their condition, which in turn has affected the mental health of nearly a quarter of people with the conditions, resulting in unplanned, emergency surgery and urgent hospital admissions; considers that Crohn’s and colitis are serious conditions that need to be better prioritised as part of the NHS Recovery Plan; urges the Scottish Government to ensure that inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) services in all NHS boards are adequately resourced, and values the role of Crohn’s and Colitis UK in providing essential information and support to individuals and families.

*S6M-02297 Natalie Don: Recovery Across Mental Health Support for Renfrewshire Residents Experiencing Mental Health Challenges—That the Parliament commends the Recovery Across Mental Health (RAMH) staff and volunteers, in supporting Renfrewshire residents who have experienced mental health challenges during the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that the charity, which usually supports around 7,500 people across Renfrewshire and East Renfrewshire in their recovery from mental ill health each year, saw an increase of 10% in the number of individuals who have contacted it since March 2020; notes that many of those people seeking help were previously not known to the Renfrewshire Health and Social Care

Partnership's adult community mental health team, and have been experiencing COVID-19 related anxiety, both in terms of the social isolation suffered during times of restrictions, as well as in having concerns relating to the prospects or reality of unemployment and debt issues; encourages anyone in Renfrewshire aged 16 or over who is experiencing a crisis in their mental health to immediately reach out on an anonymous basis to RAMH's confidential FIRST Crisis service, whose trained staff and volunteers operate out of hours to offer personalised support to people who call freephone 0800 221 8929 between 9am and 8pm Monday to Friday or between 9am and 5pm on Saturday or Sunday, through steps that can help to improve their wellbeing and recovery, and wishes RAMH's dedicated staff and volunteers well for their future endeavours in providing life-enhancing person-centred support to residents across Renfrewshire who are struggling with their mental health.

*S6M-02295 Paul O'Kane: Towards a Scotland that Cares Report by Oxfam Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the report, Towards a Scotland that cares – a new National Outcome on Care for the National Performance Framework, by the University of the West of Scotland and supported by Oxfam Scotland, Carers Scotland, Scottish Care, the Scottish Women's Budget Group and One Parent Families Scotland; recognises that the COVID-19 pandemic has reinforced the foundational importance of care to all lives, as well as to society and the economy as a whole; notes with concern that too often caring for someone, whether paid or unpaid, and whether for adults or children, results in significant personal and economic costs for individuals and their families, including poverty; acknowledges that what it considers to be the systemic undervaluing of care is inextricably linked to care work being overwhelmingly carried out by women; welcomes the report's blueprint for a new national outcome on care; endorses its ambition to build on existing policy initiatives to drive deeper policy and spending action to better value and invest in care, while quantifiably tracking progress, and urges the Scottish Government to consult on the proposed national outcome, to enhance it where necessary, and then to speedily embed it within the National Performance Framework, making Scotland one of the first countries in the world to include such an explicit, cross-cutting and comprehensive commitment within its performance framework. R

*S6M-02294 Stuart McMillan: Inverclyde's Young People Elect Two New MSYPs—That the Parliament congratulates Maya McCrae, 16, and Keziah Rugumya, 17, on being elected to represent Inverclyde in the Scottish Youth Parliament; notes that 2,321 votes were cast online via the Young Scot website, in schools and at Inverclyde Council's iYouth Zones in Greenock and Port Glasgow; recognises that Maya and Keziah, who attend Clydevue Academy and Inverclyde Academy respectively, have been invited to take part in discussions with Inverclyde Council's education Directors to share their views and ideas for the benefit of local young people; welcomes Maya and Keziah's enthusiasm for ensuring young people's voices are heard on a range of important issues; commends their commitment to engage with local young people to find out what issues they would like to see their two new MSYPs take forward, and wishes them all the best in their new roles.

*S6M-02292 Bob Doris: In Memory of Pat Kenny, Pacing4Pat350—That the Parliament extends its warmest wishes to Pacing4Pat350, a 14-day charity fundraising walk from Maryhill in Glasgow to St Neots, Cambridgeshire, that is planned for 24 July 2022 in memory of Pat Kenny, who was originally from Kelvindale Road, Maryhill and who moved to Cambridgeshire at the age of nine in 2003, tragically taking his own life in St Neots on 7 February 2020 at the age of just 25; acknowledges the efforts of walk organisers, George and Cindy Downey, Pat's brother and sister-in-law, who have organised the 350-mile charity walk, which will visit various locations in Glasgow in memory of Pat and pay respect to other family members who have sadly also taken their own

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

Final Proposals for a Member's Bill

Pam Duncan-Glancy: Proposed Disabled Children and Young People Transitions (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to require the Scottish Ministers to introduce, and to implement, a statutory National Transitions Strategy to improve outcomes for disabled children and young people in the transition to adulthood; to require the Scottish Ministers to assign to a member of the Scottish Government, or to a junior Scottish Minister, special responsibility in relation to the exercise of their functions under the legislation; and to require local authorities to introduce a transitions plan for each disabled child and young person to ensure that each disabled child and young person receives appropriate care and support before, and during, the transition to adulthood. (lodged 9 November 2021)

The proposal was accompanied by a statement of reasons, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above, or in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
