followed by Scottish Government Debate: Supporting the people of Afghanistan

S6M-01003 Angus Robertson: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—That the Parliament records its alarm at the humanitarian and human rights crisis in Afghanistan following the return of the Taliban; further records its deep concern about the threat to life, liberty, equality, and human rights to all in Afghanistan and, in particular, for women and girls and minority communities; commends the Armed Forces, service personnel, and humanitarian agencies involved in supporting people during the evacuation; notes the UK's long history of involvement with, and intervention in, Afghanistan, and, in consequence, the obligation that the UK has to assist and support all those who are at risk of persecution or mistreatment as a result of the current crisis; recognises the lead role internationally that the UK Government must play in ensuring that aid continues to reach those who need it most and condemns the reduction in international aid by the UK Government from 0.7% of Gross National Income to 0.5%; urges the UK Government to ensure that those Afghans who have worked to provide critical aid assistance, uphold democracy, human rights and the rule of law in Afghanistan, can be allowed to settle in the UK alongside those who are at risk of violence and persecution as outlined in the UN Refugee Convention, and recognises that Scotland has a duty to play a full role in assisting the resettlement and relocation of Afghans at risk and providing humanitarian assistance, and that anyone settling in Scotland will be welcome members of the community.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S6M-01003.2 Donald Cameron: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—As an amendment to motion S6M-01003 in the name of Angus Robertson (Supporting the People of Afghanistan), leave out from ", in consequence" to "UN Refugee Convention" and insert "acknowledges the significant effort and sacrifices made by the UK armed forces, including the 457 personnel who lost their lives and the 2,200 personnel who were injured, and the Afghan people, in ensuring relative stability in Afghanistan over the course of the last 20 years; welcomes the announcement of Operation Warm Welcome by the UK Government, which seeks to ensure that those arriving from Afghanistan to the UK have the opportunity to rebuild their lives, find work, seek education and become part of their local communities; acknowledges that the UK Government has committed £200 million to meet the cost of the first year of the Afghanistan Citizens' Resettlement Scheme, which aims to welcome up to 20,000 Afghans; understands that the UK Government has also committed £2.7 million to additional mental health support for veterans as part of Operation Courage; calls on the UK Government to reinstate its long-term financial commitment to international aid at 0.7% of Gross National Income as soon as is practicably possible".

S6M-01003.3 Sarah Boyack: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—As an amendment to motion S6M-01003 in the name of Angus Robertson (Supporting the People of Afghanistan), insert at end “, and recognises the importance of Scottish local authorities, community organisations and individual citizens in helping ensure a successful transition for every refugee.”

S6M-01003.1 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—As an amendment to motion S6M-01003 in the name of Angus Robertson (Supporting the People of Afghanistan), insert at end "; urges the UK Government to expand urgently its plans for the resettlement of 20,000 Afghan refugees, with a new plan to provide immediate sanctuary to people fleeing persecution, oppression and terror, instead of spreading assistance over five years; believes that the resettlement of 20,000 people should be the starting point instead of the final target, and urges the Scottish Government, in light of the immediate human need, to share proactively evidence of the number that it can resettle and provide effective support and services to, including the capacity to provide physical and mental healthcare, housing, guardians, translators and education, providing guarantees that the Scottish Government and public authorities across Scotland are ready to assist, in order to help persuade the UK Government to lift the overall cap and enable Scotland to provide sanctuary to thousands."

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-01003 Angus Robertson: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—That the Parliament records its alarm at the humanitarian and human rights crisis in Afghanistan following the return of the Taliban; further records its deep concern about the threat to life, liberty, equality, and human rights to all in Afghanistan and, in particular, for women and girls and minority communities; commends the Armed Forces, service personnel, and humanitarian agencies involved in supporting people during the evacuation; notes the UK's long history of involvement with, and intervention in, Afghanistan, and, in consequence, the obligation that the UK has to assist and support all those who are at risk of persecution or mistreatment as a result of the current crisis; recognises the lead role internationally that the UK Government must play in ensuring that aid continues to reach those who need it most and condemns the reduction in international aid by the UK Government from 0.7% of Gross National Income to 0.5%; urges the UK Government to ensure that those Afghans who have worked to provide critical aid assistance, uphold democracy, human rights and the rule of law in Afghanistan, can be allowed to settle in the UK alongside those who are at risk of violence and persecution as outlined in the UN Refugee Convention, and recognises that Scotland has a duty to play a full role in assisting the resettlement and relocation of Afghans at risk and providing humanitarian assistance, and that anyone settling in Scotland will be welcome members of the community.

Supported by: Jenny Gilruth*

S6M-01003.4 Maggie Chapman: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—As an amendment to motion S6M-01003 in the name of Angus Robertson (Supporting the People of Afghanistan), insert at end "; agrees that this crisis highlights the need for Scotland to be able to make independent human and humane policy decisions relating to refugees, and condemns the proposed UK Nationality and Borders Bill as it, in its current form, presents a direct attack on refugee rights and contravenes the 1951 Refugee Convention."

S6M-01003.3 Sarah Boyack: Supporting the People of Afghanistan—As an amendment to motion S6M-01003 in the name of Angus Robertson (Supporting the People of Afghanistan), insert at end ", and recognises the importance of Scottish local authorities, community organisations and individual citizens in helping ensure a successful transition for every refugee."

S6M-00984 Emma Harper: Successful Sanquhar Arts Festival—That the Parliament congratulates the organisers and sponsors, Upper Nithsdale Tourism Partnership, Dumfries and Galloway Council and EventScotland, on organising the Sanquhar Arts Festival, which ran during the last weekend in August; understands that the Sanquhar Arts Festival, which debuted in 2019 and was held virtually in 2020 due to the COVID-19 restrictions, offered a packed programme of pandemic-safe and socially-distanced displays, exhibitions and performances for people from all walks of life to attend; notes that this year's festival included a pop-up cinema, model-makers, art displays, woodwork workshops, puppet shows, spooky stories from Dumfries Mostly Ghostly, sewing, flower arrangements, a praxinoscope display and much more, including musical events at the Crawick Multiverse; wishes the Sanquhar Arts Festival every success for the future, and thanks them for continuing with this important event in 2021.

S6M-00977 Gordon MacDonald: Ninth Edinburgh Traditional Building Festival—That the Parliament congratulates the Edinburgh Traditional Building Forum on delivering the ninth Edinburgh Traditional Building Festival in August 2021, which focussed on sustainability of traditional buildings; recognises the efforts of the forum to celebrate Edinburgh's traditional buildings, bringing together experts with the wider public online, in order to demonstrate knowledge and skills across a whole spectrum of traditional construction skills; understands that the festival was a collaboration between the National Federation of Roofing Contractors, Historic Environment Scotland, the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings (SPAB), the Built Environment Forum Scotland, the Stone Federation Great Britain, the British Geological Survey, Federation of Master Builders, Grand Bequest and City of Edinburgh Council Shared Repairs Service; believes that this collaborative approach plays a vital role in widening the public's understanding of the importance of maintaining Scotland's traditional buildings with the right knowledge and skills, and thanks each of the organisations for their ongoing efforts to protect and maintain Scotland's historic built environment.

S6M-00969 Pauline McNeill: Stop Illegal Lending—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the Scottish Illegal Money Lending Unit's new StopIllegalLending.co.uk website, which will provide advice and support to people on the issue of illegal money lending and loan sharks; understands that many people have experienced financial hardship as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and that many illegal lenders have moved online, using social media adverts and messages to take advantage of those who are most vulnerable; further understands that loans from illegal lenders can end up costing three times as much as a legal loan, and believes that raising awareness and providing support and advice is essential if we are to reduce the impact of loan sharks on the lives of people in Scotland.

S6M-00967 Karen Adam: Luke Buchan Donates Funds Raised for Cancelled Trip to Local Mental Health Charities—That the Parliament recognises the remarkable generosity of the Peterburgh activist, Luke Buchan, for his charitable work and contribution to the local community; understands that, having raised a sum of £2,000 for a World Challenge trip to India that was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Luke donated the amount raised in its entirety to Shirley's Space and Men United Peterhead, two local mental health charities; commends Luke for

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Carer's Allowance Supplement (Scotland) Bill (G)

Introduced, 22 June 2021

Lead committee - Social Justice and Social Security

European Charter of Local Self-Government (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (M)

Passed, 23 March 2021

The Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland.

Transvaginal Mesh Removal (Cost Reimbursement) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Stage 1 (lead committee, Health, Social Care and Sport), 31 August 2021

UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Legal Continuity) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 21 March 2018

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 16 March 2021

The Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland.
