R

S6M-01019 Finlay Carson: Love Lamb Week—That the Parliament supports Love Lamb Week, which began on 1 September 2021; urges farmers, chefs, butchers, supermarkets and consumers to back this, the seventh, annual celebration; recognises its key role as part of Quality Meat Scotland's Make it with Field Cred campaign to boost red meat sales; acknowledges the important role that sheep and farming play in Scotland, both in the highlands and the lowlands, thanks to its wonderful landscape and weather, which makes it one of the most suitable places in the world to sustainably farm and produce lamb locally; hopes that many people will enjoy the delicious examples of produce available during the event, and wishes the organisers every success in their latest bid to raise the profile of sheep farming.

S6M-01018 Emma Roddick: Laughing Tree Couriers—That the Parliament recognises the effort of Inverness-based Laughing Tree Couriers for the work that it does in using bicycles to deliver packages in the area at affordable rates; commends the promotion of local delivery via active travel; appreciates the effort of local businesses such as the Wee Fabric Shop in using Laughing Tree Couriers for customer order deliveries; welcomes the environmentally friendly approach to order delivery, and wishes everyone involved well in their future endeavours.

S6M-01016 Annie Wells: World Sepsis Day—That the Parliament acknowledges World Sepsis Day on 13 September 2021; understands that this World Sepsis Day marks the 10th anniversary of the event; further understands that sepsis arises when the body's response to an infection injures its own tissues and organs, which may lead to shock, multi-organ failure and death, particularly if not recognised early and treated promptly, and notes that the day hopes to increase public awareness and show support for people who have lost loved ones, or are sepsis survivors.

S6M-01015 Annie Wells: Emergency Services Day—That the Parliament acknowledges Emergency Services Day on 9 September 2021; understands that the day is also known as 999 Day and is a chance to support the heroic men and women of the NHS and emergency services; notes that the hashtag, #999Day, promotes the work of the emergency services, promotes using the emergency services responsibly, educates the public about basic lifesaving skills, and promotes the many career and volunteering opportunities available; acknowledges that volunteers are an essential part of the emergency services' family and play an important role in keeping people safe; acknowledges that 999 volunteer roles include Special Constables, Retained Firefighters, NHS Community Responders, St John Ambulance, Royal National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI), Search and Rescue and Coastguard volunteers, and thanks everyone working in the emergency services, who go above and beyond every day to help save lives and keep people safe.

S6M-01014 Annie Wells: Celebrating Rosh Hashanah, Jewish New Year—That the Parliament wishes all those celebrating Rosh Hashanah, which begins at sunset on 6 September and ending at nightfall on 8 September 2021, a "Shana Tova"; understands that Rosh Hashanah is the Jewish New Year and one of Judaism's holiest days; notes that the festival begins on the first day of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar; understands that Rosh Hashanah commemorates the creation of the world and marks the beginning of the Days of Awe, a 10-day period of introspection and repentance that culminates in the Yom Kippur holiday, also known as the Day of Atonement, and notes that many will be celebrating the Jewish New Year by attending synagogue, after which many will return home for a festive meal steeped in symbolism and tradition, and to spend time with family and friends while reflecting on the year before, the one that has past, and the year ahead to start afresh.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Emma Roddick*, Pauline McNeill*, Bill Kidd*, Craig Hoy*, Murdo Fraser*, Annabelle Ewing*, Pam Gosal*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Douglas Ross*, Meghan Gallacher*, Monica Lennon*, Stuart McMillan*, Jackie Baillie*

S6M-00992 Monica Lennon: Congratulations to Sharon Graham - New General Secretary of Unite the Union—That the Parliament congratulates Sharon Graham on being elected as the new General Secretary of Unite the Union; notes that she is the first woman to be elected to this position; understands that she has a strong track record of organising and building power in the workplace as a trade union organiser, campaigner and strategist; further understands that Unite has 1.2 million members across the UK, and that Sharon's appointment comes at a time when working people urgently need trade unions to fight hard for better pay, jobs and conditions, and wishes Sharon Graham all the best in her new role, including the campaign she is leading against Amazon for union recognition for its workers. R

S6M-00985 Carol Mochan: A Helping Hand for South Scotland—That the Parliament considers the UK's social security system to be cruel and hostile towards working people; believes that the current UK administration has failed to deliver a social security system that protects those in greatest need; recognises what it sees as the particular cumulative impact that such policies have had on communities across south Scotland, which it considers have borne the brunt of de-industrialisation over recent decades; understands that such impacts include between a 5% to 10% increase in the number of people who are dependent on universal credit in South and East Ayrshire, between May 2020 and May 2021; acknowledges what it sees as the detrimental effect that further cuts would have on a broad range of households in the South Scotland region, in particular those with young children, and believes that the Scottish Government has considerable underused powers over social security that are being neglected and which, if utilised, could alleviate this problem, including increasing the Scottish Child Payment to £20 per week, which it considers should be introduced as a matter of urgency.

S6M-00949 Sharon Dowey: Troon Volunteer Raises £1,145 for Ayrshire Cancer Support—That the Parliament commends Bob Faulks, of Troon, who has completed a cycle challenge from Troon to the Beatson West of Scotland Cancer Centre in Glasgow's West End; understands that Bob made the trip every day since 1 January 2021, totalling 5,250 miles in 232 days, which is a longer distance than if he were to go from Troon to Los Angeles; further understands that Bob wanted to raise funds ahead of Ayrshire Cancer Support's September A to B Challenge, which encourages cyclists to travel from locations in Ayrshire to the Beatson Centre and back; notes that Bob was successful in raising £1,145 for the charity; recognises the incredible work done by Ayrshire Cancer Support, whose drivers make about 12,000 journeys to the Beatson from Ayrshire every year to ensure cancer patients can access treatment there, and praises Bob on his charitable efforts.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
