Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S6M-03222 Pam Gosal: International Women's Day 2022—That the Parliament notes the achievement of women around the world on International Women's Day on 8 March 2022; welcomes the 2022 theme of #BreakTheBias; recognises the need to end what it sees as gender-based bias in Scotland's communities, workplaces, schools, colleges, and universities; considers that, whether deliberate or unconscious, bias inhibits the progress of women in society; further considers that gender equality is key to the elimination of violence against women; believes that this day should be used to reflect on the notable contributions made by women, celebrate women's achievements, and raise awareness about women's equality; further believes that women, especially BAME women, have been disproportionately impacted by the pandemic; notes with concern reports that female-owned businesses in Scotland have decreased since 2017; further notes the calls to help women realise their ambitions, especially in less female-dominated fields, such as STEM, and notes the calls to commit to promoting gender-inclusive practices, which can help business and policy-makers engage in diversity of thought.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-03325 Patrick Harvie: Scottish Social Housing Charter: April 2022 (SG/2022/32)—That the Local Government, Housing and Planning Committee recommends that the Scottish Social Housing Charter: April 2022 (SG/2022/32) be approved.

Supported by: Shona Robison, Christina McKelvie, Ben Macpherson

*S6M-03316 Humza Yousaf: Forensic Medical Services (Self-Referral Evidence Retention Period) (Scotland) Regulations 2022 [draft]—That the Health, Social Care and Sport Committee recommends that the Forensic Medical Services (Self-Referral Evidence Retention Period) (Scotland) Regulations 2022 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Kevin Stewart, Maree Todd

Services (Modification of Functions of Healthcare Improvement Scotland and Supplementary Provision) Regulations 2022 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Maree Todd, Kevin Stewart

*S6M-03313 Murdo Fraser: PKAVS Celebrates 50th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates Perth and Kinross Association of Voluntary Service (PKAVS) in celebrating its 50th anniversary; notes that PKAVS is a charitable organisation that helps more than 5,000 local people through its five hubs that focus on Carers, Minority Communities, Third Sector Interface, which includes volunteering, Mental Health and Wellbeing, and Shopmobility; further notes that PKAVS provides person-centred support and, it understands, works in partnership with local and national bodies, including Perth and Kinross Council and NHS Tayside, to connect with communities across Perth and Kinross, and wishes PKAVS all the best for its Civic Reception, in Perth, on 14 March 2022, and for the future.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Douglas Ross*, Russell Findlay*, Craig Hoy*, Douglas Lumsden*, Tess White*, Finlay Carson*, Monica Lennon*, Pam Gosal*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stuart McMillan*, Jamie Greene*, Donald Cameron*, Jeremy Balfour*

*S6M-03295 Liam Kerr: Congratulating Buckie's Roots for its Hard Work Building Community Spirit—That the Parliament commends the charity Buckie's Roots for what it sees as the great work it does for the local community of Buckie, by running schemes aimed at making the town look cleaner and brighter; understands that in 2022 it will be undertaking a planting programme and "the rest and remember" bench at the Speyside Way; understands that Buckie's Roots is a charity formed to help grow community spirit in Buckie through the regeneration of the green spaces around the town and that since February 2021 litter picking teams have collected 576.5 bags of litter; commends the local community and local businesses who help to support Buckie's Roots through donations, and wishes all involved at Buckie's Roots all the best for the future.

*S6M-03294 Liam Kerr: Embroiderers Guild Aberdeen 60th birthday —That the Parliament congratulates the Embroiderers Guild in Aberdeen on its 60th birthday; recognises what it sees as the incredible work that the Embroiderers Guild, now known as Aberdeen Stitch and Textile Group, do to educate and promote the skill of embroidery across Aberdeen; notes the long-term friendships that are formed at the Embroiderers Guild and the positive impact it has on the lives of its members, and wishes the Aberdeen Stitch and Textile Group and its members all the best for the future.

*S6M-03293 Liam Kerr: Keep Scotland Beautiful 2022—That the Parliament commends the work that the environmental charity Keep Scotland Beautiful is doing by inviting community groups to boost their areas and join their two initiatives, Beautiful Scotland and It's Your Neighbourhood; notes that the projects are run in partnership with the Royal Horticultural Society and allow volunteers and groups to benefit from free support, resources and recognition to help improve their local areas; understands that in 2021 Keep Scotland Beautiful supported over 250 groups across Scotland; further understands that groups with an interest in improving their local environment should register before 30 April 2022, and hopes that the initiatives are a great success.

*S6M-03291 Edward Mountain: Fearn Food Garden Restored Thanks to Local Community—That the Parliament recognises the work of the community that, it understands, helped to restore Fearn Food Garden in Easter Ross after Storm Corrie damaged the garden and polytunnel, leaving it in need of repair; understands that Fearn Food Garden donated grow-your-own kits of vegetable seeds to over 100 local families in 2021 and has also distributed over 2,500 free vegetable plants to the community and several schools; commends members of the local community who were quick to come to the aid of the garden, tidying it up and replanting vegetable plants that were upended by the storm, and hopes that Fearn Food Garden will long continue to provide valued community support.

*S6M-03289 Edward Mountain: Recognising the Work of Tongue Health Walks Group—That the Parliament recognises the work of Tongue Health Walks Group and their community support, which, it understands, is provided through a people-centred approach; commends Paths for All, who train the walk leaders and offer support as necessary on walks; notes what it sees as the commitment throughout the COVID-19 pandemic of the Tongue Health Walks Group, which is part of the Think Nature Health walks project, for being one group which sent emails, telephoned walkers and set up buddy walks with matching leaders to help combat loneliness, and wishes the group well as it continues to help many of those through their walks, strength and balance exercises, and other social activities.

*S6M-03288 Edward Mountain: Outstanding Performances for Highland Boxing Academy in Scottish Novice Championships—That the Parliament commends Highland Boxing Academy athletes on winning two gold medals at the Scottish Novice Championships; congratulates Joshua Morrison, who won gold in the middleweight youth division, and Mackenzie Tyronney, who also won gold in his age section; notes that the Highland boxing Academy head coach, Liam Foy, commended both fighters in their outstanding performances to become national champions, and wishes all members luck in future competitions.

*S6M-03286 Foysoyl Choudhury: No Smoking Day 9 March 2022 - Quit Your Way—That the Parliament welcomes No Smoking Day 2022, which takes place on 9 March 2022 and has the theme of Quit Your Way; understands that the day presents an opportunity to encourage people to consider quitting smoking in ways that work best for their individual circumstances, to improve both mental and physical health; recognises the work of charities such as ASH Scotland; understands that smoking is the biggest cause of preventable ill-health and early death in Scotland, with an estimated 100,000 hospitalisations and 9,000 deaths each year; commends the national stop-smoking service Quit Your Way Scotland, run by NHS 24, and local smoking cessation services, providing free person-centred support to individuals planning to stop smoking; encourages anyone in Scotland who has the goal of giving up smoking to contact a Quit Your Way adviser, by calling the free helpline on 0800 848484 or explore the NHS Inform website at nhsinform.scot/stop-smoking, and looks forward to Scotland making further progress towards what it sees as the goal of becoming tobacco-free by 2034.

*S6M-03282 Paul Sweeney: Support for Transport for Strathclyde Strategy—That the Parliament supports the vision of the Transport for Strathclyde: A New Public Transport Network strategy; understands that the document has been endorsed on a cross-party basis by local authority representatives on Strathclyde Partnership for Transport (SPT) since its publication in 2021; notes what it sees as the efforts of SPT to maintain and continue this cross-party support of Councillors in the future and for the implementation of the strategy; acknowledges what it sees as the importance of similar cross-party support from MSPs if the vision within the document is to be delivered; agrees with the ten tests within the document, including the creation of a public transport system which is available, accessible, affordable, ecologically and economically sustainable, integrated, efficient, reliable, safe and enjoyable; commends the work that is ongoing in communities, local authorities and through various partnerships, both regionally and locally, to improve the provision of public transport across the country; commits to taking a united view on the aims, vision and aspirations within the Transport for Strathclyde: A New Public Transport Network document, and calls on the Scottish Government to fully resource its implementation using the powers available in the Transport (Scotland) Act 2019.

Supported by: Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Martin Whitfield*, Monica Lennon*

*S6M-03277 Michael Matheson: Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2022 [draft]—That the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee recommends that the Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2022 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Richard Lochhead, Jenny Gilruth, Màiri McAllan

*S6M-03273 Donald Cameron: R&B Distillers to Open New Distillery Near Campbeltown—That the Parliament welcomes the news that R&B Distillers is to open a new distillery at Dhurrie Farm, in Machrihanish near Campbeltown, which, it understands, will create 20 new jobs locally; understands that the distillery will produce Campbeltown's first farm-to-bottle single malt in over 180 years; recognises that R&B Distillers was founded in 2015 and has already been producing single malt whisky and gin products at its Isle of Raasay distillery; believes that this is a sign that Campbeltown is a prime location for new investment, and wishes R&B Distillers well in its new venture.

Supported by: Pam Gosal*, Alexander Stewart*, Tess White*, Jamie Greene*, Murdo Fraser*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Russell Findlay*, Kenneth Gibson*, Douglas Ross*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Craig Hoy*

*S6M-03272 John Mason: World Radio Day 2022—That the Parliament notes that 13 February 2022 was World Radio Day; understands that after over a century of history, radio remains one of the most trusted and widely-used media; believes that radio has provided affordable access to information in real time across the world; notes that radio has expanded over the last few decades to broaden its operation and offer more ways to access information via podcasts and multimedia websites; believes that misinformation during the COVID-19 pandemic has eroded trust in social media, and traditional media, but that radio still remains trusted by many; considers that digital access to information is far from equal, both in Scotland and across the world; notes that radio can provide access even without the need for electricity or connectivity; thanks radio stations for the job that they do to keep the public informed and entertained, and hopes for the continued success of the radio industry over the years to come.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Murdo Fraser*, Annabelle Ewing*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Stuart McMillan*, Jackie Dunbar*

*S6M-03253 Sandesh Gulhane: Natural Environment Research Council Award to the University of Glasgow —That the Parliament congratulates the University of Glasgow on being awarded £10 million from the UK Government funded Natural Environment Research Council (NERC); understands that the fund supports research, training and knowledge transfer activities in the environmental sciences, to help the city of Glasgow move towards climate resilience whilst tackling health, social and economic inequalities; further understands that the University of Glasgow will work in partnership with Glasgow City Council, community groups and other partners to reach net zero by 2030 by focussing on a range of activities, including the capture of greenhouse gases in formerly derelict land, biodiversity improvement, valuing riverbanks as community places, promoting active travel and creating energy solutions; understands that, as lead partner in the Glasgow as a Living Lab Accelerating Novel Transformation programme

(GALLANT), the University of Glasgow's Centre for Sustainable Solutions will build on existing inter-disciplinary academic collaborations and develop new ones, as well as new ways of working to suit what it sees as these urgent challenges; further understands that over 50 researchers are engaged in a whole-systems approach that considers the co-benefits and trade-offs for public health, wellbeing, and the economy, and notes that the team uses Glasgow as a living lab to trial innovative, sustainable solutions, as the city seeks, it believes, to build on the legacy of COP26 through partnership between academia, the city council and communities, business and what it understands is the UK's largest funder of environment science.

Supported by: Pam Gosal*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Craig Hoy*, Tess White*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Russell Findlay*, Douglas Lumsden*, Douglas Ross*, Finlay Carson*, Murdo Fraser*, Edward Mountain*, Jamie Greene*

*S6M-03237 Marie McNair: Milngavie Students in All-Female Cyber Security Final—That the Parliament notes that the CyberFirst Girls Competition finalists included students, Erin Baird, Paddy Bhaumik, Charlotte Jones, and Zara Dallas-Wils from Douglas Academy in Milngavie; applauds their teacher, Mrs Maggie Tuohy, for encouraging the students participation in the contest; understands that the competition is run by the National Cyber Security Centre and that the UK-wide competition aims to inspire girls to pursue a career in cyber security; commends the efforts of the initiative and understands that female representation in the cyber sector is low at 16%; congratulates the pupils of Douglas Academy, and wishes them success in their chosen careers.

*S6M-03235 Alexander Stewart: Neurodiversity Celebration Week 2022 —That the Parliament welcomes Neurodiversity Celebration Week, which for 2022 will be held from 21 to 27 March; understands that Neurodiversity Celebration Week is a worldwide initiative that challenges stereotypes and misconceptions of learning disabilities and autism; notes that the initiative, which is endorsed by over 20 charities and many organisations, was started in 2018 by then 16-year-old Siena Castellon, an autistic student who also has dyslexia, dyspraxia and ADHD; understands that the initiative has two aims, which are to encourage and empower schools in their recognition of the strengths and talents of neurodivergent students, who think and learn differently, including students who are autistic, dyslexic, dyspraxic, or who have ADHD, and to address any lack of training that classroom teachers have in identifying and supporting their students with special educational needs by providing them with free resources; acknowledges that, according to the UK Department of Education, 15% of students in the United Kingdom have a learning difference; believes that this is likely to be an underestimation; understands that some classroom teachers and school staff may have no training on how to identify, understand and support students with learning and thinking differences or special educational needs (SEN); considers that years of what it sees as severe funding cuts to education in Scotland have decimated support services for neurodivergent students; believes that there is still a significant societal stigma and many misconceptions about learning and thinking differences that also create barriers for SEN students to have equal access to education; encourages the empowerment of neurodivergent students to achieve their potential by schools recognising and celebrating their many strengths and talents which, it considers, may not be showcased in the traditional classroom environment, and believes that these include creativity, innovation, the ability to think outside the box, problem-solving skills, unique insights and perspectives, in addition to what it sees as inherent perseverance and resilience.

of Clackmannanshire for the people of the Wee County to participate in the Queen's Green Canopy project and to Plant a tree for the Jubilee; understands that any tree planting on private land until December 2022 can be included in what it sees as this positive and inclusive initiative; understands that the Woodland Trust is making 3 million saplings available for schoolchildren, youth groups, local organisations, and community groups to plant and that these can be ordered online on the project's website; further understands that trees may also be purchased directly from The Woodland Trust or from local suppliers and included in the Green Canopy project; notes that people can upload details and photographs of their trees and hedges planted for the jubilee onto the Queen's Green Canopy project map webpage; understands that official plaques to mark the occasion for generations to come will be available to order online; considers that the aim of the Queen's Green Canopy project is to thank Her Majesty The Queen for what it sees as her exceptional service, celebrate her Platinum Jubilee, and promote the importance of trees to the environment through the encouragement of tree planting and tree preservation; commends this project for its focus on planting sustainably; considers that the Queen's Green Canopy will also encourage the planting of trees to create a legacy in honour of what it sees as the Queen's leadership of the nation, which, it believes, will benefit future generations, and hopes that, at a time, it believes, of such concern for the planet and the climate, the planting of individual trees, woods and large and small hedges will go some way to addressing those issues and will promote wildlife and biodiversity. R

*S6M-02983 Monica Lennon: Louise Caldwell's Campaign for Dedicated Facilities for Women Experiencing Unexpected Pregnancy Complications—That the Parliament pays tribute to East Kilbride resident, Louise Caldwell, for what it sees as her tireless campaigning on behalf of women who have experienced miscarriage and baby loss; understands that Louise's petition calling for dedicated maternity units for women experiencing unexpected pregnancy complications has collected over 30,000 signatures to date; further understands that Louise's experience of giving birth in a room next to families with new-born babies, after a scan had revealed her own baby had no heartbeat, added to her distress; believes that this experience will be familiar to many women throughout the country; welcomes the Scottish Government Women's Health Plan, which commits to establishing a dignified, compassionate miscarriage service, tailored to the needs of women, and calls for plans to roll out dedicated maternity facilities for women experiencing unexpected pregnancy complications to be accelerated across all health boards.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
