S6M-02770 Stuart McMillan: Robert Maxwell "Maxie" Hill, former 1st Port Glasgow BB Captain—

That the Parliament notes with great sadness the passing of Robert Maxwell (Maxie) Hill, who was twice the Captain of the 1st Port Glasgow Company of the Boys' Brigade (BB); recognises that Maxie was an ardent advocate of the BB, giving up his time willingly to shape the lives of so many boys over several decades; understands that Maxie will be missed by many in the BB and local community, including his former electoral ward in Port Glasgow where he was a local Councillor, and hopes that his commitment will inspire other men and boys to volunteer with the BB.

S6M-02768 Gillian Mackay: Former Scotland Striker Turns Barber—That the Parliament congratulates former Scotland international footballer, Lee Miller, on becoming a fully-qualified barber; notes that Lee had a successful career in football as a player featuring for many clubs, including Falkirk, Heart of Midlothian, Dundee United, Aberdeen, Middlesbrough, Kilmarnock, Livingston and more recently East Kilbride, as well as managing Falkirk until April 2021; understands that it can often be challenging for professional athletes, when retiring from sport, and that, in some cases, people can experience depression and poor mental health; congratulates Lee on making a success of his new career, and wishes him all the very best for the future.

S6M-02766 Alexander Stewart: Time to Talk Day 2022—That the Parliament welcomes Time to Talk day 2022, which takes place on 3 February, and is the day on which friends, families, communities, and workplaces come together to talk, listen and change lives; understands that it will see all four of the UK's anti-stigma programmes get together to challenge discrimination by encouraging people everywhere to have conversations, and that this is led in Scotland by See Me with SAMH (Scottish Association for Mental Health); believes that a small conversation about mental health has the power to make a big difference and that it is something that everyone can do; considers that small gestures can make a big difference, even when people have to be socially-distanced; applauds the work of the country's many mental health organisations, such as See Me and SAMH, which aim to support communities up and down the country in 2022 to have more mental health conversations than ever before; believes that talking about mental health reduces stigma, which helps to create supportive communities where people can talk openly about mental health and feel empowered to seek help when it is needed, and encourages everyone to take a look at the charities' online resources and activity packs and to start up mental health conversations with friends, neighbours, family, colleagues or whoever they believe it will make a difference to.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
