followed by Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee Debate: Ending Conversion Practices

S6M-03597 Joe FitzPatrick on behalf of the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee: Ending Conversion Practices—That the Parliament notes the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee's 1st Report, 2022, (Session 6), Report on Petition PE1817: End Conversion Therapy (SP Paper 88).

followed by Scottish Government Debate: COVID-19 – Scotland's Strategic Framework Update

S6M-03617 John Swinney: COVID-19 – Scotland's Strategic Framework Update—That the Parliament welcomes the publication of the Strategic Framework Update on 22 February 2022; offers its condolences to everyone in Scotland who has suffered loss and its gratitude to all those who have worked so hard and sacrificed so much during the pandemic; notes that Scotland is now able to look forward to the rest of 2022 with increased optimism, made possible by the remarkable progress on vaccination and in new treatments; supports the new strategic intent to manage COVID-19 effectively, primarily through adaptations and health measures that strengthen resilience and recovery, as the country rebuilds for a better future; acknowledges that the threat from COVID-19 has not gone away and that the approach is to manage COVID-19 going forwards on the basis of four broad response categories that reflect the assessed threat; notes that the Scottish Government will aim to convert remaining COVID-19 regulations into guidance to promote good public health behaviours, while retaining the ability to regulate in future should the public health situation require it; agrees that there is a need for collaborative management of COVID-19 to be shared by central and local government, wider public services, businesses, the third sector, communities and individuals, and notes that the pandemic has also exacerbated inequalities, poverty and disadvantage and that the Strategic Framework outlines a wide range of concrete actions that are designed to improve outcomes across society, consistent with the COVID-19 Recovery Strategy.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S6M-03617.2 Murdo Fraser: COVID-19 – Scotland’s Strategic Framework Update—As an amendment to motion S6M-03617 in the name of John Swinney (COVID-19 – Scotland’s Strategic Framework Update), leave out from “welcomes” to end and insert “notes the publication of the Strategic Framework Update on 22 February 2022; offers its condolences to everyone in Scotland who has suffered loss and its gratitude to all those who have worked so hard and sacrificed so much during the pandemic; notes that Scotland is now able to look forward to the rest of 2022 with increased optimism, made possible by the remarkable progress on vaccination and in new treatments; acknowledges that the threat from COVID-19 has not gone away but believes that the public in Scotland can be trusted to act responsibly and follow guidance promoting good public health behaviours and that, accordingly, ongoing regulations are not required; notes the overwhelming public opposition to the Scottish Government’s proposals to permanently hold emergency powers to make health regulations; agrees that there is a need for collaborative management of COVID-19 to be shared by central and local government, wider public services, businesses, the third sector, communities and individuals; notes that the pandemic has also exacerbated inequalities, poverty and disadvantage, and calls on the Scottish Government to bring forward credible proposals to tackle the NHS backlog, and invest in a national tutoring programme and school catch-up premium to support children and young people who have suffered from two years of disrupted learning.”

S6M-03617.1 Jackie Baillie: COVID-19 – Scotland’s Strategic Framework Update—As an amendment to motion S6M-03617 in the name of John Swinney (COVID-19 – Scotland’s Strategic Framework Update), leave out from "welcomes" to end and insert "notes the publication of the Strategic Framework Update on 22 February 2022; offers its condolences to everyone in Scotland who has suffered loss and its gratitude to all those who have worked so hard and sacrificed so much during the pandemic; notes that Scotland is now able to look forward to the rest of 2022 with increased optimism, made possible by the remarkable progress on vaccination and in new treatments; supports the new strategic intent to manage COVID-19 effectively, primarily through adaptations and health measures that strengthen resilience and recovery, as the country rebuilds for a better future; acknowledges that the threat from COVID-19 has not gone away and considers that there is a need to maintain Test and Protect infrastructure, including free access to testing, to help monitor and contain future outbreaks; agrees that there is a need for collaborative management of COVID-19 to be shared by central and local government, wider public services, businesses, the third sector, communities and individuals; believes that future closures of businesses and services should only ever be a last resort, and that businesses should have clarity in advance about the financial support that they will receive in such a situation; further believes that all future restrictions should be subject to a vote in the Parliament; notes that the pandemic has also exacerbated inequalities, poverty and disadvantage, and agrees that addressing these areas must be the priority of delivering a successful recovery."

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-03625 Keith Brown: A Person-centred, Trauma-informed Public Health Approach to Substance Use in the Justice System—That the Parliament believes that every drug-related death is unacceptable and that drugs deaths are a public health emergency; commits to save and improve lives through the National Mission and supports the implementation of the Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) standards; agrees with the Scottish Government's long-term aim that imprisonment should be reserved for individuals who pose a risk of serious harm; determines that access to high-quality drug treatment, rehabilitation and recovery services at appropriate points in the justice system, including in prison and police care, is vital; recognises the stigma associated with services and service users and the need to tackle this; supports the transformation of community justice services such as bail supervision and community sentences; reinforces the commitment to continue to improve support for people leaving prison, including access to community services upon liberation, and throughcare; welcomes the decision by the Chief Constable to roll out the carriage of naloxone across Police Scotland and the support of officers to help preserve life and keep people safe; supports the exploration of options to deliver safer drug consumption facilities, within the existing legal framework, to help save lives, and agrees that the development of treatment targets will drive forward the expansion of protective treatment services alongside investment, and that further consultation is needed to gauge public attitudes and explore the limitations of a public health response restricted by the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971.

S6M-03622 Mark Griffin: Young Carers Action Day—That the Parliament acknowledges that 16 March 2022 marks Young Carers Action Day, and welcomes the annual campaign initiative, led by Carers Trust Scotland; commends what it sees as the immense contribution that young carers make to society by caring for their family or friends who are ill, frail, disabled, or are experiencing poor mental health or dealing with addiction; recognises that the 2022 theme is "Taking Action on Isolation"; welcomes the research report by the Carers Trust, It's harder than anyone understands: The experiences and thoughts of young carers and young adult carers, which highlights feelings of isolation experienced by children and young people with caring responsibilities; is concerned at the report's findings that a third of young carers feel lonely and almost half feel less connected to others since the start of the pandemic; considers that it is important for young carers to get regular breaks from caring to reduce isolation; understands that young carers want lasting meaningful change to take place to ensure young carers now, and in the future, remain at the forefront of policy development and have access to the support that they may need to tackle and Take Action on Isolation; believes that all young carers should have a right to the breaks they need to support positive wellbeing, reduce social isolation, and live a fulfilled life alongside caring; urges that action is taken to increase the range of options for short break services to meet the varied and individual needs of young carers; considers that young carers across Scotland must have a fair chance to prosper in all aspects of their lives so that they can achieve their full potential, and wishes all those involved in this year's #YoungCarersActionDay the very best of luck in their endeavours.

S6M-03561 Michelle Thomson: National Lottery Funding for Community Wellbeing and Education CIC Falkirk—That the Parliament congratulates the Community Wellbeing and Education CIC Falkirk on securing National Lottery Community Funding; understands that the £10,000 award will be used to expand its resources to help female survivors of domestic abuse; notes what it sees as the importance of the funding to create a safe social space to allow female survivors to build their self-confidence and transferrable skills; considers that groups such as Community Wellbeing and Education CIC Falkirk have a significant impact in supporting females in rebuilding their lives and self-worth after domestic abuse; further congratulates Community Wellbeing and Education CIC Falkirk on successfully securing National Lottery Community Funding, and wishes the group well in its project.

S6M-03560 Beatrice Wishart: Shetland Schools Receive Green Flag for Environmental Work—That the Parliament congratulates pupils at Sandness and Dunrossness primary schools in Shetland who have each received an Eco-Schools Green flag for their environmental work; understands that the international award recognises schools that demonstrate a commitment to the Eco-Schools Scotland programme and, over two years, engage the whole school in climate action; further understands that Sandness Primary has held a Green Flag since 2019, and Dunrossness Primary has held one since 2007; commends pupils at both schools for their action on litter and climate; notes that environmental charity, Keep Scotland Beautiful, praised pupils' climate action activities as fantastic; praises what it sees as a great achievement by the pupils at Sandness Primary to maintain extremely low levels of litter, and what it sees as a worthwhile project by pupils at Dunrossness Primary to collect biodegradable snack waste for the compost heap every day; supports the aims of the Eco-Schools Green Flag accreditation to reward the ecological achievements of young people and motivate continued active engagement with environmental issues, and wishes the pupils of Sandness and Dunrossness primary schools well in their continued environmental work.

S6M-03559 Clare Adamson: The Health and Wellness Hub National Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates The Health and Wellness Hub, in Motherwell, on receiving funding from The National Lottery Community Fund; understands that this funding will be used to aid the group to establish two new local hubs in Craigneuk and Muirhouse to provide wellbeing support and holistic therapies to people in a local setting to help them build their confidence post-lockdown; commends the Hub's continued support for communities across Motherwell and Wishaw, and wishes it continued success in the future.

S6M-03558 Clare Adamson: The Brave Jnr Ltd National Lottery Funding Award—That the Parliament congratulates The Brave Jnr Ltd, on receiving funding from The National Lottery Community Fund; understands that this funding will be used to create an e-sports academy, which will include running gaming and employability lessons, workshops and tournaments by and for young people; notes that the The Brave Jnr is a not-for-profit youth e-sports organisation, which, it understands, is on a mission to empower young people in Scotland to build brighter futures through e-sports; commends the organisation's continued support for communities across Wishaw, and wishes it continued success in the future.

S6M-03557 Clare Adamson: ML2 Action Sports Group CIC National Lottery Funding Award—That the Parliament congratulates ML2 Action Sports Group CIC, on receiving funding from The National Lottery Community Fund; understands that this funding will be used to support the delivery of coached sessions in action sports; notes that the project aims to provide social, educational and recreational opportunities for young people in the Wishaw area, particularly those from disadvantaged backgrounds; commends the Group's continued support for communities across Wishaw, and wishes it continued success in the future.

S6M-03552 Paul O'Kane: The End of Linda Muir's Tweenies Club—That the Parliament congratulates Linda Muir on successfully running the Tweenies Club in Neilston for over 30 years and, by doing so, providing a fun recreational service for children aged four to seven in Neilston; understands that hundreds of young people have benefited and that Linda Muir selflessly kept the Tweenies Club running throughout the lockdown periods of COVID-19 by offering online activities; celebrates that the Tweenies Club was able to fundraise for important charitable organisations, and understands that Linda Muir was uncertain about her decision to end the Tweenies Club but believes she should look back and be immensely proud of the work she did, whether it was the valuable childcare experience she gave to those who helped her run the club, or the fun and joy she gave to the children of Neilston for more than three decades.

S6M-03490 Siobhian Brown: Colin Russell, Ayr—That the Parliament applauds Colin Russell, from Ayr, for completing a 40-day camping challenge to raise money for Ayrshire Cancer Support; understands that Colin endured challenging weather conditions and freezing temperatures to raise £2,385 for the charity that supported Colin's mum by providing free transport to her hospital appointments; notes that Colin will also take part in the Camp Out for Cancer – Extreme at Ayr Racecourse, with other fundraisers to raise money for the charity; commends Colin for challenging himself to help people and families in Ayrshire who are living with cancer, and wishes him all the best for the future.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
