Debate on the subject of—

S6M-06610 Fulton MacGregor: Programme Promoting the Benefits of Shared Parenting—

That the Parliament notes what it sees as the importance of the involvement of both parents when bringing up a child; asserts that every child of separated parents deserves the love and support of both of their parents; believes in the need for parents to co-operate where appropriate; understands that research has shown that there is a lack of support for children of separated parents; considers that parents, including in the Coatbridge and Chryston constituency, may need help to make important decisions about sharing the care of their children; acknowledges the view that there is a need for public policy to recognise these challenges; praises Shared Parenting Scotland for piloting the New Ways for Families programme; recognises that the online programme focuses on the key skills of emotion management, flexible thinking and behaviour moderation; applauds the ethos of the programme, which, it considers, puts children first, as well as focusing on improving co-parenting and making decisions together out of court; notes reports that a similar programme introduced in Canada saw a significant increase in parenting co-operation upon completion, and congratulates Shared Parenting Scotland for securing £16,500 worth of funding from the Scottish Government, The National Lottery, and an anonymous trust in order to deliver the programme.

believes that” to end and insert “, as expressed in the referendum on 18 September 2014; believes that the Scottish Government must give priority to resolving the crisis in the NHS, which is having a hugely negative impact on staff and patients alike, with unprecedented treatment backlogs and BMA Scotland warning that patient safety is “at risk every day” in emergency departments; further believes that Scottish Government time must be further dedicated to resolving the ongoing disputes with nurses and teachers, providing more help with the cost of living crisis, ensuring councils are able to provide essential services, implementing proper funding and services for long COVID patients, closing the poverty-related attainment gap and delivering on Scotland’s net zero targets; condemns the fact that parliamentary time has been used to promote party political wants over what the country needs, and calls on the Scottish Government to stop work on any planning for a future independence referendum, in order to redirect time and money to tackling the urgent problems that Scotland faces today.”

S6M-07429.1 Donald Cameron: People’s Right to Choose - Respecting Scotland’s Democratic Mandate—As an amendment to motion S6M-07429 in the name of Angus Robertson (People’s Right to Choose - Respecting Scotland’s Democratic Mandate), leave out from “reaffirms its belief” to end and insert “recognises that the people of Scotland voted decisively to remain within the United Kingdom in 2014; agrees that another divisive referendum should not be a priority during the ongoing cost of living crisis, and believes that it should focus its time on addressing the pressing issues that the country faces, including the current issues facing the NHS.”

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-07215 John Mason: Promoting the Benefits of Camping—That the Parliament welcomes the Outjoyment Report conducted by Liverpool John Moores University and Sheffield Hallam University; acknowledges that the report, commissioned by The Camping and Caravanning Club, surveyed nearly 11,000 people to assess their attitudes toward the benefits of camping; recognises that the report found that 97% of campers said happiness was their top motivator for going camping, while 48% of campers reported feeling happy almost every day, compared with 35% of non-campers; further recognises that the report found that 93% of people go camping to enjoy being in nature, while 93% of campers value camping for the benefits it has for their health and wellbeing; notes the reported concerns raised by communities around Scotland that short-term lets, such as Airbnb, are changing the make-up of communities and their economies; reflects that, given these considerations, along with what it sees as the need to provide incentives to support local economies following the COVID-19 pandemic, the promotion of camping and its benefits are important; believes that promoting camping is also important in cultivating, especially in children, an appreciation for the environment and a passion to protect it; notes the belief that citizens across Scotland, including in the Glasgow Shettleston constituency, should consider the benefits of camping breaks for both their own health and Scotland’s local economy, and thanks Liverpool John Moores University and Sheffield Hallam University for what it considers this insightful report.

S6M-07390 John Mason: Taliban University Ban—That the Parliament condemns the Taliban's reported ban on women studying at university; understands that the Taliban's reasoning is that female students are not adhering to its interpretation of the Islamic dress code and interaction between students of different genders; notes that a video obtained by the Associated Press reportedly appears to show Taliban security using violence to disperse protesters, with reports of beatings and whippings taking place also; deplores the comments by the acting Afghan higher education minister, Neda Mohammad Nadeem, who is reportedly quoted as saying "girls were studying agriculture and engineering, but this did not match Afghan culture...girls should learn, but not in areas that go against Islam and Afghan honour"; understands that, following the reported university bans, the Taliban ushered in bans against women working for non-governmental organisations; further understands that, given these reported bans, a number of aid organisations have suspended their work in Afghanistan because of the need for women to carry out certain work, especially in assisting other women; welcomes the international community's reported condemnation of such bans; expresses its solidarity with the women affected by such bans, and hopes that there will be a free and safe Afghanistan for women and all citizens in the future.

cardiac arrest, and that Connor has since gone on to raise nearly £10,000 for BHF; understands that, in order to mark his uncle's 35th birthday, Connor organised a sponsored cycle where he cycled 35km and raised more than £3,000 and, following this, swapped his bike for hiking boots, taking on his latest challenge of walking the 154km West Highland Way, walking the route in just five weekends, and completing the challenge again on his uncle's birthday; notes that this was Connor's favourite fundraising challenge so far and that his parents could not be prouder of their nine-year-old son, and commends Connor on this fantastic achievement.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
