followed by Scottish Government Debate: Local Government Finance (Scotland) Order 2023

S6M-08007 Tom Arthur: Local Government Finance (Scotland) Order 2023 [draft]—That the Parliament agrees that the Local Government Finance (Scotland) Order 2023 [draft] be approved.

followed by Ministerial Statement: Update on Scotland's Deposit Return Scheme followed by Scottish Government Debate: Dementia Strategy

S6M-08053 Kevin Stewart: Dementia Strategy—That the Parliament welcomes the holding of a National Conversation to inform a New Dementia Strategy for Scotland in late 2022; recognises the key themes that have emerged from this National Conversation, including the need to change how dementia is talked about; supports the Scottish Government's commitment to challenge stigma and promote and protect the rights of people with dementia as valued citizens of Scotland, to value the importance of grassroots community projects to individuals, families and local communities, and to build on Scotland's world-leading commitment to post-diagnostic support to ensure that all people with dementia have the opportunity to benefit from it; supports the need for a long-term vision and set of priorities to improve the experiences and quality of support and services for people living with dementia and those who provide them with care and support; recognises the value of established lived experience groups, and welcomes action by the Scottish Government to build on this and work with the National Dementia Lived Experience Panel and other key stakeholders to develop a new Dementia Strategy for Scotland.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S6M-08053.2 Sandesh Gulhane: Dementia Strategy—As an amendment to motion S6M-08053 in the name of Kevin Stewart (Dementia Strategy), insert at end "; recognises that improvements in social care, primary care and delayed discharge would make a huge improvement to the quality of life of people with dementia, and calls on the Scottish Government to make these improvements at pace."

S6M-08053.1 Paul O'Kane: Dementia Strategy—As an amendment to motion S6M-08053 in the name of Kevin Stewart (Dementia Strategy), insert at end "; regrets that the current NHS workforce challenges are impacting on dementia care, with timely access to diagnosis and post-diagnostic support becoming a postcode lottery, and calls on the Scottish Government to publish a plan for ending the high level of delayed discharge among dementia patients, and to improve support for people with dementia by removing non-residential social care charges and increasing the availability of care packages, supported by efforts to grow the social care workforce by delivering an immediate increase in pay to at least £12 per hour, and a plan to increase pay to £15 per hour by the end of the current parliamentary session."

followed by Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body Debate: Appointment of Members of the Standards Commission for Scotland

S6M-08037 Maggie Chapman on behalf of the Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body: Appointment of Members of the Standards Commission for Scotland—That the Parliament agrees, under section 8 of the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000, to appoint Helen Donaldson and Anne-Marie O'Hara as Members of the Standards Commission for Scotland.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-08073 Angus Robertson: Arctic Connections – Scotland’s Growing Links with the Arctic—That the Parliament acknowledges Scotland’s strategic role as the world’s most northerly non-Arctic nation; agrees on the value of increasing collaboration between Scotland and its Arctic partners; welcomes the distinctive profile and reputation that Scotland has built internationally as an expert contributor to Arctic cooperation; recognises the importance of offering knowledge to promote sustainable development in the region, while learning from best practice developed there; calls for the Arctic to remain safe, stable and peaceful; acknowledges the particular threat posed to the Arctic by the climate crisis, and the need for climate action to be at the heart of Arctic cooperation, and supports the continued engagement with Arctic states, nations and regions to pursue sustainable trade opportunities, develop joint solutions that strengthen community resilience and mark longstanding cultural ties.

Supported by: Neil Gray*

S6M-08053 Kevin Stewart: Dementia Strategy—That the Parliament welcomes the holding of a National Conversation to inform a New Dementia Strategy for Scotland in late 2022; recognises the key themes that have emerged from this National Conversation, including the need to change how dementia is talked about; supports the Scottish Government’s commitment to challenge stigma and promote and protect the rights of people with dementia as valued citizens of Scotland, to value the importance of grassroots community projects to individuals, families and local communities, and to build on Scotland’s world-leading commitment to post-diagnostic support to ensure that all people with dementia have the opportunity to benefit from it; supports the need for a long-term vision and set of priorities to improve the experiences and quality of support and services for people living with dementia and those who provide them with care and support; recognises the value of established lived experience groups, and welcomes action by the Scottish Government to build on this and work with the National Dementia Lived Experience Panel and other key stakeholders to develop a new Dementia Strategy for Scotland.

Supported by: Humza Yousaf, Maree Todd

in social care, primary care and delayed discharge would make a huge improvement to the quality of life of people with dementia, and calls on the Scottish Government to make these improvements at pace."

S6M-08053.1 Paul O'Kane: Dementia Strategy—As an amendment to motion S6M-08053 in the name of Kevin Stewart (Dementia Strategy), insert at end "; regrets that the current NHS workforce challenges are impacting on dementia care, with timely access to diagnosis and post-diagnostic support becoming a postcode lottery, and calls on the Scottish Government to publish a plan for ending the high level of delayed discharge among dementia patients, and to improve support for people with dementia by removing non-residential social care charges and increasing the availability of care packages, supported by efforts to grow the social care workforce by delivering an immediate increase in pay to at least £12 per hour, and a plan to increase pay to £15 per hour by the end of the current parliamentary session."

Supported by: Paul Sweeney*

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S6M-08071 Bob Doris: Rare Disease Day 2023—That the Parliament notes that Rare Disease Day 2023 takes place on 28 February and that the theme for the global day is Share Your Colours, which is a call to patients, governments and all stakeholders in positions of power to do all that they can to remove the stigma around patients with rare diseases, and to work collaboratively to raise awareness of the challenges that such patients face; welcomes that this year will see the return of an in-person rare disease parliamentary event in the Scottish Parliament on 15 March; recognises the significance of Rare Disease Day and annual parliamentary reception to people in Scotland with rare diseases; understands that over 320,000 people in Scotland are living with a rare condition; further understands that one in 17 people will be affected by a rare condition at some point in their lives and that the majority of rare conditions have no effective treatment; understands that, on average, it takes over four years to receive an accurate diagnosis of a rare condition, and that there are over 7,000 rare conditions, including rare cancers such as childhood cancers and other well-known conditions such as cystic fibrosis and Huntington's disease; welcomes the publication of the Rare Disease Action Plan for Scotland, which launched on 19 December 2022; notes the view that there is a need for ongoing engagement with people with rare diseases to ensure that the plan is successfully implemented, and further notes the belief that the plan should form the basis of ongoing engagement with people in Scotland with rare diseases in order to deliver for those with rare, genetic and undiagnosed conditions, as well as their families.

(b) that, for the purposes of Portfolio Questions in the week beginning 6 March 2023, in rule 13.7.3, after the word "except" the words "to the extent to which the Presiding Officer considers that the questions are on the same or similar subject matter or" are inserted.

S6M-08047 Sharon Dowey: Belmont Academy Recognised as a Reading School by the Scottish Book Trust—That the Parliament congratulates Belmont Academy in Ayr on receiving the Reading Schools accreditation; notes that Reading Schools is an accreditation programme, run by the Scottish Book Trust, for schools that are committed to building a reading culture for their learners and communities; understands that the school was awarded this accolade after it got involved in a series of reading activities, which included audiobooks and health and wellbeing research challenges; further understands that the activities were set up by the school's Reading Leadership Group, which is made up of staff and pupils from S1 to S6; commends the teachers, staff and pupils at Belmont Academy for this fantastic achievement, and wishes everyone the very best in their future studies.

S6M-08045 Emma Harper: Blue Bell Inn in Annan—That the Parliament congratulates the Blue Bell Inn in Annan, Dumfries and Galloway, and its manager, Charmaine Kerr, on their remarkable achievement of winning the Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA) Dumfriesshire area Pub of the Year Award for a fourth year in a row; notes that the Blue Bell Inn also won the CAMRA Cider Pub of the Year 2023, out of the 42 Dumfries and Stewartry CAMRA sub-branch members; understands that CAMRA is a member-supported organisation that advocates for real ale to be stocked in independent pubs; notes that the historically important, grade C listed former coaching inn, which dates from 1770 and was once visited by the renowned Danish author, Hans Christian Andersen, is brewing its own “Wotte and Bailey” beer; commends the Blue Bell Inn for hosting a cider festival on 28 May 2023 and a beer festival from 27 to 28 August 2023; wishes both the cause of real ale brewing and the Blue Bell Inn every success for the future, and encourages all to visit the inn when in Annan.

S6M-08044 Jim Fairlie: Comrie Primary School Success at Scottish Bread Championships—That the Parliament congratulates Comrie Primary School on its incredible achievement of winning a silver medal for its "Shaky Toon Loaf" at the Scottish Bread Championships on 25 February 2023, at the inaugural Scottish Real Bread Festival at Bowhouse in Fife; understands that the judging was undertaken by a panel of chefs, grain experts and representatives of the Real Bread Campaign, who tested for bread made naturally and with wholesome ingredients; notes that Comrie Primary School was judged on merit alone, and considers that its success is testament to the school's Breaducation project, which encourages students to grow, harvest, thresh and mill their own wheat in Comrie in order to create their own bread; commends Comrie Primary School for this incredible project, which gives students a hands-on demonstration of food production from an early age by working alongside parents, teachers, volunteers and the local farming community, and also introduces an exciting insight into how their food is made and highlights the value of nutrition from an early age; believes that the Breaducation project can set a good example for schools across Scotland to follow and adopt, and that local authorities should consider assisting schools to enable them to pursue and deliver this kind of innovative project; recognises the efforts of the Wild Hearth Bakery for bringing the project to life, and wishes the pupils of Comrie Primary School and the supporters of Breaducation continued success as they work towards the goal of introducing a micro-bakery at the school where children are put on a rota to make bread for the school every day.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
