- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-11863 Paul O'Kane: "Benefitting Older Carers" Campaign Launch—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the "Benefitting Older Carers: improving social security support for older unpaid carers" campaign; further welcomes the opportunity to highlight what it sees as the challenges that the overlapping benefit rule between Carer's Allowance and State Pension poses for older adult unpaid carers; notes the data published by the Scottish Government in 2023, which found that 40,937 unpaid carers were entitled to Carer's Allowance but did not receive payments, due to reasons such as being in receipt of another benefit, including a State Pension; further notes the research published in 2023 by Carers Trust Scotland, Experiences of Older Adult Unpaid Carers in Scotland, which found that unpaid carers with underlying entitlement to Carer's Allowance consider this overlapping benefit rule to be unfair, and that many older adult unpaid carers do not get any additional financial support in recognition of their caring role and the additional costs incurred by being unpaid carers; acknowledges Carers Trust Scotland's recommendation that the Scottish Government prioritise financial support by extending Carer Support Payment to older adult unpaid carers with underlying entitlement who are receiving State Pension, and recognises what it sees as the vital role that older adult unpaid carers play and the importance of further discussions as to how this demographic of unpaid carers can be better supported.

*S6M-11862 Claire Baker: Recognising the Success of Businesses in the Mid Scotland and Fife Region at the Scottish Asian Food Awards 2023 —That the Parliament recognises the success of businesses in the Mid Scotland and Fife region at the recent Scottish Asian Food Awards 2023 ceremony in Glasgow; notes that Namaste Indian Restaurant was named winner in the Best in Fife category, with the Dunfermline-based eatery also achieving a highly commended ranking in the Outstanding Asian Restaurant of the Year category; understands that Koku Shi, also of Dunfermline, was runner-up and gained a highly commended recognition in the Best of Fife category, and that Koku Shi's sister restaurant in Kirkcaldy won the best Japanese Restaurant of the Year award; further understands that Mystic Dragon, in Cupar, received a highly commended recognition in the Asian Food of the Year category, and that CombiniCo, in St Andrews, won the category for Takeaway and Home Delivery of the Year; appreciates that Udon Thai Street Food, based in Leven, won the Best Thai Restaurant of the Year award; recognises that the Curry Takeaway of the Year award went to Aladdins Indian Takeaway, in Perth, and that Pegasus

Kebab House, also of Perth, was highly commended in the Turkish Restaurant of the Year category; further recognises that Voter's Choice Restaurant of the Year was awarded to Cidsin Bistro, in Pitlochry; considers that the awards celebrate culinary excellence and cultural diversity within the Asian food industry in Scotland, and that these awards are a recognition of the high quality of standards, commitment and dedication from businesses in the Mid Scotland and Fife region, and extends its very best well wishes to all of the winners for continued success in the future.

*S6M-11858 Sarah Boyack: Chris Stark Steps Down from Climate Change Committee— That the Parliament commends Chris Stark on his time as chief executive of the Climate Change Committee (CCC), following the announcement that he will step down after six years in the role; recognises what it sees as the important work that he did in leading the CCC and advising both the UK and Scottish governments on their respective climate change commitments; believes that Mr Stark has worked tirelessly to advocate and advise on ambitious green targets, including recommending that the UK set a net zero target for 2050, which was adopted and introduced into law; recognises his reported stark warnings that a lack of action now would risk undermining ambitious targets and place millions of people at risk, and wishes him luck in his new role as the chief executive of the Carbon Trust.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Mark Ruskell*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Audrey Nicoll*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Monica Lennon*

*S6M-11857 Kevin Stewart: UK Only G7 Country Where Household Budgets Have Not Recovered to Pre-pandemic Levels— That the Parliament notes the analysis by the Trade Union Council, using data from the UK's own Office for Budget Responsibility, which shows that the UK is the only country in the G7 where household budgets have fallen compared to before the COVID-19 pandemic levels; believes that this UK-specific economic decline is the root cause of the cost of living crisis; considers that the failing UK is a millstone around the neck of Scotland and her people, and is dragging down both household budgets and national finances, and believes that only independence can deliver Scotland from what it sees as the blight of broken Brexit Britain, and what it considers the "sick man" of the G7.

commends First Bus's commitment; understands that its decision will make it the largest bus operator in the UK to sign up to the real Living Wage, and commends all employers that have signed up to paying the real Living Wage and have continued to maintain that commitment.

*S6M-11854 Alexander Burnett: Douneside House and the MacRobert Trust Raise £7,000 for Local Charities—That the Parliament congratulates the volunteers who work at Douneside House and the MacRobert Trust on raising £7,000, which was donated to well-known north east charities, Befriend a Child and Gordon Rural Action; considers that both charities do fantastic work to help families in the local area; understands that a light trail and Santa's Grotto charity event were held at award-winning country house hotel, Douneside House in Tarland; further understands that the MacRobert Trust, the charitable trust that owns and runs Douneside House, covered all the event costs, which meant that 100% of the proceeds went to the charities; notes that a raffle on the day also contributed to the money raised, with prizes from Spar Shop Bellabeg, Top T Toe in Aboyne, Glentanar Equestrian, Village Premier Shop in Tarland, WoodWinter Wines and Whiskies, Royal Lochnagar Whisky Distillery, The Black Faced Sheep in Aboyne, Go View Media, Strong Water Co in Banchory, Macbeans Coffee and Vouchercart, and believes that this charity event shows the great community spirit of Aberdeenshire.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
