Debate on the subject of—

S6M-16633 George Adam: Celebrating the University of the West of Scotland's

Groundbreaking Foundation Academy—That the Parliament applauds the work of the University of the West of Scotland (UWS) and what it sees as the groundbreaking work that it is doing with the Foundation Academy, which is a 12-month programme helping pupils across S5 and S6 to develop academic skills, experience university-level study, and visit a university campus in order to boost their confidence in pursuing higher education and strengthen university applications; understands that the programme is the first of its kind in Scotland and has been recognised by various institutions as an alternative pathway to meeting the required qualifications to enter university; acknowledges how successful the academy has reportedly been for the thousands of pupils who have benefited from the additional support offered since the launch of the programme in 2022, and praises the time and effort of all those involved in the creation and running of the programme for the impact that this is having on pupils, including those in the Paisley constituency, who otherwise may not have been able to attend university.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-17049 Gordon MacDonald: Construction Skills for the Future—That the Parliament recognises reports of the continued skills gap in the construction sector, including in the Edinburgh Pentlands constituency; notes recent statistics from the Chartered Institute of Building (CIOB) indicating positive shifts in perceptions of the sector across the country and, it understands, that almost three quarters (74%) of young people aged between 16 and 24 in Scotland hold a positive view of construction careers and more than a third (36%) would consider working in the construction sector; further notes the belief that more must be done to increase awareness of careers in the sector to ensure that the construction industry has a steady supply of labour with the necessary skills, and welcomes industry-led initiatives that seek to increase engagement between young people and Scotland's construction sector such as the CIOB's Student Challenge and the Scottish Traditional Building Forum's skills demonstration programmes.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-17043 Annie Wells: University of Strathclyde Retains the Glasgow Taxis Cup—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Strathclyde on retaining the Glasgow Taxis Cup for the third time since 2022; recognises what it sees as the significance of the event as Scotland's largest student varsity sporting competition, with over 700 students participating across 17 different sporting disciplines; acknowledges the hard-fought competition and the spirit of sportsmanship displayed by all participants, including from the University of Glasgow and Glasgow Caledonian University; notes the contribution of volunteers, supporters and organisers who worked behind the scenes to ensure the event's success; commends the exciting and inclusive atmosphere generated by the event, which celebrated not only the competitive nature of university sport, but also the sense of community and togetherness that it fostered; congratulates Dougie McPherson, Chairman of Glasgow Taxis, for his continued support of the event, which it considers has been instrumental in its success, and wishes the University of Strathclyde continued success in future editions of the Glasgow Taxis Cup.

S6M-17030 Annie Wells: New Modelling Tool to Help Protect Wildlife from Offshore

Developments—That the Parliament welcomes the development of a ground-breaking modelling tool by researchers at the University of Glasgow, which enhances the protection of seabirds from the impacts of offshore wind farms; understands that the tool, published in the journal, Methods in Ecology and Evolution, is the first of its kind to accurately predict seabird colony space use without the need for extensive satellite tracking data; notes that the new model demonstrated a 73% accuracy rate, significantly outperforming current assessment methods; believes that the tool has the potential to improve the decision-making process for offshore windfarm developments by reducing the risk of building in areas with high bird density or unnecessarily rejecting projects due to inaccurate data; considers that this innovation could play a key role in balancing the growth of renewable energy with the protection of marine biodiversity, and notes the tool's applicability in assessing the spatial use of other colonial wildlife such as seals, bats and bees.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
