Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

-  before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-17485 Paul Sweeney: Appointment of the Patient Safety Commissioner for Scotland—

That the Parliament nominates Karen Titchener to His Majesty The King for appointment as the Patient Safety Commissioner for Scotland under schedule 1 paragraph 4 of the Patient Safety Commissioner for Scotland Act 2023.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-17479 Jackie Dunbar: Rubberatkins Honoured with King's Award—That the Parliament congratulates Aberdeen Donside-based company, Rubberatkins, which has recently been awarded the King's Award for Enterprise in the International Trade category; notes that Rubberatkins was founded in 1988 by husband and wife team, Nick Atkins and Jill Webster, and is a technology-driven company specialising in the design, development, manufacture and testing of bespoke, high-performance elastomer and plastic components, which are deployed in demanding environments across the energy, semiconductor, aerospace and other high-tech industries; understands that Rubberatkins is one of fewer than 200 UK businesses to receive this distinguished recognition in 2025, with the award representing the highest honour, as one of the most esteemed awards that can be awarded to a British company, which is also recognised worldwide; commends the efforts of all those who work at Rubberatkins, and wishes them all the best for the future.

Supported by: Audrey Nicoll*, Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Annabelle Ewing*, Colin Beattie*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-17477 Jackie Baillie: International Nurses' Day 2025—That the Parliament recognises that 12 May 2025 is International Nurses' Day; believes that nurses play vital and varied roles in delivering excellent care that saves and changes lives every day; understands that Nurses' Day is about celebrating this contribution and thanking nursing staff who are working in health and social care across the country for all that they do; understands that the Royal College of Nursing (RCN) is marking the day by highlighting the incredible skill, dedication and impact of nursing; notes that

Today's Business Gnothaichean an-diugh	Future Business Gnothaichean ri teachd	Motions & Questions Gluasadan agus Ceistean	Legislation Reachdas	Other Eile

the RCN believes that there needs to be a shift in how nursing is understood, recognised and valued, and that it is highlighting that, rather than a "calling" or a "vocation", nursing is a highly skilled and safety-critical profession, requiring remarkable dedication, professionalism and expertise; acknowledges what it sees as the challenges and pressures that nursing staff are under in health and care services across the country; welcomes the recent report and recommendations from the Nursing and Midwifery Taskforce; believes that, taken together, these recommended actions provide a strategic roadmap to begin to tackle nursing retention and recruitment in Scotland, and further believes that implementing the taskforce's recommendations is vital to ensuring that nursing is an attractive career choice, improving retention and, ultimately, developing a sustainable nursing workforce for the future.

Supported by: Paul Sweeney*

S6M-17476 Colin Beattie: Musselburgh Athletic, East of Scotland Premier Division

Champions 2024-25—That the Parliament congratulates Musselburgh Athletic on being crowned 2024-25 East of Scotland Premier Division champions, following its 4-0 victory against Sauchie Juniors; congratulates the club on its success after a tough campaign; notes that Musselburgh Athletic will now compete in the Lowland League play off, and wishes everyone involved at the club the very best of luck.

S6M-17475 Kenneth Gibson: Celebrating Brisbane's 200th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates the city of Brisbane on its 200th anniversary; acknowledges Brisbane as the capital and largest city of the state of Queensland, Australia, and the third most populous city in the country, with a population of approximately 2.8 million; notes that the Moreton Bay penal settlement was founded in 1824 at Redcliffe and moved to North Quay, on the banks of the Brisbane River, in May 1825; understands that it was named after Sir Thomas MakDougall Brisbane, the governor of New South Wales, who was born in Largs; recognises that Brisbane was designated as Queensland's capital in 1859, upon the state's split from New South Wales; appreciates Brisbane's historical significance during the Second World War, as the base for the allied command in the south west Pacific and the headquarters for General Douglas MacArthur of the United States Army; celebrates Brisbane's status as one of Australia's most popular tourist destinations, its recognition as the country's most biodiverse and greenest city, and its frequent high rankings in lists of the most liveable cities, and commends Brisbane for hosting major events such as the 1982 Commonwealth Games, World Expo 88, the 2014 G20 summit, and its upcoming role as host of the 2032 Summer Olympics.

Supported by: Audrey Nicoll*, Jeremy Balfour*, Bob Doris*, Annabelle Ewing*, Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Pam Gosal*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-17474 Foyso Choudhury: Lauriston Farm Given Award from RSE and Williamson

Trust—That the Parliament congratulates Lauriston Farm, in north west Edinburgh, on being awarded £4,550 from the Royal Society of Edinburgh (RSE) and the Williamson Trust; understands that Lauriston Farm is a cooperative farm, which is run by its workers and is dedicated to sustainable food production, biodiversity and community; further understands that Lauriston Farm was awarded funding to develop a sustainable alternative to chemical fertilisers, using aerated compost teas; recognises what it sees as Lauriston Farm's commitment to regenerative land management and fostering community wellbeing; notes that the RSE and the Williamson Trust awarded 16 community-led research projects as part of the Healthy Planet, Healthy People Awards, which aim to enable community-led research projects that promote the health of individuals by fostering healthy communities, environments and food; believes that

Written questions lodged on 09 May 2025

S6W-37430 Stephen Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government, whether it will provide the (a) office seating capacity and (b) annual running cost of each building (i) 4 Atlantic Quay (Glasgow), (ii) 5 Atlantic Quay (Glasgow), (iii) Bothwell House (Hamilton), (iv) Cadzow Court (Hamilton), (v) Compass House (Dundee), (vi) Denholm House (Livingston), (vii) Alexander Fleming House (Elgin), (viii) Hadrian House (Falkirk), (ix) Tankerness Lane (Kirkwall), (x) Longman House (Inverness) (xi) Marine Scotland (Eyemouth), (xii) Marine Scotland (Peterhead) and (xiii) St Andrews House (Edinburgh).

S6W-37438 Rhoda Grant: To ask the Scottish Government how many people were interviewed as part of the Pain Management Panel report, which was published in November 2022, broken down by NHS board area; what its position is on whether publishing the views of 16 people in the report presents a fair representation of the 800,000 people in Scotland who experience chronic pain; for what reason (a) the reported screening questionnaire used to produce the report did not directly ask participants about whether their condition had been diagnosed by a health professional and (b) respondents were reportedly paid £200 each to participate in the survey; whether known pain patient volunteers were asked to take part in the survey, and whether it sought guidance from NICE or any other body on the suitability of a "no impact" categorisation being used in the survey.

S6W-37448 Patrick Harvie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S6W-36651 by Kate Forbes on 30 April 2025, whether it will provide further details and updated information on how it evaluates whether its grant conditions are successful in achieving diversification away from arms manufacturing.

S6W-37449 Michael Marra: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S6W-15187 by Shirley-Anne Somerville on 7 March 2023, whether it will provide (a) updated figures on average gross revenue expenditure in Scotland per (i) pre-school registration, (ii) primary school pupil and (iii) secondary school pupil and (b) information on allocations (accounting for teaching and tuition fees funding) per (i) college and (ii) university place, in each year from 2012-13 to 2023-24 inclusive, in (A) cash terms and (B) real terms for 2024-25 prices, using HM Treasury GDP Deflator.

S6W-37451 Emma Roddick: To ask the Scottish Government whether it plans to introduce statutory financial penalties for (a) large-scale salmon escapes and (b) environmental non-compliance within the salmon farming sector, in line with international standards

S6W-37502 Pam Duncan-Glancy: To ask the Scottish Government whether the construction of six new school building projects through the Learning Estate Investment Programme, and the delivery of 47 modern, state-of-the-art schools by the end of 2027-28, as set out in its Programme for Government 2025-26, will be supported by the updated guidance that the Education, Children and Young People Committee recommended the Scottish Government should develop to support neurodiverse children at school.

S6W-37506 Pam Duncan-Glancy: To ask the Scottish Government who will be invited to the data summit on additional support for learning, as announced in its Programme for Government 2025-26.

S6W-37507 Pam Duncan-Glancy: To ask the Scottish Government, regarding the commitment in its Programme for Government 2025-26 to commission Enquire, the national advice and information service on additional support for learning, to improve the communication of the key information that different audiences need to meet the needs of children with additional support needs, what (a) key information and (b) audiences this work will include.

S6W-37519 Craig Hoy: To ask the Scottish Government how it has adjusted income tax rates and bands since the start of the current parliamentary session.

S6W-37520 Craig Hoy: To ask the Scottish Government whether it remains committed to its Young Person's Guarantee policy; whether it is tracking progress on this policy, and what its success conditions are for this objective.

S6W-37521 Craig Hoy: To ask the Scottish Government how much it (a) spent in Session 5, (b) has spent in the current parliamentary session to date and (c) estimates it will spend in Session 6 on (i) supporting new jobs and (ii) reskilling people for the jobs of the future.

S6W-37522 Craig Hoy: To ask the Scottish Government whether it has established a green jobs fund; if so, how much it has allocated to it, and which projects it will invest in, and, if not, whether it plans to do so.

S6W-37523 Craig Hoy: To ask the Scottish Government how much funding it has provided to the Scottish National Investment Bank in the current parliamentary session to date, and how much it estimates it will have provided by the end of the current parliamentary session.

S6W-37524 Craig Hoy: To ask the Scottish Government how much it has spent on infrastructure in the current parliamentary session to date, and how much it estimates it will have spent by the end of the current parliamentary session.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
