Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-19410 George Adam: Paisley Named Town of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates the town of Paisley on being crowned Scotland's Town of the Year by Scotland Loves Local; acknowledges what it sees as the hard work and investment from Paisley First Business Improvement District, Renfrewshire Council and the Scottish Government into the town in recent years; notes the success of Paisley's local cultural events such as the Halloween and food and drink festivals, and understands that Paisley, like many urban centres in Scotland, was hit badly by online shopping, out-of-town retail parks, the cost of living crisis and the loss of the textile industry, and now serves as a example for urban renewal in Scotland through both major investment and cultural renewal. Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jamie Hepburn*, Miles Briggs*, Rona Mackay*, Bob Doris*, Clare Haughey*, Annabelle Ewing*, Kevin Stewart*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-19417 John Mason: Clock Changes—That the Parliament notes the findings of a recent Travelodge survey of more than 100,000 people across the UK, which revealed that 57% of respondents do not believe clocks should change twice a year; acknowledges that one in three people reportedly favour keeping British Summer Time (BST) all year round to enjoy lighter evenings, while one in four prefer permanent Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) for lighter mornings; recognises that the practice of changing clocks in spring and autumn continues to generate public debate about its impact on wellbeing, productivity and energy use; notes that the same survey found that one in five respondents reported getting less than five hours of sleep a night, with many citing stress and anxiety as key factors, and hopes that more research from relevant stakeholders explores the potential benefits and drawbacks of ending the biannual clock change, with a view to adopting a system that best supports public health, safety and overall quality of life. Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*

S6M-19416 Beatrice Wishart: Fair Funding for Fishing Communities—That the Parliament condemns the reported decision of the UK Government to allocate the Fishing and Coastal Growth Fund on a population basis using the Barnett formula; understands that Scotland will receive around 8% of the £360 million fund despite over 60% of the fish landed in the UK coming through Scottish ports; further understands that Shetland, by volume and by value, accounts for 9% of the fish landed in the UK; notes with concern that Shetland will only get a fraction of the fund allocated for Scotland, which, it believes, is not proportionate to its central role in the fishing industry; believes that the decision to allocate funds on a population rather sector basis will disadvantage Scotland's fishing sector, including the fishing fleet, seafood processors and coastal communities, and calls on the UK Government to review the formula used to deliver the funding to reflect the central role that Scotland and Shetland play in the UK's fishing industry.

S6M-19415 Douglas Ross: Thorabella Wins Diversified Farm of the Year Award—That the Parliament congratulates Ollie and Nikki Lake from Thorabella Farm near Dallas, Moray, on it winning the Diversified Farm of the Year category at the Scottish Agricultural Awards 2025; recognises that Ollie, Nikki and their family have worked hard to make the farm a success, with it proving to be a popular attraction for local people and visitors to the area; understands that this award was presented in recognition of their dedication to agriculture and determination to succeed in a difficult climate and in the face of considerable challenges; notes that, as well as a herd of buffalo providing their own meat, which they sell in their on-site farm shop alongside a range of other local produce, Thorabella has become a visitor destination for families who stay in their on-site accommodation, and other visitors who enjoy farm tours and their popular open days; believes that people of all ages benefit from seeing a working farm up close and meeting a range of animals, including Highland cattle, Jersey cows, sheep, goats, pigs, rabbits, poultry, capybaras and many more, and can now enjoy a range of excellent meals and drinks from their on-farm catering station, The Buffalo Bite, and wishes everyone at Thorabella Farm continued success in the future.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Annie Wells*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Colin Beattie*, Tim Eagle* R, Murdo Fraser*, Stuart McMillan*, Tess White*, Dr Sandesh Gulhane*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-19414 Stuart McMillan: Bridget Donnelly, Age Scotland's Community Champion 2025—That the Parliament congratulates Bridget Donnelly, of Greenock, on being named Age Scotland's first-ever Community Champion at the 2025 Age Scotland Awards; notes that this new award category was created to honour small acts of kindness, generosity and support offered to older people by individuals who are not formally employed in a caring role, but who nonetheless make a significant difference in their communities; understands that Bridget was nominated by residents and staff at John Galt House retirement housing complex for her tireless dedication and daily support, including delivering newspapers, organising afternoon teas, helping with shopping and banking, and accompanying residents to medical appointments; recognises the profound impact that Bridget has made on the lives of older people in her community, with residents describing her as "first-class" and "indispensable"; commends Age Scotland for highlighting the importance of informal community support in tackling loneliness and isolation among older people, and wishes Bridget continued success and fulfilment in her voluntary work.

the transfer of a community-based housing association (CBHA) to a neighbouring CBHA, thereby retaining local accountability and (b) the transfer of a CBHA to a larger registered social landlord.

S6W-41406 Paul Sweeney: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will request that the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) pause the withdrawal of the Family Protection Plan (FPP), in light of reports that members of credit unions across Scotland face the sudden loss of this long-standing insurance policy, which was brokered by CMutual and underwritten by Maiden Life Forsakrings AB (UK Branch), in order to help families cover funeral costs.

S6W-41407 Alex Cole-Hamilton: To ask the Scottish Government how many companies have been excluded from participating in tender processes for public services contracts under public procurement regulations, and for what reasons each of those companies has been excluded.

S6W-41410 Paul Sweeney: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has undertaken of any impact that limited transparency and accountability in mental health spending has had on service provision, particularly in relation to disproportionate reductions affecting services for the most vulnerable groups, including veterans.

S6W-41411 Paul Sweeney: To ask the Scottish Government whether it has considered engaging with the UK Government to explore the potential for a proportion of the increased UK defence budget to be ring-fenced specifically for veteran mental health support.

S6W-41412 Paul Sweeney: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the apparent reduction in the Mental Health Services budget line to £133.9 million in the 2025 26 Autumn Budget Revision, given that this figure includes a £120 million internal transfer to local government for the Mental Health Transition and Recovery Plan, and whether it will confirm (a) whether the remaining £16 million shortfall from the original £270 million allocation constitutes a reduction to the mental health budget, (b) the rationale for any such reduction and (c) which programmes, services or projects will be affected, and how this aligns with the ambitions of the Mental Health and Wellbeing Strategy.

S6W-41413 Paul Sweeney: To ask the Scottish Government how the latest economic inactivity rate in Scotland of 22.7% compares with the latest available rates in ITL 1 statistical regions of England, Wales and Northern Ireland, and with all other 37 member states of the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development (OECD).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
