Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-18976 Annabelle Ewing: Community Food Connection Scheme in Kelty—That the Parliament welcomes the recent partnership between Oor Wee Café in Kelty, Tesco and food charity, FareShare, to collect surplus food and supplies from the supermarket chain through the Community Food Connection scheme; notes that Oor Wee Café, based in the Kelty community centre, has served local residents for more than seven years, providing hot meals and a welcoming space for conversation and community connection; further notes that the café operates on a “pay what you can afford” model and also runs a community pantry, allowing residents to access essential items such as tinned food, healthy meals, toiletries and pet supplies; recognises that this service is much appreciated in the community and will be supported in the future through this partnership arrangement, and thanks the volunteers whose energy and commitment make this possible.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Miles Briggs*, Pam Gosal*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Clare Haughey*, Colin Beattie*, Annie Wells*, Kevin Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18975 Annabelle Ewing: Elaine Collins Wins Community Champion Award—That the Parliament congratulates Elaine Collins, a dedicated volunteer from Cardenden, on having been named the winner of the prestigious Community Champion award by the Scottish Civic Trust in recognition of her outstanding volunteer work, which, it believes, has made a significant impact on local access, green spaces, and community wellbeing; notes that Elaine has been dedicated to making the outdoors more accessible for everyone, from leading the Cardenden walking club to restoring neglected woodlands and upgrading historic walking routes; believes that her efforts have brought people together, improved wellbeing and helped to protect the local environment, and considers her work and leadership to be an inspiration to all.

S6M-18974 Annabelle Ewing: Eilidh's Trust Grant Awards—That the Parliament notes that over 80 young musicians and youth music groups across Scotland have received a total of £53,400 worth of small grants in the latest tranche of funding from Eilidh's Trust; recognises that these grants will support over 2,000 children and young people across a wide variety of musical genres, such as pipe bands, violin, guitar, ukulele, wind and brass, choirs, percussion and song; congratulates Lochgelly Band, one of the oldest brass bands in Scotland, and all the other recipients, on their successful applications for assistance, and believes that supporting the development of young musicians and musical groups around the country is a very fitting tribute to the memory of Eilidh MacLeod, a 14-year-old girl from Barra, who was killed in the 2017 bombing of the Manchester Arena.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Audrey Nicoll*, Miles Briggs*, Pam Gosal*, David Torrance*, Bob Doris*, Clare Haughey*, Rhoda Grant*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*, Annie Wells*, Alexander Stewart*, Kevin Stewart*, Martin Whitfield*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18973 Tim Eagle: Highlands Reimagined Podcast Series—That the Parliament welcomes the three-part documentary podcast, Highlands Reimagined, which explores the lives of young people in north west Sutherland; acknowledges that it was produced by Will Sadler at Anya Media, commissioned by Strathnaver Museum and published on the Wild in Scotland podcast; notes its focus on both the appeal of life in the far north and the challenges that young people face when seeking to buy a home locally; recognises what it sees as the importance of these issues in tackling rural depopulation across the Highlands and Islands, and believes that the series will inspire others to share their stories and strengthen the voice of rural communities across Scotland.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Douglas Ross*, Craig Hoy*, Pam Gosal*, Murdo Fraser*, Edward Mountain*, Brian Whittle*, Emma Roddick*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*, Annie Wells*, Liam Kerr*, Alexander Stewart*, Annabelle Ewing*

S6M-18972 Alexander Stewart: Dollar Horticultural Club and Dollar in Bloom Awarded for their Environmental Work—That the Parliament congratulates Dollar Horticultural Club and Dollar in Bloom on being recognised at the Beautiful Scotland awards, which were organised by environmental charity Keep Scotland Beautiful; understands that the groups received the Community Horticulture Award, the Young People Award, and the Small Town Award, together with a gold medal certificate; believes that the community works tirelessly to make its village clean, vibrant and appealing, with nature-friendly places for all to enjoy and be proud of, and wishes everyone involved all the best with their future endeavours.

Supported by: Pam Gosal*, David Torrance*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Douglas Ross*, Craig Hoy*, Colin Beattie*, Annie Wells*, Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18971 Humza Yousaf: Congratulating Kirstie Law on her RCN Scotland Adult Nursing Award—That the Parliament congratulates Kirstie Law, emergency nurse practitioner at the Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, on her RCN Scotland Adult Nursing award; acknowledges that the award recognises nursing staff who have raised the standards of care for their patients and made an outstanding contribution to care; praises Kirstie's efforts in training junior doctors and nurses and on the development of ear, nose and throat nurse practitioner roles; commends what it sees as her pioneering role in developing an alert system for patients with a tracheostomy to ensure they receive appropriate care, and wishes her well in her nursing career.

S6M-18969 Stephanie Callaghan: Celebrating the 30th Anniversary of Jeans for Genes Week—That the Parliament celebrates the 30th anniversary of Jeans for Genes Week, which runs from 15 to 21 September 2025; understands that Jeans for Genes Week is an annual UK fundraising campaign dedicated to supporting children and families affected by genetic conditions, with schools, workplaces, and families across the country wearing denim to raise awareness and vital funds; commends the fundraising campaign, which has raised more than £52.3 million since its launch in the 1990s; understands that these efforts have resulted in 429 grants awarded, support for 190 charities nationwide, funding for pioneering gene therapy research and specialist clinical roles, the delivery of consultant-led support days and psychological care for families, and the reduction of isolation through family weekends and peer networks; notes that there are more than 6,000 identified genetic conditions, many of which are rare, and that GPs may never encounter certain disorders in their careers, which, it understands, can leave many families without answers or adequate support; commends the Jeans for Genes campaign for its continuing efforts to fill this gap by funding charities that provide specialist knowledge, medical guidance and emotional support; believes that Jeans for Genes is a symbol of hope, resilience, and community spirit, and wishes the campaign all the best as it continues transforming lives now and for generations to come.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Edward Mountain*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Kevin Stewart*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18968 Clare Haughey: Pioneering Digital Inclusion Project in David Walker Gardens Care Home, Rutherglen—That the Parliament congratulates South Lanarkshire University Health and Social Care Partnership, in collaboration with the Digital Health & Care Innovation Centre and its technology partner Care Messenger, which have cooperated to make David Walker Gardens Care Home in Rutherglen the first in the UK to be fully equipped in every room with Smart Chatta TVs; understands that this technology enables TVs to be used for video calls and photo sharing, which allows residents to communicate with friends and family across the globe, helping them to maintain contact and to share in family events; believes that this helps to reduce loneliness, maintain relationships and emotional closeness, and acknowledges that this technology will also be rolled out to rooms in the Blantyre LIFE estate by the end of September 2025.

Supported by: Audrey Nicoll*, Marie McNair*, Annabelle Ewing*, Kenneth Gibson*, Rona Mackay*, Edward Mountain*, Monica Lennon*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Kevin Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18967 Kevin Stewart: Teenagers with IBD—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Royal Aberdeen Children's Hospital is improving the lives of teenagers with inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) with a new home-based approach to treatment; notes that this approach, which is a nurse-led initiative, sees patients self-administering medication at home on a fortnightly basis rather than having to attend hospital, as an outpatient, every six weeks; understands that, after receiving their first injection in a hospital setting along with initial training, this process is supported by community nurses, who continue the training until the patient is confident in self-administration, along with ongoing monitoring; believes that this process is less intrusive to patients, giving more control and reducing the emotional and physical toll of repeated hospital visits; congratulates clinical nurse specialist Chantelle Stewart, who spearheaded this initiative, and looks forward to this treatment being rolled-out fully to all eligible teens as they reach the appropriate age and clinical criteria.

Supported by: Audrey Nicoll*, Marie McNair*, Clare Haughey*, Rona Mackay*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Colin Beattie*, Monica Lennon*, Tim Eagle*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18966 Annie Wells: Runners Take Off on Glasgow Airport Runway in Unique Training Event—That the Parliament congratulates AJ Bell, Great Scottish Run and Glasgow Airport for collaborating to deliver the first ever Glasgow Airport Runway Run, which is an innovative and memorable training event; notes that demand far outstripped the places available, with more than 800 Great Scottish Runners applying for just 50 coveted places; acknowledges the commitment and creativity shown in staging such an exceptional opportunity, including the work of the airport fire crews, who welcomed runners with fire engines lit up, the Stride running group, which led a warm-up, and the Outlier Run Club, which provided pacing support around the course; understands that participants underwent full airport-level security checks before stepping onto the runway, experienced the unique stillness and darkness of the airfield in the early hours, and braved strong headwinds along the landing strip, which added to both the challenge and the atmosphere; further understands that there was a sense of camaraderie and pride as runners finished the course to applause, sirens and the sight of planes parked on the tarmac; congratulates those who combined the experience with fundraising efforts, with some runners raising money for the Teenage Cancer Trust and other good causes, and commends all who took part for helping to create an extraordinary sporting occasion, which, it believes, reflects both Scotland's enthusiasm for running and the special role of Glasgow Airport in hosting such a one-of-a-kind event.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Douglas Ross*, Craig Hoy*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Pam Gosal*, Colin Beattie*, Miles Briggs*, Tim Eagle*, Brian Whittle*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18965 Martin Whitfield: Celebrating East Lothian Success at the Beautiful Scotland Awards—That the Parliament celebrates the success of East Lothian groups at the 2025 Beautiful Scotland awards, which are run by environmental charity Keep Scotland Beautiful, in partnership with the Royal Horticultural Society; acknowledges that these awards give national recognition to horticultural and gardening projects that foster environmental protection and bring local communities together; recognises what it sees as the particularly outstanding achievements of North Berwick in Bloom, which received the Rosebowl Trophy for overall winner, as well as the Coastal Town Award and the VisitScotland Award for Tourism; congratulates Blooming Haddington on receiving the Medium Town Award, the Horticultural Heritage Award, and the David Welch Memorial Award for Something Special for their wheelbarrow and yarn bombing trail, as well as Dunbar in Bloom for receiving a Certificate of Recognition; celebrates East Lothian Council being awarded the Royal Caledonian Horticultural Award for its support for Blooming Haddington and North Berwick in Bloom, and commends everyone who has been involved in these projects across East Lothian for their commitment and hard work to making East Lothian's communities brighter and more connected.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Craig Hoy*, Bill Kidd*, Pam Gosal*, Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Foyso Choudhury*, Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Paul McLennan*, Tim Eagle*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-18964 Alexander Burnett: Deeside Finalists in Helping It Happen Awards 2025—That the Parliament congratulates the three Deeside-based finalists at the Helping It Happen Awards 2025; recognises Upper Deeside and Donside Land Management Group for its collaborative stewardship of over 101,000 hectares, Michael Bruce of Firebreak Services Ltd for his work in wildfire risk management, and Cairngorm Bothies on it becoming Scotland's first fully off-grid retreat, and wishes them continued success in advancing sustainability and supporting communities. R

S6M-18963 Alexander Burnett: Run Balmoral's Support for River Dee Conservation—That the Parliament congratulates Run Balmoral on what it sees as its generous support of the River Dee Trust's One Million Trees campaign; welcomes the decision made to replace event t-shirts with a donation of over £5,000 towards native tree planting; expresses sincere thanks to all the runners whose participation made this contribution possible; believes that the trees planted will protect endangered species, such as Atlantic salmon and freshwater pearl mussels; further believes that this will bring added ecological benefits, such as stabilised riverbanks and healthier

S6M-18962 Alexander Burnett: Celebrating Eilidh's Trust Support in Aberdeenshire West

—That the Parliament congratulates the young musicians and music groups in Aberdeenshire West that have received funding from Eilidh's Trust in its 2025 grants round; notes the support awarded to the Alford Academy Pipe Band and the Deeside Cello Project, as well as to the individual recipients, Catriona Bergman and Kayla Downie; expresses gratitude to Eilidh's Trust for its continued support for musical opportunities across Scotland; recognises the positive impact of this funding on the community, and wishes all recipients continued success in their musical endeavours.

S6M-18961 Mercedes Villalba: 90th Anniversary of Aberdeen Standing Against Fascism—

That the Parliament recognises that 25 September 2025 marks the 90th anniversary of what it considers was the defeat of the British Union of Fascists (BUF) by people and workers of Aberdeen, when, it believes, their direct action drove the BUF out of the Granite City; understands that the fascist rally at Aberdeen Music Hall on 25 September 1935 was disrupted by over 360 residents, led by socialists, communists and trade unionists, who stopped the BUF Director of Policy from speaking and forced the BUF to abandon the meeting; pays tribute to the people of Aberdeen who, it believes, through direct action, and clearly, peacefully and democratically, prevented the fascists from spreading hate and division; stands in solidarity with all those targeted by racist and fascist speech and actions, and in unity with people from all backgrounds, nations and faiths, and commends the work of the Friends and Supporters of the International Brigade Memorial Trust and of the Aberdeen Trades Union Council in marking this anniversary and in continuing what it sees as challenging fascism, nationalism and racism today. R

S6M-18959 Liam McArthur: Colin McAllister Retires after Two Decades Piloting Orkney's Inter-isles Service

—That the Parliament congratulates Colin McAllister on his retirement after 22 years of serving the inter-isles air service in Orkney as Captain of the Briton Norman (BN) Islander; understands the service connects seven of Orkney's outer north isles, including the world's shortest commercial flight, between Westray and Papa Westray, which takes around 2 minutes; notes that Colin's personal record for completing the flight on this route is a remarkable 58 seconds; considers that Colin has demonstrated incredible dedication to serving and connecting the island communities in Orkney, on a service that represents a genuine lifeline to those communities; believes that Colin is a popular and well-respected member of the Loganair team and one who is on first name terms for an astonishing number of isles' residents, past and present, many of whom were on hand to wish him a happy retirement after he landed his final flight on 5 September 2025, arriving in Kirkwall from North Ronaldsay; believes that, as well as residents, Colin has transported thousands of visitors to and from the islands, including the actor, Saoirse Ronan, and her colleagues as they worked on the award-winning film, The Outrun, in which Colin made a cameo appearance in the cockpit of the BN Islander; understands that, earlier in his career, Colin also flew Orkney's air ambulance; acknowledges that, while providing this service to islanders and visitors is very much a team effort, it has also relied heavily on the expert and empathic leadership provided by Colin over the past two decades; hopes that he will continue to find ways to remain involved in aviation in Orkney in future, and wishes Colin well on his thoroughly well-deserved retirement.

S6M-18958 Craig Hoy: Welcoming the New AndyMansClub in Annan—That the Parliament welcomes the news that AndyMansClub has launched its first group at the Market Hall in Annan; recognises that the suicide prevention charity supports men through the power of conversation and works to challenge the stigma surrounding men's mental health; notes that the charity runs free, confidential weekly groups; understands that the new group follows the success of groups in Cumbria, which were attended by men travelling from the south west of Scotland, and that strong community support in Annan has helped bring the initiative to the town; commends Annan Athletic FC and the area's businesses for their role in raising awareness, and congratulates the charity, its facilitators and community volunteers for their work to support men's mental health and wellbeing in Dumfriesshire.

S6M-18957 Craig Hoy: Welcoming Maggie's Centre Planned for Dumfries—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Maggie's has been given the go-ahead to plan a new Maggie's Centre in the grounds of Dumfries and Galloway Royal Infirmary; believes that this will bring expert practical, emotional and financial support closer to people across Dumfries and Galloway who are living with cancer, as well as their families and friends; understands that the region sees around 1,200 new cancer diagnoses each year and that, due to the rural nature of the area, many residents currently travel long distances to access Maggie's centres in Glasgow and Edinburgh; remembers Maggie Keswick Jencks, whose vision was to provide welcoming spaces near hospitals to help people live well with cancer, and wishes all involved well as they work to deliver what it sees as this much-needed support for the south west region.

S6M-18956 Jackie Dunbar: Jet Set Spin at Aberdeen International Airport—That the Parliament commends the fundraising efforts of Aberdeen International Airport's Jet Set Spin event; recognises that the event is a collaboration between Aberdeen International Airport, Sport Aberdeen, and AberNecessities; supports the unique approach taken towards fundraising, particularly the use of Aberdeen International Airport's operational runway to hold a spin class; understands that the funds raised will go to AberNecessities, which provides disadvantaged families with baby essentials, and Sport Aberdeen's SPACE programme, which supports care experienced children in improving their physical health, and commends the efforts of those taking part in the event to raise money for what it sees as two vital local organisations.

Amendments

Amendments to Bills lodged on 18 September 2025

Housing (Scotland) Bill — Stage 3

*Amendment 398 has been lodged as a manuscript amendment under Rule 9.10.6.
The Presiding Officer has decided that the amendment may not be moved at the Stage 3 amendment proceedings of the Parliament on 23 September 2025.*

Section 38A

Graham Simpson

398 In section 38A, page 59, line 13, at end insert—

<() after subsection (3) insert—

- “(4) Regulations under subsection (2) must make provision to require a landlord to—
- (a) investigate any potential hazards relating to the landlord’s repairing obligations within 10 working days of becoming aware of them,
 - (b) provide a summary of investigation findings to the tenant in writing within 3 working days of the investigation concluding,
 - (c) take action to make the house safe for the tenant (including by using temporary measures if necessary)—
 - (i) in the case of an emergency hazard, within 24 hours of the hazard being identified,
 - (ii) in any other case, within 5 working days of the investigation concluding,
 - (d) where the landlord is unable to fulfil the obligation mentioned in paragraph (c), to provide suitable alternative accommodation until the house is safe for the tenant,

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
