Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-20808 Kevin Stewart: Labour's Betrayal of Aberdeen—That the Parliament notes reports that GB Energy has announced that it will take up office space in Aberdeen's Marischal Square, which will have the ability to house approximately 50 staff; considers that this personnel level is very underwhelming, given that the UK Labour administration initially pledged to create thousands of jobs at GB Energy's Aberdeen headquarters; believes that Aberdeen has been "sold a pup" by the UK Labour administration, and further believes that the UK Government and GB Energy have betrayed the people of Aberdeen.

Supported by: Audrey Nicoll*, Clare Haughey*, Jamie Hepburn*, Colin Beattie*

*S6M-20807 Marie McNair: Bearsden Martial Arts Club Celebrates its 40th Anniversary—That the Parliament recognises Bearsden Martial Arts Club (BMAC) is marking its 40th anniversary in August 2026; understands that BMAC was set up in 1986 by Hugh Russell, its chief instructor, who recently marked 51 years of practising martial arts; notes that it is run by volunteers, who work hard to make martial arts accessible to as many as possible; welcomes that it has raised over £16,500 for good causes with biannual fundraisers since 2020, seeing money being raised for NHS Charities Together, the Star Project and the Trussell Trust, and a regular Summer Bash, which has supported the MS Society and Kidney Research UK; commends it for planning another fundraiser to mark the 40th anniversary; praises it for sharing its members' love of martial arts with hundreds of adults and children across Bearsden and Milngavie, ranging in age from six to 70; welcomes its inclusive view of martial arts as a self-defence skill for all, regardless of age, gender, fitness level or mobility, with a belief that someone is never too old to start; thanks BMAC for building a welcoming and supportive environment that allows people to build vital self-defence skills, and wishes it a very happy 40th birthday and all the best for the future.

*S6M-20806 Carol Mochan: Celebrating Community Leadership Across Scotland—That the Parliament recognises the Getting Alongside Communities programme delivered by the Corra Foundation to support community leadership to flourish across Scotland; congratulates community leaders in Blacklands, Buckhaven, Carbrain, Castlehill, Cumnock, Dunterlie, Fernhill, Langlees & Bainsford and Methil, who have collectively spent more than 16,000 hours establishing new spaces, bringing people together through groups and activities, running local campaigns on housing and transport and addressing issues such as health, access to food and tackling loneliness; recognises the positive change that happens when communities are resourced and supported in ways that work for them, and agrees that local, community-led activity, with local and national agencies working in partnership, is critical to creating lasting positive change so that all of Scotland's communities can thrive.

*S6M-20804 Clare Adamson: SCIAF's 2026 Wee Box Appeal—That the Parliament welcomes the Scottish Catholic International Aid Fund's (SCIAF) 2026 Wee Box Appeal; notes that this year's campaign highlights SCIAF's work in Ethiopia to support women, girls and boys who walk for hours under the scorching sun in search of water, often risking their safety in remote and unsafe areas; understands that, without reliable access to clean water, families can be trapped in a cycle of poverty, with children missing school and women and girls spending their days collecting water rather than pursuing education or employment; recognises that the wider community experiences hardship as a result, with disease spreading, livelihoods collapsing and opportunities diminishing; notes that, despite decades of development progress, recent conflict has torn families apart, extreme weather has devastated landscapes and livelihoods, and reductions in international aid, including by the UK Government, risk further undermining essential, life-saving services; notes estimates that global aid reductions could contribute to 22 million avoidable deaths by 2030, and calls on the UK Government to reconsider its proposed reductions to overseas development assistance, restore spending to 0.7% of Gross National Income on international aid, and maintain the independence and function of the Independent Commission for Aid Impact in scrutinising UK aid expenditure.

Supported by: Stephanie Callaghan*, Audrey Nicoll*, Kevin Stewart*, Monica Lennon*, John Mason*, Clare Haughey*, Jamie Hepburn*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*

*S6M-20803 Kevin Stewart: Aberdeen Artworlds: The Linklater Collection—That the Parliament welcomes the exhibition, Aberdeen Artworlds: The Linklater Collection, which is running at the University of Aberdeen; notes that the exhibition, which is running until 6 December 2026, features a set of 10 important Scottish modernist paintings donated to the University by Eric and Marjorie Linklater in 1976, which is known as the Linklater bequest; understands that the collection contains still lifes and portraits by the Scottish colourists J.D. Fergusson, S.J. Peploe and Leslie Hunter, a landscape by Catterline-based painter Joan Eardley, and paintings by Anne Redpath and James Cowie, as well as works and archival material on loan from the Linklater family and other generous lenders; further notes that Eric Linklater was rector of the University of Aberdeen from 1945 to 1948, and is known for works such as Magnus Merriman, widely thought to be based on his National Party of Scotland candidacy in the 1933 East Fife by-election, and hopes that the exhibition is a great success, and that many people take the opportunity to learn more about Aberdeen and the north east's cultural landscape and history.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Jamie Hepburn*, Clare Haughey*, Bill Kidd*, Alasdair Allan*, Colin Beattie*

*S6M-20802 Alasdair Allan: Celebrating 120 Years of Kenneth Mackenzie Ltd—That the Parliament congratulates Kenneth Mackenzie Ltd on its 120th anniversary and long-standing contribution to both the Harris Tweed industry and Western Isles' economy; acknowledges that Kenneth Mackenzie remains the oldest operating Harris Tweed mill and continues to be independently owned by an islander, Alexander Lockerby, and believes that, with 38 local staff, 58 home-based weavers and it supporting other island businesses, alongside it offering apprenticeships, vocational qualifications and work experience, Kenneth Mackenzie will continue to bring positive contributions to the islands and Harris Tweed industry for years to come.

*S6M-20801 Marie McNair: Clydemuir Primary School Receives Top Marks—That the Parliament commends Clydemuir Primary School for receiving some of the highest ratings available during a recent inspection; understands that staff were recognised for creating a positive and inclusive environment and for focusing on wellbeing; welcomes that pupils were praised for being well-mannered and for attaining well in literacy and numeracy; notes that staff were empowered by senior leadership and able to identify pupils who needed extra support; congratulates the school for this glowing report, and thanks the hardworking staff and pupils for achieving this great result.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 2.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
