Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-21208 Alexander Stewart: Congratulating Scottish Autism's Alloa Accommodation—That the Parliament congratulates a care home service for autistic adults in Alloa that has been commended by inspectors for delivering warm, person-centred support that is transforming lives; understands that Scottish Autism's central Scotland area services supported accommodation, based at Hilton House in Alloa Business Park, was visited by the Care Inspectorate during an unannounced inspection completed on 23 January 2026; believes that the service, which supports 26 autistic adults in small, community-based homes and one bespoke care home, was rated very good for people's wellbeing, the quality of its setting and how care and support are planned; acknowledges that inspectors reported that staffing levels were consistently strong and that staff showed "strong motivation to deliver high quality care and support", with leaders and frontline staff displaying "very good values"; notes that people using the service were seen experiencing "consistently warm, respectful, and nurturing interactions with staff", and that the values of the organisation were found to be "clearly embedded in practice", resulting in person-centred and responsive support, and wishes everyone involved, including staff, service users, friends and relatives, all the very best for the future.

S6M-21207 Paul Sweeney: Celebration of the Return of the Heritage and Hope Sculpture to Springburn Station—That the Parliament celebrates the return of the Heritage and Hope sculpture to Springburn railway station after more than 20 years in storage; understands that the bronze statue, created by the artist, Vincent Butler in 1989, depicts a railway worker and his daughter and serves as a powerful symbol of Springburn's proud locomotive-building heritage and its aspirations for the future; commends the tireless efforts of local artist, Mandy McIntosh, in partnership with Network Rail, ScotRail, Springburn Shopping Centre and Springburn Unity Network in ensuring that the sculpture was preserved and restored; notes that the sculpture has been installed in a prominent position on platform one, where it will be seen by tens of thousands of passengers every year; acknowledges what it sees as the importance of public art in reclaiming local history and fostering community pride, and wishes the people of Springburn continued success in their ongoing efforts to preserve and celebrate the area's unique industrial and cultural history.

Supported by: Annie Wells*, Dr Sandesh Gulhane*, Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sarah Boyack*, Foyso Choudhury*

S6M-21206 Marie McNair: Clydebank and Milngavie Pupils Shortlisted for Scottish Schools' Young Writer of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates Olivia Watson of Douglas Academy on being one of two finalists in 2026's Scottish Schools' Young Writer of the Year competition; further congratulates Amy Valentine of St Peter the Apostle High School on being commended; understands that the competition is held every year by the charity, Young Programme, and is open to all pupils in Scottish schools who are between the ages 15 and 18; congratulates Olivia and Amy on this fantastic achievement, and commends them both for their hard work.

Supported by: Jamie Hepburn*, Audrey Nicoll*, Kevin Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Dr Pam Gosal MBE*, Brian Whittle*

S6M-21205 Tim Eagle: Moray Success at National Curling Competitions—That the Parliament congratulates several young curlers from Moray on their successes at recent national competitions; understands that Elgin Academy pupil, Lillia Clarke, won the Scottish Junior Championships in Aberdeen in November 2025, alongside her teammates as part of Team Archibald, as well as the Under-21 Slam Series in January 2026; further understands that Fraser Rankin, also from Elgin, won the Scottish Pairs Championships in Stranraer in March 2026, alongside his curling partner from Kinross; recognises the increasing popularity of curling and the growing successes of young curlers from across Moray; believes that the Elgin Ice Rink, which was saved from closure in September 2025, will play a critical role in developing the next generation of curlers, and wishes every young curler from Moray and across the Highlands and Islands region well for future competitions.

Supported by: Edward Mountain*, Miles Briggs*, Meghan Gallacher*, Colin Beattie*, Alexander Stewart*, Craig Hoy*, Annie Wells*, Dr Pam Gosal MBE*, Annabelle Ewing*, Sue Webber*, Russell Findlay*, Brian Whittle*, Liz Smith*, Dr Sandesh Gulhane*, Murdo Fraser*

S6M-21204 Bill Kidd: Scotstoun Recognised as One of Scotland's Best Places to Live 2026—That the Parliament congratulates the community of Scotstoun on the area being named in the guide, The Sunday Times Best Places to Live 2026, which recognises its place among the eight best places to live in Scotland this year; notes what it sees as Scotstoun's growing appeal as a highly desirable residential neighbourhood, which is often described as the "West End for grown-ups"; believes that this reflects its strong sense of community, excellent amenities and attractive balance of urban life and family-friendly living; considers that Scotstoun represents a compact microcosm of Glasgow, bringing together diversity, character and a welcoming atmosphere; notes the increasing number of families choosing to make Scotstoun their home; believes that they have been drawn by its friendliness and quality of life, and commends all of its residents, organisations and businesses, whose efforts, it believes, continue to make Scotstoun such a vibrant and thriving place.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Jamie Hepburn*, Annabelle Ewing*, George Adam*, Kevin Stewart*, Colin Beattie*, Elena Whitham*, Bob Doris*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-21203 Paul Sweeney: Celebrating the Glasgow St Patrick's Festival Parade 2026—That the Parliament celebrates the 2026 Glasgow St Patrick's Festival Parade; acknowledges that the parade, which took place on 14 March 2026, is a vibrant celebration of Irish heritage and culture and the immense contribution of the Irish community to the social, cultural and economic life of Glasgow and Scotland; notes that the 2026 theme, A Celebration of Irish Immigration to Scotland, highlights the deep historical and contemporary links between the two nations; commends the Glasgow St Patrick's Festival Parade Committee and its partners, including Glasgow City Council and Police Scotland, for their work in organising this inclusive, family-friendly event; welcomes the participation of traditional marching bands, including Rann na Feirste and Dobhar from Donegal, alongside local groups such as St Roch's, Buíon Ceoil Brother Walfrid and Comhaltas branches; recognises the significance of the parade finishing at Merchant Square for the Festival Family Day, and wishes the festival continued success in its mission to promote and share Irish culture across the city of Glasgow.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, Paul O'Kane*, Annabelle Ewing*, Annie Wells*, Alasdair Allan*, Bob Doris*, Foyso Choudhury*

S6M-21202 Davy Russell: Celebrating 125 Years of the Royal Albert Cycling Club, Larkhall—That the Parliament celebrates the 125th anniversary of the Royal Albert Cycling Club based in Larkhall; acknowledges that the club's founding was closer to the invention of the bicycle than to today; recognises that the club is still thriving with over 70 adults in the Royal Albert Cycling Club and over 200 young people in the junior section, and wishes the club the best for its continued expansion and passion for cycling as a fun way of staying active at all ages in South Lanarkshire.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Kenneth Gibson*, Monica Lennon*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Tim Eagle*, Brian Whittle*, Foyso Choudhury*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-21201 Douglas Ross: St Laurence Church in Forres Becomes Community Venue—That the Parliament notes that, on 18 March 2026, St Laurence Church in Forres, Moray, was sold by the Church of Scotland to the St Laurence Forres Trust; understands that the group has ambitious plans to convert the iconic building on Forres High Street into an events venue; notes that generous donations from local individuals and businesses, as well as a grant from the Scottish Land Fund, allowed the trust to secure the venue; further notes that four churches have been built on this site dating back to 1275, with the current impressive building being 120 years old; commends the trust chairman, James Campbell, honorary president, Major General Seymour Monro, and everyone involved with the trust for their efforts to secure a positive future for St Laurence Church by creating this welcoming and vibrant hub for the community; understands that St Laurence will be a venue in the heart of Forres for music, arts and cultural events, while ensuring the beautiful building remains a home for weddings, funerals and other milestones, as it has been for centuries, and wishes St Laurence Forres Trust every success for the future. R

Supported by: Sue Webber*, Meghan Gallacher*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Russell Findlay*, Alexander Stewart*, Annie Wells*, Annabelle Ewing*, Brian Whittle*, Colin Beattie*, Dr Pam Gosal MBE*, Craig Hoy*, Dr Sandesh Gulhane*, Paul Sweeney*, Tim Eagle*

S6M-21200 Douglas Ross: Anne Speake Awarded Honorary Life Membership of Enable Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates Anne Speake from Kingston in Moray, who was recently awarded Honorary Life Membership of Enable Scotland in recognition of her outstanding service and dedication to the charity over the last 50 years; understands that Anne becomes only the fourth person to receive this honour in Enable Scotland's 72-year history; notes that Anne has supported many individuals across the north of Scotland, particularly in Elgin for decades, where she has been a tireless campaigner for the human rights of people with learning disabilities; believes that Anne has supported generations of people in Elgin with learning disabilities through practical support, strong leadership of the local Enable branch, and by running regular social clubs that brought people together and helped build confidence and friendships; understands that the special meeting of the Elgin Branch to present Anne with her award saw many people Anne has worked with throughout their whole lives attend to give their personal thanks for her incredible service and support, and believes that this high honour is a fitting tribute to someone who has contributed so much to Enable both locally and nationally.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Edward Mountain*, Russell Findlay*, Meghan Gallacher*, Douglas Lumsden*, Dr Sandesh Gulhane*, Annie Wells*, Alexander Stewart*, Colin Beattie*, Dr Pam Gosal MBE*, Craig Hoy*, Sue Webber*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Tim Eagle*, Brian Whittle*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-21199 Paul O'Kane: Johnstone Restaurant De Buddha Recognised at 2026 South Asian Network Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Rabi Maharajan and all the staff of De Buddha Authentic Nepalese Restaurant and Bar on their success in winning the Unsung Hero of the Year 2025 for the Nepalese Community at the South Asian Network Awards; understands that the restaurant, which opened in Johnstone in November 2023, has received acclaim from critics in the past, with it receiving not only Best Dining Experience at the Scottish Hospitality Awards in June 2025, but also Best Nepalese Restaurant at the Scottish Spice Awards in September 2025; commends Rabi and his hardworking staff on their deserved awards for all the continued hard work and passion that they put into their fantastic cuisine, and hopes that they enjoy many more successes in the future.

Supported by: Davy Russell*, Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Edward Mountain*, Sarah Boyack*, Colin Beattie*, Sue Webber*, Bill Kidd*, Dr Pam Gosal MBE*, Foysol Choudhury*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-21198 Michael Matheson: Utility Infrastructure Investment Delivering Ambitions for Scotland's People, Communities and Nature—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the importance of creating stronger, better connected and more resilient communities across Scotland, including in Falkirk West constituency; understands that ScottishPower, SSE, Scottish Water and Openreach have set out plans to invest £46 billion in Scotland's infrastructure between 2025 and 2030, which, it considers, is an unprecedented level of investment; believes that this investment in electricity, water and digital infrastructure will unlock economic growth, injecting more than £32 billion into the Scottish supply chain and supporting more than 27,000 jobs; considers that growing the workforce of the future is a key element of success to maximise early career, retraining and upskilling opportunities to ensure the right people, skills and expertise are in place right across industry to deliver; welcomes the commitment by these companies that communities will be at the heart of the investment plans, with, it understands, around £350 million of community benefit to deliver lasting positive impacts; notes a commitment from the companies to working with local people to deliver the best possible outcomes that focus on progress for the greater good; understands that the environment will also be a key consideration with projects taking a nature positive approach that will see more than 14,700 hectares of land restored to nature, which, it believes, is the equivalent of more than 20,000 football pitches; considers that it is important to ensure that a nature positive approach is central to these plans, and looks forward to this investment being delivered in the very near future.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, John Mason*, Bill Kidd*, Kevin Stewart*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-21197 Paul Sweeney: Congratulating Glasgow-based Artist, Frank To, on Being Unconditionally Accepted into the Society of Graphic Fine Art 105th Annual Exhibition—That the Parliament congratulates Glasgow-based artist, Frank To, on being unconditionally accepted into the Society of Graphic Fine Art 105th Annual Exhibition; acknowledges that the Society of Graphic Fine Art is the only national society in the UK dedicated exclusively to drawing; recognises that Frank To is one of Scotland's leading contemporary artists, whose work has been accepted by prestigious organisations such as the Royal Ulster Academy and the Bath Society of Artists; celebrates the fact that Frank To's work was on display in the Exhibition of Scottish Artists at the Stafford Gallery, and wishes him well with any future artistic endeavours.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Sarah Boyack*, Miles Briggs*, Annabelle Ewing*, Dr Sandesh Gulhane*, Annie Wells*, Sue Webber*, Bill Kidd*, Dr Pam Gosal MBE*, Foysol Choudhury*

S6M-21196 Paul Sweeney: Congratulating Simon Community Scotland on Achieving the Foundations LGBT Charter—That the Parliament congratulates Simon Community Scotland on achieving the Foundations LGBT Charter; recognises the hard work and dedication of pupils and staff in achieving this prestigious award from LGBT Youth Scotland; acknowledges the introduction of training and a review of policies, practice and resources that aim to ensure that Simon Community Scotland goes beyond meeting legislative needs and is as inclusive as it can be for pupils, staff, parents and the wider community, and wishes everyone involved well in all future endeavours.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Elena Whitham* R, Bob Doris*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*, Kevin Stewart*

S6M-21195 Marie McNair: Clydebank Pizzeria Shortlisted for the Scottish Italian Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Bangin' Pizza on being shortlisted for the Scotland's Best Pizzeria category at the Scottish Italian Awards; understands that the Scottish Italian Awards aim to bring together the very best of Scotland's Italian community; recognises that the awards are now in their 12th year; notes that Bangin' Pizza opened its third store in Clydebank in 2025; celebrates the team at Bangin' Pizza on this fantastic achievement, and wishes everyone involved all the best for the finals.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 2.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
