7. Andrew Baxter: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of how any reduction in hours or withdrawal of pupil support assistant posts will impact rural primary schools, particularly in the Highlands and Islands region. (S7O-00066)

8. Katie Hagmann: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide an update on the work carried out by the Scottish Transport Emissions Partnership in relation to local air quality management. (S7O-00067)

followed by First Minister's Questions (Backbench Members)

followed by Ministerial Statement: Scottish Government Investment in 'Our Union Street' and the People's Palace

followed by Scottish Government Debate: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector

S7M-00356 Shirley-Anne Somerville: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector—That the Parliament commends the essential role that the third sector plays in supporting people and communities; recognises the contribution that the third sector provides to the delivery of many Scottish Government key priorities, including eradicating child poverty; acknowledges that the Scottish Government understands it has a shared responsibility alongside other funders and those who contract out to the third sector to take action to ensure that the sector is sustainable; agrees that a Third Sector Partnership Agreement provides the opportunity to formalise the relationship between the Scottish Government and the third sector, building upon the Scottish Government's progress in delivering on its Fairer Funding commitments to date and responding to the views of the sector, and agrees that the Third Sector Partnership will be co-designed with third sector stakeholders to embed their knowledge and experience, demonstrating the value that the Scottish Government places on the sector.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S7M-00356.2 Julie MacDougall: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector—

As an amendment to S7M-00356 in the name of Shirley-Anne Somerville (Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector), insert at end "; further agrees that a key part of sustainability can include long-term support for organisations, beyond initial funding periods, where there is clear evidence that continued support delivers continued value; recognises the potential efficiencies that organisations can make with long-term budget certainty, and believes that organisations that are in receipt of Scottish Government support and public funds have to commit to deliver the same value for money and reform agenda that was agreed by Parliament."

S7M-00356.1 Carol Mochan: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector—

As an amendment to motion S7M-00356 in the name of Shirley-Anne Somerville (Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector), insert at end ", and believes that multi-year funding and stronger due diligence on fair work principles should be foundational to a new Third Sector Partnership Agreement."

S7M-00356.5 Holly Bruce: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector—

As an amendment to motion S7M-00356 in the name of Shirley-Anne Somerville (Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector), insert at end "; believes that the third sector would benefit from a transition to multi-year, simplified, flexible funding models that considers inflationary increases and covers full operating costs as the default; calls on the UK Government to reimburse Scottish third sector organisations for the cost of increased employer NICs, which are currently estimated at £75 million per year; recognises that those working in the third sector, such as organisations addressing violence against women and girls or supporting migrants, carers and disabled people, are also experiencing multiple and overlapping inequalities, secondary trauma and harm, and that they would benefit from an approach to third sector funding that includes the Real Living Wage and fair work principles, and further recognises that some third sector organisations, particularly those working with marginalised communities such as trans people and migrants, are experiencing threats to the safety of their staff, volunteers and service users."

S7M-00356.4 Murdo Fraser: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector—

As an amendment to motion S7M-00356 in the name of Shirley-Anne Somerville (Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector) leave out from "a Third Sector Partnership" to end and insert "Scotland's third sector requires sustainable, long-term funding settlements, including greater use of multi-year funding arrangements, to provide the certainty needed to plan services, retain staff and support communities, and calls on the Scottish Government to undertake a review of organisations registered as charities that are substantially dependent on public funding and whose primary activities include lobbying or campaigning, to ensure transparency, accountability and public confidence in the use of taxpayers' money."

S7M-00356.3 Morven-May MacCallum: Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector—As an amendment to motion S7M-00356 in the name of Shirley-Anne Somerville (Strengthening Scotland's Partnership with the Third Sector), insert at end "; understands that the third sector employs over 130,000 paid staff in Scotland, providing employment opportunities for those who find it harder to gain work, including disabled people, and often offering flexible working conditions, which has resulted in women making up 64% of the workforce; notes that Scotland's charitable and voluntary sector contributes significantly to the delivery of government policy objectives, yet relies heavily on public donations and fundraising; believes that the sustainability of many charities depends on multi-year funding and appropriate government support; considers that any diversification of funding should assist smaller charities that can find it difficult to participate in public funding rounds, and believes that any charity in receipt of public funding must retain the absolute licence to criticise, as well as to shape, public policy and the actions of government."

5:30 pm Decision Time

followed by Members' Business: The 10th Anniversary of the Death of Jo Cox

S7M-00180 Jenny Young: The 10th Anniversary of the Death of Jo Cox—That the Parliament acknowledges the 10th anniversary of the death of Jo Cox, who was murdered on 16 June 2016; notes that, until her death, Jo served as the Member of Parliament for Batley and Spen from May 2015; further notes that she was known as a passionate campaigner, activist and humanitarian; understands that her murder prompted a national conversation about the safety and security of elected representatives and the need for greater civility in politics; acknowledges that Jo has left a lasting legacy, including the Jo Cox Foundation, a charity that calls for more respect in politics, and The Great Get Together, an annual nationwide celebration centred on Jo's message that "we have more in common than that which divides us"; celebrates the work of the Jo Cox Foundation, including the Jo Cox Women in Leadership Programme, which aims to support women in developing their skills and participating fully in public life; acknowledges that, in the decade since Jo's murder, further acts of violence against elected representatives have occurred, including the murder of Sir David Amess in 2021, and notes the view that, as a new session of the Scottish Parliament begins, all MSPs should commit to fostering a more respectful political culture and remember that they have more in common than that which divides them.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for debate

S7M-00367 Stephen Flynn: Affordable Bus Fares—That the Parliament recognises the importance of affordable bus services connecting people to employment, education and essential services; welcomes the success of the free bus schemes available to 2.4 million people, including all those aged under 22, over 60 and disabled people; believes that more can be done to make it easier and cheaper for everyone to get around and supports, therefore, the phased rollout of a £2 bus fare cap, building on its introduction in the Highlands and Islands; endorses the introduction of the £2 cap in Glasgow, Ayrshire, Dunbartonshire, Renfrewshire, Lanarkshire and Inverclyde as quickly as is practicable as part of the next phase of a national rollout, and welcomes the opportunity to develop Better Buses legislation in the current parliamentary session to support the delivery of affordable fares nationally and foster new routes, not least in rural areas.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S7M-00366 David Linden: Joyce Currie's 35th Anniversary Serving Bannerman High School—That the Parliament congratulates Joyce Currie on reaching the remarkable milestone of 35 years as catering manager of Bannerman High School; recognises her dedication, hard work and commitment to generations of pupils, staff and families throughout her time at the school; notes the positive impact that Joyce has had on the daily lives of countless young people through her care, kindness and professionalism; acknowledges the important role that she has played in creating a welcoming environment within the school community; thanks Joyce for her outstanding service and contribution over the last three and a half decades, and wishes her continued happiness and success as she celebrates this well-deserved achievement.

S7M-00365 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Voluntary Guidelines for Paddleboard Retailers—That the Parliament commends the Scottish Retail Consortium and PaddleUK on producing, Partnership in Safety – Voluntary Guidelines for Paddleboard Retailers; notes the aim of this publication is to inspire more people to experience the joy of what it believes is the rapidly expanding sport of paddleboarding and Scotland's blue open spaces with the right knowledge and equipment to stay safe, happy and confident on lochs and open waters; considers this to be a responsible initiative from representatives of retailers and the governing body for paddlesport; believes that it has been welcomed by HM Coastguard and is designed to help retailers and online marketplaces with practical support to embed key safety messages into their marketing and consumer education and to help foster a vibrant and safety-conscious paddleboard community by providing clear and concise safety messages at point of sale and safety checklists and tips for customers, and notes that these include tips about wearing buoyancy aids, personal floatation devices and participants using a leash to keep them connected to their craft and also pointing to more in-depth sources of safety information, such as #PaddleSafe.

S7M-00364 Zen Ghani: Congratulating Dandelion Cafe on Receiving the Outstanding Achievement Award at the Scottish Takeaway Awards 2026—That the Parliament congratulates Dandelion Cafe, which is located in Newlands Park in the south side of Glasgow, on receiving the Outstanding Achievement Award at the Scottish Takeaway Awards 2026; recognises that this well-deserved accolade is a testament to the hard work, dedication and quality demonstrated by the cafe and its staff; notes that the cafe has become a valued community asset, offering award winning breakfast options alongside a welcoming space for residents and visitors enjoying the natural beauty, walking trails and recreational facilities of Newlands Park; commends the cafe for contributing to the vibrancy of the local economy and enhancing the visitor experience within one of Glasgow's treasured green spaces; acknowledges the importance of independent businesses in fostering community spirit and supporting local employment, and wishes everyone associated with Dandelion Cafe continued success in the future.

Supported by: Thomas Kerr*, Clare Haughey*, Colin Beattie*

S7M-00363 Zen Ghani: Congratulating Merrylee Primary School—That the Parliament congratulates Merrylee Primary School on achieving the UNICEF UK Gold Rights Respecting Schools Award in March 2026; recognises that Gold Rights Respecting status is the highest level of accreditation available through UNICEF UK's Rights Respecting Schools Award programme and is only granted to schools that have fully embedded the principles of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child throughout their ethos, culture and curriculum; commends the leadership, staff, pupils and wider school community for their commitment to promoting children's rights, inclusion, participation and wellbeing; acknowledges the positive impact that a rights respecting approach can have on learning, school culture and pupil empowerment; notes that the accreditation is valid for a period of three years and reflects sustained excellence in advancing children's rights across all aspects of school life, and wishes everyone at Merrylee Primary School continued success in the future.

Supported by: Clare Haughey*

S7M-00362 David Torrance: Soroptimist International 90th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates Soroptimist International on celebrating its 90th anniversary in 2026; notes that the word "soroptimist" is a combination of the Latin words "soror" meaning sister and "optima" meaning best; acknowledges that Soroptimist International is a global volunteer movement, which has a mission to transform the lives and status of women and girls through education, empowerment and enabling opportunities, with over 62,400 members in 106 countries; understands that it strives to advance gender equality, promote and support access to education, training and healthcare, support economic empowerment opportunities for women, raise awareness of and address violence against women and girls and support and expand digital access and learning opportunities for them; notes that its Scotland South region comprises of nine clubs whose members actively participate in all aspects of Soroptimism, campaigning both locally and nationally and supporting international efforts, which are all directed at fulfilling their pledge to make the world a better place for those who share it, and believes that the Soroptimist organisation is a superb example of women coming together in community groups to foster both a community spirit and fellowship among its membership.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*

S7M-00361 Finlay Carson: South of Scotland Horse Trials, Kirkcudbrightshire—That the Parliament congratulates the organisers, competitors, volunteers and supporters of the South of Scotland Horse Trials, which are held at Valleyfield Farm near Twynholm in Kirkcudbrightshire; recognises what it considers to be the rapid success and growing reputation of the event since its launch, including its inclusion on the official British Eventing calendar; notes that the event marked the return of affiliated eventing competition to Dumfries and Galloway for the first time since the 1990s, representing a significant milestone for equestrian sport in the region; understands that the horse trials showcase the discipline of eventing, combining dressage, cross-country and showjumping to test the skill, accuracy and endurance of both horse and rider; commends the vision, leadership and sustained hard work of Tom, Sarah and Nina Clark, and their wider team, in establishing and delivering what it believes to be a high-quality and professionally-run competition; notes that the event attracts competitors, spectators and sponsors from across Scotland, the rest of the UK and beyond, helping to promote Kirkcudbrightshire and the wider south of Scotland as a destination for sport, tourism and rural enterprise; acknowledges the important role played by local businesses, landowners, sponsors and volunteers in supporting the event; recognises what it sees as the wider importance of equestrian events in contributing to rural economies and strengthening Scotland's events sector, which contributes billions of pounds annually to the national economy; further recognises ongoing efforts to position the south of Scotland as "Scotland's Horse Country" and as a leading centre for equestrian tourism and activity, and wishes the South of Scotland Horse Trials continued success in the years ahead as it aims to grow its reputation, support local communities and help to put the area firmly on the equestrian map.

S7M-00360 Jenni Minto: Otter Ferry Seafish Ltd—That the Parliament commends Otter Ferry Seafish Ltd on securing investment from Highlands and Islands Enterprise for its halibut farming development project; recognises that aquaculture is a key part of Argyll and Bute's economy and that halibut farming provides a major opportunity for Scottish Aquaculture; understands that Otter Ferry Seafish, which is owned by Amar Seafoods, is a key employer, providing skilled jobs that support the local rural communities; notes the decades of hard work and research that it has undertaken to develop what it considers to be a first class product, at what is the UK's only halibut hatchery, while also promoting sustainability and environmental protection, and congratulates managing director, Alastair Barge, and the full team at Otter Ferry Seafish for securing this funding and for all their work developing the production of cleaner fish.

S7M-00359 Q Manivannan: Scotland Loves Local Week 2026—That the Parliament recognises that local businesses and community organisations sustain not only local economies but the distinct cultures and social fabric that make each community unique; acknowledges the importance of Scotland Loves Local Week 2026 in celebrating our high streets and independent businesses; commends the efforts of residents, volunteers and business owners who help keep our town centres and neighbourhoods thriving; recognises the role that local spending plays in employment, community wellbeing and resilience, and encourages individuals, organisations and public bodies across Scotland to participate in and support Scotland Loves Local Week 2026.

Supported by: Laura Moodie*, Dawn Black*, Holly Bruce*, Cara McKee*, Liam McArthur*, Adam Harley*, Colin Beattie*, Yi-pei Chou Turvey*

S7M-00357 Laura Moodie: Celebrating the Contribution of Migrant Communities to Cultural and Culinary Life—That the Parliament commends The Depot in Dumfries and Galloway on the production of a cookbook, which highlights the creativity, resilience and cultural richness of the individuals and communities involved; recognises what it sees as the invaluable contribution that migrant and displaced communities make to the cultural and culinary life of South Scotland, enriching local food traditions and fostering greater understanding and inclusion; celebrates Refugee Week as an opportunity to reflect on the positive impact of welcome, solidarity and community connection; notes that the launch of The Depot's cookbook and accompanying exhibition at the Midsteeple Quarter Standard Building in Dumfries marked the beginning of a week of celebration across Dumfries and Galloway; further notes that these events will culminate in the Dumfries International Street Food Festival event in Castle Douglas on 20 June 2026, and acknowledges that these events have grown from a desire to welcome and support displaced people in Dumfries and Galloway, promoting community cohesion, cultural exchange and a shared sense of place. R

Supported by: Cara McKee*, Maggie Chapman*, Heather Anderson*, Colin Beattie*

*S7M-00332 Carol Mochan: US Fuel Blockade Affecting Situation in Cuba—That the Parliament expresses deep concern regarding what it sees as the punishing effect of increasing sanctions on Cuba by the US, where, since early 2026, the US has prevented imports of oil and diesel and tightened extraterritorial sanctions that target Cuban infrastructure; notes reports of hospitals lacking key medicines and daily electricity blackouts lasting up to 20 hours; further notes reports of an earthquake off the Cuban coast on 8 June 2026; recognises that on 8 June 2026, Volker Turk, UN high commissioner for human rights, called for Cuba sanctions to be lifted immediately because they are endangering lives; encourages the Scottish Government to recognise the impending humanitarian crisis and work with the UK Government to protect Cuban civilians by holding the US to account for imposing restrictions on fuel, and calls on the Scottish Government to call for an end to the blockade.

S7W-01069 Adam Harley: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of the prevalence of patients receiving care outwith appropriate clinical settings, so-called corridor care, and what plans it has to collect and publish data regarding the numbers experiencing this.

S7W-01070 Paul Sweeney: To ask the Scottish Government what action it will take to improve the oversight and regulation for construction projects delivered using the design and build procurement route, to ensure that build quality is not compromised should the initial requirements not adequately ensure that the anticipated specifications are adhered to.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 2.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
