Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-03879 Maggie Chapman: International Transgender Day of Visibility—That the Parliament recognises 31 March as International Transgender Day of Visibility (TDOV), an annual event founded in 2009 and recognised in Scotland since 2014; understands that TDOV is dedicated to celebrating transgender people, raising awareness of the discrimination that they continue to face worldwide, and marking their contributions to society; considers that, as Women's History Month draws to a close, there is a need for greater awareness of trans women's contributions to gender equality and social justice; notes what it sees as the need for increased visibility for trans men, who it considers are often overlooked in the broader conversation regarding trans rights; applauds community organisations in the north east, especially Four Pillars in Aberdeen and Dundee Pride, for providing education and support to trans people within their local communities; commends the work of national organisations, including Stonewall Scotland and the Scottish Trans Alliance, for what it sees as their tireless efforts to educate and advocate on behalf of trans people for social justice and equity throughout Scotland and across the wider UK; expresses its solidarity with trans people, and hopes that TDOV will continue to have a positive impact for years to come.

S6M-03799 Rachael Hamilton: Congratulating Winners of the Scottish Borders Design Awards 2022—That the Parliament congratulates the winners of the Scottish Borders Design Awards 2022; notes that the awards ceremony was hosted at the Borders Distillery in Hawick, which is a former design award winner; understands that the Scottish Borders Council award scheme was first established in 1984, and has since run every second year, showcasing some of the best new building designs and renovations in the region, with the aim of inspiring the highest quality future designs and sustainable developments, and commends the winners, who were as follows: Design Award for New Build (Residential) - Beekeeper's House, Roxburgh, Design Award for New Build (Commercial) - Great Tapestry of Scotland, Galashiels, Commendation for New Build (Commercial) - Jedburgh Grammar Campus, Design Award for Placemaking - Caerlee Mill, Innerleithen, Design Award for Works to an Existing Building - Stow Station House, Commendation for Works to an Existing Building- Compact Accessible House, Kelso.

S6M-03798 Rachael Hamilton: Hawick Pub Set to Open After Being Restored to Former Glory—That the Parliament congratulates Stephen Anderson on the reopening of the Queen's Head at 32 High Street, Hawick; understands that the pub has been closed since 2011 and that work started on the restoration of the 19th century property early in 2019, and further understands that it is due to open at the end of April or early May 2022, before the town's first Common Riding ride-out.

S6M-03796 Paul McLennan: Seabird Centre Award Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Seabird Centre in North Berwick on securing funding totalling £49,733 from the National Lottery Community Fund; understands that this funding will go towards its Community Citizen Scientists - Building a Hub for the Future project, which will develop a programme for new marine ambassadors to help to secure the future of the country's marine environment, and further understands that the Scottish Seabird Centre will build a specialist hub for developing and supporting the community citizen scientists for the future around the Firth of Forth, which will aim to engage 16- to 24-year-olds in marine ecology and conservation through the development of a science hub, which, it believes, will help to build their confidence and interest in green jobs.

S6M-03792 Gordon MacDonald: Balerno High School Rights Respecting Schools Silver Award—That the Parliament congratulates Balerno High School on being awarded Silver by UNICEF UK's Rights Respecting School programme; understands that the award is given to schools that create safe and inspiring places to learn, where children are respected, their talents are nurtured, they are able to thrive, and where those values are embedded in daily school life, giving children the best chance to lead happy, healthy lives and to be responsible, active citizens; recognises the school-wide effort made by the pupils and staff; further recognises the leadership and coordination work carried out by the Balerno High School's Rights Respecting Schools Group, and encourages all schools to become a Rights Respecting School to ensure that there is a children's rights approach to all aspects of school life.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
