

Cross Party Group for Culture

City Deals: Cultural Cities & Local Resilience

Wednesday 1st May 2019

Scottish Parliament, Committee Room C, Alexander Fleming Room

5.30pm to 8pm

---

Agenda

5.30pm	Announcements from CPG 11 th Dec Cultural Freelancers
5.40pm	Introduction to discussion and panellists
5.45pm	Short-Film from Arts and Business Scotland introduced by David Watt
5:55pm	Panellist Anna Young - Glasgow Canal Project
6.10pm	Panellist Julie Farr – Dundee Social Enterprise Network
6.25pm	Panellist Dame Seona Reid – Cultural Cities Inquiry
6.40pm	Skye Eco-Museum Clip + Social Enterprise Clip
6.50pm	Open discussion, including group members and guests
7.30pm	Confirm Group Actions (if any)
7.40pm	Date of Next Meeting 1 st Oct 2019 (incorporating the AGM)
7.45pm	Close

Optional Discussion Questions:

- How does the cultural sector currently benefit from city deals? Where are the exciting examples and how can we learn from and share these most effectively?
- What approaches might enable the sector to better connect to City Deals?
- How can the recommendations from the Cultural Cities Enquiry be realised?
- How can all of this improve local resilience in the cultural sector and beyond?
- How should we ensure investment supports both production and distribution of culture?