GOVERNING BODIES

Senior lay member of governing body

A1 Position of senior lay member

(1) The governing body of a higher education institution is to include the position of senior lay member (however the institution chooses to name the position).

(2) The senior lay member of the governing body of a higher education institution has—

(a) the duty to preside at meetings of the governing body,

(b) a deliberative and a casting vote at such meetings,

(c) responsibility for—

(i) the leadership and effectiveness of the governing body,

(3) Another member of the governing body of a higher education institution may be selected by the governing body to exercise any of the functions mentioned in subsection (2) in the absence of the senior lay member or while the position is vacant.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) are subject to section A2.
A2 Interaction with role of rector

1. Subsection (2) applies in the case of a higher education institution at which there is a rector who has functions under section 4 of the 1858 Act and section 5(5) of the 1889 Act (each of which contains provision relating to the role of the rector at an older university).

2. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) of section A1 and subsection (3) of that section so far as relating to those paragraphs are of no effect in relation to the institution (but see section 5(5) of the 1889 Act (which also contains provision about who is to preside at certain meetings in the absence of the rector)).

3. In this section—

   “the 1858 Act” means the Universities (Scotland) Act 1858,

   “the 1889 Act” means the Universities (Scotland) Act 1889.

A3 Relevant criteria etc.

1. Whenever a vacancy arises in the position of senior lay member of the governing body of a higher education institution, the governing body must delegate to a committee the responsibility of—

   a. devising the relevant criteria with respect to the position,

   b. ensuring the efficiency and fairness of the process for filling the position.

2. The relevant criteria include the skills and knowledge considered by the committee to be necessary or desirable to—

   a. exercise the functions of the senior lay member,

   b. command the trust and respect of—

      i. the other members of the governing body,

      ii. the academic board of the institution,

      iii. the staff and students of the institution.

3. The membership of the committee must include at least one person from each of these categories—

   a. the staff of the institution,

   b. the students of the institution.

4. Rules made by the governing body of the institution may make provision for the process for filling the position of senior lay member of the governing body (subject to sections A4 to A8).

A4 Advertisement and application

   a. on the institution’s website, and

   b. in the print or internet version of at least one national newspaper in Scotland.
(2) The committee mentioned in section A3(1) is to ensure that the advertisement—
(a) sets out the functions exercisable by the senior lay member of the governing body under section A1(2),
(b) summarises the relevant criteria with respect to the position and states how more information about the relevant criteria can be obtained,

c) explains—

the applicant must be invited to an interview conducted by the committee.

(2) If the applicant satisfies the committee at such an interview that the applicant meets the relevant criteria, the applicant is entitled to stand as a candidate in an election for the position.

(3) The governing body of the institution is to offer every applicant for the position reimbursement of reasonable expenses that are incurred by the applicant in attending such an interview.

A6 When election to be convened

(1) An election for the position of senior lay member of the governing body of a higher education institution must be convened if more than one applicant—
(a) is entitled under section A5(2) to stand as a candidate in the election, and
(b) confirms an intention to stand as a candidate in the election.

(2) If the number of candidates in the election subsequently falls to below two—
(a) the election is to be postponed until the election can be held with more than one candidate standing (and the vacancy must be advertised under section A4(1) again),
(b) the remaining candidate (if there is one) continues to be entitled to stand as a candidate in the election.
(3) The governing body of the institution is to offer every candidate in the election reimbursement of reasonable expenses that are incurred by the candidate in campaigning in the election (up to the limit per candidate that is fixed by the governing body).
