After section 2

Kevin Stewart

- 24 After section 2, insert—

<Meaning of extreme fuel poverty

- (1) A household is in extreme fuel poverty if—
 - (a) the fuel costs necessary for the home in which members of the household live to meet the conditions set out in section 2(2) are more than 20% of the household’s adjusted net income, and
 - (b) after deducting such fuel costs and the household’s childcare costs (if any), the household’s remaining adjusted net income is insufficient to maintain an acceptable standard of living for members of the household.
- (2) Subsections (2) to (6) of section 2 apply in relation to the definition of extreme fuel poverty under this section as they apply in relation to the definition of fuel poverty under that section.>

Kevin Stewart

- 25 After section 2, insert—

<Meaning of fuel poverty gap

- (1) Where a household is in fuel poverty, the fuel poverty gap is the figure calculated in accordance with subsection (2) or the figure calculated in accordance with subsection (3), whichever is the lower.

- (2) The first figure referred to in subsection (1) is the difference between—
 - (a) the annual fuel costs necessary for the home in which members of the household live to meet the conditions set out in section 2(2), and
 - (b) 10% of the household’s annual adjusted net income.
- (3) The second figure referred to in subsection (1) is the difference between—
 - (a) the annual amount required to maintain an acceptable standard of living for members of the household, and
 - (b) the household’s annual remaining adjusted net income for the purpose of section 2(1)(b).
- (4) For the purpose of subsections (1) to (3)—
 - (a) the amount required to maintain an acceptable standard of living is to be determined in the same way as it is for the purpose of section 2,
 - (b) “adjusted”, “household” and “net income” have the same meanings as in section 2(6).
- (5) Where the fuel poverty gap is being measured against a fuel poverty target, the sums referred to in sections 1(c) and (the 2030 target)(c) are to be increased or (as the case may be) decreased by the same percentage as the percentage increase or decrease in the annual average consumer prices index over the period from 2015 to the year to which the target relates.
- (6) In subsection (5), the consumer prices index means the all consumer prices index published by the Office of National Statistics.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend this section to replace references to one prices index with references to another.>

Section 3

Jackie Baillie
