Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Bill

[AS AMENDED AT STAGE 2]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision about staffing by the National Health Service and by providers of care services.

PART 1

GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR STAFFING

5 1 Guiding principles for health and care staffing

(1) The guiding principles for health and care staffing are—

(a) that the main purposes of staffing for health care and care services are—

(i) to provide safe and high-quality services and to ensure the health, wellbeing and safety of service users, and

10 (ii) to ensure the best health care outcomes for service users,

(b) that, in so far as consistent with the main purpose, staffing for health care and care services is to be arranged while—

(zi) ensuring the health, wellbeing and safety of service users,

(zii) improving standards and outcomes for service users,

15 (i) taking account of the particular needs, abilities, characteristics and circumstances of different service users,

(ii) respecting the dignity and rights of service users,

(iii) taking account of the views of staff and service users,

(iv) ensuring the wellbeing of staff,

20 (v) being open with staff and service users about decisions on staffing,

(vi) allocating staff efficiently and effectively, and

(vii) promoting multi-disciplinary services as appropriate.

(2) In this Part—

25 “care service” means a service mentioned in section 47(1) of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010,

“health care” means a service for or in connection with the prevention, diagnosis or treatment of illness,

“multi-disciplinary services” means health care or care services delivered together by individuals from such a range of professional disciplines as necessary in order to meet the needs of, and improve standards and outcomes for, service users,

“service users” means individuals to whom or in relation to whom health care or a care service is provided,

“standards and outcomes for service users” means—

(a) in relation to health care, the standards and outcomes published by the Scottish Ministers under section 10H of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, and

(b) in relation to care services, the standards and outcomes published by the Scottish Ministers under section 50 of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.

2 Guiding principles in health care staffing and planning

(1) In carrying out the duty relating to staffing imposed by section 12IA of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, every Health Board and the Common Services Agency for the Scottish Health Service must have regard to the guiding principles for health and care staffing.

(2) In planning or securing the provision of health care from another person under a contract, agreement or arrangements made under or by virtue of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, every Health Board and the Common Services Agency for the Scottish Health Service must have regard to—

(a) the guiding principles for health and care staffing, and

(b) the need for the person from whom the provision of health care is to be secured to have appropriate staffing arrangements in place.

(3) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, every Health Board and the Common Services Agency for the Scottish Health Service must provide information to the Scottish Ministers as on the steps they have taken to comply with subsections (1) and (2).

(4) Information provided under subsection (3) must set out how the steps taken by the Health Board or (as the case may be) Common Services Agency for the Scottish Health Service to comply with subsections (1) and (2) have improved outcomes for service users.

(5) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers must collate information received under subsection (3) into a combined report to be laid before the Scottish Parliament.

(6) A report laid under subsection (5) must set out—

(a) the steps taken by Health Boards and (as the case may be) the Common Services Agency for the Scottish Health Service to comply with subsections (1) and (2), and

(b) the steps that the Scottish Ministers will take in relation to the staffing of the health service in response to the report’s conclusions and recommendations.

3 Guiding principles in care service staffing and planning

- (1) In carrying out the duty relating to staffing imposed by section 6, any person who provides a care service must have regard to the guiding principles for health and care staffing.
- 5 (2) In planning or securing the provision of a care service from another person under a contract, agreement or other arrangements, every local authority and every integration authority (within the meaning of section 59 of the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act 2014) must have regard to—
- (a) the guiding principles for health and care staffing, and
- 10 (b) the duties relating to staffing imposed on persons who provide care services—
- (i) by virtue of this section and sections 6 to 8, and
- (ii) by virtue of Chapters 3 and 3A of Part 5 of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.
- (3) Every local authority and every integration authority must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the operation of subsection (2).
- 15 (4) Before issuing such guidance, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
- (a) Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland,
- (b) such persons as they consider to be representative of the providers, commissioners and users of care services,
- 20 (c) such trade unions and professional bodies as they consider to be representative of individuals working in care services,
- (d) such persons as they consider to be representative of carers (within the meaning of section 1 of the Carers (Scotland) Act 2016), and
- (e) such other persons as they consider appropriate.
- 25 (5) The Scottish Ministers must publish any guidance issued under subsection (3).
- (6) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, every local authority and every integration authority (within the meaning of section 59 of the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act 2014) must provide the Scottish Ministers with information on—
- 30 (a) the steps they have taken, and
- (b) any ongoing risk that may affect their ability,
- to comply with subsection (2).
- (7) Information provided under subsection (6) must set out how the steps taken by the local authority or (as the case may be) integration authority to comply with subsection (2)
- 35 have improved outcomes for service users.
- (8) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers must collate the information provided to them under subsection (6) into a combined report to be laid before the Scottish Parliament.
- (9) A report laid under subsection (8) must set out—
- 40 (a) the steps taken by local authorities and (as the case may be) integration authorities to comply with subsection (2),

- (b) any ongoing risk that may affect the ability of the local authority or (as the case may be) integration authority to comply with subsection (2),
- (c) the steps that the Scottish Ministers will take in relation to the staffing of social care services in response to the report’s conclusions and recommendations.

5

STAFFING IN THE NHS

4 NHS duties in relation to staffing

- (1) The National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 12I insert—

10

“Staffing

12IA Duty to ensure appropriate staffing

- (1) It is the duty of every Health Board and the Agency to ensure that at all times suitably qualified and competent individuals, from such a range of professional disciplines as necessary, are working in such numbers as are appropriate for—

15

- (a) the health, wellbeing and safety of patients and staff, and
- (b) the provision of safe and high-quality health care and services,

- (2) In determining what, in a particular kind of health care provision, constitutes appropriate numbers for the purposes of subsection (1), regard is to be had to—

20

- (a) the nature of the particular kind of health care provision,
- (b) the local context in which it is being provided,
- (c) the number of patients being provided it,
- (d) the needs of patients being provided it, and
- (e) appropriate clinical advice.

20

12IAA Duty to have real-time staffing assessment in place

25

- (1) It is the duty of every Health Board and the Agency to put and keep in place arrangements for the real-time assessment of its compliance with the duty imposed by section 12IA.

- (2) The arrangements under subsection (1) must, in particular, include—

30

- (a) a procedure for the identification, by any member of staff, of any risks caused by staffing levels to—
 - (i) the health, wellbeing and safety of patients,
 - (ii) the provision of high-quality health care, or
 - (iii) in so far as it affects either of those matters, the wellbeing of staff.

35

- (b) a procedure for the mitigation of any such risks, so far as possible, by the individual with lead clinical professional responsibility where the risk was identified, and

- (c) raising awareness among staff about the procedures described in paragraphs (a) and (b).

12IAB Duty to have risk escalation process in place

- 5 (1) It is the duty of every Health Board and the Agency to put and keep in place arrangements for the escalation of any risk—

- (a) identified during the real-time assessment of its staffing levels in accordance with arrangements put in place under section 12IAA, and
- (b) which it has not been possible to mitigate in accordance with the arrangements put in place under that section.

- 10 (2) The arrangements under subsection (1) must, in particular, include—

- (a) a procedure for the initial reporting of a risk as described in subsection (1), by the individual with lead clinical professional responsibility where the risk was identified, to a more senior decision-maker in the clinical professional structure,

- 15 (b) a requirement for any such decision-maker to seek appropriate clinical advice, as necessary, in reaching a decision on the risk,

- 20 (c) a procedure for the onward reporting of the risk, as necessary, to a more senior decision-maker in turn, and a requirement for that decision-maker in turn to seek appropriate clinical advice, as necessary, in reaching a decision on the risk,

- (d) a procedure for the notification of every decision made following the initial report, and the reasons for it, to—

- 25 (i) any individual who was involved in identifying the risk in accordance with the arrangements put in place under section 12IAA(2)(a),

- (ii) any individual who was involved in attempting to mitigate the risk in accordance with the arrangements put in place under section 12IAA(2)(b),

- 30 (iii) any individual who was involved in reporting the risk in accordance with the arrangements put in place under paragraph (a) or (c) of this subsection, and

- (iv) any individual who gave clinical advice in accordance with the arrangements put in place under paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection,

- 35 (e) a procedure for those individuals to record any disagreement with any decision made following the initial report, and

- (f) raising awareness among staff about the procedures described in paragraphs (a) to (e).

12IAC Duty to ensure appropriate staffing: number of registered healthcare professionals etc.

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must ensure that there is a sufficient number of—
- (a) registered nurses,
 - (b) registered midwives,
 - (c) medical practitioners, and
 - (d) such other types of employees as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe,
- available to every Health Board and the Agency to enable the Health Board and the Agency to comply with the duty in section 12IA.
- (2) In fulfilling their obligations under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to—
- (a) the number of people training for professions mentioned in or by virtue of subsection (1) in Scotland, and
 - (b) any information provided to them by a Health Board or the Agency about how it has carried out its duties under this Act.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers must lay before the Parliament a report setting out—
- (a) how they have complied with subsection (1), and
 - (b) how having regard to the things mentioned in subsection (2) enabled Health Boards or the Agency to comply with subsection (1).

12IAD Duty to ensure appropriate staffing: senior registered nurses

- (1) In complying with the duty in section 12IA, every Health Board and the Agency must ensure that a senior registered nurse in each rostered location is non-caseload holding.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- “caseload holding” means a registered nurse required to meet the needs of a proportion of the patients in a rostered location,
 - “senior registered nurse” means a registered nurse with such level of qualifications, training and experience, role and other requirements as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe,
 - “rostered location” means an area such as a ward, operating theatre or community team providing nursing care.

12IAE Duty to ensure appropriate staffing: training of staff

- To comply with the duty under section 12IA, every Health Board or the Agency must ensure that individuals working for the Health Board or the Agency receive—
- (a) appropriate training for the work they are to perform, and
 - (b) suitable assistance, including time off work, for the purpose of obtaining further qualifications appropriate to their work.

12IB Duty to follow common staffing method

(1) In relation to health care of a type mentioned in section 12IC, a Health Board or the Agency (as the case may be) must, no less often than at the frequency specified in regulations by the Scottish Ministers, use the common staffing method set out in subsection (2).

(1A) The purpose of the common staffing method is to set a staffing establishment figure for a particular kind of health care provision at a particular location by employees of a particular kind.

(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A), “staffing establishment” means the total number of suitably qualified and competent employees of a particular kind required to meet the average workload in a particular location in order to comply with the duty in section 12IA.

(2) The common staffing method means that a Health Board or the Agency (as the case may be)—

(a) uses the staffing level tool and the professional judgement tool as prescribed in regulations under subsection (3) and takes into account the results from those tools,

(b) takes into account, in so far as relevant, any measures for monitoring and improving the quality of health care which are published as standards and outcomes under section 10H(1) by the Scottish Ministers,

(c) takes into account—

(i) its current staffing levels and any vacancies,

(ia) the different skills and levels of experience of its employees,

(ib) the role and professional duties, in particular, of any individual with lead clinical professional responsibility for the particular type of health care,

(ic) the impact on other health care professions and staff,

(ii) the local context in which it provides health care,

(iia) patient needs,

(iib) appropriate clinical advice,

(iii) any assessment by HIS, and any relevant assessment by any other person, of the quality of health care which it provides,

(iiia) experience gained from using the real-time assessment arrangements under section 12IAA(1) and the risk escalation process under section 12IAB(1),

(iv) comments by patients, and by individuals who have a personal interest in their health care (for example family members and carers within the meaning of section 1 of the Carers (Scotland) Act 2016), which relate to the duty imposed by section 12IA, and

(v) comments by its employees which relate to the duty imposed by section 12IA, and

(ca) identifies and takes all reasonable steps to mitigate any risks, and

(d) having followed the steps described in paragraphs (a) to (ca), decides what changes (if any) are needed as a result to its staffing levels, and to the way in which it provides health care.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe—

(a) a “staffing level tool” designed to provide quantitative information relating to workload, based on patient needs, in order to assist in determining the appropriate staffing levels for a particular kind of health care provision, and

(b) a “professional judgement tool” designed to provide quantitative information relating to professional judgement in order to assist in determining the appropriate staffing levels for a particular kind of health care provision.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend subsection (2) so as to change the description of the common staffing method.

12IC Common staffing method: types of health care

(1) The types of health care are those described in the first column of the table below, in so far as they are provided at any one of the kinds of locations and by any one of the kinds of employees listed in the corresponding entries in the second and third columns.

Type of health care	Location	Employees
Adult inpatient provision	Hospital wards with 17 occupied beds or more on average	Registered nurses
Clinical nurse specialist provision	Hospitals Community settings	Registered nurses who work as clinical nurse specialists
Community nursing provision	Community settings	Registered nurses

Type of health care	Location	Employees
Neonatal provision	Neonatal units in hospitals	Registered midwives Registered nurses
Paediatric inpatient provision	Paediatric wards in hospitals	Registered nurses
Small ward provision	Hospital wards with 16 occupied beds or fewer on average	Registered nurses

(2) In the third column of the table in subsection (1), references to—

- (a) registered nurses,
- (b) registered midwives, and
- (c) medical practitioners,

include other individuals providing care for patients and acting under the supervision of, or discharging duties delegated to the individual by, the registered nurse, registered midwife or medical practitioner (as the case may be).

(2A) But those references do not include individuals who are engaged in a course of studies in order to be admitted to—

- (a) the register of members maintained by the Nursing and Midwifery Council under section 60 of the Health Act 1999, or
- (b) the register of medical practitioners maintained by the General Medical Council under section 2 of the Medical Act 1983 (with the exception of persons who are already provisionally registered under section 15 of that Act).

(3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend subsections (1) to (2A) so as to add, remove, or change the description of a type of health care, including where and by whom it is provided (for example, so as to add to the third column of the table in subsection (1) employees of a kind included in the register of members maintained by the Health and Care Professions Council under section 60 of the Health Act 1999).

12ID Training and consultation of staff

In complying with the duty imposed by section 12IB, every Health Board and the Agency must—

- (a) encourage and support its employees to give views on its staffing arrangements for the types of health care described in section 12IC,
- (b) take into account and use any such views it receives to identify best practice, and areas for improvement, in relation to such staffing arrangements,

- (c) train employees (including, in particular, employees of a type mentioned in the third column of the table in section 12IC(1)) using the common staffing method on how to use it,
- (d) ensure that those employees receive adequate time to use the common staffing method, and
- (e) provide information to employees engaged in the types of health care described in section 12IC about its use of the common staffing method, including about—
 - (i) the results from using the staffing level tool and the professional judgement tool under paragraph (a) of section 12IB(2),
 - (ii) the steps taken under paragraphs (b) and (c) of that subsection, and
 - (iii) the results of its decision under paragraph (d) of that subsection.

12IE Reporting on staffing

- (1) Before the end of the period of 1 month beginning with the last day of each financial year, every Health Board and the Agency must publish, and submit to the Scottish Ministers, a report setting out how during that financial year it has carried out its duties under—
 - (a) section 12IA (including reference to the related duties under section 2 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019 to have regard to guiding principles in health care staffing and planning),
 - (aa) section 12IAA,
 - (ab) section 12IAB,
 - (b) section 12IB, and
 - (c) section 12ID.
- (2) Following the receipt of such reports from every Health Board and the Agency and before the beginning of the next financial year, the Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) collate the reports submitted to them under subsection (1) into a combined report for the year to which the reports relate,
 - (b) lay that combined report before the Scottish Parliament, and
 - (c) lay an accompanying statement setting out how they have taken into account and plan to take into account, in their policies for the staffing of the health service, the information included in the combined report.
- (3) Information provided under subsection (1) must set out—
 - (a) whether each Health Board or the Agency has faced any challenges or risk in carrying out its duties under—
 - (i) section 12IA (including reference to the related duties under section 2 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019 to have regard to guiding principles in health care staffing and planning),
 - (ii) section 12IB, and

(iii) section 12ID, and

(b) the steps the Health Board or the Agency will take to address such challenges.

5 (4) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers must publish a report (in such manner as they consider appropriate) setting out how each Health Board and the Agency has carried out its duties under—

10 (a) section 12IA (including reference to the related duties under section 2 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019 to have regard to guiding principles in health care staffing and planning),

(b) section 12IB, and

(c) section 12ID.

15 (5) A report under subsection (4) must set out—

(a) whether the Scottish Ministers have identified any challenges or risk faced by the Health Board or the Agency in carrying out its duties under—

20 (i) section 12IA (including reference to the related duties under section 2 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019 to have regard to guiding principles in health care staffing and planning),

(ii) section 12IB, and

(iii) section 12ID, and

(b) the steps that the Scottish Ministers will take as a result.

25 (6) The Scottish Ministers must lay before the Parliament—

(a) a summary and evaluation of the information submitted to them under subsection (1), and

(b) a report under subsection (4).

12IF Ministerial guidance on staffing

30 (1) Every Health Board and the Agency must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the carrying out of its duties under sections 12IA to 12IE.

(2) Such guidance may, in particular, include provision about—

35 (a) the related duties under section 2 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019 to have regard to guiding principles in health care staffing and planning, and

(b) the use of the common staffing method, including—

(i) each of the steps described in paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 12IB(2), and

40 (ii) decision-making, under paragraph (d) of that subsection, about staffing levels and about the way in which health care is provided, and

(c) procedures for the identification, mitigation and escalation of risks caused by staffing levels in arrangements put in place under sections 12IAA and 12IAB.

(3) Before issuing such guidance, the Scottish Ministers must consult—

(a) every Health Board,

(b) every relevant Special Health Board,

(c) every integration authority (within the meaning of section 59 of the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act 2014),

(d) HIS,

(e) the Agency,

(f) such trade unions and professional bodies as they consider to be representative of employees of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e),

(fa) such professional regulatory bodies for employees of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e) as they consider appropriate, and

(g) such other persons as they consider appropriate.

(4) The Scottish Ministers must publish any guidance issued under this section.

12IG Interpretation of sections 12H to 12IF

In sections 12H to 12IF—

“appropriate clinical advice” means advice obtained from the appropriate level and area of clinical professional structures depending on the particular circumstances of each case (for example from an individual holding a senior executive role in the provision of nursing services),

“employee” means an individual in paid employment by, as the case may be, a Health Board, the Agency or (where an integration scheme under Part 1 of the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act 2014 applies) a local authority, whether under a contract of service or apprenticeship or under a contract for services,

5A Role of Healthcare Improvement Scotland in relation to staffing

(1) The National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 12IG (as inserted by section 4) insert—

“HIS functions in relation to staffing

12IH HIS: monitoring and reporting on compliance with staffing duties

HIS must monitor the discharge, by every Health Board, relevant Special Health Board and the Agency, of their duties under—

(a) section 12IA (including the related duties under section 2 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019 to have regard to guiding principles in health care staffing and planning),
 20

(b) section 12IAA,

(c) section 12IAB,

(d) section 12IB,

(e) section 12ID,

(e) section 12IE, and
 25

(f) section 12IF.

12IJ HIS: monitoring and review of common staffing method

(1) In respect of each type of health care mentioned in section 12IC, HIS must monitor—

(a) the effectiveness of the common staffing method described in section 12IB(2), and 30

(b) the way in which Health Boards, relevant Special Health Boards and the Agency are using the common staffing method.

(2) In exercising the duty imposed by subsection (1), HIS must from time to time as it considers appropriate carry out reviews of the matters listed in subsection (1)(a) and (b).
 35

(3) In carrying out such a review, HIS must—

(a) consult—

(i) the Scottish Ministers,

- (ii) Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland,
 - (iii) every Health Board,
 - (iv) every relevant Special Health Board,
 - (v) every integration authority,
 - (vi) the Agency,
 - (vii) such trade unions and professional bodies as HIS considers to be representative of employees of the persons mentioned in sub-paragraphs (iii) to (vi),
 - (viii) such professional regulatory bodies for employees of the persons mentioned in sub-paragraphs (iii) to (vi) as HIS considers appropriate,
 - (ix) such other providers of health care as HIS considers to have relevant experience of using staffing level tools and professional judgement tools, and
 - (x) such other persons as HIS considers appropriate, and
- (b) have regard to the guiding principles for health and care staffing set out in section 1 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019.

- (4) The Scottish Ministers may direct HIS to carry out a review under subsection (2).
- (5) Following a review under subsection (2), HIS may recommend changes to the common staffing method to the Scottish Ministers.
- (6) Where HIS makes such recommendations it must submit to the Scottish Ministers, and then publish, a report setting out—
- (a) a summary of the review it has carried out under subsection (2),
 - (b) its recommendations for changes to the common staffing method, and
 - (c) the reasons for those recommendations.
- (7) In recommending changes to the common staffing method, HIS may take into account the development of a new or revised staffing level tool or professional judgement tool under section 12IK(2).

12IK HIS: monitoring and development of staffing tools

- (1) HIS must—
- (a) monitor the effectiveness of any staffing level tool or professional judgement tool which has been prescribed by the Scottish Ministers under section 12IB(3) (including any new or revised tools which have been developed under this section), and
 - (b) where it considers that any such tool is no longer effective, recommend the revocation or replacement of the tool to the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) HIS may develop and recommend to the Scottish Ministers new or revised staffing level tools and professional judgement tools for use in relation to any kind of health care provision.

- (3) In developing such tools, HIS must collaborate with—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland,
 - (c) every Health Board,
 - 5 (d) every relevant Special Health Board,
 - (e) every integration authority,
 - (f) the Agency,
 - (g) such trade unions and professional bodies as HIS considers to be representative of employees of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (c) to (f),
 - 10 (h) such professional regulatory bodies for employees of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (c) to (f) as HIS considers appropriate,
 - (i) such other providers of health care as HIS considers to have relevant experience of using staffing level tools and professional judgement tools, and
 - 15 (j) such other persons as HIS considers appropriate.
- (4) In undertaking such collaboration, HIS and those other persons must have regard to the guiding principles for health and care staffing set out in section 1 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may direct HIS to develop a new or revised staffing level tool or professional judgement tool for use in relation to a particular kind of health care provision specified in the direction.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations require that assumptions on certain matters (for example, as to staff absence and bed occupancy levels) must be made by HIS in the process of making a recommendation to them under subsection (2).

12IL HIS: duty to consider multi-disciplinary staffing tools

- (1) When HIS is developing a new or revised staffing level tool or professional judgement tool under section 12IK, it must consider whether the tool should apply to more than one professional discipline.
- 30 (2) HIS may at any time recommend to the Scottish Ministers that a staffing level tool or professional judgement tool which has been prescribed by the Scottish Ministers under section 12IB(3) should apply to more than one professional discipline.

12IM HIS: duty on Health Boards to assist staffing functions

Every Health Board, relevant Special Health Board and the Agency must give such assistance to HIS as it requires in the performance of its functions under sections 12IH to 12IL.

12IN HIS: power to require information

(1) HIS may, in pursuance of its functions under sections 12IH to 12IL, serve a notice on a Health Board, relevant Special Health Board or the Agency requiring the Board or the Agency (as the case may be)—

(a) to provide HIS with information about any matter specified in the notice, and

(b) to provide that information by a date specified in the notice.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) must explain why, and in pursuance of which function, the information is required.

(3) A Health Board, relevant Special Health Board or the Agency (as the case may be) must comply with any such notice served on it.

12IO HIS: ministerial guidance on staffing functions

(1) The following persons must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the operation of sections 12IH to 12IN—

(a) HIS,

(b) every Health Board,

(c) every relevant Special Health Board, and

(d) the Agency.

(2) Before issuing such guidance, the Scottish Ministers must consult the persons listed in paragraphs (b) to (j) of section 12IK(3) (reading the references to HIS as if they were references to the Scottish Ministers).

(3) The Scottish Ministers must publish any guidance issued under this section.

12IP Interpretation of sections 12IH to 12IO

In sections 12IH to 12IO—

“employee” has the meaning given by section 12IG,

“integration authority” has the meaning given by section 59 of the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act 2014,

“relevant Special Health Board” has the meaning given by section 12IG,

“staffing level tool” and “professional judgement tool” are to be construed in accordance with section 12IB(3).”

(3) In section 10C (health service functions)—

(a) after subsection (3), insert—

“(3A) HIS is to exercise the functions in relation to staffing conferred by virtue of sections 12IH to 12IL and section 12IN.”,

(b) at the end of subsection (5), insert “, and by virtue of sections 12IH to 12IL and section 12IN.”,

(c) in subsection (6), for “and section 10D” insert “, section 10D, sections 12IH to 12IL and section 12IN.”,

(d) in subsection (7), for “and section 10D” insert “, section 10D, sections 12IH to 12IL and section 12IN.”.

(4) In section 10I(1) (inspections of services provided under the health service)—

(a) the word “or” at the end of paragraph (a) is repealed,

(b) at the end of paragraph (b), insert “, or

(c) in pursuance of its functions under sections 12IH to 12IL and section 12IN.”.

PART 3

STAFFING IN CARE SERVICES

6 Duty on care service providers to ensure appropriate staffing

(1) Any person who provides a care service must ensure that at all times suitably qualified and competent individuals are working in the care service in such numbers as are appropriate for—

(a) the health, wellbeing and safety of service users and staff,

(b) the provision of safe and high-quality care and services, and

(c) in so far as it affects either of those matters, the wellbeing of staff.

(2) In determining what constitutes appropriate numbers for the purposes of subsection (1), regard is to be had to—

(a) the nature of the care service,

(b) the size of the care service,

(c) the aims and objectives of the care service,

(d) the number of service users, and

(e) the needs of service users.

7 Training of staff

(1) Any person who provides a care service must ensure that individuals working in the care service receive—

(a) appropriate training for the work they are to perform, and

(b) suitable assistance, including time off work, for the purpose of obtaining further qualifications appropriate to their work.

(2) In subsection (1)(a), “appropriate training” includes training in how to use any method for staffing required in regulations by the Scottish Ministers under section 82B(1) of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.

8 Ministerial guidance on staffing

(1) Any person who provides a care service must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the carrying out of its duties under sections 6 and 7.

- (1A) Such guidance may, in particular, include provision about the related duty under section 3(1) to have regard to the guiding principles for health and care staffing.
- (2) Before issuing such guidance, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
- (a) SCSWIS,
 - 5 (aa) the Scottish Social Services Council,
 - (b) such persons as they consider to be representative of the providers, commissioners and users of care services,
 - (c) such trade unions and professional bodies as they consider to be representative of individuals working in care services,
 - 10 (ca) such persons as they consider to be representative of carers (within the meaning of section 1 of the Carers (Scotland) Act 2016), and
 - (d) such other persons as they consider appropriate.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers must publish any guidance issued under this section.

9 Interpretation of sections 6 to 8

15 In sections 6 to 8—

“care service” means a service mentioned in section 47(1) of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010,

“SCSWIS” means Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland,

20 “service users” means individuals to whom or in relation to whom a care service is provided,

“working in a care service”, in relation to an individual, includes—

- (a) working for payment or as a volunteer, and
- (b) working under a contract of service or apprenticeship, a contract for services or otherwise than under a contract.

25 10 Functions of SCSWIS in relation to staffing methods

- (1) The Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 82 insert—

“CHAPTER 3A

CARE SERVICES: STAFFING

30 82A Development of staffing methods

- (1) SCSWIS may develop and recommend to the Scottish Ministers staffing methods for use by persons who provide—
 - (a) care home services for adults, and
 - (b) such other care services as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify.
- 35

- (2) In developing such methods, SCSWIS must collaborate with—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) Healthcare Improvement Scotland,
 - (ba) the Scottish Social Services Council,
 - 5 (bb) every Health Board,
 - (c) every local authority,
 - (d) every integration authority,
 - (e) such persons as SCSWIS considers to be representative of the providers and users of the care services to whom the staffing methods are to apply,
 - 10 (f) such trade unions and professional bodies as SCSWIS considers to be representative of individuals working in those care services, and
 - (g) such other persons as SCSWIS considers appropriate.
- (3) In undertaking such collaboration, SCSWIS and those other persons must have regard to—
- 15 (a) any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the operation of this section, and
 - (b) the guiding principles for health and care staffing set out in section 1 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019.
- (3A) The Scottish Ministers must publish any guidance issued under subsection (3)(a).
- 20
- (4) A staffing method developed and recommended under subsection (1) must include the use of staffing level tools designed to provide—
- (a) quantitative information relating to workload, based on the needs of service users, and
 - 25 (b) quantitative or qualitative information relating to professional judgement,
- in order to assist in determining the appropriate staffing levels for a care service.
- (5) A staffing method developed and recommended under subsection (1) may include, in particular, the taking into account of—
- 30 (a) the current staffing levels of a care service and any vacancies,
 - (b) the local context in which a care service is provided,
 - (c) the physical environment in which a care service is provided,
 - (d) any assessment of the quality of a care service,
 - 35 (e) the needs of the users of a care service,
 - (f) comments by the users of a care service, and by individuals who have a personal interest in their care (for example family members and carers within the meaning of section 1 of the Carers (Scotland) Act 2016), which relate to the duty imposed by section 6 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019,
 - 40

- (g) comments by the individuals working in a care service which relate to the duty imposed by section 6 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019, and
- (h) the standards and outcomes applicable to care services published by the Scottish Ministers under section 50.

82B Regulations: requirement to use staffing methods

- (1) Following the development and recommendation by SCSWIS under section 82A or 82BA of a staffing method for use by persons who provide care services, the Scottish Ministers may by regulations require the use of that method (with or without modifications) by persons who provide those care services.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may prescribe—
- (a) the types of care settings and individuals working in a care service in relation to which, and whom, a staffing method is to be used,
- (aa) the minimum frequency at which a staffing method is to be used, and
- (b) the staffing level tools for the purpose of section 82A(4).

82BA Review and redevelopment of staffing methods

- (1) SCSWIS may—
- (a) carry out reviews, from time to time as it considers appropriate, of the effectiveness of any staffing method which has been prescribed by the Scottish Ministers under section 82B (including any revised methods which have been developed under this section), and
- (b) where it considers that any such method is no longer effective, recommend the revocation or replacement of the method to the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) SCSWIS may develop and recommend to the Scottish Ministers revised staffing methods for use by persons who provide care services.
- (3) Subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 82A apply to the redevelopment of staffing methods under this section as they apply to their development under that section.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may direct SCSWIS to develop a revised staffing method for use in relation to a particular kind of care service specified in the direction.

82BAA Review of duty on care service providers to ensure appropriate staffing

- (1) SCSWIS may carry out reviews, from time to time as it considers appropriate, of the effectiveness of the operation of the duty under section 6 of the Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act 2019.
- (2) Having carried out a review under subsection (1), SCSWIS may publish a report to the Scottish Ministers on the operation of that duty.
- (3) A report under subsection (2) may be published in such manner as SCSWIS considers appropriate.

82BB Duty to consider multi-disciplinary staffing tools

- (1) When SCSWIS is developing a staffing level tool as part of a staffing method under section 82A or a revised staffing method under section 82BA, it must consider whether the tool should apply to more than one professional discipline.
- (2) SCSWIS may at any time recommend to the Scottish Ministers that a staffing level tool which has been prescribed as part of a staffing method by the Scottish Ministers under section 82B should apply to more than one professional discipline.

82C Interpretation of Chapter

In this Chapter—

“care home services for adults” means care home services provided for individuals who have reached the age of 18 years,

“care services” excludes care services provided by individuals who do not employ, or have not otherwise made arrangements with, other persons to assist with the provision of that service,

“integration authority” has the meaning given by section 59 of the Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act 2014,

“working in a care service”, in relation to an individual, includes—

- (a) working for payment or as a volunteer, and
- (b) working under a contract of service or apprenticeship, a contract for services or otherwise than under a contract.”.

11 Care services: consequential amendments

- (1) In the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010—
- (a) in section 60 (grant or refusal of registration), in subsection (3)(a), after “section 78” insert “or 82B(1)”,
 - (b) in section 104 (orders and regulations: procedure), in subsection (2), for “or 78” substitute “, 78, 82B(1)”.
- (2) Regulation 15 of the Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland (Requirements for Care Services) Regulations 2011 (S.S.I. 2011/210) is revoked.
