- 5 (1) The Scottish Ministers may not bring into effect the National Planning Framework until a draft of it has been approved by resolution of the Parliament.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may not lay a draft framework before the Scottish Parliament for approval unless—
 - 10 (a) they have proceeded in accordance with subsections (3) to (6), and
 - (b) following that procedure, they have laid before the Scottish Parliament an explanatory document in accordance with subsection (7).
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of section 3A(10), the Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - 15 (a) planning authorities,
 - (b) key agencies (within the meaning given by section 23D),

- (c) such other persons as they consider appropriate.
- (4) For the purposes of the consultation required by subsection (3), the Scottish Ministers must—
- 20 (a) lay before the Scottish Parliament a copy of the proposed draft framework,
- (b) send a copy of the proposed draft framework to any person to be consulted under subsection (3),
- 25 (c) publish the proposed draft framework and make it available to the public at large in such manner as they consider appropriate, and
- (d) have regard to any representations about the proposed draft framework that are made to them within 60 days of the date on which the copy of the proposed draft framework is laid before the Parliament under paragraph (a).
- 30 (5) In calculating any period of 60 days for the purposes of subsection (4)(c), no account is to be taken of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or is in recess for more than 4 days.
- (6) If, as a result of any consultation required by subsection (3), it appears to the Scottish Ministers that it is appropriate to change the whole or any part of their proposals, they must undertake such further consultation with respect to the changes as they consider appropriate.
- 35 (7) The explanatory document referred to in subsection (2)(b) must set out—
- (a) the consultation undertaken in accordance with subsections (3) and (6),
- (b) a summary of any representations received as a result of the consultation, and
- 40 (c) the changes (if any) made to the proposed draft framework as a result of those representations.
- (8) Where a person making representation in response to consultation under this section has not consented to the disclosure of the representations, the Scottish Ministers must not disclose them.
- 45 (9) If information in representations made by a person in response to consultation under subsections (3) and (6) relates to another person, the Scottish Ministers must not disclose that information if or to the extent that—
- (a) it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the disclosure of that information could adversely affect the interests of that other person, and
- 50 (b) the Scottish Ministers have been unable to obtain the consent of that other person to the disclosure.
- (10) Subsections (8) and (9) do not affect any disclosure that is requested by, and made to, a committee of the Parliament charged with reporting on the proposed draft framework.
- 55 (11) References in this section to the National Planning Framework or the framework include a revised framework.”>

 - (a) published in such manner as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate,
 - (b) laid before the Scottish Parliament.”.>

Kevin Stewart

116 Leave out section 1 and insert—

<National Planning Framework

- (1) The Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 is amended as follows.
- (2) For sections 3A to 3C substitute—

5 “National Planning Framework

3A National Planning Framework

- (1) There is to continue to be a spatial plan for Scotland known as the “National Planning Framework”.
- 10 (2) The National Planning Framework is to set out the Scottish Ministers’ policies and proposals for the development and use of land.
- (3) The National Planning Framework must contain—
 - 15 (a) a strategy for Scotland’s spatial development,
 - (b) a statement of what the Scottish Ministers consider to be priorities for that development, and
 - (c) a statement of what land the Scottish Ministers consider requires to be made available for housing.
- (4) The framework may—
 - 20 (a) contain an account of such matters as the Scottish Ministers consider affect, or may come to affect, the development and use of land,
 - (b) describe—
 - (i) a development and designate it a “national development”, or

- (ii) a class of development and designate each development within that class a “national development”, and
- (c) contain any other matter which the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate to include.
- 25
- (5) If the framework contains a designation under subsection (4)(b), the framework—
- (a) must contain a statement by the Scottish Ministers of their reasons for considering that there is a need for the national development in question, and
- 30
- (b) may contain a statement by the Scottish Ministers as regards other matters pertaining to that designation.
- (6) For the avoidance of doubt, this section does not prevent the Scottish Ministers from setting out policies or proposals that relate to the development or use of land outwith the National Planning Framework.
- 35

3AA Review of the National Planning Framework

- (1) The Scottish Ministers are to keep the National Planning Framework under review.
- (2) Without limit to subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers are to—
- 40
- (a) review the framework no later than 23 June 2024 (being 10 years from the date on which the framework was last published before this section came into force) and thereafter at least once in every period of 10 years beginning with the most recent date on which—
- (i) a revised framework prepared under paragraph (b)(i) was published under section 3AD(1), or
- 45
- (ii) an explanation was published under paragraph (b)(ii), and
- (b) following such a review—
- (i) prepare a revised framework, or
- (ii) publish an explanation of why they have decided not to revise it.

3AB Amendment of National Planning Framework

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may at any time amend the National Planning Framework.
- (2) Section 3AC does not apply in relation to making an amendment that is—
- (a) specified, or
- 55
- (b) of a kind described,
- in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers under this subsection.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision in connection with the making of amendments that are specified, or of a kind specified, in regulations under subsection (2).
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) may in particular make provision—
- 60
- (a) about the procedures to be followed,

- (b) about the consultation to be undertaken on proposed amendments,
- (c) about the laying of the amended framework before the Scottish Parliament.

65

3AC Scrutiny and adoption

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may not adopt a National Planning Framework unless—
 - (a) the steps set out in subsection (2) have been complied with, and
 - (b) the framework as proposed to be revised or the terms of the proposed amendment to the framework has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the Scottish Parliament.

70

- (2) The steps are—

Step 1

The Scottish Ministers are to prepare and publish their participation statement.

Step 2

75

The Scottish Ministers are to consult on a proposed revised framework or, as the case may be, a proposed amendment to the framework in accordance with their participation statement.

Step 3

80

After the consultation required under step 2, the Scottish Ministers are to lay before Parliament—

- (a) the proposed revised framework or, as the case may be, the terms of the proposed amendment to the framework, and
- (b) a report which sets out—
 - (i) the extent to which the Scottish Ministers' consultation accorded with (or exceeded) the requirements of their participation statement,
 - (ii) a summary of the findings of any assessment of the likely impact of the proposed revised framework or, as the case may be, the proposed amendment to the framework carried out by, or on behalf of, the Scottish Ministers, and
 - (iii) the changes (if any) made to the proposed framework or amendment (whether in light of the consultation or otherwise).

90

Step 4

At the expiry of the period for Parliamentary scrutiny, the Scottish Ministers—

95

- (a) are to have regard to any resolution or report of the Scottish Parliament relating to the proposed revised framework or, as the case may be, the proposed amendment to the framework made during that period, and
- (b) may make such changes to the proposed revised framework or, as the case may be, proposed amendment to the framework as they consider appropriate.

(3) Where the Scottish Ministers make changes to the proposed revised framework or, as the case may be, proposed amendment to the framework under Step 4(b), at the same time as laying the framework or amendment for approval, they are to lay before Parliament a statement giving details of—

105 (a) any resolution or report made by the Parliament relating to the framework or amendment during the period for Parliamentary scrutiny, and

(b) the changes (if any) which the Scottish Ministers made to the framework or, as the case may be, amendment as a result.

110 (4) In this section, the “period for Parliamentary scrutiny” means—

(a) in the case of a proposed revised framework, the period of 90 days beginning with the day on which the framework is laid,

(b) in the case of a proposed amendment to the framework, the period of 60 days beginning with the day on which the amendment is laid.

115 (5) In determining the period for Parliamentary scrutiny no account is to be taken of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or is in recess for more than 4 days.

(6) In this Part, “participation statement” means an account by the Scottish Ministers of—

120 (a) when consultation as regards the review of the framework or preparation of any amendment to the framework is likely to take place,

(b) with whom they intend to consult, which must include the key agencies (see section 23),

125 (c) the steps to be taken to involve the public at large in the consultation, and

(d) the likely form of the review.

3AD National Planning Framework: publication

(1) As soon as practical after the National Planning Framework as revised has been adopted, the Scottish Ministers are to publish it.

130 (2) As soon as practical after the National Planning Framework as amended has been adopted, the Scottish Ministers are to—

(a) publish it, and

(b) publish a document setting out, in relation to each amendment that has been made to the framework since it was last published under subsection (1)—

135 (i) a description of the amendment, and

(ii) the date on which the as so amended framework was first published under paragraph (a).

3AE Duty to consider strategic development reports

- 140 (1) In exercising their functions of preparing, revising and amending the National Planning Framework, the Scottish Ministers must have regard to any current strategic development report submitted to them under section 3AH(6)(b).
- (2) But subsection (1) does not require the Scottish Ministers to have regard to a report if, and to the extent that, a subsequently submitted strategic development 145 report deals with the same matters in relation to the same area.

Duties to assist in shaping the Framework

3AF Key agencies to co-operate

It is the duty of a key agency to co-operate with the Scottish Ministers in—

- (a) the review of the framework,
150 (b) the preparation of a revised framework, and
(c) the preparation of any amendment to the framework.

3AG Planning authorities to provide information under direction

- (1) For the purpose of assisting the Scottish Ministers in preparing, revising or 155 amending the National Planning Framework, the Scottish Ministers may direct a planning authority, or two or more planning authorities, to provide information about the matters set out in subsection (2) in relation to an area specified in the direction.
- (2) The matters are—
- (a) the principal physical, economic, social and environmental 160 characteristics of the area,
(b) the principal purposes for which land in the area is used,
(c) the size, composition and distribution of the population of the area,
(d) the infrastructure of the area (including communications, transport and 165 drainage systems, systems for the supply of water and energy and education facilities),
(e) how that infrastructure is used,
(f) the availability of land in the area for housing,
(g) the availability of, and requirements for, housing in the area,
(h) any change which the planning authority or authorities think may occur 170 in relation to any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (g), and
(i) such other matters as are prescribed.
- (3) Where a direction under this section requires two or more planning authorities to provide information in relation to the same area and the same matter, they are to co-operate with one another.

3AH Planning authorities to produce strategic development reports

- (1) A planning authority are, from time to time, to produce a report about strategic 175 development in their area or a part of their area (“a strategic development report”).

- 180 (2) Two or more planning authorities may jointly produce a strategic development report about strategic development in their areas or parts of their areas.
- (3) A strategic development report is to set out a long-term spatial strategy, and in particular identify in relation to the area to which the report relates—
- 185 (a) the need for strategic development,
(b) priorities for the delivery of strategic development, and
(c) proposed locations for strategic development, which must be shown in the report in the form of a map or diagram.
- (4) The planning authority (or authorities) producing a strategic development report must consult in the course of doing so.
- (5) Consulting, for the purpose of subsection (4), must include—
- 190 (a) publishing, by such means as the planning authority (or authorities) producing the report consider appropriate—
- (i) a draft of the report,
(ii) a summary of the information taken into account in preparing the draft of the report, and
(iii) a statement inviting representations in relation to the report by a date specified in the statement, and
- 195 (b) as soon as practicable after publishing the documents mentioned in paragraph (a), sending a copy of them to—
- (i) the planning authority (other than one involved in producing the report) for any area in which future development is likely to be significantly impacted by the strategic development to which the report is to relate, and
(ii) any other person the planning authority (or authorities) producing the report consider appropriate.
- 200
- (6) Having produced a strategic development report, the planning authority (or authorities) must—
- 205 (a) publish the report by such means as they consider appropriate,
(b) submit it to the Scottish Ministers, and
(c) keep it under review.
- 210 (7) A planning authority must prepare their first strategic development report as soon as reasonably practicable after section (National Planning Framework) of the Planning (Scotland) Act 2018 comes into force.
- (8) In this section, “strategic development” means development that is likely to have a significant impact on future development within the area of more than one planning authority.”.>
