The Scottish transport system principles

Colin Smyth

Before section 1, insert—

<PART

The Scottish transport system principles

(1) The Scottish Ministers, local authorities, local transport authorities and Regional Transport Partnerships are to exercise their functions in relation to transport with the objective of adhering to the principles set out in subsection (2).

(2) The principles are that—

(a) transport is a key enabler for the realisation of other human rights,
(b) the delivery of transport is a public service and supports the common good,
(c) transport services are to be delivered in ways that are accessible to all,
(d) opportunities are to be sought to continuously improve the transport system in ways which—

(i) contribute towards economic and social development and the enhancement of the environment in Scotland,
(ii) support a reduction in poverty and inequality,
(iii) ensure that affordability does not act as a barrier to people accessing transport services,
(iv) ensure a consistency of transport access across every community in Scotland,
(v) ensure that local communities are able to participate meaningfully in the design and planning of transport services,
(vi) promote sustainability and active travel.>

Low emission zones: purpose of a scheme

Jamie Greene

Before section 1, insert—

<CHAPTER

PURPOSE OF A LOW EMISSION ZONE SCHEME

Purpose of a low emission zone scheme

The purpose of a low emission zone scheme is to reduce the transport-related emissions of nitrogen oxides and fine particulate matter (being particles with an aerodynamic diameter equal to or less than 2.5 micrometres) within and in the vicinity of the zone.>
PURPOSE OF LOW EMISSION ZONE SCHEME

Purpose of low emission zone scheme
The purpose of a low emission zone scheme is to make ongoing improvements to the level of air quality in all or part of a local authority area.

Low emission zones: exemptions

In section 1, page 1, line 17, at end insert—

<(  ) the vehicle is operating a community bus service (within the meaning of section 22 of the Transport Act 1985), or>

In section 1, page 1, line 17, at end insert—

<(  ) the vehicle is being used—

(i) for police purposes, including for the purposes of the National Crime Agency,

(ii) for ambulance purposes or for the purpose of providing a response to an emergency at the request of the Scottish Ambulance Service Board,

(iii) for or in connection with the exercise of any function of the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service or HM Coastguard, or>

In section 1, page 1, line 17, at end insert—

<(  ) the vehicle is a diplomatic vehicle, or>

In section 1, page 1, line 18, at end insert <, or

(c) the vehicle is being used for the purpose mentioned in section (Exemption for erecting or dismantling funfairs).>

In section 1, page 1, line 18, at end insert <, or

(d) the vehicle was constructed more than 30 years before 1 January of the year in which it is driven on a road within a low emission zone.>
In section 1, page 1, line 18, at end insert—

<(  ) For the avoidance of doubt, reference to a vehicle in subsection (1)(d) includes a vehicle registered in a country or territory outwith the United Kingdom.>

In section 12, page 7, line 1, leave out <(which must be no longer than 1 year)>

In section 12, page 7, line 2, at end insert—

<(2A) A low emission zone scheme must—

(a) provide for the granting and renewal, by the local authority which made the scheme, of a time-limited exemption for the purpose of section 1(1)(b) in respect of vehicles which enter the zone to which the scheme relates solely due to their following a signed diversion as a result of a temporary road closure, and

(b) specify the maximum period for which such an exemption is granted (which must be no longer than the length of the road closure).>

In section 12, page 7, line 3, after <(1)> insert <or (2A)>

After section 12, insert—

<Exemption for erecting or dismantling funfairs>

Without prejudice to the generality of section 12, a local authority must grant an exemption in respect of a vehicle or type of vehicle for the purpose of section 1(1)(c) where the vehicle or type of vehicle is being used to transport funfair equipment for the purpose of erecting or dismantling a funfair.>

As an amendment to amendment 3, line 5, leave out <to transport funfair equipment>

Low emission zones: penalty charges payable

In section 1, page 1, line 26, leave out <only one penalty charge is> and insert <up to three penalty charges are>

In section 1, page 2, leave out lines 6 to 8

In section 1, page 2, line 6, after <the> insert <maximum>
Jamie Greene

188 In section 1, page 2, line 7, leave out <(which may include provision for discounts and surcharges)>

Jamie Greene

199 In section 9, page 4, line 28, at end insert—

<(  ) the amount that is to be imposed as a penalty charge under section 1(2) (which may include provision for discounts and surcharges) in respect of the scheme,>

Jamie Greene

200 In section 9, page 4, line 28, at end insert—

<(  ) the amount (subject to any maximum amount set by the Scottish Ministers in regulations under section 1(4)(c)) that is to be imposed as a penalty charge under section 1(2) (which may include provision for discounts and surcharges) in respect of the scheme,>

Jamie Greene

202 After section 9, insert—

<Power to make agreements as to liability for penalty charge

A local authority may, for the purposes of a low emission zone scheme, enter into such agreements as it sees fit with such companies, public authorities or other bodies as it sees fit, such that any penalty charge under section 1(2) payable where a person drives a vehicle within the zone in contravention of section 1(1) while in the employment or service of that company, authority or other body is payable by the company, authority or body rather than by the person driving the vehicle.>

Low emission zones: identification of whether vehicle meets specified emission standard

Graham Simpson

28 In section 1, page 1, line 26, at end insert—

<(3A) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations make provision for the operation of low emission zone schemes such that schemes are operated in a way that is capable of identifying whether a vehicle meets the specified emission standard regardless of whether—

(a) the vehicle as manufactured meets the standard, or

(b) the vehicle has been modified in such a way as to meet the standard.>

Peter Chapman

222 In section 1, page 2, line 8, at end insert—

<(  ) Regulations making provision as is described in subsection (4)(b) must make provision such that—

(a) a national dataset or other system is used to identify whether a vehicle is, or is of a type that is, exempt for the purpose of subsection (1)(b), and
(b) the national dataset or other system is capable of being adapted or supplemented by the addition of other datasets or systems, whether containing data of local or national application, to permit the identification of whether a vehicle is, or is of a type that is, otherwise exempt.

Michael Matheson

41 In section 2, page 2, line 12, after <State> insert <or from another source as specified in regulations by the Scottish Ministers,>

Michael Matheson

42 In section 2, page 2, line 12, after <standard> insert <as at the date and time of the record produced by an approved device,>

Graham Simpson

29 In section 72, page 83, line 1, leave out <1(4)(b)> and insert <1(3A) and (4)(b)>

Low emission zones: duty to make scheme when certain air quality reached

Colin Smyth

43 In section 4, page 3, line 16, at end insert—

<(3) Where levels of air pollutants in a local authority area exceed the limit values set out in schedule 2 of the Air Quality Standards (Scotland) Regulations 2010, a local authority must—

(a) make a low emission zone scheme for all or part of its area,
(b) amend a low emission zone scheme made by it.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations exempt a local authority from having to comply with subsection (3).

(5) Regulations under subsection (4) must specify—

(a) why the exemption is being applied, and
(b) for how long the exemption is being applied.>

Low emission zones: procedure on making scheme

Peter Chapman

223 After section 4, insert—

<Impact assessments

Before a local authority makes, amends or revokes a low emission zone scheme it must prepare, and publish in such manner as it sees fit, an assessment of the impact of the proposal on—

(a) the environment in its area,
(b) equalities in its area,
(c) the economy of its area,
(d) such other matters as it is required by any enactment to assess in respect of its policies, plans and proposals, and
(e) such other matters as it sees fit.

Jamie Greene
35 In section 5, page 3, line 18, leave out <made, amended or revoked> and insert <made or amended>

Jamie Greene
189 In section 5, page 3, line 19, at end insert—

<(1A) When seeking the approval of the Scottish Ministers to a proposal, a local authority must provide a statement setting out—
(a) the prior consultation undertaken under section 6, and
(b) how, in preparing the proposal, it has taken account of representations received as a result of the prior consultation.>

Jamie Greene
36 In section 5, page 3, line 20, leave out <making, amendment or revocation> and insert <making or amendment>

Jamie Greene
37 In section 5, page 3, line 23, leave out <making, amendment or revocation> and insert <making or amendment>

Local transport authority controlled bus companies

2A Local transport authority controlled bus companies
(1) A local transport authority (or two or more authorities acting jointly) may control a company that provides local services.
(2) The local transport authority (or authorities) must be satisfied, before forming or acquiring a company or using a company already controlled by them to provide local services, that the provision of such services by such a company will contribute to the implementation of their relevant general policies.
(3) For the purposes of this section, a local transport authority control a company if they have power to secure that the affairs of the company are conducted in accordance with their wishes, and have that power—
(a) by holding shares in the company or any other company,
(b) by possessing voting power in relation to the company or any other company, or
(c) by virtue of any powers conferred by—
(i) the articles of association of the company or any other company, or
(ii) any other document regulating the company or any other company.

(4) In this section—

(a) “company” has the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see sections 1(1) and 2(1) of the Companies Act 2006), and

(b) the reference to forming a company is to be construed in accordance with section 7 of that Act.”.

<3JA Provision of information: bus services improvement partnerships

(1) This section applies if a local transport authority are exercising any of the following functions—

(a) preparing and making a partnership plan or scheme,

(b) reviewing the effectiveness of a partnership plan or scheme, or

(c) determining whether and how to vary, or revoke, a partnership plan or scheme.

(2) The local transport authority may require an operator of a local service in the relevant area to provide them with such relevant information relating to the function being exercised as they may specify.

(3) The local transport authority must specify the function it is exercising when requiring the provision of relevant information.

(4) The operator may be required to provide the information—
A local transport authority that have obtained relevant information under this section may only—

(a) use the information for the purpose of exercising the function for which it was obtained, and

(b) supply the information to a person listed in subsection (6) for use in connection with that function.

The persons are—

(a) a local transport authority,

(b) persons providing services to the local transport authority in connection with the function being exercised,

(c) where section 3E applies, the Scottish Ministers.

A person who receives relevant information under subsection (5)(b) must not disclose it to any other person or use it in connection with a purpose other than the specified function.

A person who, without reasonable excuse, discloses information in contravention of this section commits an offence.

A person who commits an offence under subsection (8) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

Where an offence under subsection (8) committed by a local transport authority is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to the neglect on the part of, a person employed by the authority, the person as well as the authority is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

In this section, “relevant information” means information of a description specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.

Regulations under subsection (11) may specify circumstances in which relevant information (or types of relevant information) may not be required by a local transport authority.

(a) preparing and making a franchising framework,
(b) reviewing the effectiveness of a franchising framework, or
(c) determining whether and how to vary, or revoke, a franchising framework.

(2) The local transport authority may require an operator of a local service in the relevant area to provide them with such relevant information relating to the function being exercised as they may specify.

(3) The local transport authority must specify the function it is exercising when requiring the provision of relevant information.

(4) The operator may be required to provide the information —
(a) in any form which, having regard to the manner in which the information is kept, it is reasonable to expect the operator to provide, and
(b) before the end of such period as may be specified by the local transport authority.

(5) A local transport authority that have obtained relevant information under this section may only—
(a) use the information for the purpose of exercising the function for which it was obtained, and
(b) supply the information to a person listed in subsection (6) for use in connection with that function.

(6) The persons are—
(a) a local transport authority,
(b) an auditor appointed by the local transport authority under section 13F,
(c) any other person providing services to the local transport authority in connection with the function being exercised,
(d) a panel appointed under section 13J(2) or 13O(2).

(7) A person who receives relevant information under subsection (5)(b) must not disclose it to any other person or use it in connection with a purpose other than the specified function.

(8) A person who, without reasonable excuse, discloses information in contravention of this section commits an offence.

(9) A person who commits an offence under subsection (8) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(10) Where an offence under subsection (8) committed by a local transport authority is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to the neglect on the part of, a person employed by the authority, the person as well as the authority is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(11) In this section, “relevant information” means information of a description specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.

(12) Regulations under subsection (11) may specify circumstances in which relevant information (or types of relevant information) may not be required by a local transport authority.

(b) it appears to a traffic commissioner that the local transport authority (or authorities) who made the scheme may not be complying with their obligations under it including, in particular, any duty arising under section 3F(2) or (3) of the 2001 Act.

(2) The traffic commissioner may—

(a) investigate the actions of the local transport authority (or authorities) in relation to their compliance with their obligations under the scheme,

(b) require the authority (or authorities) to provide such information as the commissioner may specify for the purposes of the investigation.

(3) A local transport authority may be required to provide the information before the end of such period as may be specified by the traffic commissioner when imposing the requirement.

(4) Following an investigation under subsection (2), the traffic commissioner must prepare and publish a report—>
(a) setting out whether or not the commissioner is satisfied that the local transport authority (or authorities) are complying with their obligations under the scheme, and

(b) if the commissioner is not satisfied that the authority (or authorities) are complying with their obligations, making such recommendations as the commissioner considers appropriate, including, in particular, recommendations that the authority (or authorities) take such remedial action as may be specified in the report.

(5) Before publishing a report prepared under subsection (3), the commissioner must provide a copy of it to—

(a) the local transport authority (or authorities) who made the scheme, and

(b) each operator providing a local service with a stopping place in the area of the scheme.

(6) Where, under section 3E of the 2001 Act, the Scottish Ministers acted jointly with a local transport authority (or authorities) to make the scheme, this section applies to the Scottish Ministers as it applies to the authority (or authorities)

<35B Duty to notify traffic commissioner about change of bus route or timetabling

(1) If a local transport authority ascertain that—

(a) a change is proposed to a bus route, or

(b) a significant change is proposed to the timetabling of a local service, to, from or within the authority’s area, the authority must as soon as is reasonably practicable notify the traffic commissioner.

(2) Where the traffic commissioner receives notification under subsection (1), the commissioner must—
(a) give notice of the proposed change of route or timetabling in such manner as the commissioner considers appropriate for bringing the notice to the attention of persons in the area of the authority,

(b) appoint three persons to form a panel to decide whether or not to approve the proposed change of route or timetabling,

(c) provide the panel with any representations made to the commissioner in connection with the proposed change of route or timetabling.

(3) A notice given under subsection (2)(a) must state—

(a) that representations may be made to the traffic commissioner in relation to the proposed change of route or timetabling, and

(b) the period within which such representations may be made.

(4) The panel may decide—

(a) to approve the proposed change of route or timetabling,

(b) to approve the proposed change of route or timetabling subject to the local transport authority or (as the case may be) operators of the local services taking such further action as the panel may specify in its decision, or

(c) not to approve the proposed change of route or timetabling.

(5) In making its decision under subsection (4), the panel must consult—

(a) the local transport authority,

(b) the operators of local services.

(c) bus users.

(6) Not later than 3 months after the date on which the Bill for the Transport (Scotland) Act 2019 receives Royal Assent, the traffic commissioner must issue guidance to all local transport authorities setting out what constitutes a significant change in the timetabling of a local service.
