THE SCOTTISH TRANSPORT SYSTEM PRINCIPLES

The Scottish transport system principles

(1) The Scottish Ministers, local authorities, local transport authorities and Regional Transport Partnerships are to exercise their functions in relation to transport with the objective of adhering to the principles set out in subsection (2).

(2) The principles are that—

(a) transport is a key enabler for the realisation of other human rights,

(b) the delivery of transport is a public service and supports the common good,

(c) transport services are to be delivered in ways that are accessible to all,

(d) opportunities are to be sought to continuously improve the transport system in ways which—

(i) contribute towards economic and social development and the enhancement of the environment in Scotland,

(ii) support a reduction in poverty and inequality,

(iii) ensure that affordability does not act as a barrier to people accessing transport services,

(iv) ensure a consistency of transport access across every community in Scotland,

(v) ensure that local communities are able to participate meaningfully in the design and planning of transport services,

(vi) promote sustainability and active travel.>
<CHAPTER
PURPOSE OF A LOW EMISSION ZONE SCHEME

Purpose of a low emission zone scheme
The purpose of a low emission zone scheme is to reduce the transport-related emissions of nitrogen oxides and fine particulate matter (being particles with an aerodynamic diameter equal to or less than 2.5 micrometres) within and in the vicinity of the zone.>

COLIN SMYTH
220 Before section 1, insert—

PURPOSE OF LOW EMISSION ZONE SCHEME

Purpose of low emission zone scheme
The purpose of a low emission zone scheme is to make ongoing improvements to the level of air quality in all or part of a local authority area.>

LOW EMISSION DISTRIBUTION CONSOLIDATION HUBS

Low emission distribution consolidation hubs

(1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations make provision—

(a) requiring prescribed local authorities to take such steps as may be prescribed for the purposes of establishing and operating, or securing the establishment and operation of, low emission distribution consolidation hubs, and

(b) for the support to be provided by the Scottish Ministers to prescribed local authorities for such purposes.

(2) The steps that may be prescribed in regulations under subsection (1) include the consideration of co-operative models to support smaller businesses.

(3) In subsection (1)—

“low emission distribution consolidation hubs” means—

(a) facilities located on the outskirts of urban areas which can receive goods on behalf of businesses located in those urban areas, and
(b) systems for the consolidated onward delivery of goods to those businesses using—

(i) low emission vehicles,

(ii) the smallest suitable vehicles, and

(iii) wherever practicable, pedal cycles and electrically assisted pedal cycles, for the purpose of ensuring that the distribution of goods is achieved with lower net emissions than would otherwise be the case, “prescribed” means prescribed in regulations under subsection (1).

(4) The regulations must set out definitions of—

(a) low emission vehicles, and

(b) urban areas,

for the purposes of this section.

<3JA Provision of information: bus services improvement partnerships

(1) This section applies if a local transport authority are exercising any of the following functions—

(a) preparing and making a partnership plan or scheme,

(b) reviewing the effectiveness of a partnership plan or scheme, or

(c) determining whether and how to vary, or revoke, a partnership plan or scheme.

(2) The local transport authority may require an operator of a local service in the relevant area to provide them with such relevant information relating to the function being exercised as they may specify.

(3) The local transport authority must specify the function it is exercising when requiring the provision of relevant information.

(4) The operator may be required to provide the information—
(a) in any form which, having regard to the manner in which the information is kept, it is reasonable to expect the operator to provide, and
(b) before the end of such period as may be specified by the local transport authority.

(5) A local transport authority that have obtained relevant information under this section may only—
(a) use the information for the purpose of exercising the function for which it was obtained, and
(b) supply the information to a person listed in subsection (6) for use in connection with that function.

(6) The persons are—
(a) a local transport authority,
(b) persons providing services to the local transport authority in connection with the function being exercised,
(c) where section 3E applies, the Scottish Ministers.

(7) A person who receives relevant information under subsection (5)(b) must not disclose it to any other person or use it in connection with a purpose other than the specified function.

(8) A person who, without reasonable excuse, discloses information in contravention of this section commits an offence.

(9) A person who commits an offence under subsection (8) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(10) Where an offence under subsection (8) committed by a local transport authority is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to the neglect on the part of, a person employed by the authority, the person as well as the authority is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(11) In this section, “relevant information” means information of a description specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.

(12) Regulations under subsection (11) may specify circumstances in which relevant information (or types of relevant information) may not be required by a local transport authority.

relation to their compliance with their obligations under the scheme,

(b) require the authority (or authorities) to provide such information as the commissioner may specify for the purposes of the investigation.

(3) A local transport authority may be required to provide the information before the end of such period as may be specified by the traffic commissioner when imposing the requirement.

(4) Following an investigation under subsection (2), the traffic commissioner must prepare and publish a report—
(a) setting out whether or not the commissioner is satisfied that the local transport authority (or authorities) are complying with their obligations under the scheme, and

(b) if the commissioner is not satisfied that the authority (or authorities) are complying with their obligations, making such recommendations as the commissioner considers appropriate, including, in particular, recommendations that the authority (or authorities) take such remedial action as may be specified in the report.

(5) Before publishing a report prepared under subsection (3), the commissioner must provide a copy of it to—

(1) This section applies if a local transport authority are exercising any of the following functions—
(a) preparing and making a franchising framework,
(b) reviewing the effectiveness of a franchising framework, or
(c) determining whether and how to vary, or revoke, a franchising framework.
(2) The local transport authority may require an operator of a local service in the relevant area to provide them with such relevant information relating to the function being exercised as they may specify.
(3) The local transport authority must specify the function it is exercising when requiring the provision of relevant information.
(4) The operator may be required to provide the information —
(a) in any form which, having regard to the manner in which the information is kept, it is reasonable to expect the operator to provide, and
(b) before the end of such period as may be specified by the local transport authority.
(5) A local transport authority that have obtained relevant information under this section may only—>
(a) use the information for the purpose of exercising the function for which it was obtained, and

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulation make provision in connection with the making, amendment and revocation of pavement parking orders.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular, make provision about—the form of a pavement parking order (or an order amending or revoking a pavement parking order), the procedure to be followed in connection with the making, amendment or revocation of a pavement parking order,

d) publication of a proposal for the making, amendment or revocation of a pavement parking order (a “proposal”),

e) persons who must be consulted about a proposal and the manner and timing of that consultation,

f) the process for making objections to a proposal,

g) the process for considering any such objections, including the holding of inquiries and the appointment of a person to hold an inquiry,

h) modification of a proposal (whether in consequence of an objection or otherwise),

(h) notice to be given or published of the making, amendment or revocation of a pavement parking order and the effect of the pavement parking order (or its amendment or revocation).

Leave out section 45 and insert—

Pavement parking orders: traffic signs

(1) This section applies where a local authority makes a pavement parking order in relation to all or part of a footway.

(2) The traffic authority for the footway must—

(a) place, or secure the placement of, traffic signs in connection with the pavement parking order, and

(b) maintain, or secure the maintenance of, those signs.

(3) Where the traffic authority for the footway is not the local authority, the traffic authority may enter into an arrangement with the local authority under which the local authority is to—

(a) exercise the functions under subsection (2), or

(b) assist the traffic authority in connection with the exercise of those functions.

(4) Where the local authority enters into an arrangement mentioned in subsection (3)(a), section 65(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (powers and duties of traffic authorities as to placing of traffic signs) applies to the local authority as it applies to the traffic authority for the footway.

(5) In subsection (2), “traffic signs” has the meaning given by section 64(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (general provisions as to traffic signs).

WORKPLACE PARKING

Workplace parking licensing schemes

Workplace parking licensing schemes

(1) A workplace parking licensing scheme is a scheme under which a local authority may—

(a) require a person to hold a licence in order to provide workplace parking places (see section (Workplace parking places)) at premises in the area to which the scheme relates, and

(b) charge for such a licence on the basis of the number of places specified in the licence.

(2) A workplace parking licensing scheme must specify—

(a) the area of the local authority to which the scheme relates, which must be specified by reference to an area on a map, (the “licensing area”),

(b) the date on which the scheme comes into effect,

(c) the period during which the scheme is to remain in force (or that it is to continue indefinitely),

(d) the days on which, and hours during which, a licence is required,

(e) the charges payable on licences (expressed as a specified sum of money for each workplace parking place provided),

(f) any persons, premises or motor vehicles (or descriptions of such persons, premises or motor vehicles) that are exempt from the scheme or from paying charges under it (see sections (Exemptions etc.) and (National exemptions)), and

(g) arrangements for the periodic review of the operation and effectiveness of the scheme including, in particular, how the outcome of a review is to be communicated to persons affected by it.

(3) A workplace parking licensing scheme may make different provision for different purposes or different areas within the licensing area.>

<(4) Before using any powers under this section, a local authority must make an assessment of the likely impact on the level of poverty in its area which may occur as a result of the use of those powers.

(5) An assessment made under subsection (4) must—

(a) set out the implications of the use of powers under this section on workers in the local authority area,

(b) be published in such form as the local authority considers appropriate.

(6) In this section, “workers” means individuals who have entered into, or work under (or where the employment has ceased, worked under)—

(a) a contract of employment, or

(b) any other contract, whether express or implied and (if it is express) whether oral or in writing, whereby the individual undertakes to do or perform personally any work services for another party to the contract whose status is not by virtue of the contract that of a client or customer of any profession or business undertaking carried on by the individual.>

John Finnie

8 After section 58, insert—

<Workplace parking places

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a workplace parking place is provided at any premises at any time if a parking place provided at the premises is at that time occupied by a motor vehicle used—

(a) by a relevant person,

(b) by a worker, agent, supplier, business customer or business visitor of a relevant person,

(c) by a person attending a course of education or training provided by a relevant person, or

(d) where a body whose affairs are controlled by its members is a relevant person, by a member of the body engaged in the carrying on of any business of the body, for the purpose of attending a place at which the relevant person carries on business at, or in the vicinity of, the premises.

(2) In this section “relevant person” means—

(a) the person who provides the parking place in question (“the provider”),>
(b) any person with whom the provider has entered into arrangements to provide the parking place (whether or not for that person’s own use), or

(c) any person who is associated with—

(i) the provider, or

(ii) a person within paragraph (b).

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2)(c), any two persons are associated if—

(a) one is a company of which the other (directly or indirectly) has control, or

(b) both are companies of which a third person (directly or indirectly) has control.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

“business” includes—

(a) any trade, profession, vocation or undertaking,

(b) the functions of any holder of a public office,

(c) the provision of any course of education or training, and

(d) the functions of, or any activities carried on by, the Scottish Administration, a Government department, a local authority or other statutory body.

“business customer”, in relation to a relevant person, means a client or customer of the relevant person who is attending at any premises occupied by the relevant person for the purposes of a business carried on by that client or customer,

“business visitor”, in relation to a relevant person, means an individual who—

(a) in the course of the individual’s employment, or

(b) in the course of carrying on a business or for the purposes of a business carried on by the individual, is visiting the relevant person or any premises occupied by the relevant person,

“Government department” means a department of the Government of the United Kingdom,

“supplier”, in relation to a relevant person, means—

(a) a person supplying, or seeking to supply, goods or services to the relevant person for the purposes of a business carried on by the relevant person, or

(b) any agent or sub-contractor of such a person,

“worker” means an individual who has entered into, or works under—

(a) a contract of employment, or

(b) any other contract, whether express or implied and (if it is express) whether oral or in writing, under which the individual undertakes to do or perform personally any work or services for another party to the contract whose status is not by virtue of the contract that of a client or customer of any profession or business undertaking carried on by the individual.

<Making and modifying schemes>

Power to make and modify schemes

(1) A local authority may (in accordance with this Part)—

5 (a) make a workplace parking licensing scheme for all or part of its area,
(b) amend or revoke a workplace parking licensing scheme made by it.

(2) A workplace parking licensing scheme may be made only if—

10 (a) the local authority proposing to make the scheme has a local transport strategy, and
(b) it appears to the authority that the scheme will (directly or indirectly) facilitate the achievement of policies in its strategy.

(3) Two or more local authorities may act jointly to make a workplace parking licensing scheme.

(4) In those circumstances—

15 (a) they must continue to act jointly in relation to the scheme in all respects, and
(b) unless the context otherwise requires, a reference in this Part to—

(i) a local authority, in relation to a workplace parking licensing scheme or to a proposed scheme, is a reference to the authorities acting jointly,
(ii) the area of a local authority is a reference to the combined areas of those authorities, and

<Prior consultation and impact assessment

(1) Before making, amending or revoking a workplace parking licensing scheme, a local authority must—

5 (a) prepare and publish—

(i) an outline of the proposed scheme, the scheme as it is proposed to be amended or (as the case may be) notice of the proposed revocation of the scheme (“the proposal”),

(ii) a statement about the objectives of the proposal, and

(iii) an assessment of the impacts of the proposal,

(b) consult such persons as the authority considers appropriate in relation to the proposal (including, in particular, persons that the authority has identified as likely to be affected by the proposal), and

(c) prepare and publish a report which—

15 (i) summarises the consultation responses received,

(ii) states whether or not the authority intends to proceed with the proposal (or the proposal as modified in light of the consultation), and

(iii) sets out the authority’s reasons for whether or not it intends to proceed.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a)(i), an outline of the proposed scheme must include the proposed—

20 (a) licensing area,

(b) period during which the scheme is to remain in force (or that it is to continue indefinitely),

(c) charges payable on licences (expressed as a specified sum of money for each workplace parking place provided),

25 (d) persons, premises or motor vehicles (or descriptions of such persons, premises or motor vehicles) that are to be exempt from the scheme or from paying charges under it (see sections (Exemptions etc.) and (National exemptions)).

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a)(ii), the statement must set out—

30 (a) the objectives that the local authority intends the proposal to achieve,
(b) its assessment of how (or the extent to which) the proposal will—
   (i) achieve those objectives, and
   (ii) facilitate (directly or indirectly) the achievement of policies in its local transport strategy, and
(c) how it intends to apply any net proceeds of the scheme (see section (Application of net proceeds of workplace parking schemes)).

(4) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a)(iii), the assessment must, in particular, set out what the local authority considers to be the likely effects of the proposal on—
   (a) persons who may have to pay charges under (or as a result of) the scheme, and
   (b) the environment.

(5) A local authority may not make, amend or (as the case may be) revoke the scheme in accordance with the proposal (or the proposal as modified) until a period of 8 weeks beginning with the date on which it published its report under subsection (1)(c) has elapsed.

<Workplace parking licences

Licence applications and processes

(1) A workplace parking licensing scheme may include provision for or in connection with—
(a) applications for a workplace parking licence,
(b) granting, issuing and renewing a licence,
(c) imposing conditions on a licence,
(d) the standard duration of a licence,
(e) varying or revoking a licence,
(f) suspending the requirement to hold a licence for a period (and reimbursing charges for such a period).
(2) Provision under subsection (1)(b) may include the granting of short-term workplace parking licences in special circumstances specified in, or determined in accordance with, the scheme.
(3) In connection with the granting of a short-term workplace parking licence, a workplace parking licensing scheme may include provision conferring a discretion on any person.
(4) The duration of a short-term workplace parking licence (or the total duration of a series of such licences) may not exceed 12 months.
(5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make, or require or permit workplace parking schemes to include, provision about reviews of, and appeals against, decisions in relation to workplace parking licences.
(6) A person commits an offence if the person intentionally provides false or misleading information in or in connection with an application in respect of a workplace parking licence.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (6) is liable on—
   (a) summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or
   (b) conviction on indictment, to a fine.

John Finnie

14 After section 58, insert—

<Content of licences>

(1) A workplace parking licence must—
   (a) state the name of the person to whom it is granted,
   (b) specify the duration of the licence,
   (c) identify the premises to which it relates,
   (d) specify the maximum number of motor vehicles which may be parked at those premises at any one time, and
   (e) state the amount of the charge paid on the licence and set out the calculation of that amount.

(2) A workplace parking licence may include such other information in relation to the workplace parking licensing scheme or licensing processes as the local authority considers appropriate.

John Finnie

15 After section 58, insert—

<Exemptions>

Exemptions etc.

(1) A workplace parking licensing scheme must provide for the exemptions described in section (National exemptions).

(2) A workplace parking licensing scheme may otherwise provide for—
   (a) specific premises, or premises of a specified description,
   (b) premises with a specified number of parking places (or fewer), or
   (c) descriptions of persons or motor vehicles (including descriptions by reference to any parking places provided for the exclusive use of such persons or motor vehicles), to be exempt from the scheme or from paying charges under the scheme.

(3) The same premises must not be subject to more than one workplace parking licensing scheme at the same time.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision in relation to exemptions, including by—
(a) exempting from workplace parking licensing schemes (or requiring schemes to exempt) such premises, persons or vehicles (or descriptions of premises, persons or vehicles) as may be specified in the regulations, and

(b) prohibiting the exemption from schemes of premises, persons or vehicles of such descriptions as may be specified in the regulations.

(ii) under a provision of the law of Northern Ireland corresponding to that section, or

(iii) by a member state of the EU for purposes corresponding to the purposes of that section,

(b) subject to subsection (2)(b), places at qualifying NHS premises, and

(c) places at hospices (that is, premises used for the purpose of caring for the dying or incurably ill).

(2) A workplace parking licensing scheme may—

(a) require premises with workplace parking places mentioned in subsection (1) to hold a workplace parking licence in respect of the places, and

(b) specify that workplace parking places at qualifying NHS premises that are provided for persons who do not provide services for the health service within the meaning of section 108(1) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (“the 1978 Act”) are not to be exempt from charges under a workplace parking licensing scheme.

(3) In this section, “qualifying NHS premises” means—

(a) a health service hospital within the meaning of section 108(1) of the 1978 Act or a state hospital within the meaning of section 102(2) of that Act,

(b) any other premises occupied by a Health Board or Special Health Board constituted under section 2(1) of the 1978 Act,

(c) premises that are (or such part of premises as is) used wholly or mainly for the provision of primary medical services as construed in accordance with section 2C(5) of the 1978 Act, and

(d) such other similar premises as the Scottish Ministers may specify under section (Exemptions etc.)(4).

<Application of net proceeds of workplace parking licensing schemes>

(1) A local authority (the authority) may apply the net proceeds of a workplace parking licensing scheme (or, in a case where the authority is acting jointly with another local authority or authorities, the authority’s share of the net proceeds) only for purposes of facilitating the achievement of—
(a) policies in the authority’s local transport strategy, or
(b) in the case of a joint scheme, the policies in the local transport strategy of a local authority with whom the authority is acting jointly.

(2) Before applying any share of net proceeds under subsection (1)(b), the authority must be satisfied that doing so will benefit some part of its area.

(3) In this Part, “net proceeds” means the amount of money (if any) by which the gross amount received under the workplace parking licensing scheme for a financial year exceeds the expenses of operating the scheme for the financial year.

John Finnie

19 After section 58, insert—

<Accounts

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for or about the keeping of accounts by local authorities in connection with the exercise of functions under this Part.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular—

(a) specify the form and content of accounts,

(b) require the publication of accounts,

(c) make provision for how accounts are to be prepared and kept where two or more authorities are acting jointly in respect of a workplace parking licensing scheme.

John Finnie

20 After section 58, insert—

<Enforcement

Penalty charges

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for or in connection with—

(a) the imposition of charges (“penalty charges”) in respect of acts, omissions, events or circumstances relating to, or connected with, workplace parking licensing schemes, and

(b) the notification, payment, adjudication and enforcement of penalty charges.

(2) Penalty charges in respect of any premises must be paid by—

(a) the occupier of the premises, or

(b) in such circumstances as may be specified, such other person as may be specified.

(3) Without limit to the generality of subsection (1), regulations made under it—

(a) may make, or may permit or require workplace parking licensing schemes to include, provision—

(i) about the imposition of penalty charges in specified circumstances,

(ii) about the timing and manner of payment of penalty charges,

(iii) specifying the amount of penalty charges, including any reduced penalty charges or increased penalty charges and the circumstances in which such reduced or increased penalty charges are payable,
(iv) about reviews of, and appeals against, decisions in relation to penalty charges,
(v) about the cancellation of penalty charges,

(b) may make provision—

(i) requiring local authorities to serve a notice of a penalty charge on any person it believes to be liable to pay such a charge,
(ii) about the form and content of such a notice,
(iii) about the way that compliance with such a notice may be enforced.

(4) In this section “specified” means specified in regulations made under subsection (1).

John Finnie

21 After section 58, insert—

<Evidence from approved devices

The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for or in connection with permitting evidence of a fact relevant to proceedings for an offence under this Part, or proceedings in respect of a failure to comply with the provisions of a workplace parking licensing scheme, to be given by production of—

(a) a record produced by a device specified in, or approved in accordance with, the regulations, and

(b) a certificate (whether in the same or another document) as to the circumstances in which the record was produced authenticated in a manner specified in the regulations.

John Finnie

(c) take copies of, or take possession of, information (in whatever form) which relates to the requirement to hold a licence under a scheme and retain if for as long as the authorised person considers necessary.

(2) The powers in subsection (1) may be exercised only for the purposes of—

(a) establishing if workplace parking places are being provided at the premises either—

(i) without a licence, or

(ii) without a licence in respect of all of the places being provided,

(b) establishing if there is, or has been, any contravention of the conditions of a licence in respect of the premises,

(c) serving notice of a penalty charge.
(3) In this section and sections (Enforcement powers: warrants) and (Enforcement powers: further provision), “authorised person” means a person who is authorised by a local authority to exercise functions under this section in respect of a workplace parking licensing scheme made by it.

John Finnie

23 After section 58, insert—

<Enforcement powers: warrants

(1) This section applies to the powers conferred by section (Enforcement powers)(1).

(2) A sheriff may grant a warrant under this subsection only if the sheriff is satisfied, by evidence on oath—

(a) that there are reasonable grounds for entering premises for a purpose specified in section (Enforcement powers)(2), and

(b) that—

(i) entry to the premises has been refused,

(ii) such a refusal is reasonably expected,

(iii) the premises are unoccupied, or

(iv) the occupier is temporarily absent.

(3) A warrant authorises an authorised person—

(a) to enter the premises,

(b) to exercise any other power conferred by section (Enforcement powers)(1), and

(c) if necessary, to use reasonable force in doing so.

(4) A warrant expires—

(a) when it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was granted, or

(b) if earlier, when any period as is specified in it for that purpose expires.

John Finnie

24 After section 58, insert—

<Enforcement powers: further provision

(1) This section applies to the powers conferred by section (Enforcement powers)(1) (whether exercised by virtue of that section or under a warrant granted under section (Enforcement powers: warrants).

(2) The power of entry may be exercised only at a reasonable time of day.

(3) An authorised person seeking to exercise a power must, on request, produce evidence of the person’s identity and authorisation before exercising the power.

(4) An authorised person may take on to the premises such other persons, and such materials and equipment, as the authorised person considers necessary.

(5) If an authorised person enters the premises by virtue of a warrant, the authorised person must, if taking possession of anything under section (Enforcement powers)(1)(c), leave a statement on the premises giving particulars of what has been taken and by whom.
(6) On leaving any premises which an authorised person is authorised to enter under a warrant, the person must, if the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, leave the premises as effectively secured against entry as the person found them.

(7) A person commits an offence if the person—
(a) without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a requirement of an authorised person, or
(b) intentionally obstructs an authorised person in the exercise of a power conferred by section (Enforcement powers)(1).

(8) A person who commits an offence under subsection (7) is liable—
(a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, and
(b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

John Finnie
