UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Legal Continuity) (Scotland) Bill

[AS AMENDED AT STAGE 2]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision for Scotland in connection with the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU.

PART 1

PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF ACT

- 5     1     Purpose and effect of this Act
- (1) The purpose of this Act is to make provision—
- (a) in connection with the prospective withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU in consequence of the notification given under section 1 of the European Union (Notification of Withdrawal) Act 2017 (“UK withdrawal”), and
- 10       (b) for ensuring the effective operation of Scots law (so far as within devolved legislative competence) upon and after UK withdrawal.
- (2) In so far as any provision of this Act, or any provision made under it, would, if it were in effect before the relevant time, be incompatible with EU law, the provision is to have no effect until the relevant time.
- 15       (3) In subsection (2), “the relevant time”, in relation to any provision of this Act or any provision made under it, means the time at which the provision of EU law with which it would be incompatible ceases to have effect in Scots law as a consequence of UK withdrawal.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- 20       (a) a provision of Scots law is within devolved legislative competence if and to the extent that it is (or would be, if it were contained in an Act of the Scottish Parliament) within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament, and
- (b) “EU law” has the same meaning as in the Scotland Act 1998 (see section 126(9) of that Act).

PART 2

RETENTION OF EXISTING EU LAW

Saving and incorporation of existing EU law

2 Saving for devolved EU-derived domestic legislation

- 5 (1) Devolved EU-derived domestic legislation, as it has effect in Scots law immediately before exit day, continues to have effect in Scots law on and after exit day.
- (2) In this section, “EU-derived domestic legislation” means any enactment so far as—
- (a) made under section 2(2) or paragraph 1A of schedule 2 of the European Communities Act 1972 (“the 1972 Act”),
- 10 (b) passed or made, or operating, for a purpose mentioned in section 2(2)(a) or (b) of that Act,
- (c) relating to anything—
- (i) which falls within paragraph (a) or (b), or
- (ii) to which section 3(1) or 4(1) applies, or
- 15 (d) relating otherwise to the EU or the EEA.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, EU-derived domestic legislation is devolved if and to the extent that it makes provision that is (or would be, if it were contained in an Act of the Scottish Parliament) within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.
- (4) This section is subject to sections 6 to 9.

3 Incorporation of devolved direct EU legislation

- 20 (1) Devolved direct EU legislation, so far as operative immediately before exit day, forms part of Scots law on and after exit day.
- (2) In this Act, “direct EU legislation” means—
- (a) any EU regulation, EU decision or EU tertiary legislation, as it has effect in EU law immediately before exit day and so far as—
- 25 (i) it is not an exempt EU instrument (see section 29),
- (ii) it is not an EU decision addressed only to a member State other than the United Kingdom, and
- (iii) its effect is not reproduced in an enactment to which section 2(1) applies,
- 30 (b) any Annex to the EEA agreement, as it has effect in EU law immediately before exit day and so far as—
- (i) it refers to, or contains adaptations of, anything falling within paragraph (a), and
- (ii) its effect is not reproduced in an enactment to which section 2(1) applies,
- 35 or
- (c) Protocol 1 to the EEA agreement (which contains horizontal adaptations that apply in relation to EU instruments referred to in the Annexes to that agreement), as it has effect in EU law immediately before exit day.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, direct EU legislation is devolved if and to the extent that it makes provision that would be, if it were contained in an Act of the Scottish Parliament, within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, any direct EU legislation is operative immediately before exit day if—
- 5 (a) in the case of anything which comes into force at a particular time and is stated to apply from a later time, it is in force and applies immediately before exit day,
- (b) in the case of a decision which specifies to whom it is addressed, it has been notified to that person before exit day, and
- 10 (c) in any other case, it is in force immediately before exit day.
- (5) This section—
- (a) brings into Scots law any direct EU legislation only in the form of the English language version of that legislation, and
- (b) does not apply to any such legislation for which there is no such version,
- 15 but paragraph (a) does not affect the use of the other language versions of that legislation for the purpose of interpreting it.
- (6) This section is subject to sections 6 to 9.

4 Saving for devolved rights etc. under section 2(1) of the 1972 Act

- (1) Any devolved rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, remedies and procedures which, immediately before exit day—
- 20 (a) are recognised and available in Scots law by virtue of section 2(1) of the 1972 Act, and
- (b) are enforced, allowed and followed accordingly,
- continue on and after exit day to be recognised and available in Scots law (and to be enforced, allowed and followed accordingly).
- 25 (2) For the purposes of this section, rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, remedies and procedures are devolved if, and to the extent that, were they to be provided for in an Act of the Scottish Parliament, such provision would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.
- 30 (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to any rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, remedies or procedures so far as they—
- (a) form part of Scots law by virtue of section 3, or
- (b) arise under an EU directive (including as applied by the EEA agreement) and are not of a kind recognised by the European Court or any court or tribunal in the United Kingdom exercising devolved jurisdiction in a case decided before exit day (whether or not as an essential part of the decision in the case).
- 35 (4) Subsection (3)(b) does not apply in relation to any rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, remedies or procedures so far as they are of a kind recognised by a court or tribunal in a case decided on or after exit day but begun before exit day (whether or not as an essential part of the decision in the case).
- 40 (5) In subsection (3)(b), “devolved jurisdiction” means jurisdiction in relation to matters that are within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.

- (6) This section is subject to sections 6 to 9.

5 General principles of EU law and Charter of Fundamental Rights

- (1) The general principles of EU law and the Charter of Fundamental Rights are part of Scots law on or after exit day so far as they—

- 5 (a) have effect in EU law immediately before exit day, and
 (b) relate to anything to which section 2, 3 or 4 applies.

- (2) Accordingly—

- 10 (a) to the extent that there is a right of action in Scots law immediately before exit day based on a failure to comply with any of the general principles of EU law or the Charter, there is, on and after exit day, an equivalent right based on a failure to comply with any of the retained (devolved) general principles of EU law or the retained (devolved) Charter, and

- (b) to the extent that a court or tribunal or another Scottish public authority has power, immediately before exit day to—

- 15 (i) disapply or quash any enactment or rule of law, or
 (ii) quash any conduct or otherwise decide that it is unlawful,

because it is incompatible with any of the general principles of EU law or the Charter, the court, tribunal or authority has, on and after exit day, an equivalent power based on incompatibility with any of the retained (devolved) general principles of EU law or the retained (devolved) Charter.

- (3) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a general principle of EU law only if it was recognised as a general principle of EU law by the European Court in a case decided before exit day (whether or not as an essential part of the decision in the case).

- (4) In this Act—

25 “retained (devolved) general principles of EU law” means any general principles of EU law that form part of Scots law by virtue of subsection (1) as those principles are modified by or under this Act or by any other provision of Scots law from time to time,

30 “retained (devolved) Charter” means the Charter of Fundamental Rights so far as forming part of Scots law by virtue of subsection (1) as modified by or under this Act or by any other provision of Scots law from time to time.

- (5) This section is—

- (a) without prejudice to sections 2 to 4, and
 (b) subject to sections 6 to 9.

Exceptions to savings and incorporation

6 Principle of the supremacy of EU law

- (1) The principle of the supremacy of EU law does not apply to any devolved enactment or rule of law passed or made on or after exit day.

- (2) Accordingly, the principle of the supremacy of EU law continues to apply on and after exit day so far as relevant to the interpretation, disapplication or quashing of any devolved enactment or rule of law passed or made before exit day.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prevent the principle of the supremacy of EU law from applying to a modification made on or after exit day of any devolved enactment or rule of law passed or made before exit day if the application of the principle is consistent with the intention of the modification.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, an enactment or rule of law is devolved if and to the extent that it makes, or is, provision that is (or would be, if it were contained in an Act of the Scottish Parliament) within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.

7 Challenges to validity of retained (devolved) EU law

- (1) There is no right in Scots law on or after exit day to challenge any retained (devolved) EU law on the basis that, immediately before exit day, an EU instrument was invalid.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply so far as—
- (a) the European Court has decided before exit day that the instrument is invalid, or
- (b) the challenge is of a kind described, or provided for, in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) Subject to any transitional, transitory or saving provision made by regulations under section 32, subsection (1) does not apply in relation to any right of action accruing before exit day.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (2)(b) may provide for a challenge which would otherwise have been against an EU institution to be against a Scottish public authority.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (2)(b) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (6) Subsection (5) is subject to section 31.

8 Rule in Francovich

- (1) There is no right in Scots law on or after exit day to damages in accordance with the rule in Francovich.
- (2) Subject to any transitional, transitory or saving provision made by regulations under section 32, subsection (1) does not apply in relation to any right of action accruing before exit day.

9 Interpretation of sections 6 to 8

- (1) References in sections 6 to 8 to the principle of the supremacy of EU law or the rule in Francovich are to be read as references to that principle or rule so far as it would otherwise continue to be, or form part of, Scots law on or after exit day in accordance with this Act.
- (2) Accordingly, the references to the principle of the supremacy of EU law in section 6(2) and (3) do not include anything which would bring into Scots law any modification of EU law which is adopted or notified, comes into force or only applies on or after exit day.

9A Scrutiny of regulations under section 7(2)(b)

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must not lay before the Scottish Parliament for approval a draft of a Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7(2)(b) unless they have consulted in accordance with section 9B.
- 5 (2) Where they do lay a draft of such an instrument before the Parliament for approval, they must do so at least 60 days before the date on which the regulations are expected to come into force.
- (3) In calculating any period of 60 days for the purposes of subsection (2), no account is to be taken of any time during which the Scottish Parliament is—
- 10 (a) dissolved, or
 (b) in recess for more than 4 days.
- (4) Failure to comply with subsection (2) in relation to a draft Scottish statutory instrument does not prevent the regulations contained in the draft instrument from being approved and made.
- 15 (5) Where a draft Scottish statutory instrument to which subsection (2) applies is laid before the Scottish Parliament but not in accordance with that subsection the Scottish Ministers must explain to the Presiding Officer why that subsection has not been complied with.
- (6) The explanation is to be given as soon as practicable after the draft instrument is laid before the Parliament.

9B Consultation on draft proposals under section 7(2)(b)

- (1) If the Scottish Ministers propose to make regulations under section 7(2)(b) they must consult about their proposals such persons as they consider appropriate.
- (2) For the purposes of a consultation under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must—
- 25 (a) lay before the Scottish Parliament a document setting out their proposals,
 (b) send a copy of the document to any person to be consulted under subsection (1),
 and
 (c) have regard to any representations about the proposals that are made to them.

Interpretation of retained (devolved) EU law

10 Interpretation of retained (devolved) EU law

- 30 (1) A court or tribunal exercising devolved jurisdiction—
- (a) is not bound by any principles laid down, or any decisions made, on or after exit day by the European Court, and
- (b) cannot refer any matter to the European Court on or after exit day.
- (2) A court or tribunal exercising devolved jurisdiction may have regard to anything done on or after exit day by the European Court, another EU entity or the EU.
- 35 (3) Any question as to the validity, meaning or effect of any retained (devolved) EU law is to be decided, so far as they are relevant to it—
- (a) in accordance with any retained (devolved) case law, and

(b) having regard (among other things) to the limits, immediately before exit day, of EU competences.

(4) Subsection (3) is subject to—

(a) section 11(7), and

(b) in relation to any modification of retained (devolved) EU law made by an enactment on or after exit day, any provision made by or under the enactment by virtue of which the modification is made.

(5) But—

(a) the Supreme Court, in exercising devolved jurisdiction, is not bound by any retained (devolved) EU case law,

(b) the High Court of Justiciary is not bound by any retained (devolved) EU case law when—

(i) sitting as a court of appeal, or

(ii) sitting on a reference under section 123(1) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, and

(c) no court or tribunal exercising devolved jurisdiction is bound by any retained (devolved) domestic case law that it would not otherwise be bound by.

(6) Subsection (5)(b) does not apply to the High Court of Justiciary when sitting as a court of appeal in relation to—

(a) a compatibility issue (within the meaning given by section 288ZA(2) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995), or

(b) a devolution issue (within the meaning given by paragraph 1 of schedule 6 of the Scotland Act 1998).

(7) In deciding whether to depart from any retained (devolved) EU case law, the Supreme Court or the High Court of Justiciary must apply the same test as it would apply in deciding whether to depart from its own case law.

(8) In this section, “devolved jurisdiction” means jurisdiction in relation to matters that are within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.

(9) In this Act—

“retained (devolved) case law” means—

(a) retained (devolved) domestic case law, and

(b) retained (devolved) EU case law,

“retained (devolved) domestic case law” means any principles laid down by, and any decisions of, a court or tribunal in the United Kingdom in the exercise of devolved jurisdiction, as they have effect immediately before exit day and so far as they—

(a) relate to anything to which section 2, 3 or 4 applies, and

(b) are not excluded by sections 6 to 9,

(as those principles and decisions are modified by or under this Act or by any other provision of Scots law from time to time),

“retained (devolved) EU case law” means any principles laid down by, and any decisions of, the European Court, as they have effect in EU law immediately before exit day and so far as they—

- (a) relate to anything to which section 2, 3 or 4 applies, and
- (b) are not excluded by sections 6 to 9,

(as those principles and decisions are modified by or under this Act or by any other provision of Scots law from time to time),

“retained (devolved) EU law” means anything which, on or after exit day, continues to be, or forms part of, Scots law by virtue of section 2, 3, 4 or 5 or subsection (3) above (as that body of law is added to or otherwise modified by or under this Act or by any other provision of Scots law from time to time).

PART 3

MAIN POWERS IN CONNECTION WITH UK WITHDRAWAL

Regulation making powers

11 Dealing with deficiencies arising from UK withdrawal

(1) Where the Scottish Ministers consider—

(a) that there is, or would be—

- (i) a failure of retained (devolved) EU law to operate effectively, or
- (ii) any other deficiency in retained (devolved) EU law, arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, and

(b) that it is necessary to make provision for the purpose of preventing, remedying or mitigating the failure or other deficiency,

they may by regulations make such provision as they consider appropriate for that purpose.

(2) Deficiencies in retained (devolved) EU law are where the Scottish Ministers have reasonable grounds to consider that retained (devolved) EU law—

(a) contains anything which has no practical application in relation to Scotland or is otherwise redundant or substantially redundant,

(b) confers functions on, or in relation to, EU entities which no longer have functions in that respect under EU law in relation to Scotland,

(c) makes provision for, or in connection with, reciprocal arrangements between—

(i) the United Kingdom or Scotland or a public authority in the United Kingdom, and

(ii) the EU, an EU entity, a member State or a public authority in a member State, which no longer exist or are no longer necessary,

(d) makes provision for, or in connection with, other arrangements which—

(i) involve the EU, an EU entity, a member State or a public authority in a member State, or

- (ii) are otherwise dependent upon the United Kingdom's membership of the EU, and which no longer exist or are no longer necessary,
- (e) makes provision for, or in connection with, any reciprocal or other arrangements not falling within paragraph (c) or (d) which no longer exist, or are no longer necessary, as a result of the United Kingdom ceasing to be a party to any of the EU Treaties,
- (f) does not contain any functions or restrictions which—
- (i) were in an EU directive and in force immediately before exit day (including any power to make EU tertiary legislation), and
- (ii) it is necessary to retain, or
- (g) contains EU references which are no longer necessary.
- (3) There is also a deficiency in retained (devolved) EU law where the Scottish Ministers have reasonable grounds to consider that there is—
- (a) anything in retained (devolved) EU law which is of a similar kind to a deficiency that falls within subsection (2), or
- (b) a deficiency in retained (devolved) EU law of a kind described, or provided for, in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (4) But retained (devolved) EU law is not deficient merely because it does not contain any modification of EU law which is adopted or notified, comes into force or only applies on or after exit day.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) may make any provision that could be made by an Act of the Scottish Parliament.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (1) may—
- (a) provide for functions of EU entities or public authorities in member States (including making an instrument of a legislative character or providing funding) to be—
- (i) exercisable instead by a Scottish public authority (whether or not newly established or established for the purpose), or
- (ii) replaced, abolished or otherwise modified, or
- (ba) provide for the amendment of the general object and purposes of a Scottish public authority to enable it to carry out functions provided for by regulations under subsection (1).
- (7) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide that section 10(3) does not apply to any provision made by the regulations.
- (8) But regulations under subsection (1) may not—
- (a) impose or increase taxation,
- (b) make retrospective provision,
- (c) create a relevant criminal offence,

(d) remove any protection relating to the independence of judicial decision-making, or decision-making of a judicial nature, by a person occupying a judicial office, or otherwise make provision inconsistent with the duty in section 1 of the Judiciary and Courts (Scotland) Act 2008 (guarantee of the continued independence of the judiciary),

(e) confer a function on a Scottish public authority that is not broadly consistent with the general objects and purposes of the authority,

(f) be made to implement the UK withdrawal agreement,

(g) modify any of the matters listed in section 31(5) of the Scotland Act 1998 (protected subject-matter),

(h) modify the Scotland Act 1998, or

(i) modify the Equality Act 2006 or the Equality Act 2010.

(9) Paragraphs (d) and (i) of subsection (8) do not prevent the removal of a protection or the making of a modification if alternative provision is made in the regulations that is equivalent to the protection being removed or the provision being modified.

(10) No regulations may be made under this section after the end of the period of 2 years beginning with exit day.

(11) The reference in subsection (1) to a failure or other deficiency arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU includes a reference to any failure or other deficiency arising from that withdrawal taken together with the operation of any provision, or the interaction between any provisions, made by or under this Act.

(12) In subsection (8)(d), “judicial office” means—

(a) the office of judge of any court,

(b) the office of member of any tribunal,

(c) any other office, or appointment, having functions of a judicial nature.

12 Complying with international obligations

(1) Where the Scottish Ministers consider—

(a) that there is, or would be, a breach of the international obligations of the United Kingdom arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, and

(b) that it is necessary to make provision for the purpose of preventing or remedying the breach,

they may by regulations make such provision as they consider appropriate for that purpose.

(2) Regulations under this section may make any provision that could be made by an Act of the Scottish Parliament.

(3) But regulations under this section may not—

(a) impose or increase taxation,

(b) make retrospective provision,

(c) create a relevant criminal offence,

(d) remove any protection relating to the independence of judicial decision-making, or decision-making of a judicial nature, by a person occupying a judicial office, or otherwise make provision inconsistent with the duty in section 1 of the Judiciary and Courts (Scotland) Act 2008 (guarantee of the continued independence of the judiciary),

(e) confer a function on a Scottish public authority that is not broadly consistent with the general objects and purposes of the authority,

(g) modify any of the matters listed in section 31(5) of the Scotland Act 1998 (protected subject-matter),

(h) modify the Scotland Act 1998, or

(i) modify the Equality Act 2006 or the Equality Act 2010.

(4) Paragraphs (d) or (i) of subsection (3) do not prevent the removal of a protection or the making of a modification if alternative provision is made in the regulations that is equivalent to the protection being removed or the provision being modified.

(5) No regulations may be made under this section after the end of the period of 2 years beginning with exit day.

(6) In subsection (3)(d), “judicial office” means—

(a) the office of judge of any court,

(b) the office of member of any tribunal,

(c) any other office, or appointment, having of functions of a judicial nature.

13 Power to make provision corresponding to EU law after exit day

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision—

(a) corresponding to provision in an EU regulation, EU tertiary legislation or an EU decision,

(b) for the enforcement of provision made under paragraph (a) or otherwise to make it effective, or

(c) to implement an EU directive, so far as the EU regulation, EU tertiary legislation, EU decision or EU directive has effect in EU law after exit day.

(2) In making regulations under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers may, in particular—

(a) omit anything which has no practical application in relation to Scotland or is otherwise redundant or substantially redundant,

(b) omit functions of, or in relation to, EU entities which no longer have functions in that respect under EU law in relation to Scotland,

(c) omit provision for, or in connection with, reciprocal arrangements between—

(i) the United Kingdom or Scotland or a public authority in the United Kingdom, and

(ii) the EU, an EU entity, a member State or a public authority in a member State, which no longer exist or are no longer appropriate,

- (d) omit provision for, or in connection with, other arrangements which—
- (i) involve the EU, an EU entity, a member State or a public authority in a member State, or
  - (ii) are otherwise dependent upon the United Kingdom's membership of the EU, and which no longer exist or are no longer appropriate,

- (e) omit provision for, or in connection with, any reciprocal or other arrangements not falling within paragraph (c) or (d) which no longer exist, or are no longer appropriate, as a result of the United Kingdom ceasing to be a party to any of the EU Treaties,

- (f) confer functions or impose restrictions which—

- (i) are in an EU directive and in force (including any power to make EU tertiary legislation), and
- (ii) it is appropriate to retain, or

- (g) omit EU references which are not appropriate.

- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may make any provision that could be made by an Act of the Scottish Parliament.

- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide for functions of EU entities or public authorities in member States (including making an instrument of a legislative character or providing funding) to be—

- (a) exercisable instead by a Scottish public authority (whether or not newly established or established for the purpose), or
- (b) omitted or otherwise differently provided for.

- (5) But regulations under subsection (1) may not—

- (a) impose or increase taxation,
- (b) make retrospective provision,
- (c) create a relevant criminal offence,
- (ca) provide for the establishment of a Scottish public authority,
- (d) remove any protection relating to the independence of judicial decision-making, or decision-making of a judicial nature, by a person occupying a judicial office, or otherwise make provision inconsistent with the duty in section 1 of the Judiciary and Courts (Scotland) Act 2008 (guarantee of the continued independence of the judiciary),
- (e) confer a function on a Scottish public authority that is not broadly consistent with the general objects and purposes of the authority,
- (f) modify any of the matters listed in section 31(5) of the Scotland Act 1998 (protected subject-matter),
- (g) modify the Scotland Act 1998, or
- (h) modify the Equality Act 2006 or the Equality Act 2010.

- (6) Paragraphs (d) and (h) of subsection (5) do not prevent the removal of a protection or the making of a modification if alternative provision is made in the regulations that is broadly equivalent to the protection being removed or the provision being modified.
- (7) No regulations may be made under subsection (1) after the end of the period of 3 years beginning with exit day.
- (8) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations—
