Dear John

As you will know, the Committee considers Scottish statutory instruments from a technical perspective only and, in that regard, has not drawn the instrument to the attention of the Parliament.

However, the Committee wished to welcome the consideration already given by the Scottish Government to the Committee’s submission to the consultation on the proposed draft remedial order, as discussed in the Statement provided with the draft Order.

The Committee encourages the Scottish Government to explore further the various matters raised in that submission in its ongoing wider review of the higher level disclosure regime.

Yours,

Convener of the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee
