Standing Orders of The Scottish Parliament

6th Edition, 11th Revision

Foreword

The following Rules are the Standing Orders of the Scottish Parliament made in accordance with section 22 of and Schedule 3 to the Scotland Act 1998 (c.46). They were originally made in the form of a Statutory Instrument under the Act (SI 1999/1095) which came into force on 6 May 1999. The Parliament's 1st Edition was made by resolution of the Parliament on 9 December 1999 and came into force on 17 December 1999. A 2nd Edition was published in 2003, a 3rd edition in 2007, a 4th edition in 2011, a 5th Edition in 2016 and a 6th Edition in 2021.

Details of any changes to these Rules are shown in the table at the end of the document. The table shows, for each Chapter, Rule or paragraph:

- whether and how often it has been amended since the Standing Orders were first made;
- the date on which the amendments took effect; and
- the Report that recommended the amendment (except in the case of an amendment to Rule 9.16.1, made in January 2000 on a motion of the Procedures Committee without a published report).

The relevant Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee reports can be found on the Parliament's website. The dates of the Chamber debates on these Reports can be found from the Table of Revisions.

The Standing Orders document is maintained and updated by the Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee clerking team. Chapter 1

Members

Rule 1.1 The Scottish Parliament

1. The Scottish Parliament is established by the Scotland Act 1998 (c.46).
2. The members of the Parliament returned for each constituency or region shall be known as members of the Scottish Parliament (MSPs) and are referred to in these Rules as members.

Rule 1.2 Oath of Allegiance

1. Every person who is returned as a member shall take the oath of allegiance or shall make a solemn affirmation at a meeting of the Parliament before the Clerk. A member shall not take part in any other proceedings of the Parliament until that member has done so.
2. A member may, immediately after taking the oath or making a solemn affirmation, repeat the oath or affirmation in a language other than English.
3. The member shall then sign a register kept by the Clerk for the purpose, indicating that the member has taken the oath or, as the case may be, made a solemn affirmation.
4. The Parliament's power under section 84(3) (where a member fails to take the oath of allegiance) to decide, before the end of the period of 2 months within which a member must take the oath or make a solemn affirmation, to allow that member a longer period to do so is exercisable on a motion of any member. The motion is valid only if it is seconded by another member.
5. In these Rules, "oath of allegiance" means the oath in the form provided in section 2 of the Promissory Oaths Act 1868 (c.72) and "solemn affirmation" means the affirmation in the form provided in section 6(1) of the Oaths Act 1978 (c.19).

Rule 1.3 Term of Office

1. The term of office of a member begins on the day on which the member is declared to be returned and ends with the dissolution of the Parliament or, if earlier, that member's death or resignation.
2. A member may at any time resign that member's seat by giving notice in writing to the Presiding Officer.

3. A member may also cease to be a member in accordance with section 17(1) or (2) (where a member is or becomes disqualified) or section 84(3) (where a member fails to take the oath of allegiance).

Rule 1.4 Disqualification

1. The Presiding Officer shall notify the Parliament where a person is, or is alleged to be, disqualified from being a member (either generally or for a particular constituency or region) on any ground other than one falling within section 15(1)(b) (disqualification otherwise than under House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c.24)).
2. Any member may, within 3 sitting days of such notification, by motion propose that the Parliament disregard the disqualification because it is considered that the ground has been removed and that it is proper to disregard the disqualification. The motion is valid only if it is seconded by another member.

Rule 1.5 Vacancies

1. For the purposes of section 9 (constituency vacancies), the date on which a vacancy in the seat of a constituency member is to be treated as occurring shall be determined in accordance with paragraph 2. The Presiding Officer shall notify the Parliament of that date.
2. The date on which a constituency vacancy is to be treated as occurring is—
 - (a) in the case of a vacancy arising on the death of a member, the date of death;
 - (b) in the case of a vacancy arising on the resignation of a member, the date on which written notice of the resignation is given to the Presiding Officer;
 - (c) in the case of a vacancy arising under section 17(1) (effect of disqualification where a disqualified person is returned), the date on which the person concerned was returned as a member;
 - (d) in the case of a vacancy arising under section 17(2) (effect of disqualification where a member becomes disqualified), the date on which the member became disqualified;
 - (e) in the case of a vacancy arising under section 84(3) (failure of member to take the oath of allegiance), the expiry of the period of 2 months beginning with the day on which the member was returned or such longer period as the Parliament may have allowed; or

- (f) in any other case, such date as the Presiding Officer may determine.
3. If, in any of the cases mentioned in paragraph 2(a) and (c) to (e), the vacancy does not come to the notice of the Presiding Officer within the period of one month beginning with its occurrence, the Presiding Officer shall notify the Parliament of the date when the vacancy did come to the Presiding Officer's notice.
4. For the purposes of section 10 (regional vacancies), the date on which a vacancy in the seat of a regional member is to be treated as occurring shall be determined by the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall notify the Parliament of that date.

Rule 1.6 Code of Conduct

1. The Parliament may, on a motion of the committee mentioned in Rule 6.4, lay down a Code of Conduct for members. The Parliamentary corporation shall arrange for the Code of Conduct to be published.

Rule 1.7 Withdrawal of Rights and Privileges

1. The Parliament may, on a motion of the committee mentioned in Rule 6.4, withdraw from a member that member's rights and privileges as a member to such extent and for such period as are specified in the motion.

Rule 1.7A Motion of Censure

1. The Parliament may, on a motion of the committee mentioned in Rule 6.4, censure a member under section 17A of the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006 (asp 12) ("the Interests Act").

Rule 1.7B Other Sanctions Under Interests Act

1. The Parliament may, on a motion of the committee mentioned in Rule 6.4, impose on a member any of the sanctions referred to in section 17A(1)(a) and (b) and (2) of the Interests Act, in accordance with the terms of section 17A.

Rule 1.8 Members' Interests: Parliamentary Determinations and Resolutions

1. This Rule applies to a determination or resolution made (or proposed to be made) under the Interests Act.
2. Such a determination or resolution may be made by the Parliament on a motion of the committee mentioned in Rule 6.4.

3. The committee mentioned in Rule 6.4 shall consult other members about the effect of the proposed determination or resolution before a motion under paragraph 2 is lodged.
4. Paragraph 3 does not apply in relation to a determination under section 16 of the Interests Act.

Chapter 2

Meetings of the Parliament

Rule 2.1 Session of the Parliament

2. Each session shall be divided into Parliamentary years. The first Parliamentary year shall be the year beginning with the date of the first meeting of the Parliament following a general election. Subsequent Parliamentary years shall begin on each succeeding anniversary of that date in that session.
3. A sitting day is any day when the office of the Clerk is open but not when the Parliament is in recess or dissolved. The Parliament shall decide, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the days on which the office of the Clerk is to be open. Until the Parliament has so decided, the Presiding Officer shall appoint those days. The days on which the office of the Clerk is to be open shall be notified to members by the Presiding Officer.
4. Before the end of a session, the Presiding Officer shall determine the date when the Parliament is expected to be dissolved. That date shall be notified by the Clerk to members.

Rule 2.2 Meetings of the Parliament

1. The Parliament shall meet on the day appointed or determined for its first meeting following a general election.
2. The Parliament shall decide, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the date and time for any other meeting of the Parliament, or, until the Parliament has so determined, the Presiding Officer shall appoint such dates and times. This is subject to the following paragraphs.
3. The Parliament may, except as mentioned in paragraph 4 or 5 or in an emergency, meet on any sitting day during the normal Parliamentary week. The normal Parliamentary week is between the hours of 14:30 and 17:30 on Monday, 09:15 and 17:30 on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and 09:30 and 12:30 on Friday.
4. A meeting of the Parliament may continue to 19:00 on Wednesday if the Parliament so decides on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau.

 - (d) 12:30 on Friday, in any of the circumstances specified in paragraph 6.

6. The circumstances in which a meeting of the Parliament may continue beyond any of the times specified in paragraph 5 are—
 - (a) if it is necessary in order to complete any voting which is not adjourned to a later meeting under Rule 11.2.5;
 - (b) if it is necessary in order to complete the election of the Presiding Officer or a deputy Presiding Officer under Rule 11.9 or the election of a member or members of the Parliamentary corporation or selection of a nominee for appointment as First Minister under Rule 11.10;
 - (c) if the Parliament so decides, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, in order to consider Members' Business; or
 - (d) in other cases, if the Parliament so decides on a motion of a member of the Scottish Government or of the member who moved the business under consideration at that time.
7. Any motion mentioned in paragraph 6(d) may be moved without notice. It may be debated for up to 10 minutes. Each speaker may speak for no more than 3 minutes. The motion may be amended but only by proposing that the time specified in it is increased or decreased.
8. A meeting of the Parliament shall normally begin and end on the same day and normally not more than one meeting of the Parliament may take place on the same day.
9. A meeting of the Parliament begins when the Presiding Officer or other person chairing the meeting takes the chair.
10. The Presiding Officer may convene the Parliament on other dates or at other times in an emergency.

Rule 2.4 First Meeting Following a General Election

5. If neither that person nor the former Officer is present at that meeting or able to chair that meeting, that meeting shall be chaired—

- (a) by the Clerk but only for the purpose of presiding over the proceedings to enable the oldest qualified member to take the oath of allegiance or make a solemn affirmation;

- (c) who is not a leader within the Parliament of a political party represented by 5 or more members of the Parliament.

8. When the Clerk or the oldest qualified member is in the chair, that person shall, so far as necessary for the purposes of concluding the business over which that person is presiding, have similar functions as the Presiding Officer has for the purposes of conducting meetings under Rules 7.1 to 7.7 and 8.17.

The Financial Memorandum must also include best estimates of the timescales over which such costs, savings, and changes to revenues would be expected to arise. The Financial Memorandum must distinguish separately such costs, savings, and changes to revenues that would fall upon—

- (a) the Scottish Administration;
- (b) local authorities; and
- (c) other bodies, individuals and businesses.

3A. A Member's Bill shall, and a Committee Bill may, also be accompanied by a Policy Memorandum, as defined in paragraph 3 (but with the reference in paragraph 3(d) to the Scottish Ministers read as a reference to the member introducing the Bill).

3B. A Bill which contains any provision conferring power to make subordinate legislation, or conferring power on the Scottish Ministers to issue any directions, guidance or code of practice, shall on introduction be accompanied by a Delegated Powers Memorandum setting out, in relation to each such provision of the Bill—

5. The documents which accompany a Bill under this Rule are referred to as its “accompanying documents”.

6. A Bill may be introduced without one or more of the accompanying documents required under paragraphs 2 to 4 of this Rule only with the agreement of the Parliament.

Rule 9.4 Printing and Publishing of Bills and Accompanying Documents

1. As soon as a Bill has been introduced the Clerk shall arrange for the Bill, together with its accompanying documents, to be printed and published.

Rule 9.4A [deleted]

Rule 9.5 Stages of Bills

1. The procedure for a Bill introduced in the Parliament shall be—

- (a) consideration of the Bill’s general principles and a decision on whether to agree to them (Stage 1);
- (b) consideration of the details of the Bill (Stage 2); and
- (c) final consideration of the Bill and a decision whether to pass or reject it (Stage 3).

2. A Bill which has been passed by the Parliament may additionally be subject to reconsideration at a further stage in the circumstances described in Rule 9.9 (Reconsideration of Bills passed).

2A. A Bill which has been rejected by the Parliament may be subject to reconsideration at a further stage in the circumstances described in Rule 9.9A (Reconsideration of Bills rejected).

3. The business programme shall set out the time or times at which each Stage, or any part of any Stage, of a Bill is to be taken by a Committee of the Whole Parliament or at a meeting of the Parliament. In the case of a Stage to be taken in whole or in part by a committee (other than a Committee of the Whole Parliament), notice that the Stage or part of the Stage is to be taken shall be given in the agenda for the relevant committee meeting.

3A. The minimum period that must elapse between the day on which Stage 1 is completed and the day on which Stage 2 starts is 12 sitting days.

3B. The minimum period that must elapse between the day on which Stage 2 is completed and the day on which Stage 3 starts is 10 sitting days.

3C. Where part of a Bill is referred back to a committee under Rule 9.8.6 (for further Stage 2 consideration) a minimum period of 4 sitting days must elapse between—

(a) the day on which Stage 3 proceedings are adjourned and the day on which further Stage 2 proceedings start;

(b) the day on which further Stage 2 proceedings are completed and the day on which Stage 3 proceedings resume (but only if the Bill is amended at those further Stage 2 proceedings).

4. Subject to Rule 9.9A, if a Bill falls or is rejected by the Parliament, no further proceedings shall be taken on the Bill and a Bill in the same or similar terms may not be introduced in the same session of the Parliament within the period of 6 months from the date on which the Bill fell or was rejected.

5. A Bill introduced in any session of the Parliament falls if a decision whether or not to pass it has not been taken by the Parliament before the end of that session but a Bill in the same or similar terms may be introduced in any subsequent session.

Rule 9.6 Stage 1

1. Once a Bill has been printed, the Parliamentary Bureau shall refer it to the committee within whose remit the subject matter of the Bill falls. That committee (referred to as “the lead committee”) shall consider and report on the general principles of the Bill. Where the subject matter of the Bill falls within the remit of more than one committee the Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, designate one of those committees as the lead committee. The other committee or committees (the “secondary committee or committees”) may also consider the general principles of the Bill and report its or their views to the lead committee.
2. Where a Bill contains provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation, or conferring powers on the Scottish Ministers to issue any directions, guidance or code of practice, the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall consider and report to the lead committee on those provisions. The committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 may also consider and report to the lead committee on any provision in such a Bill conferring other delegated powers.
3. In considering the general principles of the Bill and preparing its report on them, the lead committee shall take into account any views submitted by any other committee. The lead committee shall also consider and report on the Bill’s Financial Memorandum and shall, in preparing its report, take into account any views submitted to it by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.6. If the Bill is a Government Bill, the lead committee shall also consider and report on its Policy Memorandum.
- 3A. The lead committee shall report to the Parliament in time to allow the report to be published not later than the fifth sitting day before any date allocated in a business programme for the Parliament to consider the general principles of the Bill under paragraph 4. The Parliament shall not consider the general principles of the Bill earlier than the fifth sitting day after the lead committee report is published unless it decides to do so on a motion of any member.
4. Once the lead committee has reported on the Bill, the Parliament shall consider the general principles of the Bill in the light of the lead committee’s report and decide, on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill, whether to agree to those general principles.
5. Any member may by motion propose that the Bill be referred back to the lead committee for a further report on the general principles of the Bill, or any specified part of the Bill, before the Parliament decides whether to agree to them.

6. If the motion is agreed to, consideration of the Bill's general principles is adjourned to a time to be determined by the Parliamentary Bureau. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer the Bill back to the lead committee which shall prepare a further report in accordance with the Parliament's decision.

7. If the Parliament agrees to the Bill's general principles the Bill proceeds to Stage 2. If the Parliament rejects the Bill's general principles the Bill falls.

Rule 9.7 Stage 2

1. If the Parliament has agreed to the Bill's general principles, the Parliamentary Bureau shall—

- (a) refer the Bill back to the lead committee to take Stage 2 of the Bill; or
- (b) by motion propose that Stage 2 of the Bill be taken, in whole or in part, by a Committee of the Whole Parliament or a committee or committees other than the lead committee.

2. The Presiding Officer shall be the convener of a Committee of the Whole Parliament and shall chair its proceedings and the provisions of these Rules about committees shall apply with such modifications as are appropriate.

3. At Stage 2, each section and schedule and the long title of the Bill shall be considered separately and the committee shall decide whether to agree to them. The question that a section or schedule or the long title be agreed to shall be put by the convener without the need for any member to move a motion to that effect. Sections or schedules to which no amendments are proposed and which fall to be considered consecutively may be taken and agreed to together.

4. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which the sections and schedules of the Bill are to be considered at Stage 2, the committee may decide the order. If neither decides, the sections shall be taken in the order in which they arise in the Bill, with each schedule taken immediately after the section which introduces it. The long title shall be taken last. This paragraph is subject to Rule 9.12.6(b).

5. A Bill may be amended at Stage 2. Notice of an amendment may be given by any member after the completion of Stage 1.

6. At Stage 2, amendments to any section or schedule or to the long title shall be disposed of before the committee considers whether to agree to the provision in question. Where no amendments are proposed to a section, a schedule or the long title, the committee shall proceed immediately to decide the question whether that provision be agreed to. If an amendment to leave out a section or schedule is disagreed to, that section or schedule shall be treated as agreed to.

7. In addition to the provisions of Rule 12.2.2 a member who is not a member of a committee taking Stage 2 of a Bill, or part of it, is entitled to participate in the proceedings for the purpose of moving, debating or seeking agreement to withdraw an amendment in that member's name but shall not vote.

8. At the end of Stage 2, the Clerk shall, if the Bill has been amended, arrange for the Bill as amended to be printed and published.

8A. If a Bill is amended at Stage 2 so as to insert a section or schedule, or substantially alter any existing provision, the member in charge shall lodge with the Clerk, not later than the fourth sitting day before the day on which Stage 3 is due to start, revised or supplementary Explanatory Notes. Revised Explanatory Notes (or supplementary Explanatory Notes, when read in conjunction with the original Explanatory Notes) shall summarise objectively what each of the provisions of the amended Bill does (to the extent that it requires explanation or comment) and give any other information necessary or expedient to explain the effect of the amended Bill.

8B. If a Bill is amended at Stage 2 so as to substantially alter any of the costs, savings, and changes to revenues set out in the Financial Memorandum that accompanied the Bill on introduction, the member in charge shall lodge with the Clerk, not later than whichever is the earlier of—

- (a) the tenth sitting day after the day on which Stage 2 ends;
- (b) the end of the second week before the week on which Stage 3 is due to start, a revised or supplementary Financial Memorandum. The revised Financial Memorandum (or supplementary Financial Memorandum, when read in conjunction with the original Financial Memorandum) shall set out, in relation to the amended Bill, the information required under Rule 9.3.2 in relation to the Bill on introduction.

8C. [deleted]

9. If the Bill has been amended at Stage 2 so as to insert or substantially alter provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation, or conferring powers on the Scottish Ministers to issue any directions, guidance or code of practice—

(a) the member in charge shall lodge with the Clerk, not later than whichever is the earlier of—

(i) the tenth sitting day after the day on which Stage 2 ends;

(ii) the end of the second week before the week on which Stage 3 is due to start,

a revised or supplementary Delegated Powers Memorandum,

(b) the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall consider and report to the Parliament on those provisions.

9A. The Clerk shall arrange for any revised or supplementary accompanying documents to be printed and published.

10. [deleted]

Rule 9.8 Stage 3

1. Stage 3 of a Bill shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament.

2. At Stage 3, the Parliament shall decide, on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill, whether the Bill be passed.

3. A Bill may be amended at Stage 3. Notice of an amendment may be given by any member after completion of Stage 2.

4. The Presiding Officer may select, as the Presiding Officer sees fit, those amendments which are to be taken at Stage 3 from amongst the admissible amendments of which notice has been given.

4A. Before Stage 3 begins, the Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, agree to one or more time-limits that are to apply to debates on amendments (as they have been grouped by the Presiding Officer). If such a motion is agreed to, debates on those groups of amendments shall be concluded by the time-limits specified in the motion, except to the extent considered necessary by the Presiding Officer—

(a) to enable those members given a right to speak on an amendment by Rule 9.10.13 to do so;

(b) as a consequence of the non-moving of an amendment leading to a change in the order in which groups are debated; or

(c) to prevent any debate on a group of amendments that has already begun when a time-limit is reached from being unreasonably curtailed.

5. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which amendments are to be disposed of, they shall be disposed of in the order in which the sections and schedules to which they relate arise in the Bill. Amendments to the long title shall be taken last.

5A. During Stage 3 proceedings that are subject to time-limits agreed to under paragraph 4A, any member may, by motion without notice, propose that the next such time-limit be extended by such amount of time as is specified in the motion. Such a motion may be taken only with the agreement of the Presiding Officer and may not be debated or amended. If the motion is disagreed to, no further motion to extend that next time-limit may be moved. If the motion is agreed to, all remaining time-limits applicable to the same Bill shall be extended by the amount of time specified in the motion. The total time available on any sitting day for proceedings on Stage 3 amendments shall not be extended by more than 30 minutes by motions under this paragraph.

5B. If any motion under paragraph 5A is agreed to, the Presiding Officer may make such consequential alterations to the daily business list, including altering the time of Decision Time, as the Presiding Officer considers necessary or appropriate. Members shall be notified of any such alteration.

5BA. After any amendments have been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk.

5C. Except where the motion that the Bill be passed is due to be moved on a later day, the member in charge of the Bill (or, in the case of a non-Government Bill, that member or a member of the Scottish Government with general responsibility for the subject matter of the Bill) may, immediately after the Presiding Officer has made the statement referred to in paragraph 5BA, by motion without notice propose that the remaining proceedings at Stage 3 be adjourned to a later day. Such a motion may not be debated or amended. If the motion is not agreed to, the Parliament shall proceed immediately to debate the motion that the Bill be passed.

5D. If—

- (a) a motion under paragraph 5C is agreed to; or
- (b) the motion that the Bill be passed is otherwise due to be moved on a later day, the member in charge of the Bill (or, in the case of a non-Government Bill, that member or a member of the Scottish Government with general responsibility for the subject-matter of the Bill) may give notice of amendments to the Bill to be moved at the adjourned proceedings or (as the case may be) on the later day when the motion that the Bill be passed is due to be moved. Such amendments are only admissible if, in addition to the criteria in Rule 9.10.5, they are for the purpose of clarifying uncertainties or giving effect to commitments given at the earlier proceedings at Stage 3. After any amendments have been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk.

6. At the beginning of the debate on the motion that the Bill be passed, the member in charge of the Bill may by motion propose that such part of the Bill as may be specified in the motion, amounting to no more than half of the total number of sections of the Bill, be referred back to committee for further Stage 2 consideration. If the motion is agreed to, the proceedings are adjourned to a time to be determined by the Parliamentary Bureau which shall refer the Bill to a committee in accordance with the Parliament's decision. When the Stage 3 proceedings resume the Bill may be amended, but amendments are only admissible if they are to the provisions which were referred back to committee or if they are necessary in consequence of any amendment made at the further Stage 2 proceedings.

7. This Rule, apart from paragraph 6, shall apply to the resumed Stage 3 proceedings as it applies to the initial Stage 3 proceedings.

8. At Stage 3 a Bill may be referred back to committee for further Stage 2 consideration only once.

9. The question on the motion that the Bill be passed must be decided by division.

10. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Bill shall be treated as rejected.

11. Where the Presiding Officer has made a statement that in his or her view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Bill is passed only if a super-majority is achieved and is otherwise treated as rejected.

12. If the Presiding Officer has made more than one statement as to whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, only the most recent statement is to be used in applying paragraph 11.

Rule 9.9 Reconsideration of Bills Passed

1. The member in charge of a Bill may, after the Bill is passed, by motion propose that the Parliament resolve that it wishes to reconsider the Bill if—

- (a) a question in relation to the Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33;
- (b) a reference for a preliminary ruling (within the meaning of section 34(3)) has been made by the Supreme Court in connection with that reference; and
- (c) neither of those references has been decided or otherwise disposed of.

2. The member in charge of a Bill may by motion propose that the Parliament resolve to reconsider the Bill if—

- (a) the Supreme Court decides that the Bill or any provision of it would not be within the legislative competence of the Parliament;
- (b) an order is made in relation to the Bill under section 35 (order prohibiting Presiding Officer from submitting Bill for Royal Assent); or
- (c) the Supreme Court decides on a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 32A(2)(b) that any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter.

3. Proceedings at Reconsideration Stage shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament.

4. A Bill may be amended at Reconsideration Stage but amendments are only admissible if, in addition to the criteria in Rule 9.10.5, they are for the purpose of resolving the problem which is the subject of the reference for a preliminary ruling or which is the subject of the decision of the Supreme Court referred to in paragraph 2(a) or the order under section 35. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which amendments are to be disposed of, they shall be disposed of in the order in which the provisions to which they relate arise in the Bill. In the case of a Bill referred to in paragraph 2(c) no amendment may be made at Reconsideration Stage.

5. The Presiding Officer shall state, after any amendments have been disposed of and before the debate on the motion that the Bill be approved, whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. The Parliament shall then consider and decide by division, on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill, the question whether to approve the Bill. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Bill shall be treated as rejected. Where the statement is that in the Presiding Officer's view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Bill is not approved unless a super-majority is achieved.

9.9A Reconsideration of Bills Rejected

1. The member in charge of a Bill may, after the Bill is rejected, by motion propose that the Parliament resolve to reconsider the Bill if, following a reference to the Supreme Court under section 32A(2)(a), the Court has decided that no provision that is subject to the reference relates to a protected subject-matter.
2. Proceedings at Reconsideration Stage shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament. The Bill may not be amended at Reconsideration Stage.
3. Before the debate on the motion that the Bill be approved, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. The Parliament shall then consider and decide by division, on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill, the question whether to approve the Bill. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Bill shall be treated as rejected.

Rule 9.10 Amendments to Bills

1. Amendments to a Bill shall be in such form as the Presiding Officer may determine. The Clerk shall ensure that any such determinations of the Presiding Officer are notified to the Parliament.
2. Subject to paragraph 6, where a member intends to move an amendment to a Bill at Stage 2 or Reconsideration Stage, that member shall give notice of the amendment by lodging it with the Clerk no later than the day (referred to as the final lodging-day) that is the fourth sitting day before the Stage is due to start. Where there is to be more than one meeting, held in different weeks, at which amendments are to be moved or disposed of, there shall be a separate final lodging-day for each of those weeks, that day being the fourth sitting day before the first such meeting in that week is due to take place. Amendments may be lodged until 16:30 on any day when the office of the Clerk is open, except on a final lodging-day, when amendments may be lodged only until 12:00.
- 2A. Subject to paragraph 6, where a member intends to move an amendment to a Bill at Stage 3, that member shall give notice of the amendment by lodging it with the Clerk no later than the day (referred to as the final lodging-day) that is the fifth sitting day before the Stage is due to start. Where there is to be more than one meeting of the Parliament, held in different weeks, at which amendments are to be moved or disposed of, there shall be a separate final lodging-day for each of those weeks, that day being the fifth sitting day before the first such meeting in that week is due to take place. Amendments may be lodged until 16:30 on any day when the office of the Clerk is open, except on a final lodging-day, when amendments may be lodged only until 12:00.
3. Notice of an amendment shall set out the text of the amendment, together with the name of the member proposing it. The member in charge of the Bill (if not the member proposing the amendment) and up to 4 other members may indicate their support for an amendment (other than a manuscript amendment) by notifying the Clerk at any time during the period when notice of that amendment may be given.
4. The convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer shall determine any dispute as to whether an amendment of which the Clerk has been given notice is admissible. Notice of admissible amendments shall be published in the Business Bulletin.
5. An amendment is admissible unless—
 - (a) it is not in proper form;

- (b) it is not relevant to the Bill or the provisions of the Bill which it would amend;
- (c) it is inconsistent with the general principles of the Bill as agreed by the Parliament; or
- (d) it is inconsistent with a decision already taken at the Stage at which the amendment is proposed.

6. An amendment of which less notice has been given than is required under paragraph 2 or 2A above is referred to as a “manuscript amendment”. A manuscript amendment may be moved only with the agreement of the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer. Such agreement shall be given only if the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer considers it is justified, in the circumstances, taking account of the disadvantages of lack of proper notice.

7. An amendment may be made to an amendment and this Rule shall apply accordingly.

7A. An amendment (other than a manuscript amendment) may be withdrawn by the member who lodged it at any time during the period when notice of that amendment may be given, but only with the unanimous agreement of any members who have indicated their support for the amendment. If such agreement is not obtained, the amendment becomes an amendment in the name of the member who first indicated that member’s support for the amendment and who does not agree to the amendment being withdrawn.

8. Where, at any Stage, notice of amendments to a Bill has been given, the Clerk shall prepare, for each week during which there are to be proceedings on the Bill at which amendments are to be considered, a marshalled list of the admissible amendments proposed. The list shall set out the amendments not so far disposed of in the order in which they are, subject to Rule 9.12.6(b), to be disposed of as determined by the Clerk. At Stage 2, the list shall include only those amendments which are lodged prior to the deadline for that week’s proceedings set out in Rule 9.10.2, together with any manuscript amendments to provisions expected to be considered in that week. The list shall exclude manuscript amendments which may not be moved because agreement has been refused under paragraph 6 above and, at Stage 3, shall exclude amendments not selected by the Presiding Officer. The Clerk shall arrange for the marshalled list to be published.

9. An amendment to insert a new section or schedule shall normally specify where it is to be inserted and shall be disposed of accordingly.

10. An amendment to an amendment shall be disposed of before the amendment which it would amend.
11. An amendment at any Stage which would be inconsistent with a decision already taken at the same Stage shall not be taken.
12. The convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer may group amendments for the purposes of debate as that person sees fit. The Clerk shall arrange for any groupings to be published. An amendment debated as part of a group may not be debated again when it comes to be disposed of (unless it is an amendment to which Rule 9.12.6(b) applies).
13. The member moving an amendment may speak in support of it. A member intending to move any other amendment that has been grouped with the amendment moved may speak in support of that other amendment. The member in charge of the Bill and any member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister present at the proceedings may also speak on the amendment. Other members may speak on an amendment at the discretion of the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer.
14. If a member who has given notice of an amendment does not move the amendment when that amendment comes to be disposed of, the amendment may be moved by any other member present at those proceedings.
15. An amendment may be withdrawn by the member who moved it, but only if no member present at those proceedings objects.

Rule 9.11 Crown Consent

1. Where a Bill contains provisions, or is amended so as to include provisions, which would, if the Bill were a Bill for an Act of the United Kingdom Parliament, require the consent of His Majesty, the Prince and Steward of Scotland or the Duke of Cornwall, the Parliament shall not debate any question whether the Bill be passed or approved unless such consent to those provisions has been signified by a member of the Scottish Government during proceedings on the Bill at a meeting of the Parliament.

Rule 9.12 Financial Resolutions

1. A resolution under this Rule is referred to as “a Financial Resolution”.
2. The Presiding Officer shall decide in every case whether a resolution is required for a Bill under paragraph 3, 3A, 3B, 3C or 4 of this Rule.

3. Where a Bill contains provisions—

- (a) which charge expenditure on the Scottish Consolidated Fund, or
- (b) the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly expenditure charged on that Fund,

no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the expenditure or the increase in expenditure being charged on that Fund.

3A. Where a Bill contains provisions the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly expenditure payable out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund for any purpose, no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the increase in expenditure being payable out of that Fund.

3B. Where a Bill contains provisions—

- (a) which impose (or confer a power to impose) any tax; or
- (b) which increase (or confer a power to increase) any tax, the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly the revenue from that tax,

no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the imposition or increase.

3C. Where a Bill contains provisions which reduce (or confer a power to reduce) any tax, the likely effect of which would be to reduce significantly revenue from the tax, no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the reduction in revenue.

4. Where—

- (a) a Bill contains provisions which impose or increase (or confer a power to impose or increase) any charge (other than a tax), or otherwise require (or confer a power to require) any payment to be made; and
- (b) the person to whom the charge or payment is payable is required, by or under any enactment, to pay sums received into the Scottish Consolidated Fund (or would be so required but for any provision made by or under an Act of the Scottish Parliament), no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the charge, increase or payment.

5. Paragraph 4—

- (a) applies only where the charge, increase in charge or payment is significant; and
- (b) does not apply where the charge, increase in charge or payment is—
 - (i) in respect of the provision of goods and is reasonable in relation to the goods provided;
 - (ii) wholly or largely directed to the recovery of the cost of providing any service for which the charge is imposed or the payment requires to be made; or
 - (iii) would otherwise result in no significant net gain or loss to the Scottish Consolidated Fund.

6. At Stage 2—

- (a) where—
 - (i) an amendment makes provision which, if it were agreed to, would of its own accord cause the Bill to require a Financial Resolution which it would not otherwise require; and
 - (ii) the Parliament has not agreed to a motion for such a resolution, the question on the amendment shall not be put;
- (b) where—
 - (i) any other amendment makes provision which, if it were agreed to, might contribute towards causing the Bill to require a Financial Resolution which it would not otherwise require; and
 - (ii) the Parliament has not agreed to a motion for such a resolution, the question on the amendment (and on such other related amendments as the Clerk may determine) is, subject to paragraph 6A, to be put immediately before the long title is taken or at such other time as the Clerk may determine.

6A. A question on an amendment shall not be put in accordance with paragraph 6(b) if, at the time when the question would otherwise be put—

- (a) the amendment makes provision which, if it were agreed to, would cause the Bill to require a Financial Resolution which it would not otherwise require; and
- (b) the Parliament has not agreed to a motion for such a resolution.

6B. At Stage 3, proceedings shall not be taken on an amendment if, at the time when those proceedings would otherwise take place—

- (a) the amendment makes provision which, if it were agreed to, would cause the Bill to require a Financial Resolution which it would not otherwise require; and
- (b) the Parliament has not agreed to a motion for such a resolution.

6C. For the purposes of paragraphs 6 to 6B, it is for the Presiding Officer to determine whether an amendment makes provision which, if it were agreed to, would cause, or might contribute towards causing, a Bill to require a Financial Resolution which it would not otherwise require.

7. Only a member of the Scottish Government or a junior Scottish Minister may give notice of a motion for a Financial Resolution. The motion may be moved only by a member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister, whether or not that person has given notice of it or indicated support for it. Such a motion may not be amended.

8. Unless—

- (a) notice of a motion for any resolution required in relation to a Bill by paragraph 3 or 4 is given within 6 months of the completion of Stage 1; and
- (b) the motion is agreed to,

the Bill falls.

Rule 9.13 Withdrawal of Bills

1. A Bill may be withdrawn at any time by the member in charge but shall not be withdrawn after completion of Stage 1 except with the agreement of the Parliament.

Rule 9.13A Limits on Participation in Certain Committee Proceedings

1. Where a member who has lodged a draft proposal for a Member's Bill accompanied by a statement of reasons is a member of (or committee substitute for) the committee to which the draft proposal is referred under Rule 9.14.5, that member shall not participate in that capacity in any consideration of the draft proposal by that committee.
2. Where—
 - (a) in relation to a Government Bill, a member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister;
 - (b) in relation to a Member's Bill, the member in charge of the Bill;
 - (c) in relation to a Committee Bill, the member (if any) who submitted the draft proposal for the Bill or any member who participated as a member of the committee which developed the proposal for the Bill, is a member of (or committee substitute for) any committee involved in scrutiny of the Bill at Stage 1 or any committee (other than a Committee of the Whole Parliament) taking all or part of Stage 2 of the Bill, that member shall not participate in that capacity in any consideration of the Bill by that committee.

Rule 9.14 Members' Bills

1. "Member's Bill" means a Public Bill, other than a Committee Bill, which is introduced by a member who is not a member of the Scottish Government and the purpose of which is to give effect to a proposal for a Bill made by that member in accordance with this Rule.
2. Each member may introduce no more than 2 Members' Bills in the same session. For the purposes of this paragraph only, a draft proposal for a Bill submitted by a member to the Parliamentary Bureau in pursuance of Rule 9.15.4 and subsequently introduced as a Committee Bill shall be treated as if it were a Member's Bill introduced by that member.
3. A member wishing to introduce a Member's Bill shall first lodge with the Clerk a draft proposal consisting of the proposed short title of the Bill and a brief explanation of the purposes of the proposed Bill, together with either—
 - (a) a consultation document prepared as the basis for a public consultation on the policy objectives of the draft proposal to begin on the day on which the draft proposal is published in the Business Bulletin (or a specified date no more than two weeks later) and to last for a specified period of not less than 12 weeks; or

(b) a written statement of reasons why, in the member's opinion, a case for the proposed Bill has already been established by reference to specified published material and that consultation on the draft proposal is therefore unnecessary.

4. The draft proposal shall be published in the Business Bulletin together with the member's name, the date it was lodged and either—

(a) the dates on which the consultation period begins and ends, and information about where copies of the consultation document may be obtained; or

(b) information about where copies of the member's statement of reasons may be obtained.

5. The Parliamentary Bureau shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after a draft proposal is lodged, refer it to a committee within whose remit the subject matter of the draft proposal falls (and may, in the case of a draft proposal accompanied by a consultation document, refer it to more than one such committee).

6. Where a draft proposal accompanied by a statement of reasons is referred to a committee, the committee may, within one month, consider the statement of reasons and decide either—

(a) that it is satisfied with the reasons given by the member for not consulting on the draft proposal; or

(b) that it is not so satisfied.

In calculating the period of one month referred to in this paragraph, no account shall be taken of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or in recess for more than 4 days.

7. If the committee decides that it is not satisfied with the reasons given by the member for not consulting, the proposal falls unless the member, within 2 months, lodges with the Clerk a consultation document conforming with paragraph 3(a) (except that the consultation process shall begin on the day on which the proposal is republished under this paragraph). Where a consultation document is lodged with the Clerk under this paragraph, the Clerk shall republish the draft proposal in the Bulletin in accordance with paragraph 4(a) and the Parliamentary Bureau shall refer it to a committee or committees in accordance with paragraph 5.

8. The member who lodged the draft proposal may, at any time (during the same session) after—

- (a) the end of the consultation period;
- (b) the end of the period of one month referred to in paragraph 6; or
- (c) the committee decides that it is satisfied with the reasons given by the member for not consulting on the draft proposal, lodge with the Clerk a final version of the proposal (the “final proposal”). The final proposal need not be the same as, but must be broadly similar to, the draft proposal.

9. A final proposal shall be accompanied by either—

- (a) a summary of the consultation responses (including any conclusions the member draws from those responses), together with copies of all those responses; or
- (b) the statement of reasons lodged with the draft proposal (or a revised version of that statement).

10. The final proposal shall be published in the first issue of the Business Bulletin published after it is lodged, in each subsequent issue published during the period referred to in paragraph 11 and in the first issue thereafter. In each such issue, the proposal shall be published together with information about where the summary of consultation responses or (as the case may be) the statement of reasons may be obtained and the names of any members who have supported the proposal.

11. Any member may notify the Clerk of that member’s support for a final proposal during the period beginning on the day the final proposal is lodged and ending one month later (or on the day the proposal is withdrawn, the Parliament is dissolved or a Bill is introduced to give effect to the proposal, if earlier).

12. The member who lodged the final proposal obtains the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to it only if—

- (a) no later than the end of the period referred to in paragraph 11—

- (i) at least 18 other members have notified the Clerk of their support for the final proposal; and
- (ii) the members supporting the final proposal include members of at least half of the political parties (or groups formed under Rule 5.2.2) represented in the Parliamentary Bureau; and

(b) the Scottish Government has not made, by the end of the period referred to in paragraph 11 (or has waived its right to make, within that period), a statement under paragraph 13.

Where the member does not obtain such a right to introduce, the proposal falls and a proposal in the same or similar terms may not be lodged by any member during the same session within 6 months of that proposal falling.

13. A statement under this paragraph is a statement made by a member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister that the Scottish Government will initiate legislation, within a period of 2 years from the date of the statement or by the end of the same session, if sooner, to give effect to the final proposal. The right to make such a statement may be waived at any time during the period referred to in paragraph 11 by notice in writing to the member who lodged the final proposal and to the Clerk; and such a notice shall be published in the Business Bulletin.

13A. A statement under paragraph 13 shall be made in writing to the member and to the Clerk (who shall arrange for it to be published in the Business Bulletin), and shall be repeated to a meeting of the Parliament as soon as reasonably practicable.

13B. When a statement is repeated to a meeting of the Parliament under paragraph 13A, the member who lodged the final proposal may ask questions on the statement. In addition, other members may, at the discretion of the Presiding Officer, ask questions on the statement.

14. For the purposes of paragraph 13, initiating legislation includes—

- (a) introducing a Bill;
- (b) making subordinate legislation; or
- (c) laying in draft a statutory instrument containing subordinate legislation proposed to be made.

15. The right to introduce a Bill to give effect to a final proposal may only be exercised until the first sitting day in June (or, exceptionally, with the consent of the Parliamentary Bureau until the last sitting day in September) in the calendar year preceding that in which the next ordinary Scottish Parliament general election is due to be held.

16. A proposal (whether draft or final) may be withdrawn at any time by the member who lodged it.

17. A member may not have more than two proposals (whether draft or final) for a Member's Bill in progress at any time. For the purposes of this paragraph, a proposal is in progress from when the draft proposal is lodged until—

(a) the proposal falls or is withdrawn; or

(b) a Bill introduced to give effect to it is passed, falls or is withdrawn.

18. At Stage 1 of a Member's Bill, the lead committee may recommend to the Parliament, on a motion of the convener of the committee, that the general principles of the Bill not be agreed to if (in the opinion of the committee)—

(a) the consultation on the draft proposal, or the published material referred to in the statement of reasons, does not demonstrate a reasonable case for the policy objectives of the proposal or does not demonstrate that legislation is necessary to achieve those policy objectives;

(b) having regard to the statements on legislative competence under Rule 9.3.1 and Rule 9.3.1A, the Bill appears to be clearly outwith the legislative competence of the Parliament and it is unlikely to be possible to amend it at Stages 2 and 3 to bring it within legislative competence; or

(c) the Bill has deficiencies of drafting that make it unfit to be passed and which are sufficiently serious as to make it difficult or impractical to resolve them by amendments at Stages 2 and 3.

19. If the Parliament agrees to a recommendation under paragraph 18, the Bill falls. Otherwise, the lead committee shall consider and report on the general principles of the Bill in accordance with Rule 9.6.1.

Rule 9.15 Committee Bills

1. A Bill introduced in pursuance of this Rule is referred to as "a Committee Bill".

2. A committee may make a proposal for a Bill in relation to matters within that committee's remit in accordance with this Rule.

3. For the purposes of deciding whether to make a proposal for a Bill, or what such a proposal should contain, a committee may hold an inquiry into the need for a Bill.

4. Any member may submit to the Parliamentary Bureau a draft proposal for a Bill. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer the draft proposal to a committee within whose remit the draft proposal falls. The committee shall consider whether it should make the proposal in accordance with this Rule.

5. A proposal for a Bill under this Rule shall be made in the form of a report setting out the committee's recommendations as to the provisions to be contained in the Bill, together with an explanation of the need for the Bill. The proposal may also contain a draft of a Bill to give effect to the proposal.

6. A time shall be appointed in the business programme for consideration of the proposal by the Parliament.

7. If the Parliament agrees to the proposal, the convener of the committee which made the proposal may, no earlier than the fifth sitting day after the date on which the Parliament agrees to the proposal—

(a) if necessary, instruct the drafting of a Bill to give effect to the proposal; and

(b) introduce the Bill, unless a statement has been made under paragraph 7A before that day.

7A. A statement under this paragraph is a statement made by a member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister that the Scottish Government will initiate legislation, within a period of 2 years from the date of the statement or by the end of the same session, if sooner, to give effect to the proposal.

7AA. A statement under paragraph 7A shall be made in writing to the convener of the committee which made the proposal and to the Clerk (who shall arrange for it to be published in the Business Bulletin), and shall be repeated to a meeting of the Parliament as soon as reasonably practicable.

7AB. When a statement is repeated to a meeting of the Parliament, under paragraph 7AA, the convener of the committee which made the proposal may ask questions on the statement. In addition, other members may, at the discretion of the Presiding Officer, ask questions on the statement.

7B. For the purposes of paragraph 7A, “initiating legislation” has the same meaning as in Rule 9.14.14.

8. At Stage 1 of a Committee Bill the Bill shall be referred to the committee mentioned in Rule 6.6 (unless it has been introduced to give effect to a proposal made by that committee), which shall consider and report to the Parliament on the Bill’s Financial Memorandum.

8A. Rule 9.6.2 shall not apply to any Committee Bill introduced to give effect to a proposal made by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11. But if any other such Bill is considered by that committee under Rule 9.6.2, that committee shall report to the Parliament.

8B. A report on the Bill’s general principles by a committee shall not be required.

9. Once any committee required to report on the Bill has done so, the Parliament shall consider, and decide whether to agree to, the general principles of the Bill.

Rule 9.16 Budget Bills

1. A Budget Bill is a Government Bill for a Budget Act within the meaning of section 29(3) of the Public Finance and Accountability (Scotland) Act 2000 (asp 1).

2. A Budget Bill may be introduced only by a member of the Scottish Government and shall not require to be accompanied by a Financial Memorandum, Explanatory Notes or a Policy Memorandum.

3. At Stage 1 of a Budget Bill, the Bill shall be referred to the Parliament for consideration of its general principles and a decision on whether they are agreed to. A report on the Bill’s general principles from a committee shall not be required. If the Bill is considered by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 under Rule 9.6.2, that committee shall report to the Parliament on the relevant provisions before Stage 3. Stage 2 shall be taken by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.6.

4. The requirements in Rules 9.5.3A to C as to the minimum periods that must elapse between the Stages of a Bill shall not apply.

5. Stage 3 shall normally begin no earlier than 60 days after introduction of the Bill. If Stage 3 is not completed before the expiry of 70 days after introduction of the Bill (whether because of the operation of paragraph 7 or otherwise), the Bill falls.

6. Amendments to a Budget Bill may be moved, and notice of amendments to such a Bill may be given, only by a member of the Scottish Government or a junior Scottish Minister. The lodging deadlines specified in Rules 9.10.2 and 2A shall not apply. Notice of any amendment at Stage 2 or 3 shall be given by lodging it with the Clerk no later than 16:30 on the Friday immediately preceding the week in which the Stage is due to start.

6A. For the purposes of paragraph 6, if the Friday immediately preceding the week in which the stage is due to start falls during a period when the Parliament is in recess, then the lodging deadline will be no later than 16:30 on the Friday which immediately precedes commencement of any such period of recess.

7. If a Budget Bill is dependent upon the Parliament passing a particular Scottish rate resolution, Stage 3 proceedings on that Bill must not commence unless the Parliament has agreed to the motion for that resolution.

7A. Where amendments to a Budget Bill have been lodged, the Bill is to be treated as dependent only on the passing of a Scottish rate resolution which reflects the content of those amendments.

8. If a Budget Bill falls or is rejected at any Stage by the Parliament, a Budget Bill in the same or similar terms may be introduced at any time thereafter.

Rule 9.17 [deleted]

Rule 9.17A Scottish Law Commission Bills

1. A “Scottish Law Commission Bill” is a Bill which—

- (a) implements all or part of a report of the Scottish Law Commission (including a joint report with the Law Commission);
- (b) complies with such criteria as shall be determined by the Presiding Officer; and
- (c) is not a Consolidation Bill, Codification Bill, Statute Law Repeals Bill or Statute Law Revision Bill.

2. The Clerk shall arrange for the determinations of the Presiding Officer under paragraph 1(b) to be notified to the Parliament.

3. Where the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 has commenced consideration of, but has not yet reported on, the general principles of a Scottish Law Commission Bill under Rule 6.11.1(g) and that Committee considers that on the basis of the evidence gathered by it the Bill does not comply with the criteria determined by the Presiding Officer under paragraph 1(b), that committee shall inform the Parliamentary Bureau. The Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, designate another committee as the new lead committee. The new lead committee shall consider the general principles of the Bill afresh, but may take into account any evidence gathered and views submitted to it by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11.

4. Where a Scottish Law Commission Bill which has been referred to the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 at Stage 2 has been amended at that Stage so as to insert or substantially alter provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation, or conferring powers on the Scottish Ministers to issue any directions, guidance or code of practice, Rule 9.7.9(b) does not apply, but a revised or supplementary memorandum shall be lodged and published under Rule 9.7.9(a).

Rule 9.18 Consolidation Bills

1. A Consolidation Bill is a Bill the purpose of which is the consolidation of enactments, whether or not with amendments to those enactments to give effect to recommendations of the Scottish Law Commission or of the Scottish Law Commission and the Law Commission jointly (“Law Commission recommendations”).

2. A Consolidation Bill shall not require to be accompanied by a Financial Memorandum, Explanatory Notes or a Policy Memorandum. An Auditor General’s Report shall be required only where the Bill includes provision charging expenditure on the Scottish Consolidated Fund that is to give effect to a Law Commission recommendation. A Consolidation Bill shall be accompanied by tables of derivations and destinations, and such tables shall be treated as accompanying documents within the meaning of Rule 9.3.5.

3. Where a Consolidation Bill has been introduced in the Parliament, the Parliamentary Bureau may by motion propose, in accordance with Rule 6.1, the establishment of a committee (referred to as “a Consolidation Committee”) to consider the Bill in accordance with this Rule. The Parliamentary Bureau may alternatively by motion propose the referral of the Bill to the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 to consider the Bill in accordance with this Rule.

4. In proposing the membership of a Consolidation Committee under Rule 6.3, the Parliamentary Bureau shall have regard to the subject matter of the Bill and shall, where possible, ensure that at least one member of the Committee is drawn from amongst the members of a committee within whose remit the subject matter of the Bill falls.

5. At Stage 1 of a Consolidation Bill, the Consolidation Committee for that Bill or the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall consider and report on the question whether the Bill should proceed as a Consolidation Bill. A report on the general principles of the Bill shall not be required. Once the Consolidation Committee or the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 has reported, the Parliament shall decide that question on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill. There shall normally be no debate on that question. If the motion is agreed to, the Bill proceeds to Stage 2. If the Parliament rejects the motion, the Bill falls.

6. Stage 2 of a Consolidation Bill shall be taken by the Consolidation Committee for that Bill or by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11.

7. At Stage 3 of a Consolidation Bill, there shall normally be no debate on the question whether the Bill be passed.

8. An amendment to a Consolidation Bill is admissible unless Rule 9.10.5(a), (b) or (d) applies or the amendment would cause the Bill to cease to be a Consolidation Bill.

Rule 9.18A Codification Bills

1. A Codification Bill is a Bill the purpose of which is to restate existing statute and common law, whether or not with amendments to that law to give effect to Law Commission recommendations.

Rule 9.18 shall apply to a Codification Bill as it applies to a Consolidation Bill in relation to which the establishment of a Consolidation Committee is proposed by the Parliamentary Bureau, with such modifications as are appropriate. In particular, the Consolidation Committee referred to in that Rule shall be known as a “Codification Committee”.

Rule 9.19 Statute Law Repeals Bills

1. A Statute Law Repeals Bill is a Bill the purpose of which is to repeal, in accordance with recommendations of the Scottish Law Commission, spent enactments.

2. Rule 9.18 shall apply to a Statute Law Repeals Bill as it applies to a Consolidation Bill in relation to which the establishment of a Consolidation Committee is proposed by the Parliamentary Bureau, with such modifications as are appropriate. In particular, the Consolidation Committee referred to in that Rule shall be known as a “Statute Law Repeals Committee”.

Rule 9.20 Statute Law Revision Bills

In particular, the Consolidation Committee referred to in that Rule shall be known as a “Statute Law Revision Committee”.

Rule 9.21 Emergency Bills

1. Any member of the Scottish Government or a junior Scottish Minister may by motion propose that a Government Bill introduced in the Parliament be treated as an Emergency Bill. If the Parliament agrees to such a motion, the remaining provisions of this Rule shall apply to such a Bill.
2. Unless the Parliament decides otherwise on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, Stages 1 to 3 of an Emergency Bill shall be taken on the same day. The time available for each of the Stages of an Emergency Bill, and for debates at each of those Stages, shall be decided by the Parliament on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau.
3. Paragraph 2 is without prejudice to the power of the Parliament to adjourn Stage 3 of an Emergency Bill to a later day under Rule 9.8.5C or to refer part of the Bill back to committee under Rule 9.8.6.
4. The requirements in Rules 9.5.3A to C as to the minimum periods that must elapse between the Stages of a Bill shall not apply.
5. At Stage 1, an Emergency Bill shall be referred immediately to the Parliament for consideration of its general principles. The Parliament shall decide, on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill, whether to agree to those general principles. The lead committee, if any, shall not be required to consider, or report to the Parliament on, the Bill's general principles, the Financial Memorandum or the Policy Memorandum. An Emergency Bill containing provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation, or conferring powers on the Scottish Ministers to issue any directions, guidance or code of practice, is not required to be considered by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11.

6. Stage 2 of an Emergency Bill shall be taken by a Committee of the Whole Parliament.

6A. Rules 9.7.8A, 9.7.8B and 9.7.9 do not apply in the case of an Emergency Bill.

7. Where a member intends to move an amendment to an Emergency Bill at Stage 2 or 3, or at Reconsideration Stage, that member shall, subject to Rule 9.10.6, give such notice of the amendment as the Presiding Officer may determine for that Stage or, where the Presiding Officer does not make such a determination, such notice as is required by Rule 9.10.2 or, as the case may be, 2A.

8. Rule 9.10.6 applies to an Emergency Bill as if the reference to notice required under Rule 9.10.2 or 2A included reference to the notice required by virtue of a determination by the Presiding Officer under paragraph 7.

(f) that member has any interest registered in the Register of Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament (“the Register”) which, in the opinion of the Parliamentary Bureau, would or would be likely to prejudice the ability of the member to participate in proceedings of the Private Bill Committee in an impartial manner.

4. For the purposes of paragraph 3(e), any member whose name is proposed to the Parliamentary Bureau as a prospective member of a Private Bill Committee shall bring to the attention of the Bureau any financial interest held by the member in relation to the promoter or in the subject-matter of the Private Bill which is not registered in the Register.

4A. Each member of a Private Bill Committee shall, at the first meeting that member attends, declare to act impartially, in that member’s capacity as a member of the Committee, and to base decisions solely on the evidence and information provided to the Committee.

4B. A Private Bill committee shall not normally meet or continue to meet at a time when a meeting of the Parliament is in progress (within the meaning of Rule 12.3.3A), but may do so if—the member has viewed a recording or read the Official Report of the proceedings of the Committee at which that evidence was given.

6A. If, as a result of the operation of paragraph 6, the number of members able to participate in the consideration of any objection is less than half the membership of the Committee, the Committee shall offer those persons who previously gave (or were offered an opportunity to give) evidence on the objection, including the promoter, another opportunity to give such evidence. If any person offered that opportunity does not take it, that person's agreement under paragraph 6(b) is no longer required.

Rule 9A.6 Objections

1. An individual person who, or a body corporate or unincorporated association of persons which, considers that the interests of that individual, body corporate or unincorporated association of persons would be adversely affected by a Private Bill introduced in the Parliament (an “objector”) may lodge an objection to the Private Bill during the objection period.
2. In these Rules, “the objection period” is the period commencing at the beginning of the day after the date of introduction of the Private Bill and ending at 17:00 on the sixtieth day after the date of introduction or, where the sixtieth day falls on a day when the office of the Clerk is closed, at 17:00 on the first day after that sixtieth day on which the office of the Clerk is open. In calculating the objection period no account shall be taken of any time when the office of the Clerk is closed for more than 4 days or, if the Parliament is dissolved during the objection period, of any period beginning on the day of dissolution and ending on the date of introduction of a Private Bill under Rule 9A.7.6.

3. An objection may be lodged by its—
 - (a) being lodged with the Clerk in writing by the objector; or
 - (b) being sent by e-mail from the objector's e-mail address.
4. The Presiding Officer shall determine the proper form of objections.
5. An objection is admissible only if it—
 - (a) is in proper form;
 - (b) sets out the nature of the objection;
 - (c) explains whether the objection lies against the whole Private Bill or specified provisions;
 - (d) specifies how the objector's interests would be adversely affected by the Private Bill; and
 - (e) is accompanied by any fee for lodging objections that may be determined by the Parliamentary corporation.
6. The Clerk shall notify the objector whether an objection which has been lodged is admissible.
7. After the objection period has expired, the Clerk shall publish in the Business Bulletin a list of the names of all objectors who have lodged admissible objections during that period.
- 7A. Where an objector lodges an objection after the expiry of the objection period but before the first meeting of the Private Bill Committee at Consideration Stage and the objection is accompanied by a statement by the objector explaining the delay in lodging the objection, the Private Bill Committee shall consider the statement and decide whether it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the objector had good reason for not lodging the objection within the objection period;
 - (b) the objector has lodged the objection as soon as reasonably practicable after the expiry of that period; and
 - (c) consideration of such an objection would not be unreasonable having regard to the rights and interests of objectors and the promoter.
- 7B. If the Committee is so satisfied—

(a) the Clerk shall publish in the Business Bulletin the name of the objector; and

(b) the Committee shall give preliminary consideration to the objection.

8. An objection may be withdrawn by the objector.

Rule 9A.6A Statements in Relation to Consultation

1. Any of the mandatory consultees referred to in Rule 9A.1.4B may, during the objection period, lodge a statement in relation to the consultation undertaken by the promoter. Such a statement shall not be treated as an objection under Rule 9A.6.

Rule 9A.7 Stages of Private Bills

1. The procedure for a Private Bill introduced in the Parliament shall be—

(a) consideration of the general principles of the Bill and whether it should proceed as a Private Bill, preliminary consideration of objections and a decision whether to agree to those general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Private Bill (Preliminary Stage);

(b) consideration of the details of the Private Bill (Consideration Stage); and

(c) final consideration of the Private Bill and a decision whether to pass or reject it (Final Stage).

2. A Private Bill which has been passed by the Parliament may additionally be subject to reconsideration at a further stage in the circumstances described in Rule 9A.11 (Reconsideration of Private Bills passed).

2A. A Private Bill which has been rejected by the Parliament may be subject to reconsideration at a further stage in the circumstances described in Rule 9A.11.ZA (Reconsideration of Private Bills rejected).

3. The business programme shall set out the time or times at which each Stage or any part of any Stage of a Private Bill is to be taken at a meeting of the Parliament. In the case of a Stage to be taken in whole or in part by the Private Bill Committee, notice that the Stage or part of the Stage is to be taken shall be given in the agenda for the relevant committee meeting. In considering its proposals on the business programme the Parliamentary Bureau shall consult the Private Bill

Committee as to the time or times which it considers appropriate for the Private Bill.

3A. The minimum period that must elapse between the day on which Consideration Stage is completed and the day on which Final Stage starts is—

- (a) 14 sitting days if the Bill is amended at Consideration Stage;
- (b) 9 sitting days if the Bill is not amended at Consideration Stage.

3B. Where part of a Private Bill is referred back to a Private Bill Committee under Rule 9A.10.6 (for further Consideration Stage consideration) a minimum period of 9 sitting days must elapse between—

- (a) the day on which the Final Stage proceedings are adjourned and the day on which further Consideration Stage proceedings on amendments start;
- (b) the day on which Consideration Stage proceedings are completed and the day on which Final Stage proceedings resume (but only if the Bill is amended at those further Consideration Stage proceedings).

4. Subject to Rule 9A.11.ZA, if a Private Bill falls or is rejected by the Parliament, no further proceedings may be taken on the Private Bill and a Private Bill in the same or similar terms may not be introduced in the same session of the Parliament within the period of 6 months from the date on which the Private Bill fell or was rejected.

5. A Private Bill introduced in any session of the Parliament falls if a decision whether or not to pass it has not been taken by the Parliament before the end of that session (“the first session”).

6. Where a Private Bill falls under paragraph 5, the promoter may introduce a Private Bill in the same terms in the next session of the Parliament (“the second session”). If, when the Private Bill fell, the Clerk had printed and published the Private Bill at the end of Consideration Stage, the Private Bill which is introduced under this paragraph shall be in those terms.

7. No fee shall be required to be paid under Rule 9A.1.8 on the introduction of a Private Bill under paragraph 6. A Private Bill introduced under paragraph 6 does not require to be accompanied on introduction by the accompanying documents referred to in Rule 9A.2.3 (a) to (d). The accompanying documents referred to in Rule 9A.2.3 (a) to (d) and any supplementary accompanying documents which accompanied the Bill in the first session shall be used for the purposes of the Bill in the second session. Rule 9A.4 shall apply to the Bill introduced in the second session with appropriate modifications.

8. Any objections lodged during the first session shall be treated as objections to the Private Bill introduced in the second session and any decision of the Private Bill Committee taken during the first session in respect of those objections under Rule 9A.8.2 shall apply. There shall be no further objection period under Rule 9A.6.2 for the Private Bill introduced in the second session in addition to the objection period that began with the introduction of the Private Bill in the first session.

9. A promoter may only introduce a Private Bill under paragraph 6 during the period commencing with the date of the first meeting of the Parliament and ending on the thirtieth day after that date.

10. Where, at the date of dissolution the Stage that the Private Bill was at had not been completed, the proceedings on the Private Bill introduced in the second session shall commence at the beginning of that Stage, except in the circumstances set out in paragraph 11.

11. The proceedings may commence at a later point in the Stage if—

(a) to the extent that the earlier proceedings at that Stage involved the consideration by the Private Bill Committee established in the first session of evidence given orally, each person who had given such evidence either—

(i) gives that evidence orally to the Private Bill Committee established in the second session (“the new Committee”); or

(ii) agrees that the members of the new Committee may instead view a recording or read the Official Report of the proceedings of the Committee at which that evidence was given; and

(b) to any other extent, the persons referred to in Rule 9A.9.3 agree.

12. Where an assessor is appointed (under Rule 9A.9.1B) and the Parliament is dissolved before the assessor has reported, the assessor’s report shall be considered by the Private Bill Committee established in the second session.

Rule 9A.8 Preliminary Stage

1. Once a Private Bill has been printed and a Private Bill Committee has been established under Rule 9A.5, that Committee shall take Preliminary Stage of the Bill.

2. At Preliminary Stage, the Private Bill Committee shall consider and report on the general principles of the Private Bill and whether the Private Bill should proceed as a Private Bill. The Private Bill Committee shall also give preliminary consideration to the objections, if any, and shall reject any objection where the objector's interests are, in the opinion of the Committee, not clearly adversely affected by the Private Bill.

2A. Where a Private Bill Committee established to consider a Private Bill to which objections have been lodged considers it appropriate, it may during Preliminary Stage direct the Parliamentary corporation, subject to the Bill proceeding to Consideration Stage, to appoint an assessor to perform at Consideration Stage the functions set out in sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) below, or the functions set out in sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) only, namely—

- (a) to consider the admissible objections not rejected under Rule 9A.8.2 or Rule 9A.9.1A, and report with recommendations as to—
 - (i) which objections are the same or similar and so should be grouped under Rule 9A.9.4;
 - (ii) which objectors should be chosen to give evidence in relation to the objections so grouped; and
 - (iii) whether the invitations to give evidence (under Rule 9A.9.2) should be invitations to give evidence orally or in writing (or both);
- (b) to consider the evidence given to the assessor and report with such recommendations on the basis of that evidence as the assessor considers appropriate;
- (c) to undertake any tasks which the assessor is directed by the Private Bill Committee to carry out under Rule 9A.9.7G.

3. In considering whether the Private Bill should proceed as a Private Bill, the Private Bill Committee shall consider whether the Private Bill is in accordance with Rule 9A.1.1 and whether the accompanying documents lodged in accordance with Rule 9A.2.3 and the details set out therein, in the opinion of the Committee, satisfy the requirements of that Rule and are adequate to allow proper scrutiny of the Private Bill.

4. If the Committee decides that the accompanying documents lodged in accordance with Rule 9A.2.3 and the details set out therein do not satisfy the requirements of that Rule and are not adequate to allow proper scrutiny of the Private Bill, it may allow the promoter such reasonable period as the Committee considers appropriate to provide such further documents as, in the opinion of the Committee, should be provided. Any further documents provided under this paragraph are referred to as "supplementary accompanying documents".

5. A supplementary accompanying document shall be in the same form as would have been required had it been an accompanying document.
6. The Clerk shall arrange for any supplementary accompanying document, except any of the documents referred to in Rule 9A.2.3(c)(ii) and (iii) and (e), to be printed and published. The Clerk shall send a copy of any supplementary accompanying document published in accordance with this paragraph to the premises to which the document would have been sent under Rule 9A.4.2 if the document had been provided as an accompanying document.
7. Only members of the Parliament who are members of the Private Bill Committee shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings of the Private Bill Committee at Preliminary Stage.
8. Once the Private Bill Committee has reported on the Private Bill, the Parliament shall decide in the light of the Committee's report, on a motion of the Convener of the Private Bill Committee, whether to agree to those general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Private Bill.
9. Any member may by motion propose that the Private Bill be referred back to the Private Bill Committee for a further report on the general principles of the Private Bill or whether the Bill should proceed as a Private Bill before the Parliament decides whether to agree to the general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Private Bill. If the motion is agreed to, consideration of the Bill's general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Private Bill is adjourned to a time to be determined by the Parliamentary Bureau. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer the Private Bill back to the Private Bill Committee which shall prepare a further report in accordance with the Parliament's decision.
10. If the Parliament agrees to the Private Bill's general principles and that the Private Bill should proceed as a Private Bill, the Private Bill proceeds to Consideration Stage. If the Parliament does not agree to the Private Bill's general principles or does not agree that the Private Bill should proceed as a Private Bill, the Private Bill falls.

Rule 9A.9 Consideration Stage

1. The Private Bill Committee shall take Consideration Stage of the Bill.
 - 1A. The Private Bill Committee may at Consideration Stage give preliminary consideration to an objection to which Rule 9A.6.7A applies if it was not reasonably practicable to give such consideration at Preliminary Stage.
 - 1AA. Paragraphs 1B to 4B apply only where there are one or more admissible objections which have not been rejected at Preliminary Stage or following preliminary consideration under paragraph 1A.
 - 1B. Where a direction under Rule 9A.8.2A was made at Preliminary Stage, the Parliamentary corporation shall, at Consideration Stage, appoint as assessor such person as it considers suitably qualified, subject to such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate.
2. The Private Bill Committee shall invite those persons mentioned in paragraph 3, and may invite other persons, to give evidence; and any such invitation may be to give evidence orally or in writing (or both). Where an assessor has been appointed in accordance with paragraph 1B, any such invitation shall be an invitation to give evidence to that assessor.
3. The persons referred to in paragraph 2 are—
 - (a) the promoter;
 - (b) any objector chosen under paragraph 4 to give evidence in relation to the objections grouped under that paragraph; and
 - (c) any objector whose objection has not been grouped with another objector under paragraph 4 (except where it appears to the Committee that the objector's interests are no longer adversely affected by the Private Bill).
4. Where the Private Bill Committee considers (whether or not on the basis of a recommendation by an assessor) that two or more objections are the same or similar, it may group those objections together and choose one or more objectors from that group to give evidence in relation to those objections.
- 4A. The Private Bill Committee shall consider the merits of the objections in the light of—
 - (a) any evidence given to it; or

(b) any report prepared by an assessor appointed in accordance with Rule 9A.9.1B.

4B. The Private Bill Committee may accept or reject—

(a) the whole or any part of any objection;

(b) the whole or any part of an assessor's report,

and may take such other steps as the Committee thinks fit (which may include referring further matters to an assessor for consideration and report or itself taking further evidence).

5. At Consideration Stage, each section and schedule and the long title of the Private Bill shall be considered separately and the Private Bill Committee shall decide whether to agree to them. The question whether a section or schedule or the long title be agreed to shall be put by the convener without the need for any member to move a motion to that effect. Sections or schedules to which no amendments are proposed and which fall to be considered consecutively may be taken and agreed to together.

6. The Private Bill Committee shall decide the order in which the sections and schedules of the Private Bill are to be considered at Consideration Stage. If it does not decide, the sections shall be taken in the order in which they arise in the Private Bill, with each schedule taken immediately after the section which introduces it. The long title shall be taken last.

7. A Private Bill may be amended at Consideration Stage. Notice of an amendment may be given by any member of the Private Bill Committee not earlier than—

(a) where the merits of objections are considered by the Committee under paragraph 4A, the completion of that consideration;

(b) where sub-paragraph (a) does not apply, but there has been preliminary consideration of objections under paragraph 1A, the completion of that preliminary consideration;

(c) in any other case, the completion of Preliminary Stage.

7A. There must be at least 5 sitting days between the day on which notice of an amendment may first be given under paragraph 7 and the day on which the consideration referred to in paragraphs 7B and 7C is to begin.

7B. Following the end of the period for lodging amendments under Rule 9A.12.2, the Private Bill Committee shall consider whether, in its view, any of the amendments lodged adversely affect private interests.

7C. Where the Committee decides that any amendments adversely affect private interests, it shall consider whether, in its view, any of those amendments have sufficient merit that there is a possibility of their being agreed to after further scrutiny.

7D. Where the Committee decides that an amendment which adversely affects private interests does not have the merit described in paragraph 7C, that amendment may not be moved.

7E. Where the Committee decides that any amendments which adversely affect private interests have the merit described in paragraph 7C, no amendments (whether or not affecting private interests) may be moved unless the tasks listed in paragraph 7H have been completed in relation to each amendment having such merit.

7F. In the case of an amendment that has been or is to be lodged on behalf of the promoter, the promoter shall be responsible for performing the task described in paragraph 7H(a).

7G. Subject to paragraph 7F, the Committee may direct any assessor appointed under Rule 9A.9.1B to perform any or all of the tasks listed in paragraph 7H, or it may perform any or all of these tasks itself. Where any of these tasks is to be carried out by the promoter or an assessor, the Committee may, to the extent that it considers appropriate, specify the manner in which it is to be performed, including by specifying the persons (or classes of person) to be notified under paragraph 7H(a) and the duration of any period for lodging objections.

7H. The tasks are—

- (a) notifying the holders of private interests adversely affected by the amendment of its terms and implications and of how they may lodge an objection to it;
- (b) where admissible objections are lodged, taking evidence from objectors and from the promoter;
- (c) where such evidence is taken, considering that evidence and reaching conclusions (or, in the case of an assessor, reporting to the Committee with recommendations).

7J. Paragraphs 3 to 6, 7A and 8 of Rule 9A.6, and paragraphs 2 to 4B of Rule 9A.9, apply to objections to amendments as they apply to objections to Private Bills, subject to the modifications contained in paragraphs 7K to 7N.

7K. In Rule 9A.6.5—

- (a) sub-paragraph (c) is omitted;
- (b) in sub-paragraph (d), for “Private Bill” there is substituted “amendment”.

7L. In Rule 9A.6.7A—

- (a) “the objection period” means the period for lodging objections to amendments adversely affecting private interests;
- (b) before “at Consideration Stage” there is inserted “to consider amendments”.

7M. In Rule 9A.9.2, the final sentence is omitted.

7N. In Rule 9A.9.3(c), for “Private Bill” there is substituted “amendment”.

8. At Consideration Stage, amendments to any section or schedule or to the long title shall be disposed of before the Private Bill Committee considers whether to agree to the provision in question. Where no amendments are proposed to a section, a schedule or the long title, the Private Bill Committee shall proceed immediately to decide the question whether that provision be agreed to. If an amendment to leave out a section or schedule is disagreed to, that section or schedule shall be treated as agreed to.

9. Only members of the Parliament who are members of the Private Bill Committee shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings of the Private Bill Committee at Consideration Stage.

10. At the end of Consideration Stage, the Clerk shall, if the Private Bill has been amended, arrange for the Private Bill as amended to be printed and published.

Rule 9A.10 Final Stage

1. Final Stage of a Private Bill shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament.

2. At Final Stage, the Parliament shall decide, on a motion of the Convener of the Private Bill Committee (“the Final Stage motion”), whether the Private Bill be passed.

3. A Private Bill may be amended at Final Stage. Notice of an amendment may be given by any member after completion of Consideration Stage.
4. The Presiding Officer may select, as the Presiding Officer sees fit, those amendments which are to be taken at Final Stage from amongst the admissible amendments of which notice has been given.
5. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which amendments are to be disposed of, they shall be disposed of in the order in which the sections and schedules to which they relate arise in the Private Bill. Amendments to the long title shall be taken last.
 - 5A. After any amendments have been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk.
 - 5B. Immediately after the Presiding Officer has made the statement, the Convener of the Private Bill Committee may by motion without notice propose that the remaining proceedings at Final Stage be adjourned to a later day. Such a motion may not be debated or amended. If the motion is agreed to, the Convener of the Private Bill Committee may give notice of amendments to the Private Bill to be moved at the adjourned proceedings. Such amendments are only admissible if, in addition to the criteria in Rule 9A.12.5, they are for the purpose of clarifying uncertainties or giving effect to commitments given on behalf of the promoter at the earlier proceedings at Final Stage. After any amendments have been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. If the motion is not agreed to, the Parliament shall proceed immediately to debate the Final Stage motion.
6. At the beginning of the debate on the Final Stage motion, the Convener of the Private Bill Committee may by motion propose that such part of the Private Bill as may be specified in the motion be referred back to the Private Bill Committee for further Consideration Stage consideration. If the motion is agreed to, the proceedings are adjourned to a time to be determined by the Parliamentary Bureau which shall refer the Private Bill to the Private Bill Committee. When Final Stage proceedings resume, the Private Bill may be amended, but amendments are only admissible if they are to the provisions which were referred back to the Private Bill Committee or if they are necessary in consequence of any amendment made at the further Consideration Stage proceedings.

7. This Rule, apart from paragraph 6, shall apply to the resumed Final Stage proceedings as it applies to the initial Final Stage proceedings.

8. The question on the Final Stage motion must be decided by division.

9. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Private Bill shall be treated as rejected.

10. Where the Presiding Officer has made a statement that in his or her view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Private Bill is passed only if a super-majority is achieved and is otherwise treated as rejected.

11. If the Presiding Officer has made more than one statement as to whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, only the most recent statement is to be used in applying paragraph 10.

Rule 9A.11 Reconsideration of Private Bills Passed

1. Any member may, after the Private Bill is passed, by motion propose that the Parliament resolve that it wishes to reconsider the Private Bill if—

(a) a question in relation to the Private Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33;

(b) a reference for a preliminary ruling (within the meaning of section 34(3)) has been made by the Supreme Court in connection with that reference; and

(c) neither of those references has been decided or otherwise disposed of.

2. Any member may by motion propose that the Parliament resolve to reconsider the Private Bill if—

(a) the Supreme Court decides that the Private Bill or any provision of it would not be within the legislative competence of the Parliament;

(b) an order is made in relation to the Private Bill under section 35 (order prohibiting Presiding Officer from submitting Private Bill for Royal Assent); or

(c) the Supreme Court decides on a reference made in relation to the Private Bill under section 32A(2)(b) that any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter.

3. Proceedings at Reconsideration Stage shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament.

4. A Private Bill may be amended at Reconsideration Stage but amendments are admissible only if, in addition to the criteria in Rule 9A.12.5, they are for the purpose of resolving the problem which is the subject of the reference for a preliminary ruling or which is the subject of the decision of the Supreme Court referred to in paragraph 2(a) or the order under section 35. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which amendments are to be disposed of, they shall be disposed of in the order in which the provisions to which they relate arise in the Private Bill. In the case of a Private Bill referred to in paragraph 2(c) no amendment may be made at Reconsideration Stage.

5. The Presiding Officer shall state, after any amendments have been disposed of and before the debate on the motion that the Private Bill be approved, whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. The Parliament shall then consider and decide by division, on a motion of the Convener of the Private Bill Committee, the question whether to approve the Private Bill. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Private Bill shall be treated as rejected. Where the statement is that in the Presiding Officer's view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Private Bill is not approved unless a super-majority is achieved.

9A.11ZA Reconsideration of Private Bills Rejected

1. Any member may, after the Private Bill is rejected, by motion propose that the Parliament resolve to reconsider the Private Bill if, following a reference to the Supreme Court under section 32A(2)(a), the Court has decided that no provision that is subject to the reference relates to a protected subject-matter.

2. Proceedings at Reconsideration Stage shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament. The Private Bill may not be amended at Reconsideration Stage.

3. Before the debate on the motion that the Private Bill be approved, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Private Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. The Parliament shall then consider and decide by division, on a motion of the Convener of the Private Bill Committee, the question whether to approve the Private Bill. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Private Bill shall be treated as rejected.

Rule 9A.11A Change of Promoter

1. This Rule applies where the individual who, or body corporate or unincorporated association of persons which, introduced the Private Bill (“the original promoter”) no longer wishes or is no longer able to obtain the powers or benefits referred to in Rule 9A.1.1, and another individual, body corporate or unincorporated association of persons (“the new promoter”) wishes to obtain those powers or benefits.
2. The new promoter shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, lodge with the Clerk a memorandum setting out the reasons for and the circumstances of the change of promoter.
3. The Private Bill Committee shall, taking account of the memorandum lodged under paragraph 2 and any further information from the new promoter that it may require, consider the implications of the change of promoter for the rights and interests of the objectors and for the progress of the Bill.
4. The Committee may, if it considers it appropriate in order to protect the rights or interests of objectors or to ensure the proper scrutiny of the Private Bill—
 - (a) require the new promoter to lodge supplementary accompanying documents (and Rule 9A.8.6 shall apply to any such document as it applies to a supplementary accompanying document under Rule 9A.8.4);
 - (b) require the new promoter to give such undertakings as the Private Bill Committee considers appropriate;

- (c) require proceedings on the Bill at Preliminary or Consideration Stage, if either Stage was not completed at the time the statement under paragraph 2 was lodged, to begin again;
- (d) report to the Parliament on the implications of the change of promoter, with a recommendation that the Bill should not proceed with the new promoter.

5. A report under paragraph 4(d) shall be considered by the Parliament on a motion of the convener of the Committee inviting the Parliament to agree the Committee's recommendation. If the motion is agreed to, the Bill falls. If the motion is not agreed to, the Private Bill Committee shall continue to consider the Bill.

Rule 9A.12 Amendments to Private Bills

- 1. Amendments to a Private Bill shall be in such form as the Presiding Officer may determine.
- 2. Subject to paragraph 6, where a member intends to move an amendment to a Private Bill at Consideration Stage or Reconsideration Stage, that member shall give notice of the amendment by lodging it with the Clerk no later than 2 sitting days before the day on which consideration of amendments at that Stage is due to start. On the final day on which notice of amendments may be given before Consideration Stage or Reconsideration Stage, notice of amendments must be given by 14:00.
- 2A. Subject to paragraph 6, where a member intends to move an amendment to a Bill at Final Stage, that member shall give notice of the amendment by lodging it with the Clerk no later than 8 sitting days before the day on which that Stage is due to start.
- 3. Notice of an amendment shall set out the text of the amendment, together with the name of the member proposing it. Up to 4 other members may indicate their support for an amendment (other than a manuscript amendment) by notifying the Clerk at any time during the period when notice of that amendment may be given.
- 4. The convener, or as the case may be, the Presiding Officer, shall determine any dispute as to whether an amendment of which notice has been given is admissible. Notice of admissible amendments shall be published in the Business Bulletin.
- 5. An amendment is admissible unless—
 - (a) it is not in proper form;

- (b) it is not relevant to the Private Bill or the provisions of the Private Bill which it would amend;
- (c) it is inconsistent with the general principles of the Private Bill as agreed by the Parliament; or
- (d) it is inconsistent with a decision already taken on an amendment at the Stage at which the amendment is proposed.

6. An amendment of which less notice has been given than is required under paragraph 2 or 2A above is referred to as a “manuscript amendment”. A manuscript amendment may be moved only with the agreement of the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer. Such agreement shall be given only if the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer considers it is justified, in the circumstances, taking account of the disadvantages of lack of proper notice.

7. An amendment may be made to an amendment and this Rule shall apply accordingly.

7A. An amendment (other than a manuscript amendment) may be withdrawn by the member who lodged it at any time during the period when notice of that amendment may be given, but only with the unanimous agreement of any members who have indicated their support for the amendment. If such agreement is not obtained, the amendment becomes an amendment in the name of the member who first indicated that member’s support for the amendment and who does not agree to the amendment being withdrawn.

8. Where notice of amendments to a Private Bill has been given, the Clerk shall prepare, for each day of proceedings on the Private Bill at which amendments are to be considered, a marshalled list of the admissible amendments proposed. The list shall set out the amendments so far as not disposed of in the order in which they are to be disposed of as determined by the Clerk. The list shall exclude—

- (a) at Consideration Stage, amendments which may not be moved by virtue of Rule 9A.9.7D;
- (b) at Final Stage, amendments not selected by the Presiding Officer; and
- (c) at any Stage, manuscript amendments which may not be moved because agreement has been refused under paragraph 6.

The Clerk shall arrange for the marshalled list to be published.

9. An amendment to insert a new section or schedule shall normally specify where it is to be inserted and shall be disposed of accordingly.
10. An amendment to an amendment shall be disposed of before the amendment which it would amend.
11. An amendment at any Stage which would be inconsistent with a decision already taken on an amendment at the same Stage shall not be taken.
12. The convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer may group amendments for the purposes of debate as that person sees fit. The Clerk shall arrange for any groupings to be published. An amendment debated as part of a group may not be debated again when it comes to be disposed of.
13. The member moving an amendment may speak in support of it. Other members may speak on an amendment at the discretion of the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer.
14. At Consideration Stage, only members of the Private Bill Committee may give notice of, indicate their support for and move amendments.
15. If a member who has given notice of an amendment does not move the amendment when that amendment comes to be disposed of, the amendment may, in the case of an amendment at Final Stage, be moved by any other member present at those proceedings and in the case of an amendment at Consideration Stage, by any other member of the Private Bill Committee present at those proceedings.
16. An amendment may be withdrawn by the member who moved it, but only if no member of the Private Bill Committee or, as the case may be, the Parliament present at the proceedings objects.

Rule 9A.13 Crown Consent

1. Where a Private Bill contains provisions, or is amended so as to include provisions, which would, if the Private Bill were a Bill for an Act of the United Kingdom Parliament, require the consent of His Majesty, the Prince and Steward of Scotland or the Duke of Cornwall, the Parliament shall not debate any question whether the Private Bill be passed or approved unless such consent to those provisions has been signified by a member of the Scottish Government during proceedings on the Private Bill at a meeting of the Parliament.

Rule 9A.14 Financial Resolutions

1. A resolution under this Rule is referred to as “a Financial Resolution”.
2. The Presiding Officer shall decide in every case whether a resolution is required for a Private Bill under paragraph 3, 3A, 3B, 3C or 4 of this Rule.
3. Where a Private Bill contains provisions—
 - (a) which charge expenditure on the Scottish Consolidated Fund, or
 - (b) the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly expenditure charged on that Fund,

no proceedings may be taken on the Private Bill at any Stage after Preliminary Stage unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the expenditure or the increase in expenditure being charged on that Fund.

3A. Where a Private Bill contains provisions the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly expenditure payable out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund for any purpose, no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the increase in expenditure being payable out of that Fund.

3B. Where a Private Bill contains provisions—

- (a) which impose (or confer a power to impose) any tax; or
- (b) which increase (or confer a power to increase) any tax, the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly the revenue from that tax,

no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the imposition or increase.

3C. Where a Private Bill contains provisions which reduce (or confer a power to reduce) any tax, the likely effect of which would be to reduce significantly revenue from the tax, no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the reduction in revenue.

4. Where—

- (a) a Private Bill contains provisions which impose or increase (or confer a power to impose or increase) any charge (other than a tax), or otherwise require (or confer a power to require) any payment to be made; and

(b) the person to whom the charge or payment is payable is required, by or under any enactment, to pay sums received into the Scottish Consolidated Fund (or would be so required but for any provision made by or under an Act of the Scottish Parliament), no proceedings may be taken on the Private Bill at any Stage after Preliminary Stage unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the charge, increase or payment.

5. Paragraph 4—

(a) applies only where the charge, increase in charge or payment is significant; and

(b) does not apply where the charge, increase in charge or payment—

(i) is in respect of the provision of goods and is reasonable in relation to the goods provided;

(ii) is wholly or largely directed to the recovery of the cost of providing any service for which the charge is imposed or the payment requires to be made; or

(iii) would otherwise result in no significant net gain or loss to the Scottish Consolidated Fund.

6. Where the effect of an amendment (or amendments) to a Private Bill, if agreed to, would be that the Private Bill would require a resolution under this Rule which it would not otherwise require, no proceedings may be taken on the amendment (or amendments) unless the Parliament has agreed to a motion for such a resolution.

7. Only a member of the Scottish Government or a junior Scottish Minister may give notice of a motion for a Financial Resolution. The motion may be moved only by a member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister, whether or not that person has given notice of it or indicated support for it. Such a motion may not be amended.

8. Unless—

(a) notice of a motion for any resolution required in relation to a Private Bill by paragraph 3 or 4 is given within 6 months of the completion of Preliminary Stage; and

(b) the motion is agreed to,
the Bill falls.

Rule 9A.15 Withdrawal of Private Bills

1. A Private Bill may be withdrawn at any time by the promoter. Where a Private Bill is withdrawn a Private Bill in the same or similar terms may not be introduced by the same promoter within a period of 6 months from the date on which the Private Bill was withdrawn.

Chapter 9B

Consent in Relation to UK Parliament Bills

Rule 9B.1 UK Parliament Bills Making Provision Requiring the Parliament's Consent

1. In this Chapter, a “relevant Bill” is a Bill under consideration in the UK Parliament which makes provision (“relevant provision”) applying to Scotland for any purpose within the legislative competence of the Parliament, or which alters that legislative competence or the executive competence of the Scottish Ministers.

Rule 9B.2 Motions on Legislative Consent

1. A motion seeking the Parliament’s consent or refusal of consent to any or all relevant provisions in a relevant Bill shall be known as a motion on legislative consent. A motion on legislative consent shall identify the relevant Bill by reference to its short title and the House of the UK Parliament in which and the date on which it was introduced.

1A. A motion on legislative consent may seek either or both—

(a) consent to one or more relevant provisions, and

(b) refusal of consent to one or more other relevant provisions.

1B. A motion on legislative consent must identify each relevant provision in relation to which consent or refusal of consent is sought.

1C. A member of the Scottish Government shall normally lodge a motion on legislative consent for a relevant Bill in relation to which a legislative consent memorandum has been lodged under Rule 9B.3.1.

2. A motion on legislative consent shall not normally be lodged until after the publication of the lead committee’s report.

3. Every motion on legislative consent lodged shall be taken in the Parliament. The Parliament shall not normally take such a motion earlier than the fifth sitting day after the day on which the lead committee’s report under Rule 9B.3.5 below is published.

Rule 9B.3 Legislative Consent Memorandums

1. A member of the Scottish Government shall lodge with the Clerk a memorandum (“a legislative consent memorandum”) in relation to—

(a) any Government Bill that is a relevant Bill on introduction, normally no later than 2 weeks after introduction;

(b) any Private Member's Bill that was a relevant Bill on introduction and remains a relevant Bill after the first amending stage in the House in which it was introduced, normally no later than 2 weeks after it completes that stage;

(c) any Bill that, by virtue of amendments—

(i) agreed to; or

(ii) tabled by a Minister of the Crown or published with the name of a Minister of the Crown in support, in either House, makes (or would make) relevant provision for the first time or beyond the limits of any consent previously given by the Parliament, normally no later than 2 weeks after the amendments are tabled or agreed to.

2. Any member (other than a member of the Scottish Government) who intends to lodge a motion on legislative consent in relation to a relevant Bill shall first lodge with the Clerk a legislative consent memorandum, but shall not normally do so until after a member of the Scottish Government has lodged a legislative consent memorandum in respect of that Bill.

3. A legislative consent memorandum shall—

(a) summarise what the Bill does and its policy objectives;

(b) specify the extent to which the Bill makes provision—

(i) for any purpose within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament; or

(ii) to alter that legislative competence or the executive competence of the Scottish Ministers;

(c) in the case of a memorandum lodged by a member (including a member of the Scottish Government) who intends to lodge a motion on legislative consent seeking the Parliament's consent or refusal of consent to any relevant provision, set out a draft of the motion and explain why the member considers it appropriate that—

(i) any relevant provision in relation to which consent is sought is made by means of the Bill;

(ii) any relevant provision in relation to which refusal of consent is sought is not made by means of the Bill; and

(d) in the case of a memorandum lodged by a member of the Scottish Government who does not intend to lodge a motion on legislative consent (for the time being), explain why not.

4. Notice of any legislative consent memorandum lodged shall be given in the Business Bulletin. The Clerk shall arrange for the memorandum to be published.

5. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer any legislative consent memorandum to the committee within whose remit the subject matter of the relevant provision falls. That committee (referred to as “the lead committee”) shall consider and report on the legislative consent memorandum. Where the subject matter of the relevant provision falls within the remit of more than one committee the Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, designate one of those committees as the lead committee. The other committee or committees (“the secondary committee or committees”) may also consider the legislative consent memorandum and report its or their view to the lead committee.

6. In any case where the Bill that is the subject of the memorandum contains provisions conferring on the Scottish Ministers powers to make subordinate legislation, the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall consider and may report to the lead committee on those provisions.

Chapter 9BA

Consent In Relation to Orders Under the Public Bodies Act 2011

Rule 9BA.1 Orders Under the Public Bodies Act 2011 Requiring the Parliament's Consent

Rule 9BA.2 Public Bodies Act Consent Motions

1. A motion seeking the Parliament’s consent to a Public Bodies Act order shall be known as a Public Bodies Act consent motion. A Public Bodies Act consent motion shall identify the relevant Public Bodies Act order by reference to its title and the date on which it was laid before the UK Parliament.
2. A Public Bodies Act consent motion shall not normally be lodged until after the publication of the lead committee’s report.

1. A member of the Scottish Government shall lodge with the Clerk a memorandum (“a Public Bodies Act consent memorandum”) in relation to any Public Bodies Act order, normally no later than one week after it is laid before the UK Parliament.
2. Any member (other than a member of the Scottish Government) who intends to lodge a Public Bodies Act consent motion in relation to a Public Bodies Act order shall first lodge with the Clerk a Public Bodies Act consent memorandum, but shall not normally do so until after a member of the Scottish Government has lodged a Public Bodies Act consent memorandum in respect of that order.
3. A Public Bodies Act consent memorandum shall—
 - (a) be accompanied by a copy of the relevant Public Bodies Act order;
 - (b) summarise what the order does and its policy objectives;

- (c) explain which provisions of the order give rise to the requirement for the consent of the Parliament under section 9 of the Act and why such consent is required;
- (d) in the case of a memorandum lodged by a member (including a member of the Scottish Government) who intends to lodge a Public Bodies Act consent motion, set out a draft of the motion and explain why the member considers it appropriate for those provisions to be made and for them to be made by means of the order; and
- (e) in the case of a memorandum lodged by a member of the Scottish Government who does not intend to lodge a Public Bodies Act consent motion, explain why not.

4. Notice of any Public Bodies Act consent memorandum lodged shall be given in the Business Bulletin. The Clerk shall arrange for the memorandum and the copy order to be published.

5. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer any Public Bodies Act consent memorandum to the committee within whose remit the subject matter of the relevant provisions falls. That committee (referred to as “the lead committee”) shall consider and report on the memorandum. Where the subject matter of the relevant provisions falls within the remit of more than one committee the Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, designate one of those committees as the lead committee. The other committee or committees (“the secondary committee or committees”) may also consider the memorandum and report its or their view to the lead committee.

6. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer any Public Bodies Act order to the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11, which shall consider the order and report to the Parliament and the lead committee normally no later than 20 days, and in any event no later than 22 days, after the relevant Public Bodies Act consent memorandum is lodged (excluding any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or is in recess for more than 4 days). In considering the order, the committee shall determine whether the attention of the Parliament should be drawn to it on any of the grounds mentioned in Rule 10.3.1, so far as applicable.

7. In preparing its report, the lead committee shall take into account the reports of the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 and any secondary committee which has submitted its views under Rule 9BA.3.5.

Chapter 9C

Hybrid Bill Procedures

2. A Hybrid Bill to which this paragraph applies is a Hybrid Bill which seeks to authorise the construction or alteration of such classes of works as may be determined by the Presiding Officer or a Hybrid Bill which seeks to authorise the compulsory acquisition or use of any land or buildings.
3. The Clerk shall arrange for all determinations made by the Presiding Officer or the Parliamentary corporation under this Chapter to be published and notified to the Parliament.
4. A Hybrid Bill may be introduced on a sitting day.
5. A Hybrid Bill shall be introduced by being lodged with the Clerk.
6. A Hybrid Bill may not be introduced unless it is in proper form. The Presiding Officer shall determine the proper form of Hybrid Bills.
7. A Hybrid Bill to which paragraph 2 applies may not be introduced unless the Scottish Ministers have carried out the consultation referred to in paragraph 8.
8. The Presiding Officer shall determine which bodies are to be consulted (“the mandatory consultees”) and the nature of the consultation to be carried out with them by the Scottish Ministers under paragraph 7.
9. A Hybrid Bill must, before introduction, be signed by the member in charge and may also be signed by any other member or members who support the Bill.
10. The Clerk shall ensure that notice of the introduction of a Hybrid Bill in the Parliament is published in the Business Bulletin. Such notice shall set out the short and long titles of the Hybrid Bill, the name of the member who has introduced it, the name of any member supporting the Bill and shall indicate that it is a Hybrid Bill.

11. A Hybrid Bill must not be introduced in the Parliament if it contains any provision which would have the effect of authorising sums to be paid out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund (as opposed to a provision which charges expenditure on that Fund).

Rule 9C.2 Member in Charge

1. The “member in charge” of a Hybrid Bill is—

- (a) the member of the Scottish Government who introduces the Bill, or who is subsequently appointed by the First Minister to take general responsibility for the subject matter of the Bill; or
- (b) a junior Scottish Minister designated by that member.

2. Any designation under paragraph 1(b) shall be made in writing to the Clerk and does not prevent the member referred to in paragraph 1(a) from exercising any of the rights that are conferred by these Rules on the member in charge of the Bill.

3. A designation under paragraph 1(b) shall no longer have effect if the member so designated ceases to be a junior Scottish Minister.

Rule 9C.3 Accompanying Documents

 - (ii) whether alternative ways of meeting those objectives were considered and, if so, why the approach taken in the Bill was adopted;
 - (iii) the consultation which was undertaken on those objectives and the ways of meeting them and on the detail of the Bill and a summary of the outcome of that consultation (including, in the case of a Hybrid Bill to which Rule 9C.1.2 applies, the consultation carried out in accordance with Rule 9C.1.7); and
 - (iv) an assessment of the effects, if any, of the Bill on equal opportunities, human rights, island communities, local government, sustainable development and any other matter which the Scottish Ministers consider relevant;
- (f) in the case of a Bill other than a Bill to which Rule 9C.1.2 applies, a Financial Memorandum which sets out best estimates of the costs, savings, and changes to revenues to which the provisions of the Bill would give rise, and an indication of the margins of uncertainty in such estimates. The Financial Memorandum must also include best estimates of the timescales over which such costs, savings, and changes to revenues would be expected to arise. The Financial Memorandum must distinguish separately such costs, savings, and changes to revenues as would fall upon—
 - (i) the Scottish Administration;
 - (ii) local authorities; and
 - (iii) other bodies, individuals and businesses;
- (g) in the case of a Bill to which Rule 9C.1.2 applies—

(i) a Financial Memorandum which shall set out: the estimated total cost for the project under the Bill, including a detailed cost breakdown for each element of the project; administrative, compliance and other costs to which the provisions of the Bill would give rise; a detailed breakdown of all anticipated and committed sources of funding for both capital and revenue costs; best estimates of the timescales over which such costs would be expected to arise; and an indication of the margins of uncertainty in such estimates. The Financial Memorandum must distinguish separately such costs as would fall upon—

(i) the person upon whom, or the body upon which, the power is conferred and the form in which the power is to be exercised;

(ii) why it is considered appropriate to delegate the power; and

(iii) the Parliamentary procedure (if any) to which the exercise of the power is to be subject, and why it was considered appropriate to make it subject to that procedure (or not to make it subject to any such procedure);

(h) a Scottish Ministers' Statement which sets out—

2. The Clerk shall send a copy of the Bill and the accompanying documents to the premises listed in the Scottish Ministers' Statement by virtue of Rule 9C.3.2(h)(iii) and, in the case of a Bill to which Rule 9C.1.2 applies, to the mandatory consultees referred to in Rule 9C.1.8.

Rule 9C.5 [deleted]

Rule 9C.6 Hybrid Bill Committees

1. After a Hybrid Bill has been introduced, the Parliament shall, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau under Rule 6.1.3, establish a committee (a "Hybrid Bill Committee") to consider and report on the Bill's general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill. Where the subject matter of the Bill falls within the remit of a committee or committees other than the Hybrid Bill Committee, the other committee or committees may also consider the general principles of the Bill and report its or their views to the Hybrid Bill Committee.

2. A Hybrid Bill Committee shall have at least 3 but not more than 5 members.

 - (e) that member has a financial interest that, in the opinion of the Parliamentary Bureau, directly relates to the subject-matter of the Hybrid Bill; or
 - (f) that member has any interest registered in the Register of Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament ("the Register") which, in the opinion of the Parliamentary Bureau, would, or would be likely to, prejudice the ability of the member to participate in proceedings of the Committee in an impartial manner.
4. For the purposes of paragraph 3(e), any member whose name is proposed to the Parliamentary Bureau as a prospective member of a Hybrid Bill Committee shall bring to the attention of the Parliamentary Bureau any financial interest held by the member in relation to the subject-matter of the Bill which is not registered in the Register.
5. Each member of a Hybrid Bill Committee shall, at the first meeting that member attends, declare to act impartially, in that member's capacity as a member of the Committee, and to base decisions solely on the evidence and information provided to the Committee.
6. A Hybrid Bill Committee shall not normally meet or continue to meet at a time when a meeting of the Parliament is in progress (within the meaning of Rule 12.3.3A), but may do so if—
 - (a) it is necessary for it to do so at that time;

- (b) where reasonably practicable, the prior approval of the Parliamentary Bureau has been obtained; and

9A. If, as a result of the operation of paragraph 9, the number of members able to participate in the consideration of any objection is less than half the membership of the Committee, the Committee shall offer those persons who previously gave (or were offered an opportunity to give) evidence on the objection, including the member in charge, another opportunity to give such evidence. If any person offered that opportunity does not take it, that person's agreement under paragraph 6(b) is no longer required.

Rule 9C.7 Objections

1. An individual person who, or a body corporate or unincorporated association of persons which, considers that the private interests of that individual, body corporate or unincorporated association of persons would be adversely affected by a Hybrid Bill introduced in the Parliament (an “objector”) may lodge an objection to the Bill during the objection period.
2. In these Rules, “the objection period” is the period commencing at the beginning of the day after the date of introduction of the Hybrid Bill and ending at 17:00 on the sixtieth day after the date of introduction or, where the sixtieth day falls on a day when the office of the Clerk is closed, at 17:00 on the first day after that sixtieth day on which the office of the Clerk is open. In calculating the objection period no account shall be taken of any time when the office of the Clerk is closed for more than 4 days or, if the Parliament is dissolved during the objection period, of any period beginning on the day of dissolution and ending on the date of introduction of a Bill under Rule 9C.9.9.
3. An objection may be lodged by its—

 - (b) being sent by e-mail from the objector’s e-mail address.
4. The Presiding Officer shall determine the proper form of objections.
5. An objection is admissible only if it—
 - (a) is in proper form;
 - (b) sets out the nature of the objection;
 - (c) explains whether the objection lies against the whole Hybrid Bill or specified provisions;
 - (d) specifies how the objector’s interests would be adversely affected by the Hybrid Bill; and
 - (e) is accompanied by any fee for lodging objections that may be determined by the Parliamentary corporation.

6. The Clerk shall notify the objector whether an objection which has been lodged is admissible.
7. After the objection period has expired, the Clerk shall publish in the Business Bulletin a list of the names of all objectors who have lodged admissible objections during that period.
8. Where an objector lodges an objection after the expiry of the objection period but before the first meeting of the Hybrid Bill Committee at Stage 2 and the objection is accompanied by a statement by the objector explaining the delay in lodging the objection, the Committee shall consider the statement and decide whether it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the objector had good reason for not lodging the objection within the objection period;
 - (b) the objector has lodged the objection as soon as reasonably practicable after the expiry of that period; and
 - (c) consideration of such an objection would not be unreasonable having regard to the rights and interests of objectors and the Scottish Government.
9. If the Committee is so satisfied—
 - (a) the Clerk shall publish in the Business Bulletin the name of the objector; and
 - (b) the Committee shall give preliminary consideration to the objection.
10. An objection may be withdrawn by the objector.

Rule 9C.8 Statements by Mandatory Consultees

1. Any of the mandatory consultees referred to in Rule 9C.1.8 may, during the objection period, lodge a statement in relation to the consultation undertaken by the Scottish Ministers. Such a statement shall not be treated as an objection under Rule 9C.7.

1. The procedure for a Hybrid Bill introduced in the Parliament shall be—
 - (a) Stage 1—

- (i) consideration of the general principles of the Bill and a decision whether to agree to those general principles;

3. The business programme shall set out the time or times at which each Stage or any part of any Stage of a Hybrid Bill is to be taken at a meeting of the Parliament. In the case of a Stage to be taken in whole or in part by the Hybrid Bill Committee, notice that the Stage or part of the Stage is to be taken shall be given in the agenda for the relevant committee meeting. In considering its proposals on the business programme the Parliamentary Bureau shall consult the Hybrid Bill Committee as to the time or times which it considers appropriate for the Bill.

4. The minimum period that must elapse between the day on which Stage 1 is completed and the day on which consideration of amendments at Stage 2 starts is 12 sitting days.

5. The minimum period that must elapse between the day on which Stage 2 is completed and the day on which Stage 3 starts is 15 sitting days.

6. Where part of a Hybrid Bill is referred back to a Hybrid Bill Committee under Rule 9C.12.11 (for further Stage 2 consideration) a minimum period of 9 sitting days must elapse between—

(b) the day on which further Stage 2 proceedings are completed and the day on which Stage 3 proceedings resume (but only if the Bill is amended at those further Stage 2 proceedings).

7. Subject to Rule 9C.13A, if a Hybrid Bill falls or is rejected by the Parliament, no further proceedings shall be taken on the Bill and a Hybrid Bill in the same or similar terms may not be introduced in the same session of the Parliament within the period of 6 months from the date on which the Hybrid Bill fell or was rejected.

8. A Hybrid Bill introduced in any session of the Parliament falls if a decision whether or not to pass it has not been taken by the Parliament before the end of that session (“the first session”).

9. Where a Hybrid Bill falls under paragraph 8, a Hybrid Bill in the same terms may be introduced in the next session of the Parliament (“the second session”) by a member of the Scottish Government. If, when the Hybrid Bill fell, the Clerk had printed and published the Hybrid Bill at the end of Stage 2, the Hybrid Bill which is introduced under this paragraph shall be in those terms.

10. A Hybrid Bill introduced under paragraph 9 does not require to be accompanied on introduction by the accompanying documents referred to in Rule 9C.3.2 (b), (c) and (e) to (h). The accompanying documents referred to in Rule 9C.3.2 (b), (c) and (e) to (h) and any supplementary accompanying documents which accompanied the Bill in the first session shall be used for the purposes of the Hybrid Bill in the second session. Rule 9C.4 shall apply to the Hybrid Bill introduced in the second session with appropriate modifications.

11. Any objections lodged during the first session shall be treated as objections to the Hybrid Bill introduced in the second session and any decision of the Hybrid Bill Committee taken during the first session in respect of those objections under Rule 9C.10.2 shall apply. There shall be no further objection period under Rule 9C.7.2 for the Hybrid Bill introduced in the second session in addition to the objection period that began with the introduction of the Hybrid Bill in the first session.

12. The Scottish Government may only introduce a Hybrid Bill under paragraph 9 during the period commencing with the date of the first meeting of the Parliament and ending on the thirtieth day after that date.

13. Where, at the date of dissolution, the Stage that the Hybrid Bill was at had not been completed, the proceedings on the Hybrid Bill introduced in the second session shall commence at the beginning of that Stage, except in the circumstances set out in paragraph 14.

14. The proceedings may commence at a later point in the Stage if—

- (a) to the extent that the earlier proceedings at that Stage involved the consideration by the Hybrid Bill Committee established in the first session of evidence given orally, each person who had given such evidence either—
 - (i) gives that evidence orally to the Hybrid Bill Committee established in the second session (“the new Committee”); or
 - (ii) agrees that the members of the new Committee may instead view a recording or read the Official Report of the proceedings of the Committee at which that evidence was given; and
- (b) to any other extent, the persons referred to in Rule 9C.11.5 agree.

15. Where an assessor is appointed (under Rule 9C.11.3) and the Parliament is dissolved before the assessor has reported, the assessor’s report shall be considered by the Hybrid Bill Committee established in the second session.

Rule 9C.10 Stage 1

- 1. Once a Hybrid Bill has been printed and a Hybrid Bill Committee has been established under Rule 9C.6, that Committee shall take Stage 1 of the Bill.
- 2. At Stage 1, the Hybrid Bill Committee shall consider and report on the general principles of the Bill and whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall also give preliminary consideration to the objections, if any, and shall reject any objection where the objector’s interests are, in the opinion of the Committee, not clearly adversely affected by the Bill.
- 3. Where a Hybrid Bill Committee established to consider a Hybrid Bill to which objections have been lodged considers it appropriate, it may during Stage 1 direct the Parliamentary corporation, subject to the Bill proceeding to Stage 2, to appoint an assessor to perform at Stage 2 the functions set out in sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) below, or the functions set out in sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) only, namely—
 - (a) to consider the admissible objections not rejected under Rule 9C.10.2 or Rule 9C.11.2, and report with recommendations as to—
 - (i) which objections are the same or similar and so should be grouped under Rule 9C.11.6;

- (ii) which objectors should be chosen to give evidence in relation to the objections so grouped; and
- (iii) whether the invitations to give evidence (under Rule 9C.11.4) should be invitations to give evidence orally or in writing (or both);

(b) to consider the evidence given to the assessor and report with such recommendations on the basis of that evidence as the assessor considers appropriate.

(c) to undertake any tasks which the assessor is directed by the Hybrid Bill Committee to carry out under Rule 9C.11.10G.

4. In considering whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill, the Hybrid Bill Committee shall consider whether the Bill is in accordance with Rule 9C.1.1 and whether the accompanying documents lodged in accordance with Rule 9C.3.2 and the details set out therein, in the opinion of the Committee, satisfy the requirements of that Rule and are adequate to allow proper scrutiny of the Bill.

5. If the Committee decides that the accompanying documents lodged in accordance with Rule 9C.3.2 and the details set out therein do not satisfy the requirements of that Rule and are not adequate to allow proper scrutiny of the Bill, it may allow the member in charge such reasonable period as the Committee considers appropriate to provide such further documents as, in the opinion of the Committee, should be provided. Any further documents provided under this paragraph are referred to as "supplementary accompanying documents".

6. A supplementary accompanying document shall be in the same form as an accompanying document.

7. The Clerk shall arrange for any supplementary accompanying document, except any of the documents referred to in Rule 9C.3.2(g)(ii) and (iii), to be printed and published. The Clerk shall send a copy of any supplementary accompanying document published in accordance with this paragraph to the premises to which the document would have been sent under Rule 9C.4.2 if the document had been provided as an accompanying document.

8. Only members of the Parliament who are members of the Hybrid Bill Committee shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings of the Committee at Stage 1.

9. Where a Hybrid Bill contains provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation, the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall consider and report to the Hybrid Bill Committee on those provisions. The committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 may also consider and report to the Hybrid Bill Committee on any provision in such a Bill conferring other delegated powers.

10. In considering the general principles of the Bill and preparing its report on them, the Hybrid Bill Committee shall take into account any views submitted by any other committee. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall also consider and report on the Bill's Financial Memorandum and shall, in preparing its report, take into account any views submitted to it by the committee mentioned in Rule 6.6. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall also consider and report on the Bill's Policy Memorandum.

11. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall report to the Parliament in time to allow the report to be published not later than the fifth sitting day before any date allocated in a business programme for the Parliament to consider the general principles of the Bill or whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill under paragraph 12. The Parliament shall not consider the general principles of the Bill or whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill earlier than the fifth sitting day after the Committee's report is published unless it decides to do so on a motion of any member.

12. Once the Hybrid Bill Committee has reported on the Bill, the Parliament shall consider the general principles of the Bill and whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill in the light of the Committee's report and decide, on a motion of the member in charge of the Bill, whether to agree to those general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill.

13. Any member may by motion propose that the Bill be referred back to the Hybrid Bill Committee for a further report on the general principles of the Bill or any specified part of the Bill or whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill before the Parliament decides whether to agree to the general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill.

14. If the motion is agreed to, consideration of the Bill's general principles and whether the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill is adjourned to a time to be determined by the Parliamentary Bureau. The Parliamentary Bureau shall refer the Bill back to the Hybrid Bill Committee which shall prepare a further report in accordance with the Parliament's decision.

15. If the Parliament agrees to the Hybrid Bill's general principles and that the Hybrid Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill, the Bill proceeds to Stage 2. If the Parliament does not agree to the Hybrid Bill's general principles or does not agree that the Bill should proceed as a Hybrid Bill, the Bill falls.

Rule 9C.11 Stage 2

1. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall take Stage 2 of the Hybrid Bill.
2. The Hybrid Bill Committee may at Stage 2 give preliminary consideration to an objection to which Rule 9C.7.8 applies if it was not reasonably practicable to give such consideration at Stage 1.
- 2A. Paragraphs 3 to 7A apply only where there are one or more admissible objections which have not been rejected at Stage 1 or following preliminary consideration under paragraph 2.
3. Where a direction under Rule 9C.10.3 was made at Stage 1, the Parliamentary corporation shall, at Stage 2, appoint as assessor such person as it considers suitably qualified, subject to such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate.
4. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall invite those persons mentioned in paragraph 5, and may invite other persons, to give evidence; and any such invitation may be to give evidence orally or in writing (or both). Where an assessor has been appointed in accordance with paragraph 3, any such invitation shall be an invitation to give evidence to that assessor.
5. The persons referred to in paragraph 4 are—
 - (a) the member in charge;
 - (b) any objector chosen under paragraph 6 to give evidence in relation to the objections grouped under that paragraph; and
 - (c) any objector whose objection has not been grouped with another objector under paragraph 6 (except where it appears to the Hybrid Bill Committee that the objector's interests are no longer adversely affected by the Hybrid Bill).
6. Where the Hybrid Bill Committee considers (whether or not on the basis of a recommendation by an assessor) that two or more objections are the same or similar, it may group those objections together and choose one or more objectors from that group to give evidence in relation to those objections.
7. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall consider the merits of the objections in the light of—

- (a) any evidence given to it; or
- (b) any report prepared by an assessor appointed in accordance with Rule 9C.10.3.

7A. The Hybrid Bill Committee may accept or reject—

- (a) the whole or any part of any objection;
- (b) the whole or any part of an assessor's report,

and may take such other steps as the Committee thinks fit (which may include referring further matters to an assessor for consideration and report or itself taking further evidence).

8. At Stage 2, each section and schedule and the long title of the Bill shall be considered separately and the Hybrid Bill Committee shall decide whether to agree to them. The question whether a section or schedule or the long title be agreed to shall be put by the convener without the need for any member to move a motion to that effect. Sections or schedules to which no amendments are proposed and which fall to be considered consecutively may be taken and agreed to together.

9. The Hybrid Bill Committee shall decide the order in which the sections and schedules of the Bill are to be considered at Stage 2. If it does not decide, the sections shall be taken in the order in which they arise in the Hybrid Bill, with each schedule taken immediately after the section which introduces it. The long title shall be taken last.

10. A Bill may be amended at Stage 2. Notice of an amendment may be given by any member not earlier than—

- (a) where the merits of objections are considered by the Hybrid Bill Committee under paragraph 7, the completion of that consideration;
- (b) where sub-paragraph (a) does not apply, but there has been preliminary consideration of objections under paragraph 2, the completion of that preliminary consideration;
- (c) in any other case, the completion of Stage 1.

10A. There must be at least 5 sitting days between the day on which notice of an amendment may first be given under paragraph 10 and the day on which the consideration referred to in paragraphs 10B and 10C is to begin.

10B. Following the end of the period for lodging amendments under Rule 9C.14.2, the Hybrid Bill Committee shall consider whether, in its view, any of the amendments lodged adversely affect private interests.

10C. Where the Committee decides that any amendments adversely affect private interests, it shall consider whether, in its view, any of those amendments have sufficient merit that there is a possibility of their being agreed to after further scrutiny.

10D. Where the Committee decides that an amendment which adversely affects private interests does not have the merit described in paragraph 10C, that amendment may not be moved.

10E. Where the Committee decides that any amendments which adversely affect private interests have the merit described in paragraph 10C, no amendments (whether or not affecting private interests) may be moved unless the tasks listed in paragraph 10H have been completed in relation to each amendment having such merit.

10F. In the case of an amendment that has been or is to be lodged by the member in charge, the Scottish Government shall be responsible for performing the task described in paragraph 10H(a).

10G. Subject to paragraph 10F, the Committee may direct any assessor appointed under Rule 9C.11.3 to perform any or all of the tasks listed in paragraph 10H, or it may perform any or all of these tasks itself. Where any of these tasks is to be performed by the Scottish Government or an assessor, the Committee may, to the extent that it considers appropriate, specify the manner in which it is to be performed, including by specifying the persons (or classes of person) to be notified under paragraph 10H(a) and the duration of any period for lodging objections.

10H. The tasks are—

- (a) notifying the holders of private interests adversely affected by the amendment of its terms and implications and of how they may lodge an objection to it;
- (b) where admissible objections are lodged, taking evidence from objectors and from the member in charge;
- (c) where such evidence is taken, considering that evidence and reaching conclusions (or, in the case of an assessor, reporting to the Committee with recommendations).

10J. Paragraphs 3 to 6, 8 and 10 of Rule 9C.7, and paragraphs 4 to 7A of Rule 9C.11, apply to objections to amendments as they apply to objections to Hybrid Bills, subject to the modifications contained in paragraphs 10K to 10N.

10K. In Rule 9C.7.5—

- (a) sub-paragraph (c) is omitted;
- (b) in sub-paragraph (d), for “Hybrid Bill” there is substituted “amendment”.

10L. In Rule 9C.7.8—

- (a) “the objection period” means the period for lodging objections to amendments adversely affecting private interests;
- (b) before “at Stage 2” there is inserted “to consider amendments”.

10M. In Rule 9C.11.4, the final sentence is omitted.

10N. In Rule 9C.11.5(c), for “Hybrid Bill” there is substituted “amendment”.

11. At Stage 2, amendments to any section or schedule or to the long title shall be disposed of before the Hybrid Bill Committee considers whether to agree to the provision in question. Where no amendments are proposed to a section, a schedule or the long title, the Hybrid Bill Committee shall proceed immediately to decide the question whether that provision be agreed to. If an amendment to leave out a section or schedule is disagreed to, that section or schedule shall be treated as agreed to.

12. Only members of the Parliament who are members of the Hybrid Bill Committee shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings of the Hybrid Bill Committee which relate to the consideration of objections at Stage 2.

13. At the end of Stage 2, the Clerk shall, if the Bill has been amended, arrange for the Bill as amended to be printed and published.

14. If a Bill is amended at Stage 2 so as to insert a section or schedule, or substantially alter any existing provision, the member in charge shall lodge with the Clerk, not later than the fourth sitting day before the day on which Stage 3 is due to start, revised or supplementary Explanatory Notes. Revised Explanatory Notes (or supplementary Explanatory Notes, when read in conjunction with the original Explanatory Notes) shall summarise objectively what each of the provisions of the amended Bill does (to the extent that it requires explanation or comment) and give any other information necessary or expedient to explain the effect of the amended Bill.

15. If a Bill is amended at Stage 2 so as to substantially alter any of the costs set out in the Financial Memorandum that accompanied the Hybrid Bill on introduction, the member in charge shall lodge with the Clerk, not later than the end of the second week before the week on which Stage 3 is due to start, a revised or supplementary Financial Memorandum. The revised Financial Memorandum (or supplementary Financial Memorandum, when read in conjunction with the original Financial Memorandum) shall set out, in relation to the amended Hybrid Bill, the information required under either Rule 9C.3.2(f) or Rule 9C.3.2(g)(i) in relation to the Bill on introduction.

16. [deleted]

17. If the Bill has been amended at Stage 2 so as to insert or substantially alter provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation, or conferring power on the Scottish Ministers to issue any directions, guidance or code of practice —

(a) the member in charge shall lodge with the Clerk, not later than whichever is the earlier of—

- (i) the tenth sitting day after the day on which Stage 2 ends;
- (ii) the end of the second week before the week on which Stage 3 is due to start,

a revised or supplementary Delegated Powers Memorandum,

(b) the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall consider and report to the Parliament on those provisions.

17A. The Clerk shall arrange for any revised or supplementary accompanying documents to be printed and published.

18. [deleted]

Rule 9C.12 Stage 3

1. Stage 3 of a Hybrid Bill shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament.
2. At Stage 3, the Parliament shall decide, on a motion of the member in charge, whether the Hybrid Bill be passed.
3. A Hybrid Bill may be amended at Stage 3. Notice of an amendment may be given by any member after completion of Stage 2.

4. The Presiding Officer may select, as the Presiding Officer sees fit, those amendments which are to be taken at Stage 3 from amongst the admissible amendments of which notice has been given.
5. Before Stage 3 begins, the Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, agree to one or more time-limits that are to apply to debates on amendments (as they have been grouped by the Presiding Officer). If such a motion is agreed to, debates on those groups of amendments shall be concluded by the time-limits specified in the motion, except to the extent considered necessary by the Presiding Officer—
 - (a) to enable those members given a right to speak on an amendment by Rule 9C.14.15 to do so;
 - (b) as a consequence of the non-moving of an amendment leading to a change in the order in which groups are debated; or
 - (c) to prevent any debate on a group of amendments that has already begun when a time-limit is reached from being unreasonably curtailed.
6. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which amendments are to be disposed of, they shall be disposed of in the order in which the sections and schedules to which they relate arise in the Bill. Amendments to the long title shall be taken last.
7. During Stage 3 proceedings that are subject to time-limits agreed to under paragraph 5, any member may, by motion without notice, propose that the next such time-limit be extended by such amount of time as is specified in the motion. Such a motion may be taken only with the agreement of the Presiding Officer and may not be debated or amended. If the motion is disagreed to, no further motion to extend that next time-limit may be moved. If the motion is agreed to, all remaining time-limits applicable to the same Bill shall be extended by the amount of time specified in the motion. The total time available on any sitting day for proceedings on Stage 3 amendments shall not be extended by more than 30 minutes by motions under this paragraph.
8. If any motion under paragraph 7 is agreed to, the Presiding Officer may make such consequential alterations to the daily business list, including altering the time of Decision Time, as the Presiding Officer considers necessary or appropriate. Members shall be notified of any such alteration.

8A. After any amendments have been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk.

9. Except where the motion that the Bill be passed is due to be moved on a later day, the convener of the Hybrid Bill Committee or the member in charge may, immediately after the Presiding Officer has made the statement referred to in paragraph 8A, by motion without notice propose that the remaining proceedings at Stage 3 be adjourned to a later day. Such a motion may not be debated or amended. If the motion is not agreed to, the Parliament shall proceed immediately to debate the motion that the Hybrid Bill be passed.

10. If—

- (a) a motion under paragraph 9 is agreed to; or
- (b) the motion that the Bill be passed is otherwise due to be moved on a later day, the convener of the Hybrid Bill Committee or the member in charge may give notice of amendments to the Bill to be moved at the adjourned proceedings or (as the case may be) on the later day when the motion that the Bill be passed is due to be moved. Such amendments are only admissible if, in addition to the criteria in Rule 9C.14.6, they are for the purpose of clarifying uncertainties or giving effect to commitments given at the earlier proceedings at Stage 3. After any amendments have been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk.

11. At the beginning of the debate on the motion that the Hybrid Bill be passed, the convener of the Hybrid Bill Committee or the member in charge of the Hybrid Bill may by motion propose that such part of the Bill as may be specified in the motion, amounting to no more than half of the total number of sections of the Hybrid Bill, be referred back to the Hybrid Bill Committee for further Stage 2 consideration. If the motion is agreed to, the proceedings are adjourned to a time to be determined by the Parliamentary Bureau which shall refer the Hybrid Bill to the Committee in accordance with the Parliament's decision. When the Stage 3 proceedings resume the Hybrid Bill may be amended, but amendments are only admissible if they are to the provisions which were referred back to the Committee or if they are necessary in consequence of any amendment made at the further Stage 2 proceedings.

12. This Rule, apart from paragraph 11, shall apply to the resumed Stage 3 proceedings as it applies to the initial Stage 3 proceedings.

13. At Stage 3 a Bill may be referred back to the Hybrid Bill Committee for further Stage 2 consideration only once.

14. The question on the motion that the Hybrid Bill be passed must be decided by division.

15. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Hybrid Bill shall be treated as rejected.

16. Where the Presiding Officer has made a statement that in his or her view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Hybrid Bill is passed only if a super-majority is achieved and is otherwise treated as rejected.

17. If the Presiding Officer has made more than one statement as to whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, only the most recent statement is to be used in applying paragraph 16.

Rule 9C.13 Reconsideration of Hybrid Bills Passed

1. The member in charge may, after the Hybrid Bill is passed, by motion propose that the Parliament resolve that it wishes to reconsider the Hybrid Bill if—

(a) a question in relation to the Hybrid Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33;

(b) a reference for a preliminary ruling (within the meaning of section 34(3)) has been made by the Supreme Court in connection with that reference; and

(c) neither of those references has been decided or otherwise disposed of.

2. The member in charge may by motion propose that the Parliament resolve to reconsider the Hybrid Bill if—

(a) the Supreme Court decides that the Bill or any provision of it would not be within the legislative competence of the Parliament;

(b) an order is made in relation to the Hybrid Bill under section 35 (order prohibiting Presiding Officer from submitting the Hybrid Bill for Royal Assent); or

(c) the Supreme Court decides on a reference made in relation to the Hybrid Bill under section 32A(2)(b) that any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter.

3. Proceedings at Reconsideration Stage shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament.

4. A Hybrid Bill may be amended at Reconsideration Stage but amendments are only admissible if, in addition to the criteria in Rule 9C.14.6, they are for the purpose of resolving the problem which is the subject of the reference for a preliminary ruling or which is the subject of the decision of the Supreme Court referred to in paragraph 2(a) or the order under section 35. An amendment may be moved, and notice of an amendment given, only by the member in charge. Unless the Parliament has decided, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, the order in which amendments are to be disposed of, they shall be disposed of in the order in which the provisions to which they relate arise in the Bill. In the case of a Hybrid Bill referred to in paragraph 2(c) no amendment may be made at Reconsideration Stage.

5. [deleted]

6. The Presiding Officer shall state, after any amendments have been disposed of and before the debate on the motion that the Hybrid Bill be approved, whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. The Parliament shall then consider and decide by division, on a motion of the member in charge of the Hybrid Bill, the question whether to approve the Hybrid Bill. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Hybrid Bill shall be treated as rejected. Where the statement is that in the Presiding Officer's view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Hybrid Bill is not approved unless a super-majority is achieved.

9C.13A Reconsideration of Hybrid Bills Rejected

1. The member in charge of a Hybrid Bill may, after the Hybrid Bill is rejected, by motion propose that the Parliament resolve to reconsider the Hybrid Bill if, following a reference to the Supreme Court under section 32A(2)(a), the Court has decided that no provision that is subject to the reference relates to a protected subject-matter.

2. Proceedings at Reconsideration Stage shall be taken at a meeting of the Parliament. The Hybrid Bill may not be amended at Reconsideration Stage.
3. Before the debate on the motion that the Hybrid Bill be approved, the Presiding Officer shall state whether or not in his or her view any provision of the Hybrid Bill relates to a protected subject-matter within the meaning of section 31(4). This statement may be made orally or in writing, and if made in writing shall be published by the Clerk. The Parliament shall then consider and decide by division, on a motion of the member in charge of the Hybrid Bill, the question whether to approve the Hybrid Bill. The result of such a division is valid only if the number of members who voted (whether for the motion, against it, or to abstain) is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament. If the result is not valid the Hybrid Bill shall be treated as rejected.

Rule 9C.14 Amendments to Hybrid Bills

1. Amendments to a Hybrid Bill shall be in such form as the Presiding Officer shall determine.
2. Subject to paragraph 7, where a member intends to move an amendment to a Bill at Stage 2 or Reconsideration Stage, that member shall give notice of the amendment by lodging it with the Clerk no later than the day (referred to as the final lodging-day) that is the third sitting day before consideration of any amendments at that Stage is due to start. Amendments may be lodged until 16:30 on any day when the office of the Clerk is open, except on the final lodging-day, when amendments may be lodged only until 12:00.
3. Subject to paragraph 7, where a member intends to move an amendment to a Hybrid Bill at Stage 3, that member shall give notice of the amendment by lodging it with the Clerk no later than the day (referred to as the final lodging-day) that is the ninth sitting day before the Stage is due to start. Amendments may be lodged until 16:30 on any day when the office of the Clerk is open.
4. Notice of an amendment shall set out the text of the amendment, together with the name of the member proposing it. The member in charge of the Hybrid Bill (if not the member proposing the amendment) and up to 4 other members may indicate their support for an amendment

(other than a manuscript amendment) by notifying the Clerk at any time during the period when notice of that amendment may be given.

5. The convener, or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer, shall determine any dispute as to whether an amendment of which notice has been given is admissible. Notice of admissible amendments shall be published in the Business Bulletin.

6. An amendment is admissible unless—

- (a) it is not in proper form;
- (b) it is not relevant to the Hybrid Bill or the provisions of the Hybrid Bill which it would amend;
- (c) it is inconsistent with the general principles of the Hybrid Bill as agreed by the Parliament; or
- (d) it is inconsistent with a decision already taken on an amendment at the Stage at which the amendment is proposed.
- (e) [deleted]

7. An amendment of which less notice has been given than is required under paragraph 2 or 3 above is referred to as a “manuscript amendment”. A manuscript amendment may be moved only with the agreement of the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer. Such agreement shall be given only if the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer considers it is justified, in the circumstances, taking account of the disadvantages of lack of proper notice.

8. An amendment may be made to an amendment and this Rule shall apply accordingly.

9. An amendment (other than a manuscript amendment) may be withdrawn by the member who lodged it at any time during the period when notice of that amendment may be given, but only with the unanimous agreement of any members who have indicated their support for the amendment. If such agreement is not obtained, the amendment becomes an amendment in the name of the member who first indicated that member’s support for the amendment and who does not agree to the amendment being withdrawn.

10. Where, at any Stage, notice of amendments to a Hybrid Bill has been given, the Clerk shall prepare, for each week during which there are to be proceedings on the Hybrid Bill at which amendments are to be considered, a marshalled list of the admissible amendments proposed.

The list shall set out the amendments not so far disposed of in the order in which they are to be disposed of as determined by the Clerk. At Stage 2, the list shall include only those amendments which are lodged prior to the deadline for that week's proceedings, together with any manuscript amendments to provisions expected to be considered that week. The list shall exclude—

- (a) at Stage 2, amendments which may not be moved by virtue of Rule 9C.11.10D;
- (b) at Stage 3, amendments not selected by the Presiding Officer; and
- (c) at any Stage, manuscript amendments which may not be moved because agreement has been refused under paragraph 7.

The Clerk shall arrange for the marshalled list to be published.

11. An amendment to insert a new section or schedule shall normally specify where it is to be inserted and shall be disposed of accordingly.
12. An amendment to an amendment shall be disposed of before the amendment which it would amend.
13. An amendment at any Stage which would be inconsistent with a decision already taken on an amendment at the same Stage shall not be taken.
14. The convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer may group amendments for the purposes of debate as that person sees fit. The Clerk shall arrange for any groupings to be published. An amendment debated as part of a group may not be debated again when it comes to be disposed of.
15. The member moving an amendment may speak in support of it. A member intending to move any other amendment that has been grouped with the amendment moved may speak in support of that other amendment. The member in charge of the Hybrid Bill and any member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister present at the proceedings may also speak on the amendment. Other members may speak on an amendment at the discretion of the convener or, as the case may be, the Presiding Officer.
16. If a member who has given notice of an amendment does not move the amendment when that amendment comes to be disposed of, the amendment may be moved by any other member present at those proceedings.

17. An amendment may be withdrawn by the member who moved it, but only if no member present at those proceedings objects.

Rule 9C.15 Crown Consent

1. Where a Hybrid Bill contains provisions, or is amended so as to include provisions, which would, if the Bill were a Bill for an Act of the United Kingdom Parliament, require the consent of His Majesty, the Prince and Steward of Scotland or the Duke of Cornwall, the Parliament shall not debate any question whether the Bill be passed or approved unless such consent to those provisions has been signified by a member of the Scottish Government during proceedings on the Bill at a meeting of the Parliament.

Rule 9C.16 Financial Resolutions

1. A resolution under this Rule is referred to as “a Financial Resolution”.

2. The Presiding Officer shall decide in every case whether a resolution is required for a Hybrid Bill under paragraph 3, 3A, 3B, 3C or 4 of this Rule.

3. Where a Hybrid Bill contains provisions—

(a) which charge expenditure on the Scottish Consolidated Fund, or

(b) the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly expenditure charged on that Fund,

no proceedings may be taken on the Hybrid Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the expenditure or the increase in expenditure being charged on that Fund.

3A. Where a Hybrid Bill contains provisions the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly expenditure payable out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund for any purpose, no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the increase in expenditure being payable out of that Fund.

3B. Where a Hybrid Bill contains provisions—

(a) which impose (or confer a power to impose) any tax; or

(b) which increase (or confer a power to increase) any tax, the likely effect of which would be to increase significantly the revenue from that tax,

no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the imposition or increase.

3C. Where a Hybrid Bill contains provisions which reduce (or confer a power to reduce) any tax, the likely effect of which would be to reduce significantly revenue from the tax, no proceedings may be taken on the Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the reduction in revenue.

4. Where—

- (a) a Hybrid Bill contains provisions which impose or increase (or confer a power to impose or increase) any charge (other than a tax), or otherwise require (or confer a power to require) any payment to be made; and
- (b) the person to whom the charge or payment is payable is required, by or under any enactment, to pay sums received into the Scottish Consolidated Fund (or would be so required but for any provision made by or under an Act of the Scottish Parliament), no proceedings may be taken on the Hybrid Bill at any Stage after Stage 1 unless the Parliament has by resolution agreed to the charge, increase or payment.

5. Paragraph 4—

- (a) applies only where the charge, increase in charge or payment is significant; and
- (b) does not apply where the charge, increase in charge or payment—
 - (i) is in respect of the provision of goods and is reasonable in relation to the goods provided;
 - (ii) is wholly or largely directed to the recovery of the cost of providing any service for which the charge is imposed or the payment requires to be made; or
 - (iii) would otherwise result in no significant net gain or loss to the Scottish Consolidated Fund.

6. Where the effect of an amendment (or amendments) to a Hybrid Bill, if agreed to, would be that the Hybrid Bill would require a resolution under this Rule which it would not otherwise require, no proceedings may be taken on the amendment (or amendments) unless the Parliament has agreed to a motion for such a resolution.

7. Only the member in charge of the Hybrid Bill or another member of the Scottish Government or a junior Scottish Minister may give notice of a motion for a Financial Resolution. The motion may be moved only by the member in charge of the Hybrid Bill, another member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister, whether or not that person has given notice of it or indicated support for it. Such a motion may not be amended.

8. Unless—

- (a) notice of a motion for any resolution required in relation to a Hybrid Bill by paragraph 3 or 4 is given within 6 months of the completion of Stage 1; and
- (b) the motion is agreed to, the Hybrid Bill falls.

Rule 9C.17 Withdrawal of Hybrid Bills

1. A Hybrid Bill may be withdrawn at any time by the member in charge but shall not be withdrawn after completion of Stage 1 except with the agreement of the Parliament.

Subordinate Legislation Procedure

Rule 10.1 Laying of Instruments

1. Where, by virtue of any enactment, any instrument or a draft of any instrument made in the exercise of a power to make, confirm or approve subordinate legislation is required to be laid before the Scottish Parliament, the lodging of a copy of the instrument or the draft with the Clerk at any time when the office of the Clerk is open shall be treated for all purposes as being the laying of it before the Parliament.
2. The Clerk may require the person laying the instrument or draft instrument to provide such additional copies as the Clerk considers necessary.
3. Where any instrument or draft instrument is laid before the Parliament, the Clerk shall give members notice of that fact in accordance with Rule 10.9. Subject to paragraph 4, the Clerk shall refer the instrument or draft instrument for consideration to—
 - (a) the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11; and
 - (b) the lead committee or, where the Parliament, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, decides that the instrument or draft instrument is to be considered by the Parliament, the Parliament.
4. Where an instrument or draft instrument that is not subject to any of the forms of Parliamentary control mentioned in Rules 10.4.1, 10.5.1 or 10.6.1 is referred to the lead committee, the lead committee is not required to consider it (other than as required by Rule 10.3A).

Rule 10.2 Lead Committee

1. The lead committee is the committee within whose remit the subject matter of the instrument falls.
2. Where the subject matter of the instrument falls within the remit of more than one committee, the Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau designate one committee to be the lead committee. Copies of the instrument or draft instrument shall be sent to the other committees which may also consider the instrument or draft instrument and make any recommendations they consider necessary to the lead committee by a date specified in the business programme.

Rule 10.3 Subordinate Legislation Scrutiny

1. In considering the instrument or draft instrument, the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall determine whether the attention of the Parliament should be drawn to the instrument on the grounds—

- (a) that it imposes a charge on the Scottish Consolidated Fund or contains provisions requiring payments to be made to that Fund or any part of the Scottish Administration or to any local or public authority in consideration of any licence or consent or of any services to be rendered, or prescribes the amount of any such charge or payment;
- (b) that it is made in pursuance of any enactment containing specific provisions excluding it from challenge in the courts, on all or certain grounds, either at all times or after the expiration of a specific period or that it contains such provisions;
- (c) that it purports to have retrospective effect where the parent statute confers no express authority so to provide;
- (d) that there appears to have been unjustifiable delay in the publication or in the laying of it before the Parliament;
- (e) that there appears to be a doubt whether it is intra vires;
- (f) that it raises a devolution issue;
- (g) that it has been made by what appears to be an unusual or unexpected use of the powers conferred by the parent statute;
- (h) that for any special reason its form or meaning could be clearer;
- (i) that its drafting appears to be defective;
- (j) that there appears to have been a failure to lay the instrument in accordance with section 28(2), 30(2) or 31 of the 2010 Act.

or on any other ground which does not impinge on its substance or on the policy behind it.

2. Other than where an instrument or draft instrument has been referred to the Parliament, the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall report its decision with its reasons in any particular case to the Parliament and to the lead committee. It shall do so normally no later than 20 days, and in any event no later than 22 days, after the instrument or draft instrument is laid.

3. It shall do so normally no later than 20 days, and in any event no later than 22 days, after the instrument or draft instrument is laid. Where the relevant motion under Rule 10.4.4, 10.5.4 or 10.6.5 in relation to the instrument or draft instrument is to be taken on a date before the expiry of 22 days after the instrument or draft instrument is laid, the committee mentioned in Rule 6.11 shall, if practicable, report its decision with its reasons to the parliament no later than the day before the motion is to be taken.
4. Where an instrument to which Rule 10.6.1(c) applies has a stated period that is greater than 44 days, the 22 day period in paragraphs 2 and 3 is replaced with the number of days amounting to half the stated period (rounded up to the nearest whole number). The normal reporting period of 20 days does not apply to such an instrument.

Rule 10.3A Procedure on Breach of Laying Requirements

1. Where an instrument is laid in breach of the laying requirements of section 28(2), 30(2) or 31 of the 2010 Act, the lead committee, where one is designated, shall consider the explanation given to the Presiding Officer for the breach and may draw the explanation to the attention of the Parliament in any report on the instrument.

Rule 10.4 Motion for Annulment

1. In the case of any instrument which is subject to the negative procedure, or otherwise subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Parliament, any member (whether or not a member of the lead committee) may, not later than 40 days after the instrument is laid, by motion propose to the lead committee that the committee recommend that the instrument be annulled.
2. In addition to the provisions of Rule 12.2.2, that member and the member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister in charge of the instrument, if not members of the lead committee, are entitled to attend the committee and participate in the proceedings for the purpose of debating the motion but may not vote. The debate on the motion shall last no more than 90 minutes.

The member moving the motion and the member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister in charge of the instrument may each speak in any debate for up to 3 minutes or such greater time as may be allocated by the Parliamentary Bureau. In addition, the Parliamentary Bureau may allocate such further time for open debate on such a motion as it considers appropriate.

2. In addition to the provisions of Rule 12.2.2, that member and the member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister in charge of the draft instrument, if not members of the lead committee, are entitled to attend the committee and participate in the proceedings for the purpose of debating the motion but may not vote. 4. If the lead committee recommends that the instrument be not made or, as the case may be, be not submitted to His Majesty in Council, the Parliamentary Bureau shall, no later than 40 days after the draft instrument is laid, by motion propose that the instrument be not made or, as the case may be, be not submitted to His Majesty in Council. Only the member moving the motion and the member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister in charge of the draft instrument may speak in any debate on such a motion. Each such person may speak for no more than 3 minutes.

Rule 10.6 Motion for Approval

1. In the case of any instrument or draft instrument which is subject to the affirmative procedure, or otherwise subject to approval by resolution of the Parliament, including those laid before the Parliament which—

- (a) cannot be made;
- (b) cannot come into force; or
- (c) cannot remain in force beyond a stated period, unless the Parliament by resolution approves the instrument or draft, the lead committee shall decide whether to recommend that the instrument or draft instrument be approved.

2. Any member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister (whether or not a member of the lead committee) may by motion propose to the lead committee that the committee recommend that the instrument or draft instrument be approved.

5. If the lead committee recommends that the instrument or draft instrument be approved, the Parliamentary Bureau shall by motion propose that the Parliament agrees to approve the instrument or draft instrument. Only the member moving the motion, the member of the Scottish Government or junior Scottish Minister in charge of the instrument or draft instrument (if that person is not the member moving the motion) and one speaker against the motion may speak in any debate on the motion. Each such person may speak for no more than 3 minutes.

Rule 10.7 Instruments Considered by the Parliament

- (b) “EU legislative proposal” is a proposal for the adoption of a legislative act to which the Subsidiarity Protocol applies;
- (c) “principle of subsidiarity” refers to the principle that the European Union shall act only if and insofar as the objectives of the proposed action cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States, either at central level or at regional and local level, but can rather, by reason of the scale or effects of the proposed action, be better achieved at European Union level; and
- (d) “Subsidiarity Protocol” means the Protocol (No. 2) on the Application of the Principles of Subsidiarity and Proportionality annexed to the Treaty on European Union and to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

Rule 10A.2 Referral to Lead Committee

- 1. Where the UK Government, the UK Parliament or the Scottish Government brings to the attention of the Parliament any EU legislative proposal (or part of such proposal) as raising a concern in relation to compliance with the principle of subsidiarity, the proposal may be considered by the committee within whose remit the subject matter of the proposal falls (“the lead committee”).

2. Where the lead committee so considers that an EU legislative proposal does not comply with the principle of subsidiarity, the Convener of that committee shall by motion propose that the Parliament agrees that the EU legislative proposal does not comply with the principle of subsidiarity. The Parliamentary Bureau shall allocate such time for debate on the motion as it considers appropriate.
3. Where an EU legislative proposal is referred to a lead committee in terms of Rule 10A.2, and the lead committee decides having regard to the end date that there is an insufficient period remaining for report by the committee and a debate on a motion in terms of paragraph 2, the Presiding Officer shall notify the UK Parliament of any concerns of the lead committee that the proposal does not comply with the principle of subsidiarity.
4. Where an EU legislative proposal is referred to a lead committee in terms of Rule 10A.2 while the Parliament is in recess for more than 4 days, the Presiding Officer may notify the UK Parliament of any concerns indicated by the Convener on behalf of the lead committee that the proposal does not comply with the principle of subsidiarity

1. All decisions of the Parliament shall be taken by resolution.
2. A matter requiring a decision of the Parliament shall be decided by a question being put to a meeting of the Parliament by the Presiding Officer on a motion or amendment being moved by a member. The question shall be that the motion or amendment be agreed to.
3. Where any question requires to be put to the Parliament, it shall be put in accordance with Rules 11.2 to 11.4.

Rule 11.2 Decision Time

2. Decision Time is the period which normally begins at 17:00 where a meeting of the Parliament is held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday and at 12:00 where a meeting of the Parliament is held on Friday and which ends when every decision which is to be taken during Decision Time has been taken.
3. Normally, Decision Time shall end not later than 30 minutes after it begins but, in accordance with Rule 2.2.6(a), it may continue in order to complete any voting which is not adjourned to a later meeting under paragraph 5.
4. The Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, decide that Decision Time on a particular day or days shall begin at a time other than that mentioned in paragraph 2.
5. The Parliament may, on a motion of any member moved without notice not more than 30 minutes after the beginning of Decision Time, decide that decisions which have not been taken by the time the motion is moved are to be taken at a later meeting of the Parliament. Members shall be notified of the day and time when such decisions are to be taken.
6. Where—
 - (a) a motion is listed on the daily business list for consideration before Decision Time; but

(b) that motion has not been moved before Decision Time begins, the Presiding Officer may allow the motion, and any amendment to it, to be moved at the beginning of Decision Time.

Rule 11.3 Decisions at Times Other Than Decision Time

1. In the following cases the Presiding Officer shall, subject to paragraph 3, put the question immediately after closing the debate on the motion in relation to that question or, if there is no debate on the motion, immediately after the motion is moved—

3. Decisions may, at the discretion of the Presiding Officer, be taken at a time other than Decision Time or the times mentioned in paragraphs 1 and 2. Members shall be notified of any such time.

Rule 11.4 Order in Which Questions are Put

1. At Decision Time or any alternative time mentioned in Rule 11.3, questions on motions shall be put in the order in which the motions were moved.
2. Questions on amendments to a motion shall be put in the order in which those amendments were moved. The Presiding Officer shall, before putting the question under paragraph 1, put, in turn, each question that an amendment to the motion be agreed to. But the Presiding Officer shall not put the question on an amendment that has, in the Presiding Officer's opinion, been pre-empted by the Parliament's earlier agreement to another amendment to the same motion.
3. If any member disagrees with the question put under paragraph 1 or 2 or Rule 11.3.2, or if the Presiding Officer asks members to cast their votes again under Rule 11.7.3, there shall immediately be a division.
4. The provisions of this Rule shall apply to amendments to amendments with such modifications as are appropriate.

Rule 11.5 Right to Vote

1. Only members have a right to vote at a meeting of the Parliament. A member is not obliged to vote.
2. A member may vote in person or, where the criteria in Rule 11.5A are met, may arrange for their vote to be cast by another member acting as their proxy (a “proxy vote”).
3. A member may vote although that member did not hear the question put.
4. A member shall vote only once on any question except where the Presiding Officer asks members to cast their votes again under Rule 11.7.3.
5. Except in the case of a vote at an election or a selection process under Rule 11.9 or 11.10 the Presiding Officer shall exercise a casting vote in the event of a tie in any vote at a meeting of the Parliament, but shall not otherwise vote in the Parliament.

Rule 11.5A Proxy Voting

1. A member may arrange for their vote to be cast by a proxy where—
 - (a) the Presiding Officer has issued to members and made public a scheme setting out details including how such a proxy vote may be exercised, the designation process, how a proxy may be varied and withdrawn;
 - (b) the member is eligible under sub-paragraph 2; and
 - (c) the members concerned (which means both the member and the proxy) have complied with the terms of that scheme.
2. A member is eligible to vote by proxy for any of the following reasons—
 - (a) maternity leave, paternity leave, parental leave, adoption leave, or shared parental leave;
 - (b) complications arising from pregnancy;
 - (c) serious long-term illness or injury;
 - (d) bereavement; or
 - (e) attending to a person who is near the end of their life.
3. Except in the case of a vote at an election process under Rule 11.9, this Rule applies to any voting at a meeting of the Parliament or of a Committee of the Whole Parliament.

4. A proxy may vote for a maximum of 2 members.
5. A proxy vote has the same status as a vote cast by a member in person.
6. A proxy vote must be clearly indicated as such in the minutes of the meeting of the Parliament or of the Committee of the Whole Parliament.

Rule 11.6 Divisions

1. A division shall be held where it is required by Rule 9.8.9, 9.9.5, 9.9A.3, 9A.10.8, 9A.11.5, 9A.11ZA.3, 9C.12.14, 9C.13.6, 9C.13A.3, 11.4.3 or 11.8.2 and shall be conducted in accordance with the following provisions.
2. The Presiding Officer shall repeat the question. The Presiding Officer shall then ask members to vote within a specified period of time.
3. Once the Presiding Officer has repeated the question, no-one except the Presiding Officer may speak until the Presiding Officer has declared that the specified period of time has ended.
4. Points of order concerning the validity of the division may be raised only after the Presiding Officer has declared that the specified period of time has ended.
5. The Presiding Officer shall establish the numerical result of the division and shall announce the numbers of votes for and against and the number of votes to abstain.
6. In the event of a tie, the Presiding Officer shall exercise a casting vote.

Rule 11.7 Manner of Voting

1. Normally members shall vote at a meeting of the Parliament or of a Committee of the Whole Parliament using an electronic voting system.
2. If it appears to the Presiding Officer that the electronic voting system cannot be used for any reason, a roll call vote, or a vote in accordance with such other manner of voting as the Presiding Officer may decide, shall be held.
3. If it appears to the Presiding Officer that the electronic voting system has produced an unreliable result, he shall ask members to cast their votes again in accordance with any manner of voting the Presiding Officer considers appropriate.

4. In a roll call vote, the roll shall be called in alphabetical order. Voting shall be by word of mouth and shall be expressed by “Yes”, “No” or “Abstain”.

Rule 11.8 Committees

1. Subject to paragraph 2, the convener of a committee or sub-committee shall determine the time at which members shall take a decision on any item of business.

2. If an amendment to a Bill is moved, the convener shall (subject to Rule 9.12.6(b)) put the question on that amendment immediately after any debate on that amendment or, if the amendment has already been debated, immediately after the amendment is moved. If any member disagrees with the question put under this paragraph, there shall immediately be a division.

3. Except as provided in any direction given to a committee by the Parliament, members of a committee (other than a Committee of the Whole Parliament) or subcommittee shall vote either by show of hands, or by means of a roll call vote as described in Rule 11.7.4, or by an electronic voting system. The convener shall determine at the start of each meeting which of those methods of voting the convener considers it appropriate, in all the circumstances of the meeting, to use for that meeting.

4. Rule 11.5 applies where members vote in a committee or sub-committee except that—

(a) only members of the committee or sub-committee may vote in that committee or sub-committee, as the case may be; and

(b) the convener of a committee or sub-committee may vote and shall also exercise a casting vote in the event of a tie.

5. Rules 11.4, 11.6 and 11.11 shall apply to the taking of decisions at meetings of committees and sub-committees as they apply to the taking of decisions at meetings of the Parliament, with such modifications as are appropriate.

Rule 11.9 Election of the Presiding Officer and Deputy Presiding Officers

1. This Rule applies to any election of the Presiding Officer or any deputy Presiding Officer to be held by virtue of Rule 3.2 or 3.3.
2. The vote at an election shall be by secret ballot and shall be held during the voting period appointed under Rule 3.2 or 3.3. Where there is more than one candidate, there may be more than one round of voting in accordance with paragraphs 7 to 12.
3. The result of any vote under this Rule is valid only if the number of members who voted is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members. For this purpose, in calculating the number of members who voted—
 - (a) account shall be taken not only of those voting for or against a candidate, but also of those voting to abstain; and
 - (b) where there is more than one round of voting the result of each round of voting shall be treated as a separate result and the number of members who voted shall be taken to be the total number who voted in that round.

If the result of any vote at an election is invalid under this Rule, no candidate shall be elected at that election.

4. Each candidate may appoint a member to act as a scrutineer on that candidate's behalf. Each scrutineer may monitor the counting of votes by the Clerk and may request the Clerk to perform a count again. The Clerk may refuse such a request only if the Clerk considers it unreasonable.
5. Any member may, at the beginning of a round of voting, obtain a ballot paper from the Clerk. Any member who obtains a ballot paper shall immediately mark that member's vote on that ballot paper and then put the ballot paper in the ballot box provided for that purpose by the Clerk. That member may not thereafter obtain another ballot paper or vote during that round of voting.
6. Where there is only one candidate in a round of voting, a member may vote for or against that candidate or to abstain. At the completion of that round of voting the Clerk shall count the votes and inform the person chairing the meeting of the number of votes for the candidate, the number of votes against the candidate and the number of votes to abstain. The candidate shall be elected if a simple majority of votes in the candidate's favour is obtained.
7. Where there is more than one candidate in a round of voting, a member may vote for one of those candidates or to abstain. At the completion of each round of voting in which there is more than one candidate, the Clerk shall count the votes and inform the person chairing the meeting of the number of votes for each candidate and the number of votes to abstain.

8. Where there are 2 candidates in a round of voting, a candidate shall be elected if a simple majority of votes in that candidate's favour is obtained.

9. Where there are more than 2 candidates in a round of voting and the number of votes for one candidate exceeds the total number of votes for all the other candidates, that candidate shall be elected.

10. Where there are more than 2 candidates in a round of voting but no candidate is elected under paragraph 9, the candidate or candidates with the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and there shall then be a further round or rounds of voting until—

- (a) a candidate is elected in accordance with paragraph 6, 8 or 9;
- (b) paragraph 11 applies; or
- (c) the result of any vote is invalid under this Rule.

11. Where in any round of voting the candidates all receive the same number of votes no candidate shall be elected at that election.

12. A candidate may withdraw that candidate's candidature at any stage between the rounds of voting mentioned in paragraphs 7 to 10.

13. In counting the votes, the Clerk may disregard any ballot paper if, in the Clerk's opinion, it does not clearly indicate the voter's choice.

14. When a candidate has been elected in accordance with this Rule the person chairing the meeting shall announce the name of the candidate who has been elected. The person chairing the meeting shall also announce—

- (a) after the count in a case where the provisions of paragraph 6 apply, the number of votes for and against the candidate and the number of votes to abstain; and
- (b) after the count in any other case, the number of votes for each candidate, the number of votes to abstain and the name of any candidate who has been eliminated at that round.

15. Where no candidate is elected at an election held in accordance with this Rule, the person chairing the meeting shall announce that fact and arrange for another election to be held as soon as possible. The Clerk shall notify members of the day and time appointed for the voting period at that election.

16. Following a declaration that a candidate has been elected or that no candidate has been elected, the Clerk shall destroy all the ballot papers.

Rule 11.10 Selection of the First Minister

1. This Rule applies to the selection of a nominee for appointment as First Minister to be held by virtue of Rule 4.1 (“the selection process”). Where this Rule applies, the procedure for the selection process shall be as follows.

2. Voting under this Rule shall be held using the electronic voting system and shall be held during the voting period appointed under Rule 4.1. If it appears to the Presiding Officer that the electronic voting system cannot be used for any reason or that it has produced an unreliable result, the Presiding Officer shall ask members to cast their votes again in a paper ballot of members, a roll call vote, or in accordance with any manner of voting the Presiding Officer considers appropriate. Where there is more than one candidate, there may be more than one round of voting in accordance with paragraphs 6 to 11.

3. A member may vote only once in a round of voting except where the Presiding Officer asks members to cast their votes again under paragraph 2.

4. The result of any vote under this Rule is valid only if the number of members who voted is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members. For this purpose, in calculating the number of members who voted—

(a) account shall be taken not only of those voting for or against a candidate, but also of those voting to abstain; and

(b) where there is more than one round of voting, the result of each round of voting shall be treated as a separate result and the number of members who voted shall be taken to be the total number who voted in that round.

If the result of any vote at a selection process is invalid under this Rule, no candidate shall be selected at that selection process.

5. Where there is only one candidate in a round of voting, a member may vote for or against that candidate or to abstain. At the completion of that round of voting, the Presiding Officer shall establish the number of votes for the candidate, the number of votes against the candidate and the number of votes to abstain. The candidate shall be selected if a simple majority of votes in the candidate's favour is obtained.

6. Where there is more than one candidate in a round of voting, a member may vote in accordance with the following procedure—

- (a) the Presiding Officer shall read out the names of all the candidates;
- (b) the Presiding Officer shall then read out the name of each candidate in turn, in alphabetical order;
- (c) after each name is read out, those members who wish to vote for that candidate shall cast their votes;
- (d) when the votes for the last candidate have been cast, members shall be given an opportunity to vote to abstain.

At the completion of each round of voting in which there is more than one candidate, the Presiding Officer shall establish the number of votes for each candidate and the number of votes to abstain.

7. Where there are 2 candidates in a round of voting, a candidate shall be selected if a simple majority of votes in that candidate's favour is obtained.

8. Where there are more than 2 candidates in a round of voting and the number of votes for one candidate exceeds the total number of votes for all the other candidates, that candidate shall be selected.

9. Where there are more than 2 candidates in any round of voting but no candidate is selected under paragraph 8, the candidate or candidates with the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and there shall then be a further round or rounds of voting until—

- (a) a candidate is selected in accordance with paragraph 5, 7 or 8;
- (b) paragraph 10 applies; or
- (c) the result of any vote is invalid under this Rule.

10. Where in any round of voting the candidates all receive the same number of votes no candidate shall be selected at that selection process.

11. A candidate may withdraw his or her candidature at any stage between the rounds of voting mentioned in paragraphs 6 to 10.
12. When a candidate has been selected in accordance with this Rule the person chairing the meeting shall announce the name of the candidate who has been selected. The person chairing the meeting shall also announce—
 - (a) in a case where the provisions of paragraph 5 apply, the number of votes for and against the candidate and the number of votes to abstain; and
 - (b) in any other case, the number of votes for each candidate and the name of any candidate who has been eliminated at that round.
13. Where no candidate is selected at a selection process held in accordance with this Rule, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact and arrange for another selection process to be held as soon as possible. The Clerk shall notify members of the day and time appointed for the voting period at that selection process.

Rule 11.10A Election of Members of the Parliamentary Corporation

1. This Rule applies to the election of members of the Parliamentary corporation to be held by virtue of Rule 3.7. Where this Rule applies, the procedure for the election process shall be as follows.
2. Voting under this Rule shall be held using the electronic voting system and shall be held on the date and time appointed under Rule 3.7. If it appears to the Presiding Officer that the electronic voting system cannot be used for any reason or that it has produced an unreliable result, the Presiding Officer shall ask members to cast their votes again in a paper ballot of members, a roll call vote, or in accordance with any manner of voting the Presiding Officer considers appropriate.
3. A member may vote only once in each round of voting except where the Presiding Officer asks members to cast their votes again under paragraph 2.
4. The result of any vote under this Rule is valid only if the number of members who voted is more than one quarter of the total number of seats for members. For this purpose, in calculating the number of members who voted—
 - (a) account shall be taken not only of those voting for or against a candidate, but also of those voting to abstain; and

(b) where there is more than one round of voting the result of each round of voting shall be treated as a separate result and the number of members who voted shall be taken to be the total number who voted in that round.

If the result of any vote at an election is invalid under this Rule, no candidate shall be elected at that election.

5. Where the number of candidates for election is greater than the number of vacancies, the procedure and voting shall be in accordance with paragraphs 7 to 12.

6. In any other case, the procedure and voting shall be in accordance with paragraphs 13 to 16.

7. Where paragraph 5 applies, a member may vote in accordance with the following procedure—

(a) the Presiding Officer shall read out the names of all the candidates;

(b) the Presiding Officer shall then read out the name of each candidate in turn, in alphabetical order;

(c) after each name is read out, those members who wish to vote for that candidate shall cast their votes;

(d) when the votes for the last candidate have been cast, members shall be given an opportunity to abstain.

At the completion of each round of voting the Presiding Officer shall establish the number of votes for each candidate and the number of votes to abstain.

8. Where there are 2 candidates in a round of voting a candidate shall be elected if a simple majority of votes in that candidate's favour is obtained.

9. Where there are more than 2 candidates in any round of voting and the number of votes for one candidate exceeds the total number of votes for all the other candidates, that candidate shall be elected.

10. Where there are more than 2 candidates in any round of voting, but no candidate is elected under paragraph 9, the candidate with the lowest number of votes shall be eliminated.

11. Where in any round of voting the candidates all receive the same number of votes, or the result of the vote is invalid under this Rule, no candidate shall be elected or eliminated at that round.
12. There shall then be a further round or rounds of voting in accordance with paragraphs 7 to 11 until either—
 - (a) a candidate has been elected to each of the vacancies; or
 - (b) the number of candidates remaining is equal to the number of vacancies remaining, in which case the procedure and voting shall continue in accordance with paragraphs 13 to 16.
13. Where paragraph 6 or 12(b) applies, the Presiding Officer shall invite members to agree that there be a single vote to elect all the candidates. If any member disagrees, further procedure and voting shall be in accordance with paragraphs 14 to 16. If all members are in agreement that there should be a single vote, the Presiding Officer shall read out the names of the candidates. After all the names are read out, a member may vote for or against the candidates or to abstain. The candidates shall be elected if there is a simple majority of votes in favour of their election. The candidates shall be eliminated from the election if there is not a simple majority of votes in favour of their election.
14. Where by virtue of paragraph 13 further procedure and voting is required, a member may vote in accordance with the following procedure—
 - (a) the Presiding Officer shall read out the name of the candidate whose name is alphabetically first; and
 - (b) after the name is read out, a member may vote for or against that candidate or to abstain.
15. The candidate shall be elected if a simple majority of votes in that candidate's favour is obtained. The candidate shall be eliminated from the election if a simple majority of votes in that candidate's favour is not obtained.
16. The procedure in paragraph 14 shall be repeated for each of the remaining candidates in turn until each of them has either been elected or eliminated.

17. A candidate may withdraw that candidate's candidature at any stage between the rounds of voting or votes as mentioned in paragraphs 7 to 16.

18. At the end of every round of voting or vote, the Presiding Officer shall announce—

(a) in a case where paragraphs 7 to 12 apply—

(i) the number of votes for each candidate in that round;

(ii) the number of votes to abstain; and

(iii) the name of any candidate who has been elected or eliminated in that round;

(b) in a case where paragraphs 13 to 16 apply—

(i) the number of votes for and against the candidates and the number of votes to abstain; and

(ii) whether the candidates have been elected or eliminated.

19. Where the total number of vacancies are not filled during an election held in accordance with this Rule, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact and the Parliament shall hold a further election under Rule 3.7.

20. In this Rule any reference to a vacancy shall include a reference to an appointed member to be elected in accordance with Rule 3.7.1.

Rule 11.11 Simple Majority, Absolute Majority and Super-Majority

1. Any decision of the Parliament shall, if taken by division, require a simple majority unless otherwise expressly stated in any enactment or in these Rules.

3. An absolute majority means that the number of members voting for a proposition is more than half of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament or, in the case of a committee or sub-committee, more than half of the number of members of that committee or sub-committee.

4. A super-majority means that the number of members voting for a proposition is at least two-thirds of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament.

Chapter 12

Committee Procedures

Rule 12.1 Conveners of Committees

1. Each committee shall have a convener who shall convene and chair the meetings of the committee.
2. The Parliament shall decide, for each committee, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau—
 - (a) the political party whose members shall be eligible to be convener of the committee; or
 - (b) that the convener shall be chosen from the members not representing any political party.
3. The Parliament may, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, decide that all committees shall have a deputy convener.
4. If the Parliament decides that all committees shall have a deputy convener, the Parliament shall decide, for each committee, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau—
 - (a) the political party whose members shall be eligible to be deputy convener of the committee; or
 - (b) that the deputy convener shall be chosen from the members not representing any political party.
5. In making a proposal under paragraph 2 or 4, the Parliamentary Bureau shall have regard to the balance of political parties in the Parliament.
6. At the first meeting of a committee after it is established by the Parliament, members of the committee shall choose a convener. That meeting shall be chaired by the Oldest Committee Member until a convener is chosen. Once a convener is chosen, the convener shall take the chair.
7. The convener of a committee shall be a member of that committee (other than a committee substitute) who shall be chosen in accordance with the decision of the Parliament under paragraph 2.
8. The convener of a committee shall hold office for the duration of the committee unless—

- (a) the convener resigns from that office by intimating resignation to the Clerk;
- (b) the convener is removed from that office by a decision taken by an absolute majority of the committee on a motion under paragraph 8A; or
- (c) the convener ceases to be a member of the Parliament or of that committee otherwise than by virtue of a dissolution.

8A. A member of a committee may by motion propose that the convener of the committee be removed from office.

8B. Where notice of such a motion has been given and it has received the support of at least one other member of the committee, it shall be placed on the agenda for, and taken at, the first meeting of the committee that is at least 2 days after the day on which it received the necessary support (excluding any days when the office of the Clerk is not open).

9. Where the convener of a committee ceases to hold office, the committee shall choose another member of the committee (other than a committee substitute) to be the convener in accordance with the decision of the Parliament under paragraph 2. If it is not possible for the committee to choose a convener in accordance with that decision, the Parliament shall, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, make a further decision under paragraph 2 in relation to the committee, and the choice of a convener in accordance with paragraph 7 shall proceed accordingly.

10. Where, in accordance with a decision of the Parliament under paragraph 3, a committee is to have a deputy convener, that person shall be a member of that committee (other than a committee substitute) who is chosen by the members of that committee in accordance with the decision of the Parliament under paragraph 4. Paragraphs 8, 8A, 8B and 9 shall apply to the deputy convener of a committee as they apply to the convener of a committee with such modifications as are appropriate. Where a deputy convener carries out the functions of a convener that deputy shall have all the functions of a convener under these Rules for that purpose.

11. Where a committee does not have a deputy convener, or where the deputy convener is not available for any meeting of the committee, or leaves the chair for part of any meeting, or is at any time other than at a meeting of a committee unable to act as deputy convener, the functions of deputy convener shall, so far as required by this Rule, be carried out by a Temporary Convener chosen under paragraph 15. When a Temporary Convener carries out the functions of a deputy convener the Temporary Convener shall have all the functions of a convener under these Rules for that purpose.

12. Where the convener is not available for any meeting of the committee, or leaves the chair for part of any meeting, that meeting, or that part of the meeting, shall be chaired by the deputy convener. Where at any time other than during a meeting of a committee a convener is unable to act as convener, the deputy convener shall carry out the functions of the convener.

14. When the deputy convener or the Oldest Committee Member chairs a meeting or part of a meeting of a committee, that person shall have all the functions of a convener under these Rules for the purposes of conducting the business of that meeting or that part of a meeting.

15. Any reference to a Temporary Convener is to a member of a committee (other than a committee substitute) chosen under this paragraph. Where a committee does not have a deputy convener or in the other circumstances detailed in paragraph 11, a Temporary Convener shall be chosen by a committee at a meeting of the committee—

(a) where the convener is not available for any meeting or leaves the chair for part of any meeting; or

(b) where at any time other than at a meeting of a committee a convener is unable to act as convener and the oldest member of the committee (other than a committee substitute) considers it necessary that a Temporary Convener be appointed.

16. For the purpose of choosing a Temporary Convener under—

(a) paragraph 15(a), the meeting shall be chaired by the convener or Oldest Committee Member; or

(b) paragraph 15(b), the meeting shall be convened by the oldest member of the committee (other than a committee substitute) and shall be chaired by the Oldest Committee Member.

17. When a Temporary Convener is chosen by a committee, the Temporary Convener shall take the chair and shall exercise all functions of the convener of that committee until the convener or, where the committee has a deputy convener, the deputy convener is again able to act.

18. When the oldest member of a committee convenes a meeting of a committee, that member shall have all the functions of a convener under these Rules for that purpose.

19. Any reference to the Oldest Committee Member means the oldest member of the committee other than a committee substitute—

- (a) who is present at any meeting; and
- (b) who has indicated to the Clerk that that member agrees to chair the meeting.

20. This Rule is subject to any other Rule making express provision about conveners of committees.

5. When choosing an acting convener the committee shall do so in accordance with the decision of the Parliament under Rule 12.1.2 in relation to the choice of convener. If it is not possible for the committee to choose an acting convener in accordance with that decision, the Parliament shall, on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau, make a further decision under Rule 12.1.2 in relation to the committee, and the choice of an acting convener in accordance with paragraph 4 shall proceed accordingly.

6. The period of time specified in the motion under paragraph 2–

- (a) shall, as far as possible, correspond to the period of time for which the convener is likely to be absent; and
- (b) may subsequently be varied by Parliament on a motion of the Parliamentary Bureau.
