

Social Justice and Social Security Committee
Thursday 29 January 2026
4th Meeting, 2026 (Session 6)

Note by the Clerk on the Scottish Secure Tenancies (Proceedings for Possession) (Form of Notice) Amendment Regulations 2025 (SSI 2025/404)

Overview

1. At this meeting, the Committee will consider the following Scottish Statutory Instrument (SSI), which is subject to annulment by resolution of the Parliament until 11 February 2026. The Committee is invited to consider the instrument and decide what, if any, recommendations to make.
2. More information about the instrument is summarised below:

Title of instrument: [The Scottish Secure Tenancies \(Proceedings for Possession\)
\(Form of Notice\) Amendment Regulations 2025](#)

Laid under: Housing (Scotland) Act 2001

Laid on: 18 December 2025

Procedure: Negative

Deadline for committee consideration: 9 February 2026

Deadline for Chamber consideration: 11 February 2026

Commencement: 1 August 2026

Procedure

3. Under the negative procedure, an instrument is laid after it is made, and is subject to annulment by resolution of the Parliament for a period of 40 days beginning on the day it is laid.
4. Once laid, the instrument is referred to:
 - the Delegated Powers and Law Reform (DPLR) Committee, for scrutiny on various technical grounds, and
 - a lead committee, whose remit includes the subject-matter of the instrument, for scrutiny on policy grounds.

5. Any MSP may propose, by motion, that the lead committee recommend annulment of the instrument. If such a motion is lodged, it must be debated at a meeting of the Committee, and the Committee must then report to the Parliament (by the advisory deadline referred to above).
6. If there is no motion recommending annulment, the lead committee is not required to report on the instrument.

Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee consideration

7. The DPLR Committee considered the instrument on 13 January 2026 and reported on it in its 6th Report, 2026. The Committee made no recommendations in relation to the instrument.

Purpose of the instrument

8. These Regulations add a new notice of proceedings form to the Scottish Secure Tenancies (Proceedings for Possession) (Form of Notice) Regulations 2012 which is to be used where the landlord is seeking to recover possession or terminate a joint tenant's interest in a tenancy on domestic abuse grounds.
9. Part 2 of the Domestic Abuse (Protection) (Scotland) Act 2021 seeks to improve housing outcomes for domestic abuse victims in social housing by helping them remain in the family home and avoid homelessness. Section 22 of the 2021 Act creates a new possession ground in the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001. These Regulations amend the Scottish Secure Tenancies (Proceedings for Possession) (Form of Notice) Regulations 2012 to introduce a prescribed notice form for proceedings under this new ground, enabling the provision to be brought into force.
10. The Policy Note accompanying the instrument is included in Annex A. No formal consultation was required to be carried out in relation to these Regulations.

Committee consideration

11. So far, no motion recommending annulment has been lodged.
12. The Cabinet Secretary for Housing is attending the meeting to give evidence on this instrument.
13. Members are invited to consider the instrument and decide whether there are any points they wish to raise. If there are, options include:
 - seeking further information from the Scottish Government (and/or other stakeholders) through correspondence, and/or
 - inviting the Minister (and/or other stakeholders) to attend the next meeting to give evidence on the instrument.

It would then be for the Committee, at the next meeting, to consider the additional information gathered and decide whether to make recommendations in relation to the instrument.

14. If members have no points to raise, the Committee should note the instrument (that is, agree that it has no recommendations to make).
15. However, should a motion recommending annulment be lodged later in the 40-day period, it may be necessary for the Committee to consider the instrument again.

POLICY NOTE

THE SCOTTISH SECURE TENANCIES (PROCEEDINGS FOR POSSESSION) (FORM OF NOTICE) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS 2025

SSI 2025/404

The Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by section 14(4) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001⁽¹⁾ and all other powers enabling them to do so. The instrument is subject to negative procedure.

Summary Box

These Regulations add a new notice of proceedings form to the Scottish Secure Tenancies (Proceedings for Possession) (Form of Notice) Regulations 2012 ("the 2012 Regulations") which is to be used where the landlord is seeking to recover possession or terminate a joint tenant's interest in a tenancy on domestic abuse grounds.

Policy Objectives

The overarching policy objectives of Part 2 of the Domestic Abuse (Protection) (Scotland) Act 2021 are to improve the immediate and longer term housing outcomes of domestic abuse victims living in social housing who wish to continue living in the family home, including through helping to avoid homelessness.

Section 22 of the 2021 Act amends sections 14 and 16 and schedule 2 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001. Section 22(4) inserts paragraph 15A into schedule 2 of the 2001 Act, creating a new ground on which the landlord under a Scottish secure tenancy may raise court proceedings under section 14 of the 2001 Act. These Regulations amend the Scottish Secure Tenancies (Proceedings for Possession) (Form of Notice) Regulations 2012 to provide that the prescribed form of notice where proceedings are to be raised on the new ground in paragraph 15A of schedule 2 of the 2001 Act is contained in the new schedule 3 of the 2012 Regulations (as inserted by these Regulations). These Regulations are therefore necessary to support paragraph 15A of schedule 2 of the 2001 Act being brought into force.

UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (Incorporation) (Scotland) Act 2024 Compatibility

In accordance with section 23(2) of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (Incorporation) (Scotland) Act 2024, the Scottish Ministers certify that, in their view, the Scottish Secure Tenancies (Proceedings for Possession) (Form of Notice) Amendment Regulations 2025 are compatible with the UNCRC requirements as defined by section 1(2) of the Act.

EU Alignment Consideration

This instrument is not relevant to the Scottish Government's policy to maintain alignment with the EU.

Consultation

Key stakeholders including the Chartered Institute of Housing, Scotland, the Society of Local Authority Lawyers and Administrators, Scottish Women's Aid and a small number of social landlords were consulted in the development of these regulations. Changes were made to the proposed SSI to take account of suggestions made by the Society of Local Authority Lawyers and Administrators. This included the development of separate prescribed form of notice where proceedings are to be raised on the new ground in paragraph 15A of schedule 2 of the 2001 Act.

Impact Assessments

A range of impact assessments were carried out for the Domestic Abuse (Protection) (Scotland) Bill 2020 including an Equality Impact Assessment and a Child Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment. The impacts as set out in these assessments remain relevant and we are not publishing updated assessments, other than for Child Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment at this time.

Financial Effects

The Cabinet Secretary for Housing confirms that no BRIA is necessary as the instrument has no financial effects on the Scottish Government, local government or on business.
